Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.
"It's Fair's way."
Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

And see you get what we advertise.
LADIES' BLOUSES—All our $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Blouses we let you have your choice for a one dollar bill.
LADIES' CLOAKS AND RUBBER COSSAMERS—to keep the rain out and protect your dresses—in some instances at HALF the original prices. For instance, Cloaks that were $6 to $8 now going at $2.75 to $3.50.
LADIES' COLOURED CLOTH CAPES—specially reduced to suit all cases—you may take them prices.
JACKETS—Latest styles, large sleeves—cost of material. MANTLES—Profits pushed aside—it's a clear sweep—It's Fair's way.
LADIES' SILK PARASOLS 75c., $1, $1.50. If you want an aristocratic Umbrella, with fashionable handles and sensible covering, you know where to look for it. UMBRELLAS RE-COVERED WHILE YOU WAIT. The prices tell, and everyone tells the prices.

CARPET ROOM SPECIALS.

Best Tapestry Carpets, 75c., were 95c. Best Five-Frame Brussels, $1.05, were $1.38. Best Wool Carpets at Toronto prices—all the style you want—all the wear you want. It's what you get for your money, not what you pay in apparent price. "It's Fair's way."

DROWNED HER CHILD

Mrs. Jepson, of London, Threw Her Baby in a Cistern.

THE WOMAN'S MIND DERANGED

The Sad Deed Was Committed in a Fit of Temporary Insanity—She Makes Unsuccessful Attempts on the Life of Another Child.

LONDON, Ont., June 13.—The wife of Samuel M. Jepson, bookkeeper at Fitzgerald & Scandretts, while in a fit of despondency, yesterday drowned her youngest child, and tried to drown another. The circumstances are of a very sad nature, and much sympathy will be extended to the afflicted family.

Ever since the birth of the youngest child Mrs. Jepson has been mentally and physically unwell, and for a long time was under a physician's care in the hospital. She had apparently recovered, and at her own request was allowed to return home. Since that time she has had an occasional return of the mental malady. During the morning Mr. Jepson received an urgent request to return home. It was found that Mrs. Jepson had thrown the baby into the soft water cistern and had made three efforts to drown her little boy. Twice she let him out because of his pleading, and the third time because she thought God had told her that she had done enough. She then informed a neighbor. Medical aid was forthcoming immediately, but the baby was dead.

THE WATER ABATING.

The Worst in British Columbia is Over—Contributions Coming In.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 13.—Word is received that the Cariboo water is falling fast. The weather is cool. This removes the only danger feared. The water all along the river is reported as falling. The only news coming in from up the river is a detailed account of the disasters, the loss in connection with which will aggregate much more than was at one time anticipated.

Generous contributions continue to come in from the east, and those in distress are being promptly relieved by the authorities.

For the Relief of B. C. Sufferers.

MONTREAL, June 13.—A fund has been started here for the relief of the sufferers by the British Columbia floods. Mr. J. C. Wilson, the well-known paper manufacturer, has started the fund by a subscription of $100.

THE TRIAL OF HOOPER.

The Note on the Margin of a Newspaper From Hooper's Wife.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 13.—Crowds still continue to attend the Hooper trial, and as the defence has not yet been heard the trial will probably last several days longer. The witnesses who gave evidence yesterday were Detective Carpenter, of Montreal, who had visited the site of the alleged attempt at drowning at Louiseville, and stated the depth of the river beneath the railway bridge was five feet; James Dunn, employed as telegraph operator at the C. P. R. eastern station at Montreal, swore prisoner had shown him a piece of newspaper, on the margin of which were written the words "Goodbye John, I am going to drown myself—Georgina," and asked witness to enquire from Louiseville if a crazy woman had been found there, and giving his name as John Cooper.

Miss Stapely was not required to give further evidence and returned to Ottawa.

CALEB HARTLEY'S DEATH.

Inquest Behind Closed Doors—An Alleged Startling Confession.

NORWICH, Ont., June 13.—The press and public were not allowed at the Hartley inquest at New Durham yesterday, much to the disappointment of all parties. It is understood, however, that Prof. Ellis reported considerable quantities of arsenic in the stomach and kidneys. The man Ling is also reported to have made a partial confession implicating Mrs. Hartley and some startling developments are said to be forthcoming. Several arrests will be made. The confession Ling made was to a Baptist minister at Springford and is in writing, duly signed by Ling. This confession is not to be had at present. The public are greatly excited. It is also rumored that a third party is implicated.

Fatal Accident at Essex.

ESSEX, Ont., June 13.—A sad and fatal accident happened about a mile from here yesterday by which G. O. Young lost his life. He was driving a spirited young horse, when it shied at something and jumped a deep ditch at one side of the road, where Young was thrown out of his buggy on to the horse's back. He rolled off and fell into the ditch. An examination proved that his neck was broken. He leaves a wife and two boys in very poor circumstances. His life insurance policy had expired about a month previous to the accident.

OTTAWA NOTES.

Mr. Perley Reinstated—Amendment to the Criminal Code.

OTTAWA, June 13.—Mr. Henry F. Perley, formerly Chief Engineer of the Public Works Department, has again entered the service of the Government.

Sir John Thompson has given notice of the following amendment to the Criminal Code: "Everyone is guilty of an indictable offence, and is liable to three years' imprisonment, who, being or acting in the capacity of a train conductor or other agent or employe of a railway company authorized to sell tickets or take up tickets or collect fares from passengers while travelling on any train operated by such company, fraudulently allows any person to travel on such train for any distance without either paying the proper fare for that distance, or producing a ticket or other evidence that such person is entitled so to travel for that distance, or wilfully omits either to punch or otherwise mark any ticket travelled on so as to mark that it has been travelled on."

There will be no camps of militia this year, notwithstanding the reports published in some western papers. The amount ordinarily expended on camps will this year be spent in providing the volunteers with an improved system of rifles. This statement is not official, but it can be relied on.

A meeting of the Public Accounts was held, when Mr. Schreiber, Deputy Minister of Railways and Canals, was further examined in regard to the Curran bridge affair. Mr. Haggart conducted the examination. The witness filed the letter he fowarded to Mr. Parent, asking that C. J. Desbarats, the Department Engineer on the works, be dismissed. Mr. Schreiber said that the reason for dismissing Desbarats was that of economy. Political influence, he said, was not used to remove Mr. Desbarats.

Le Canada, the only Liberal French-Canadian paper published in this portion of the Dominion, has suspended publication.

The French Conservatives of Quebec district are redoubling their efforts to have the Premier's consent to gerrymander Quebec. It is known that the bill has been printed and that Sir John's antagonism alone prevents it being brought up. If the Premier adheres to his resolution against the measure the session will terminate within ten days, or two weeks at the outside. The debate which would follow the introduction of a gerrymander measure would last three weeks at least. Mr. McCarthy does not disbelieve the statements that the Premier will yield.

The first mail received from Vancouver and Victoria since the Queen's birthday arrived here yesterday.

An interview with several farmers on the market from the surrounding townships elicited the information that the recent rains did little or no damage to the crops. The long continued wet weather retarded growth to a certain extent, but the beneficial effects of the past few warm days has been marvellous. The hay crop promises to be good and an abundant harvest is expected.

JORDAN SHOOTING AFFAIR.

The Five Tramps Remanded for a Week—Conductor Turner's Condition.

ST. CATHARINES, June 13.—Six more tramps were arrested at the Grand Trunk station here yesterday. They made no resistance when the officers pulled them off the car. They were taken to the police station, and were each fined $5 or ten days imprisonment.

The five tramps and the boy implicated in the shooting affair at Jordan, were remanded for a week at the request of the Grand Trunk detectives, who are looking up evidence against the gang.

HAMILTON, June 13.—Conductor Turner, who was shot by a tramp near Jordan, is lying at the city hospital and doing as well as can possibly be expected. He received two bullet wounds in the head and one in the shoulder. His wounds are not nearly so serious as was at first thought, and his condition is much improved.

The Pleuro-Pneumonia Question.

LONDON, June 13.—Mr. Gardner announced that Mr. John S. Burdon Sanderson, M.A., professor of physiology at Oxford University, and Right Hon. Sir Henry James, M.P., would form a special board to conduct the inquiry into the condition of the lungs of the infected Canadian cattle. Mr. Chaplin asked in what respect Sir Henry James was qualified to determine a case of contagious pleuro-pneumonia. Mr. Gardner replied that it was desirable that a lawyer should examine the experts and Sir Henry James had been attached to the board in that capacity. Mr. Gardner said: "With a view of clearing up all doubts as to the precise character of the disease [illegible] as infected Canadian animals, I [illegible] will hold an inquiry with Prof. Sanderson and Sir Henry James to examine experts."

The Ottawa Conference.

LONDON, June 13.—The Earl of Jersey, imperial delegate to the intercolonial conference, has left with the Colonial Office officials for Ottawa. It is not likely that the Imperial Government will accede to the request for the appointment of another imperial delegate. The Earl of Jersey, through his extensive knowledge of colonial affairs, will be enabled to give a full expression of the present views of the British Government, whose action will be dependant upon the decision of the conference.

LONDON, June 13.—W. H. Mercer, of the British Colonial Office, has been appointed delegate to the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa conjointly with the Earl of Jersey.

Accident at Morriston.

GUELPH, June 13.—A sad accident has occurred in Morriston. While George McPherson, of Schaw, was hauling a heavy piece of square timber through the village, a number of children, unnoticed by him, attempted to jump on the log, among whom was the three-year-old daughter of John and Mrs. Fahrner. The timber knocked the little one down and the rear end of it, which was trailing on the ground, passed over her head and killed her immediately. No blame can be attached to the driver. Coroner Cormack has gone to Morriston to hold an inquest.

TRIAL OF MR. WIMAN

An Expert's Testimony With Regard to the Forged Cheque.

DEFENDANT'S LETTER TO DUN

He Regretted Overdrawing His Account But Could Have Set Matters Right—There Was No Effort Made to Conceal the Transaction.

NEW YORK, June 13.—In the Wiman trial Prosecuting Attorney Wellman said Wiman had on many occasions forged Mr. Bullinger's name to cheques. He said he would show that Wiman had been doing this sort of thing for a long time. Gen. Tracy said it was conceded that Wiman had written the name of Bullinger on the cheques, but he had a right to do so as he was a partner of the firm.

Mr. Wellman then stepped forward toward the jury box and sneered, "Yes, gentlemen, he admits that he signed the cheque, but why? Because we have his letter confessing his crime and begging for mercy." Mr. Wellman said Wiman was not a partner in the firm, but was employed as manager, and was to receive as compensation 17 per cent. of the net profits of the business, which in no case should be less than $10,000 a year.

The first witness was James Harrat, cashier for R. G. Dun & Co., who identified the cheque in question, and said that he had made it under orders from Mr. Wiman, who had come to him and said that they must owe Bullinger some money, and that he had better draw a cheque for $5,000, which he did. He also identified the signature on the back of the Bullinger cheque as Wiman's.

Gen. Tracy tried to show that Wiman had been in the habit of drawing nearly all of the cheques for the concern. Witness could not remember one instance in the past ten years when Mr. Dun had drawn a cheque. Mr. Wiman had always drawn the cheques for the monthly pay roll.

Edward W. Bullinger said that all his relations with the firm had been through Wiman. At the period under consideration the firm owed him about $15,000.

Mr. Wellman handed Mr. Bullinger the $5,000 cheque and asked if the signature, "E. W. Bullinger," was his. Witness said that it was not; he had never authorized Mr. Wiman to sign his (the witness) name to any instrument whatever.

Augustus H. Wheeler, a public accountant, was the people's next witness. He said that for seven years prior to February, 1892, he had been bookkeeper for R. G. Dun & Co.

Mr. Wellman then wanted to know how Wiman's account with R. G. Dun & Co. had stood on December 31, 1891.

General Tracey objected on the ground that the question was irrelevant and immaterial. Objection was overruled.

The witness then said that there was a balance of $2,366 due Mr. Wiman. This balance was not found, however, until after Mr. Wiman had handed witness his cheque for $135,000. This cheque Mr. Wiman told the witness to hold until he (Mr. Wiman) told him to deposit it. To the witness' knowledge the cheque had never been deposited.

Mr. Wellman then wanted to know how Mr. Wiman's account stood on December 31, 1892. The witness stated that on the day in question Mr. Wiman had been in the firm's debt to the extent of $24,290.

On the cross-examination Gen. Tracey brought out the fact that the $135,000 cheque had been entered on the books. Any one could have seen the whole thing by looking over the books. There had been absolutely no effort at concealment made. Mr. Dun never looked at the books and Mr. Wiman had always transacted all the business for the firm. Mr. Wiman's share of the profits had during the past five years averaged about $80,000 a year.

Daniel T. Ames, a handwriting expert was called. He said that he had compared the signature, E. W. Bullinger, on the cheque in question with Mr. Bullinger's signature. The signature on the cheque was spurious. Mr. Ames had also compared the signature on the cheque with a letter written by Wiman to R. G. Dun on July 1, 1891. This letter had been marked for identification, but had not been put in as evidence. Gen. Tracey objected to any mention of the letter being made until it had been put in as evidence. Mr. Wellman offered the letter as evidence. After it had been passed around among the jurors, Mr. Boardman, for the defence, read it aloud with evident satisfaction. It was from Mr. Wiman to R. G. Dun in relation to Mr. Wiman's overdrawing his account with R. G. Dun & Co.

In the letter Mr. Wiman says that he had learned with much surprise that he had overdrawn his account for the first six months of the year $62,000. He said that he was very much pressed for money, as he had been obliged to make many improvements in his Staten Island property. He expected, however, to sell considerable land at Erastina and elsewhere on the island, and that he hoped that by fall he would have been able to materially reduce his indebtness to R. G. Dun & Co. He said that he knew he was very much to blame for overdrawing his account, as it was not the first time it had happened, but he could not help it in this case.

In adjourning court Justice Andrews announced that he would sit late in the afternoon as he was anxious to have the case go to the jury early to-morrow afternoon. Mr. Wellman said that he would have all the evidence for the people in to-day.

AN ABLE EDITOR SIZES UP THE SITUATION.

One of the cleverest speeches of the campaign so far is that of Mr. J. S. Willison, editor of the Globe, at the Liberal mass meeting held in the Pavilion, Toronto, on Wednesday evening. He said:—

"For nearly a quarter of a century the Liberals of Ontario have fought the Conservative party, and defeated it in every contest. In this contest, in many parts of the country, you can scarcely identify the Conservative party. You cannot tell whether Mr. Meredith is leading the factions of his party, or the factions of the party are leading Mr. Meredith. There are Thompson Conservatives and Meredith Conservatives, and Independent Conservatives and P. P. A. Conservatives and Patron Conservatives, and P. P. A. Patron Conservatives, and P. P. A. straight. (Laughter.) There are more than thirty constituencies in this province in which Conservative conventions have not put a candidate into the field. There are some of those constituencies in which the candidates of the Opposition, or rather the Opposition candidates, if elected, will be obedient and loyal supporters of Mr. Meredith, but he dare not go upon the platform urging their claims to election. Mr. Clarke Wallace is speaking in East York to-day in behalf of the Meredith candidate. Could you imagine his leader, Sir John Thompson, or Mr. Costigan, or the Solicitor General, Mr. Curran, speaking in Hamilton, or South Essex—(great laughter and cheers)—in behalf of the candidates who will support Mr. Meredith, if elected. Mr. Meredith, in his London speech, made a profession of high Canadianism, and those who know him believe that he has made it from his heart; but he is at the mercy of the guerilla factions which have broken out in his party. He has to go where they lead, praying only that the Lord would deliver him in safety at the end of the contest. (Great laughter.) During the last Presidential campaign in the United States there appeared in Georgia a stump orator named Ham. He was a sort of political Sam Jones. He had a great equipment of stories and he became a great favourite throughout the whole country during the course of the contest. He told one story of a boy who undertook to break a yearling steer. In order to make sure that it would not get away, he tied one end of the rope around his waist. Of course the other was around the steer's horns. Well, as Ham says, the steer became angered during the breaking in process and split a crack in the atmosphere towards the swamp and the boy hit the ground only on the high places. In their mad career they met a neighbour who shouted to the boy, "Where are you going?" and the boy, as they struck the next altitude, shouted back, "I don't know, you meddlesome idiot, ask the steer." (Great laughter.) Mr. Meredith is just as much at the mercy of the factions of his party as the boy was at the mercy of that steer. (Laughter and applause.) In the time of its great leader, Sir John Macdonald, the Conservative party always marched out with its drums beating and its face to the foe, and in whatever estimation Liberals may hold Sir John Macdonald, they always knew the position of the enemy—they always knew that the leader was stronger than the party, and the party stronger than its factions—(hear, hear)—and few Liberals will deny that during the later years of his life Sir John Macdonald's one supreme aim was to build up a united Canadian country and keep down friction, to conciliate religious quarrels and racial hatreds, and to make Canadians a more united and tolerant community; and there are scores of Conservatives in Toronto to-day, and in every constituency throughout this province, who know that if the forces which are behind Mr. Meredith triumph in this contest—if they defeat the Liberal government of Sir Oliver Mowat—that the old historical Conservative party will perish in the same disaster. (Hear, hears and cheers.) I simply desire to say in closing that in the days to come the name of Sir Oliver Mowat will be an illumination on the page of Canadian history—(hear, hear)—and the descendents of the Conservatives who now revile him and denounce him for paltry party ends, will hold up his career and the record of his government as high examples for the public men of Ontario for generations to come. (Cheers)

HOW PUBLIC CHARITIES ARE AIDED.

The appointment of Government aid is made under the provisions of the "Charity Aid Act" of 1874, and all institutions entitled to a grant under its provisions are treated alike. They are provided for under three classes, viz., (1) Hospitals, (2) Houses of Refuge, and (3) Orphan Asylums. The grant of public money to the first of these is made on the basis of 20 cents for each day's actual treatment of every patient in the institution, to the second on a basis of five cents for each day's lodgment and maintenance of an indigent person, and to the third on the basis of one and one-half cents for each day's lodgment and maintenance of an orphan and neglected abandoned child—reckoned in each case on the number of inmates in the several institutions during the previous calendar year. And with the view of encouraging contributions by municipalities and from other sources, the Act also provides that further aid upon the same basis may be given of ten cents to Hospitals, two cents to Houses of Refuge, and one and one-half cents to Orphan Asylums; but so as to not exceed one-fourth of the amount contributed from other sources in the preceding year.

THREE PLEAS FOR TOLERANCE.

THE Marquis of Dufferin, the last time he spoke in Canada, used these earnest words:

Divided as you are into various powerful religious communities, none of whom is entitled to claim either preeminence or ascendancy over the other, but each of which reckons among its adherents enormous masses of population, what hope can you have except in mutual forbearance and generous liberality of sentiment."

The Earl of Aberdeen, in commenting on the above at the Board of Trade Banquet in Toronto, said: "It is in the application of that principle of religious toleration to public affairs, as well as to private life, that we can alone look forward to, that condition of happiness, equality and peace to which we all aspire. (Applause). I shall earnestly hope that nothing ever in Ontario will be prominent which would imply a contrary spirit to that tolerance and that broad, comprehensive, sympathetic spirit which is the best kind of patriotism. (Loud Applause.)"

Hon. Wilfred Laurier, at the banquet tendered him in Quebec, said: "Let us be true to our double origin. Let us bear in mind ever that love is better than hatred, and those differences which now prove the bane of our land will cease to divide a united and mutually respecting people."

ONTARIO'S AGRICULTURAL ADVANCEMENT.

Following is an extract from a letter to the Minister of Agriculture for Ontario from Prof. W. A. Henry, director of the University of Wisconsin Agricultural Experiment Station, October 8th, 1892:—"Our station is under renewed obligation to you for your thoughtful kindness in again sending us your report. That just received for 1891 contains a vast fund of valuable information and I have already found occasion to consult it. The position that Canada has taken with regard to agricultural advancement is a constant stimulus to us on this side. We regard you as leaders in many directions and with the energies displayed by your people I am sure that the position will be held for all time to come."

Three Wants.

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense,
Live in three words, health, peace, and competence."

So says the poet. Competence counts for little when one is sick, and peace is disturbed, when health is upset, so that the poet rightly places health first. To have good health you must have pure blood. From the blood the system receives all its material of growth and repair. The best blood-purifier is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is world-famed and sold everywhere. It is a soverign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished or impure blood, as consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, old sores, skin diseases and kindred ailments.

Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam cures coughs colds, asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

No Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco is genuine unless it bears the Derby Cap Shaped Tag.

Broken in Health

That Tired Feeling, Constipation and Pain in the Back

Appetite and Health Restored by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Chas. Steele
St. Catherine's, Ont.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"For a number of years I have been troubled with a general tired feeling, shortness of breath, pain in the back, and constipation. I could get only little rest at night on account of the pain and had no appetite whatever. I was that tired in my limbs that I gave out before half the day was gone. I tried a great number of medicines but did not get any permanent relief from any source until, upon recommendation of a friend, I purchased a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which made me feel better at once. I have continued its use, having taken three bottles, and I Feel Like a New Man. I have a good appetite, feel as strong as ever I did, and enjoy perfect rest at night. I have much pleasure in recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla." CHARLES STEELE, with Erie Preserving Co., St. Catherine's, Ontario.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Debeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Coloured Skirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

40c. 3000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

NORWOOD NEWS NOTES.

From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. J. Calder has secured a lucrative position in the Peter Hamilton Works, Peterborough.

Mr. B. Buchanan is visiting friends in Peterborough.

Last week Mr. Cutler, of Toronto, took a number of photos of the classes of the High and Public schools.

A successful ice cream social was held Tuesday evening at the residence of Mr. W. P. Plant under the auspices of Norwood Lodge, I.O.G.T.

At the Art school exams Norwood High school obtained three full primary certificates and eighty-eight proficiency certificates, being the second highest total and the largest number of full certificates taken by any of the twenty-four High schools which sent up candidates.

Rev. Dr. Tucker, of Adolphustown, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church last Sunday.

Rev. N. Hamilton, Toronto, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Next Sabbath Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Toronto, will officiate.

It is our sad duty this week to report the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Conway, relict of the late Patrick Conway, at the age of 43 years. She died Tuesday morning after a short illness. Six children are left to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place on Thursday, at 10 a. m., from her late residence, Peterborough street, to the cemetery at Cahoon's corners.

R. Scriver, village Constable, has gone on duty as night watchman, benighted by the merchants of the town.

Wednesday afternoon of last week, the house of Mr. Thos. A. McMillan, Asphodel, was the scene of a happy event, being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss Maggie, to Mr. Coleman Elliott, son of Mr. Samuel Elliott, Belmont. Rev. Mr. Buchanan officiated, the bride being supported by Miss Amy Blewitt, Lakefield, while Mr. Robt. McMillan acted as best man. Miss Fleda Howson made a very pretty little Maid of Honour. After the nuptial knot was tied the usual festivies were indulged. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will take up their residence in Belmont. They have the best wishes of hosts of friends in this vicinity.

A geographical and astronomical chart has been procured for our public school at a cost of over $40. It is very finely gotten up and Mr. Perney, the principal, says it is of great service in teaching. It consists of nine very finely printed plates and two adjustable transparent representations of simple astronomy. These are used in a dark room, a lamp being placed behind the picture. The relative position of the sun, the earth and the moon are shown at different times of the year and practical illustrations given of the causes of the tides, the seasons and the eclipses.

On Sunday last a young son of Mr. Ebbs fell into the Ouse behind his house on Queen street. He floated nearly a hundred yards down stream and was almost drowned when rescued by his father.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, will visit Norwood Friday, June 15th. He will arrive by the noon train and will be met by a deputation of the citizens. In the evening the hon. gentleman and T. Blezard, Esq., M.P.P., will deliver addresses to the electors in the drill shed. The brass band will be present.

Division court will be held here next Wednesday.

SCHOOL BOARD.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education was held Monday evening last. Present, Messrs. W. E. Roxburg, chairman, W. H. Stephenson, secretary-treasurer, J. Breckenridge, Fraser, Reynolds, Brethen, Webster, Anderson, Rorke and Drs. Ford and Pettigrew. Minutes of last meeting read and signed. A communication from J. E. Brown, Esq., public school inspector, stating that he was not pleased with several matters concerning the methods employed in our public and model schools. Moved by Dr. Ford, seconded by Mr. Anderson, that the communication of Inspector Brown be received, and in view of the dissatisfaction he expresses with the methods employed in our model and public schools, he be asked to specify his charges to the board before he discusses them before the public as proposed in his letter. Moved by Mr. Breckenridge, seconded by Dr. Pettigrew, that the original motion re. the payment of teachers' salaries be amended, and that the salaries be paid at the end of June for the number of days taught, reserving a month's salary as usual. The following accounts were referred to the finance committee: Express and freight, 65c.; F. E. Perney, $0.70; E. N. Moyer, $42.50. Moved by Mr. Fraser, seconded by Mr. Rorke, that a consent of a majority of trustees, authorizing Mr. Perney to order a geographical chart at a cost of $42.50 be confirmed, on his representations that he would pay the half or perhaps the whole cost out of the proceeds of concerts to be held in the future.—Carried.

INDIAN RIVER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The streets are drying up after last week's heavy rains.

Mr. Whibbs new residence is nearing completion. It is a good substantial structure of fine architecture and does honour to the contractor, Mr. Moher.

The weather was very unfavourable for Mr. M. Garvey's bee for digging the foundation of a new barn which he is going to erect.

The school yard of S.S. No. 1, Douro, looks well after Arbour Day improvements. It speaks well for the teacher, Mr. McNulty.

Mr. Walker is digging the foundation of his new residence at the station. He has a very nice row of evergreens planted around his lot. Well done, Pete. Nothing like improving the town.

Our football club is becoming second to none in the county, some new blood having been introduced this season. They are to play a match with Allandale club on Indian River grounds Saturday next.

Pathmasters Duff and Garvey expect to commence statute labour next week if weather fairs up so they can get into the gravel pit.

AWFUL PLAGUE IN CHINA.

Sixty Thousand People Reported to Have Succumbed to the Scourge.

SHANGHAI, June 13.—The plague has long been raging in Canton and Pakhoi, and it has carried off tens of thousands of victims in the last few weeks. It reached Hong Kong last week. The alarm became great and threw colonists and the government of that island, as well as the foreign and native residents of the coast ports into a state of terror and alarm.

On Saturday, 5th inst., the French and Portuguese consuls here issued a notification proclaiming Hong Kong an infected port. On the Monday following the entire body of foreign consuls united in a representation calling upon the Chinese authorities at Shanghai to impose quarantine regulations upon all vessels coming from Hong Kong or Canton.

The disease is of a bubonic character, with purplish or black swellings in the glandular regions, in the groin, armpit, under the knees and in the neck, accompanied by terrific fever, the temperature going at a bound up to 105 and over 106.

It is frightfully rapid in its course. Purging diarrhœa at once sets in and a state of delirium followed by coma is reached in three or four days in bad cases, death ensuing and the body turning black, putrid and swollen to thrice its size in the course of twelve and twenty-four hours.

Six thousand fatal cases are known to have occurred in one district of Canton, in the old Mohammedan quarter, within a week.

A foreign missionary resident in Canton avers that at least 60,000 have been carried off. Several medical and other experts were despatched from Hong Kong to inquire into the cause of the plague, and they all agreed that it was due primarily to the incredible filth, the abominable habits and the poverty of the Cantonese, aided no doubt by the prolonged drought, which caused the filth in the open sewers to germinate into hideous forms of life.

Some people believed that the fondness of the Cantonese for rats as an article of food is largely accountable for the pestilence. None of the Europeans of Canton or Hong Kong have been attacked by the plague, which is entirely confined to the Chinese.

Richard Croker's Flight.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tribune says: Richard Croker did not decide to leave the country until within thirty-two hours of the sailing of the Umbria. It was not until he had been informed of the fate of Civil Justice George F. Roesch, who was examined on that day before the Lexow committee, that he made up his mind that he could avoid the fate of Roesch only by flight.

AFFLICTED FROM INFANCY.

A Lad Who Had Been Dropsical From His Childhood Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Remedy That Never Failed.

MCINTYRE, Ont., June 4—The young son of Hugh Lamont of this place has been afflicted with dropsy from infancy. He was bloated and swollen all over. His parents were at their wits end to find some cure for him when they read of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Lamont got six bottles of the pills and the boy began taking them. Before the sixth box was finished he was cured. It doesn't matter whether the patient is young or old, the pills will effect a cure of any kidney disease or of any disease arising from disordered kidneys.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Persons who have had difficulty in obtaining Spectacles and Eye-Glasses to suit them, and who are troubled with imperfect vision, either by night or day, should call on W. A. SANDERSON and have a free examination of their eyes made. Oculists Prescriptions carefully filled.

A Lucky Find.

Mr. Ed. F. Coxwell, of the Ontario Mica and Mining Co., has just returned to town bringing with him some very fine specimens of plumbago which he discovered in Glenmorgan township, county of Haliburton. We are informed that the deposit is a very extensive one and quite near to a railway. This is the third mine that Mr. Coxwell has discovered this spring in the back country. The first being a very large and valuable deposit of pure white felspar and flint, from which porcelain is made. The second being an extensive vein of pure sienna paint which has been tested by our best painters and proven itself to be a 1st class paint, giving the very best of satisfaction either in water or oil. The third being the plumbago mentioned above. We are informed that pure plumbago is a very valuable mineral and, as the samples which we saw last evening seemed to be free from sand, dirt or rock matter we are led to believe that it is nearly pure, and so it is a very lucky find for the company, as no doubt they will find a ready sale for all they can mine out.

District Orangemen.

Peterborough District L. O. Lodge met last night in the Orange Hall, at Nassau. The District Deputy Master, Bro. H. S. Armstrong, occupied the chair. The attendance was fair and a considerable amount of routine business was disposed of and committees were appointed to carry out arrangements in connection with the coming 12th July. The brethren of this district will visit Lindsay this year. The following resolution was also adopted:

Resolved.—That this Peterborough District L. O. Lodge, in regular session assembled, reaffirm our unwavering loyalty to the person and throne of her most gracious Majesty, the Queen, and our unalterable devotion to the principles which placed the illustrious House of Hanover on the throne of these realms. Be it further resolved That we record our most emphatic protest against Major Gen. Herbert, the Commander of the Canadian Militia, when addressing the 65th Battalion, at Montreal, going out of his way to land, and designate as illustrious heroes, a few Popish zealots, who, when Great Britain and France were aiding Italy to cast off the Papal yoke, went from Quebec to Rome to join the regiment of Pontifical Zouaves, whose object it was to fight against Italy and for the preservance of the temporal power of the Pope, and whose absurd crusade might have involved Great Britain in a war with a friendly nation.

CUT THIS OUT and send it to us, enclosing a three cent stamp and the names of ten ladies, and we will send each one a sample of one of the best montly papers published, and we will send it to you FREE for six months. Mention EXAMINER, and address MEDIAL ADVISER, Bowmanville, Ont.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

MR. H. C. WINCH'S ENNISMORE MEETING.

MR. BURNHAM SEEKS POLITICAL INFLUENCE FROM THE PARISH PRIEST ON BEHALF OF MR. WINCH.

His Appeal Rejected—Some Light on the Ennismore Episode of Monday Night—Some Reminescences.

If the Review desires by way of a change to present some interesting reading, it might publish a history of the methods adopted by itself to influence the electors. It might detail in eloquent periods the manner in which its former editor appeared before the clergy of the Roman Catholic Church in Peterborough asking their aid in behalf of the Conservative candidate and in this election, while Mr. Winch in his personal canvass is showing what a valiant champion he is against the "common enemy," Mr. Hampden Burnham is playing the role of The Review in a former election on behalf of Mr. Winch. While the rest of Mr. Winch's friends were trying to make an arrangement for the meeting in the town hall, Ennismore, on Monday night, Mr. Burnham was waiting upon the parish priest and trying to enlist his influence in favour of Mr. Winch—and, of course Mr. Winch didn't know of what was being done. If Mr. Winch and his party think they can, in one part of the riding and in one capacity stir up religious rancour, to set neighbour against neighbour, and incite enmity against the religious minority, and expect to go amongst the latter to find them waiting to receive him on bended knee and take him to their arms they must expect these people to be more than human in their friendliness. As a rule political stumpers, when entering the rural districts to enlighten the electors, must not expect to be met with brass bands and torch light processions and escorted in carriages to a cushioned throne in the hall, ablaze with electric light. If the kid-gloved gentry that surround Mr. Winch think themselves too good to light a lamp for themselves or to wait upon themselves like mortals of common clay, they have altogether too etherial an opinion of their own importance for this practical world. With reference to its slur upon the hotelkeepers, a number of whom are supporting Mr. Winch, the Review might recall that these gentlemen were not when the late George Hilliard, the advanced prohibition candidate, had the support of nearly all the hotel keepers in town. So far as Mr. Winch and his supporters are concerned, if they had been so anxious to enlighten the electors, why did they not follow the English practice and address the electors from the outside platform of the Post Office Building? On a beautiful night like Monday night when the heat made any hall uncomfortable, what better chance than the shelter of a verandah could be asked to address the electors? Those who assembled greeted Mr. Winch respectfully, and would have listened respectfully to what he had to say if he had wished to speak. But Mr. Winch and his friends were not anxious to speak. They wished more for a grievance than anything else. They have no arguments against the Government and a grievance is a god-send. Fancy Mr. Stratton missing a chance of addressing the electors who had gathered to hear him, though he had to speak from the seat of his buggy. In regard to the Review's insinuation of whisky being in evidence the only whisky heard of was contained in the bottle from which one of Mr. Winch's speakers asked a friend to have a drink and he refused, stating that he did not drink whiskey.

The whole affair is an interesting contribution of information as to the means employed by the Opposition in this campaign. While Mr. Meredith is denouncing the Roman Catholic hierarchy, and in full tilt against an Archbishop, and while his candidate in West Peterborough, Mr. Winch, is in his personal canvas inflaming Protestant electors against their fellow-electors of another faith, Mr. Burnham a chief supporter of Mr. Winch, is found on his knees in a Roman Catholic parsonage in Ennismore entreating His Reverence to use his influence in favour of Mr. Winch the candidate of Mr. Meredith. It is to be hoped that the decided refusal of the pastor in question to break the rule of non-interference in political contests will convince Mr. Winch and his rather too zealous advocate that the electors and the public generally are not quite the fools that he seems, by his actions, to take them to be. Yet Mr. Winch and his mouthpieces stand on the broad platform of justice and equality to all and allow the electors to express an unprejudiced opinion on the record of the Government, and Mr. Stratton is quite satisfied to abide by the result.

The double dealing of the Opposition in this provincial contest may be emphasized. Not later than the last provincial election campaign, Mr. A. F. Campbell, M.P.P., East Algoma, who will speak in the opera house on Friday night said:

"If I had the power, I would bind the Roman Catholic hierarchy hand and foot, and would pitch them into a place where dogs would not bite them."

This is the language used by a supporter of Mr. Winch in one constituency, while in this constituency another supporter of Mr. Winch, that is, Mr. Burnham prostrates himself at the feet which Mr. Campbell wants to bind, begging favours for Mr. Winch. What we want in this country is, as Principal Grant said:

"We need a union of all good men in Canada, and we dare not say to any man that he must abandon the religion of his mother before he can be expected to be treated as a citizen."

A CORRECTION.

To The Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—My attention was called to an "item" in your paper concerning the playing of Mr. Percy Owens on several occasions during his late visit to Oshawa, giving the credit of his musical education entirely to the late Mr. Seward.

I beg leave to state that it was not Mr. Seward who gave Percy his piano training, but Miss Pringle, and it was entirely due to the indefatigable pains and the care she took with him in looking after his practice that his present success has been attained. Mr. Seward's lessons to Percy were entirely on the pipe organ and it was confined to church music exclusively.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. STEPHENS.

Just One Point

That we would draw special attention to to-day; that is, that we are in down right earnest in our endeavours to present you such attractive values all this month of June as cannot fail to draw a very large part of your trade our way. Just how—NOT TO DO IT—would be to follow a very prevalent practice, which exists of advertising a great many lines which, on examination, are often found to exist only in the advertiser's mind.

But, TO ACCOMPLISH OUR AIMS, we give in our advertising to-day the earnest quality which has marked it since we commenced business. What we write and print, you can afford to read; you are equally interested with us in what we have to tell you.

WE DO NOT HAVE TO do any bogus advertising to draw trade. The value of our goods and the mottoes:—

"SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS"
"SPOT CASH AND ONE PRICE"

under which we trade, are in themselves the secret of the success of our business.

DAY AFTER DAY persons come to our store simply to look, and to their find astonishment that they have been paying 10 to 20 per cent. more for the same goods elsewhere, and they say we really did not believe until now that there was such a difference. ALL WE ASK IS THAT YOU COMPARE OUR VALUES and we are satisfied as to where you will trade.

OUT OF GRATITUDE, on account of the success of our cash business this season, we have purchased and arranged for further supplies of

Folding Tables, Folding Music Racks, Folding Book Racks, Folding Chairs and Rockers,

All to be given away FREE to our customers. Circulars and Cards explaining the Premium offer has been delivered to every house. If for any reason you haven't got one, call at once if you wish to get one of these FREE articles.

IT IS A FACT that we do not have to give premiums to build up our trade, but we have been so successful this season that we thought our friends would appreciate this offer.

CARPETS

Are being cut in prices for this month. This should interest you. Then if you wish them made and laid quickly, we can, with the aid of our new Carpet Sewing Machine, which, by the way, is the only one in this part of the country, guaranteed to make and lay any carpet large enough for the largest room in the place at four or five hours notice. The progressive character of our business has made itself quite apparent in the carpet room as in all departments.

We are closing out the balance of our stock in to make room for new goods, as our buyer has gone. Make no mistake about it. No matter what others may advertise in the way of excuse sales when they do not mean to take effect for a year, we will always sell lower, because we buy lower, and we have no bad debts to lose.

A NEW IDEA!

A Cut In Dress-Making } Commencing June 12.

We have made special arrangements by which all Dresses bought at our store during the next two weeks will be made up for our customers at the uniformly Low Price of $2.00.

Ladies are assured that the same care and attention will be given to their dresses as if they paid the regular prices for making them up.

The above Reduction means a saving of from $1.50 to $2.00 on each dress.

DRESS GOODS.

In connection with the above, we desire to say that we are at present giving much attention to our Dress Goods Department. Our display of new and fashionable patterns and fabrics for the summer season will greatly interest the ladies at present. The strong values we can give in Dresses, coupled with the above substantial Reduction in Dress Making, affords an unusual opportunity for SAVING MONEY.

MR. WINCH'S MEETING AT ENNISMORE.

The Review, in connection with Mr. Winch's Ennismore meeting of Monday night, with that sublime fairness and breadth of view that marks its general dealings with the Provincial election contest, desires to create the impression that Mr. Winch was treated with scant courtesy, at the Town Hall, in that township, on Monday night. The circumstances are not at all unusual in rural places where meetings are held. When Mr. Stratton held his meeting in Ennismore he had to send for the key of the hall, borrow lamps and light a fire himself. At the temperance hall, Smith, a team had to be sent two or three miles for the key, while those who had gathered stood about patiently till a young man volunteered to go through a window and open the back door of the hall from the inside. Mr. Stratton assisted in putting on a fire and performing the work of a janitor generally. At Montgomery's school house after waiting a full half hour in company with Mr. Burnham and Mr. Stapleton, Mr. Stratton employed a boy to go for the key, and lamps had to be procured from the neighbours. At Young's Point lamps had to be borrowed and Mr. Stratton and Mr. Poussette waited till nearly nine o'clock before arrangements could be completed for opening the meeting and the great bulk of the electors did not enter the hall till after the meeting was begun. At O'Reilly's school house fully three-quarters of an hour was spent in finding out where the key was, and, after it was obtained, coal oil had to be put into one lamp from others, wicks changed, etc., and the meeting did not begin till nine o'clock. The same state of things exists in all rural sections. The farmers do not appear to be so anxious to hear orators from town as to leave their work to listen to them and wait upon them hand and foot into the bargain. Speech makers and the speakers for Mr. Winch have been so reckless in their statements, so disregardless of truth and fairness that they should not be surprised if they are treated with indifference by the electors.

HON. G. W. ROSS TO-MORROW NIGHT.

The attention of the public is again directed to the fact that Hon. G. W. Ross, Ontario's brilliant Minister of Education, and Mr. Stratton, will address the electors of Peterborough in the Opera House to-morrow night. Hon. Mr. Ross is one of the most convincing and vigourous speakers in the Ontario Legislature, and his address to-morrow night, which will deal with the leading public questions at issue in the present campaign, will be of the greatest interest and importance. Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate, whose relations to the electors as the past representative for two terms and as an applicant for a renewal of confidence, is of special interest to the public, will also address the meeting. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock. The electors are urged to attend. Ladies will be welcomed, and the gallery and the boxes will be reserved for them. It is hoped that the importance of the occasion and the excellent addresses that will be given, will attract a large attendance of the electors.

THE COUNTY COURT.

At yesterday's sittings of the Court the day was chiefly given to the trial of the case of Lowes vs. Grandy—This action was brought by Messrs. J. and C. Lowes, sons of Joseph Lowes, Emily, deceased, against Richard Grandy, executor of the estate of the late Joseph Lowes, to recover the amount of the funeral expenses of the father of plaintiffs, which had been paid by them. This morning the jury returned a verdict for plaintiffs and $50. Mr. Edwards for plaintiffs and Mr. Moore, Lindsay, for defendant.

This morning the criminal side of the calender was taken up.

Queen vs. Tighe—a charge of gross indecency—was tried. The jury returned a verdict of guilty. The crown was represented by Mr. Wood, C.C.A., and Mr. W. A. Stratton defended the accused.

Queen vs. Brealey—J. J. Brealey was charged with arson. The Grand Jury returned no bill.

J. G. Gibson, Conductor on G. T. R., Hamilton, Ont., writes : "It gives me pleasure to inform you of the excellent results I have received from the use of your great remedy K. D. C. For a considerable time I had been a great sufferer from acute indigestion ; my body was wasting away for want of proper nourishment, which my stomach refused to accept, nor was I able to find any remedy that afforded any relief, until one of my sons brought home a few packages of K. D. C., and requested me to try them. It is now about six or seven months since I commenced taking the K. D. C., my health has improved, my weight has greatly increased, and I feel like myself again."

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service ; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. RICHARDSON, Canadian passenger agent, north-east corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

OUR CITIZEN SOLDIERY.

The Orders—Battalion Drill—The Date of Inspection—Other Volunteer Notes.

The battalion was on parade as a whole, last evening, on the north portion of Central Park under the instruction of Sergt.-Major Peters. The advantages derived from squad drill were apparent and a most creditable showing was made. The following

ORDERS WERE READ :

HEADQUARTERS,
Peterborough, June 12, 1894.

Orders by Lieut.-Col. J. Z. Rogers, commanding the 57th Battalion of Infantry Peterborough Rangers :

No. 1. Sergt. J. Metheral of the pioneer corps has been granted leave of absence until July 3rd.

No. 2. Corp. Donnelly will act as sergeant of the pioneer corps.

No. 3. The commanding officer has been pleased to make the following promotions : To be colour sergeant of F. Company, Sergt. F. Cocks, vice Carveth, left limits. To be sergeant of D. Company, Corp. H. Cluxton, vice Connal transferred.

No. 4. The written examinations for non-commissioned Officers will take place on Friday evening, the 15th inst., in the orderly room.

No. 5. Leave to be absent from parade this evening has been granted the following officers: Major and Bt. Lieut.-Col. Bell, Major Edwards, Capts. Brennan and Hill.

No. 6. To be officer of the week, Lieut. Matthews : next for duty, Lieut. Tebb.

Our morning contemporary announces that the date set for the battalion inspection has been changed to the 3rd, 4th and 5th of July. The statement is incorrect, as the date remains the same as announced last week in the EXAMINER, viz., the 4th, 5th and 6th of July.

A number of pictures which have been recently hung in the officers' quarters, improve those snug rooms not a little.

ENNISMORE.

Court of Revision was held in the town hall, Ennismore, on Monday, May 28th, 1894. Members all took the usual oath before taking their seats. No appeals being held by the clerk, the roll went through its usual routine, the court being left open for further consideration.

Then on motion, the court formed into council, with all the members. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed. Moved by Mr. Perdue, seconded by Mr. Nicholls, that Paul Costello be paid $20 for collecting the taxes for the township of Ennismore for the year 1883.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Moloney, seconded by Mr. Nicholls, that Paul Costello be paid forty-nine cents as error on roll of 1883.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Perdue, seconded by Mr. Moloney, that Mrs. Hanora Harrington be refunded her county tax and municipal tax for the year 1894 for work performed on bridge on her farm, lots 12, 13, 14 on the 8th con., $13.07 being the amount. This was the principal business transacted and the council adjourned to meet at the call of the reeve.

AN ENJOYABLE DAY.

The Members of Court Selwyn and Bridgenorth, C. O. F., and Their Friends Have a Pleasant Outing.

The picnic of Bridgenorth and Selwyn courts of the C. O. F. was held at Jacob's Island yesterday and proved to be a great success. There were almost five hundred visitors to the island and the Maple Leaf had to attach a scow in order to accommodate all those who wished to participate in the event.

The Fourth Line band was present, and the music which was rendered was of a quality which delighted all present.

During the afternoon a football match, played beetween representative teams from Bridgenorth and Zion for a valuable football presented by Mr. J. R. Stratton, was hotly contested and aroused no little interest among the spectators. The two teams were very evenly matched, but after an hour and twenty minutes play Bridgenorth was successful in scoring the only goal which was won during the game.

The day was a most enjoyable one and the next time these Courts hold a picnic a correspondingly large crowd will assuredly be in attendance, as the fame of the good time which was enjoyed at this one has spread through the country.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative ; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

A LONG TRAIN —of diseases follows bad blood and inactive liver. Every one knows when his blood is impure and liver sluggish; pimples and boils appear, or he feels drowsy, weak, tired and thick-headed.

We want to teach you how to fight it. Begin in time. Plenty of fresh air, exercise, and Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, will bring you out of danger. The reason? "Discovery" enriches and purifies the blood and renders the liver active. As the germs of disease enter the circulatory system through the liver, they can be resisted there and in the blood. In those scrofulous conditions of the blood which invite catarrh, bronchitis, and end in Consumption, you have the means of prevention and cure. You can save yourself from Grip, Malaria, or Fever by putting all the functions of the body in a healthy state, besides building up healthy flesh, by taking the "Discovery." # HOSTILITY IN MOROCCO

Abdul Aziz's Uncle Will Dispute His Right to the Throne.

EUROPE FEARS CIVIL WAR

A Possibility That France May Take Advantage of the Occasion to Deal England a Blow — French Messengers Maltreated by the Moors.

TANGIER, June 13.—The burial of the late Sultan Muley Hassan will take place at Rabat, whither the body has been sent under military escort. At Casabianca, the succession of Abdul Aziz, the younger son of the Sultan, to the throne has been acquiesced in, but at Fez, where Muley Ismail, the dead Sultan's brother, has been acting as the Sultan's representative, there is a feeling of hostility toward Abdul Aziz, Muley Ismail being very popular. He is a man of much ability and force, and it will not be surprising if he should make trouble.

Sensational rumors are in circulation as to the cause of the Sultan's death. The populace is becoming excited.

One story is that the Sultan had a fever four days and he died while giving orders. Some time before death he began vomiting and he continued to vomit until he expired. His symptoms indicate that he was poisoned.

Messengers from the interior were recently maltreated and robbed of letters addressed to Count d'Aubigny, the French Minister at Tangier. This fact is likely to form a pretext for France's interference in the present difficulty.

LONDON, June 13.—The news from Morocco indicates that civil war can scarcely be averted. Advices from Tangier report that the Sultan's brother, Muley Ismail, is already preparing to contest the succession to the throne of the Sultan's younger son.

The news of the departure of French fleet from Toulon for Tangier is attracting much attention here in view of the known hostility of the Dupuy Ministry to English interests in Africa.

The Pall Mall Gazette calls attention to the jealousy of the powers in regard to Morocco, and says that M. Dupuy may seize this opportunity to offset England's success in Egypt by dealing a blow at English prestige elsewhere.

The Gazette believes that France and Spain would find it to their interests at home to enter upon an aggressive policy in Morocco with a view of securing dual control of that country to the total exclusion of England.

The Globe expresses belief that the question of succession to the throne of Morocco can only be settled by civil war, and advises the immediate augmentation of the British fleet off that coast in view of the action of France in reinforcing her naval squadron there.

The St. James Gazette comments on the situation in a similar strain.

MADRID, June 13.—In consequence of the grave aspect of affairs in Morocco, the War Office has cancelled the furloughs of all officers and soldiers of the first and second army corps with headquarters respectively in Andalusia and Madrid, and ordered the men to duty.

The Proposed Colonial Tax.

LONDON, June 13.—Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Government leader in the House of Commons, replying to a question from Sir George Baden-Powell, said he had learned that representations from the Colonial Office with reference to the proposed death duties had been presented, but he had only received a copy of these since entering the House and therefore had not had time to give them the consideration they merited. He wished to say, however, that it had never been the intention to tax property in the colonies already taxed. It was only such property as would be subject to legacy or succession duty that the proposed legislation was to affect.

Mrs. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

Biliousness and Liver Complaint, Headache, etc., are cured by Burdock Pills.

Burdock Blood Bitters cures all diseases of the blood from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sores or ulcers. Skin diseases, boils, blotches and all blood humors cannot resist its healing powers.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Crispi and the Cabinet.

ROME, June 13.—There is reliable authority for the statement that Premier Crispi will announce in the Chamber of Deputies that his efforts to form a new cabinet have failed and that he will remain in office with the present ministers, although there will be a slight rearrangement of the portfolios.

A Female Student's Victory.

LONDON, June 13.—In the senior class of mathematics at Cambridge, a young woman named Johnson has won the honor of Sixth Wrangler for 1893, distancing all her male competitors.

Fatal Explosion on a Steamer.

LISBON, June 13.—An explosion, supposed to be of coal gas, occurred aboard the steamer Loanda. One man was killed and several were injured.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 13, 1894.

The directors of the Canadian Pacific have declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 2½ per cent on common stock, payable Aug. 17.

The earnings of the Canadian Pacific for the first week of June were $317,000, a decrease of $88,000 as compared with the same week of last year.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Receipts of grain small. One load of white wheat sold at 65c straight or 62c standard. Red nominal at 61c. Oats firm, 300 bushels selling at 40c to 41c. Barley is quoted at 41c to 42c, and peas at 66c.

Buffalo—Cattle, 3 cars stockers; steady. Sheep and lambs, 42 cars; market very bad, nothing doing. Fair to good mixed sheep, $3.25 to $3.26; good to fancy spring lambs, $4 to $4.50; fair to good lambs, $3.50 to $3.50. Hogs 6 cars 5c to 10c higher. Best Yorkers, pigs and mediums brought $5, selling mostly at $4.90 to $4.95.

In New York there was a firm opening to the miscellaneous share speculation on the announcement of the settlement of the soft coal strike. Most of the buying, however, was for the account of the shorts. In the last hour the list improved all around and left off firm. American sugar was the most active stock and was very erratic. Sales listed, 73,000; unlisted, 75,000, including St. Paul, 14,000; Burlington & Quincy, 13,000, and sugar, 72,000.

Chicago wheat market was active, and on Bradstreets report of a decrease in the world's supply the close showed a gain of 1¼ to 1⅜c. Corn and oats were higher, gaining ⅛c for the day.

At the Antwerp wool sales 2,200 bales were offered. French and German dealers operated freely. Two hundred and three bales of Argentine were sold at 70 to 185 francs, and 647 bales of Montevideo at 80 to 155 francs.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

Signs of Worms are variably appetite, itching at the nose, etc. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup is the best worm expeller.

Derby is acknowledged to be the best Plug Smoking Tobacco in the market, 5 10 and 20 cent plugs.

For Cholera Morbus, cholera infatum, cramps, colic, diarrhœa, dysentery and summer complaint Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

SETTLEMENT OF THE STRIKE.

Miners in Several Districts Dissatisfied With the Agreement.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 13.—Fifty seven coal operators and companies in the Pittsburg district who had pledged themselves to abide by the result of the conference of the operators and miners at Columbus, are preparing to resume work at the compromise rate agreed upon. Many of the operators who opposed the conference, say they will not pay the 69-cent rate, and the strike will doubtless be continued at their pits. It is the general opinion among friendly operators, however, that the agreement will put an end to the importation of non-union men by the operators in the Thick Vein district.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 13.—The reports from the Indiana bituminous mining region are to the effect that the men are seriously opposed to accepting the terms agreed upon by their delegates at the Columbus conference. They are roundly denouncing the officials of the united mine workers for yielding to any compromise.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 13.—Extreme dissatisfaction prevails among the miners on the Baltimore & Ohio, Cleveland, Lorraine & Wheeling and Lake Erie throughout this section over the strike settlement. The men have all been able to work at any time at the 70 cent rate, but stood out to aid their brothers, and now are ordered to return at 60 cents. Leaders of the miners say that fully 8,000 votes will be cast by the miners in this section against the ratification of the compromise.

STREATOR, Ill., June 13.—Only expressions of indignation are heard among the miners of the Streator district in regard to the terms of the settlement made at Columbus. They say they went into the fight to maintain last year's wages and are now expected to accept a reduction.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 13.—The scale agreement at Columbus has only shifted the ground of the coal miners' strike instead of settling it. The miners assert that they will not accept the terms agreed upon and are in revolt against their officers. The latter say they did what was the only thing to be done under the circumstances. From the outlook last night the miners will not go to work next Monday, the day fixed for resumption.

FARMERSBURG, Ind., June 13.—It is now believed that by to-morrow all the mines at Sullivan, where the struggle has been most fierce, will be in operation. The miners of this city returned to work on account of the settlement at Columbus. The miners at Shelburn, where there has been much trouble, will be at work in the morning. Within the next 24 hours the miners at Alum Cave, Jackson Hill, Hyemera, Star City and Curryville will also be in operation. All the miners in Sullivan county are pleased with the terms of settlement.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 13.—A mob of 30 armed men, supposed to be strikers, went to the big bridge on the Georgia Pacific railroad, one mile west of Cardiff, and drove off the watchman, threatened to kill him and set fire to the bridge. The watchman hurried to the houses of section laborers and with them returned to the bridge and extinguished the fire, the mob having fled. The spans of the bridge were burned. This makes seven railroad bridges totally or partially destroyed by fire and dynamite within six days.

Leg Crushed by a Train.

ST. THOMAS, June 13.—Milton Campbell, M.C.R. messenger, while trying to board a moving train at the Wellington street crossing of the Port Stanley Railway last evening, was in some way thrown under the train, the wheels passing over and crushing his right leg near the body. He was taken to the Amasa Wood hospital for surgical attendance.

Lord Mountstephen's Niece Weds.

MONTREAL, June 13.—Miss Elsie Meighen, eldest daughter of Mr. Robert Meighen, president of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co., was married yesterday to Mr. Robert Reford, son of Mr. Reford, head of the Reford line. The bride is a niece of Lord Mountstephen and there was a large and fashionable gathering present at the ceremony.

Hoyt is Discharged.

HAMILTON, June 13.—Martin C. Hoyt, who was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the attempt to swindle John H. Smith, of Grimsby, on a gold brick deal, was arraigned before the magistrate, but there was not sufficient evidence to hold him for trial and he was discharged.

Prohibition Candidate in S. Hastings.

BELLEVILLE, June 13.—At a meeting of temperance workers yesterday, Mr. R. J. Graham of this city was nominated for the Legislature. He accepted and said he would be an independent, but would support prohibition.

Bread and Dyspepsia.

The conclusion that wheat bread is unfit for dyspeptics, sometimes jumped at because ill effects are noticed after its use, is erroneous. On the contrary, it has been pointed out by Bouchard and others that farinaceous food is peculiarly adapted to some dyspeptic patients. It is the microbes in the starch, which is capable of producing irritating acids, that cause the trouble. To avoid this, Bouchard recommends that only the crust or toasted crumbs of the bread be used by dyspeptics, particularly those whose stomachs are dilated. The reason for this is explained by the fact that baking temporarily, though not permanently, arrests the fermentation of dough. When it is again heated by the warmth of the stomach the fermentation is renewed. In cases where the bread is toasted brown through the fermentation is stopped permanently.

PARKDALE, Ont., Feb. 27th, 1888.—Gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to let you know I have derived great benefit from the use of Nervilline. I have been a great sufferer from Neuralgia in the face, and last two years was quite a martyr to the malady. So soon as I observed the Nervilline advertised I obtained a bottle from our druggists, Messrs. John Gray & Co., Parkdale, and the effect was marvellous; pain ceased and I can enjoy sound sleep at night, and rise refreshed. I cannot speak to highly of it and heartily recommend it. ### A Millionaire.

Uncle Eary and his wife Susan were in town one day from the plantation seeing the sights. As they stood on a street corner a fine-looking, elegantly-attired, well-fed man drove by in a handsome carriage.

"Golly!" exclaimed the old woman, "who's dat?"

The old man didn't know, and his wife sent him to a policeman near by to learn.

"Who am dat gemman, boss?" he inquired of the officer.

"He's a millionaire," replied the policeman.

"What am dat, boss?"

"That's a man who has several millions."

Uncle Eary thanked him and went back to Susan.

"Well," she inquired, "who de gemman?"

"He am a millionaire."

"What's dat?"

"Dat's a gemman what has sev'al millions."

"An' what am millions?"

Uncle Eary had forgotten to ask the policeman this question and he was thrown out of his reckoning by it, but he began to think.

"Why, chile," he said after a moment or two as his face brightened "doan you know what dem is? Jes' look at de fine keep ob de gemman an' you ain't gwineter be axin' no questins like dat, sho'."

"Fo' de Lawd," she burst out with the rich, spontaneous laugh of her race, "so'se I knows. It sut'ney am watermillions."

Mrs. Beecher's Old Age.

At the corner of Hicks and Orange streets, in Brooklyn, in a cosy little home, whose parlor windows catch all day long the warm rays of the sun, lives one of the most remarkable women of this nineteenth century—Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher. The present home of this well-known woman is almost within the shadow of the church which for years echoed to the voice of her famous husband.

Mrs. Beecher's prominence is not entirely the reflection of the lofty position won by the eminent divine. Her own force of character and strong personality could not have failed to bring her into prominence in life. To be the wife of so eminent a man would have given prominence to even a commonplace character, but of Mrs. Beecher it is asserted that her position tended rather to dwarf her own strong individuality. Her fidelity to her husband was consistent with her nobility of character. At all times she was his "strong right hand," giving no thought to herself.

Mrs. Beecher has been a resident of Brooklyn since 1847. There nearly all her children were born; there are the friends who have grown old with her. She lives quietly, with but one servant. Every Sunday, the weather and her health permitting, she may be seen at church, sitting in the pew that she has occupied for so long, listening with a smile on her lips to the words of the pastor.

Things That Are Told.

Too small a figure in wall paper destroys the effect.

Soft and flabby skin gains firmness of texture by the use of cold water, to which has been added a little common salt. Vinegar and spirits of any kind used as a wash about twice a week help to keep the skin firm.

Brushing stimulates the growth of the hair and makes it glossy and soft. It also stops the hair from falling out and is the best tonic for the scalp.

To Stop Nose-Bleeding.

Chewing will stop the ordinary nose-bleeding, and the shock of dropping a cold key or a handful of pennies down the back will often give relief. In case of a severe attack syringe the nasal cavity with cold salt water. If this does not stop the flow of blood, throw the head back, raise the arm up as far as possible, and apply cold sponges to the bridge of the nose and the back of the neck.

Wisdom Tooth of a Mammoth.

A fossil curiosity in the shape of a mammoth's tooth was found a few days ago in West Seattle by Joseph S. Richards. The tooth was found in the foot of the bluff, not far from the beach, and was covered with clay at the time, indicating that it had been unearthed by the breaking away of the hill. The crown of the tooth, which was of an oval shape, measured 7¼ inches in its largest diameter, 3¾ inches in its smallest diameter, and 18 inches in circumference. The posterior edge of the tooth was 4 inches in length, the anterior edge 6 inches, the largest circumference 22 inches, and the weight 9½ pounds. It is supposed to be the lower back tooth from the left side of the jaw. The ridges have turned to chalcedony, and extend entirely through the tooth, while the material between has the appearance of iron.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

THE BAY OF QUINTE ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

THE FINAL DRAFT OF STATIONS PASSED.

Concluding Business of the Session A Six Hour Sitting.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

After devotional exercises and routine On motion it was directed that the memorial of the Prison Reform Association Memorial be approved.

The report of the committee on conference boundaries was brought up, the second clause struck out and the third clause with slight amendment making it more definite, was adopted and also the entire report as amended.

The place and date of the next annual conference was fixed at Peterborough on June 6th, 1895.

The report of the treasurer of the Superannuation fund reported the payment of $9,998 to the fund in the conference.

The memorial committee recommended that the subscription price of the Guardian be $1, and that the necessary subscriptions be procured to warrant the reduction before January, 1895.

IMPORTANT SUBJECTS.

Rev. Dr. Potts, secretary, presented the report of the Education Society. He gave a brief history of Victoria building and of the Endowment fund. The building was one of the best of its kind on the continent, free from debt and $289,353.44 was the amount of endowment. Of the $512,360.05 subscribed there had been paid $404,110.61. The report in every respect was satisfactory.

A resolution was adopted congratulating Dr. Potts on his satisfactory report and pledging the conference to promote the increase, the educational funds and the attendance of pupils.

Rev. Dr. Sutherland, general missionary secretary, made a very interesting address. He said it was too early in the year to estimate the missionary income, but from the returns already made it was, he thought, safe to estimate that in respect of the missionary fund the present year would be equal to last year—a highly gratifying prospect in view of the extraordinary financial depression The average receipts for missions was $235,00, and of this $200,000 went for work within Canada. We, perhaps, did not spend too much at home, but we spent too little abroad. There was a proposal to revise the constitution of the missionary board, to lessen expense and to define its duties more exactly. The speaker pointed out the necessity of doing all work for missions through the central mission board. The object to be aimed at was a quarter of a million a year for missions from collections and subscriptions alone.

A resolution of sympathy and pledge of co-operation with Dr. Sutherland's proposition was adopted.

Rev. Principal Austin, of Alma College, was heard. He said there was an attendance of 150 pupils, the finances were in a healthy condition and the spiritual tone excellent.

Rev. Foster McAmmond, of Montreal, a former member of the conference, was presented and cordially received.

A hearty vote of thanks was passed to the citizens of Peterborough for the generous hospitality extended the members of the conference during the present session.

EVENING SESSION.

Conference resumed at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. C. Wilson presiding. After devotional exercises the minutes were read, and before being confirmed an error in the minutes relating to the report of the treasurer of the Superannuation Fund, Rev. D. O. Crossley, was corrected, making the report read that every dollar of assessment in respect of this fund in every district had been paid, the total payments of the conference amounting to $10,007.

Mr. J. C. Brown, P. S. I., Peterborough, gave an address upon the proper use of the letters of the English alphabet, and suggesting improvements which, if put into practical use, would enable a child to read the English languages as well at 9 years of age as at 12 under the present system. At the close of his address in which Mr. Brown appealed to the members of the conference to assist in this important matter, a vote of thanks was tendered him by the conference.

Mr. E. D. O'Flynn presented the report of the Contingent Fund, which was hardly equal to the claims upon it, and the committee asked leave to borrow $150 to place to the credit of the fund. Report adopted.

Rev. E. Cragg was presented with a purse in recognition of his services as conference postmaster.

THE PASTORAL ADDRESS.

Rev. C. W. Watch read the pastoral address which is appointed to be read by pastors to their congregations, by ministers to their churches the first Sunday of their pastorate for the new conference year. The address was adopted.

A vote of thanks was moved to the choir for the excellent music furnished during the conference.

A motion was adopted to memoralize the general conference to so amend the discipline as to permit the appointment of a layman as secretary of conference.

A resolution was adopted making ministers moving responsible for services on their charges for two Sundays after the rise of conference.

A PROHIBITION EPISODE.

Rev. Father Murphy, the temperance advocate, was introduced to the conference, received with enthusiastic applause and gave a stirring address on the duty of the churches in the matter of prohibition, and was accorded a hearty vote of thanks for his address and an assurance of the sympathy and co-operation of the conference with him in his fight for prohibition of the liquor traffice.

A resolution was adopted to memoralize the general conference to so legislate that district chairman and secretaries of districts be elected by the districts instead of by the conference.

Bro. Eli Woodcock was restored to active work.

Bro. Enos Farnsworth was ordained.

Martin J. Bate was continued as conference evangelist.

The following Secretaries of districts were appointed to assist in the organization of Epworth Leagues to work under direction of Rev. C. W. Watch :—

Belleville, Rev. E. R. Doxsee.
Napanee, W. G. Clarke.
Picton, S. G. Rorke.
Brighton, J. G. Lewis, B. A.
Cobourg, S. T. Bartlett.
Bowmanville. D. S. Houck.
Uxbridge., E. D. Lewis.
Cannington. W. B. Tucker.
Lindsay, G. W. McCall.
Peterborough. D. N. McCamus.
Campbellford, C. H. Coon.
Madoc, J. P. Steele.
Tamworth, J. R. Butler.

During the long wait consequent upon the labours of the stationing committee in settling their report the conference was variously engaged.

A vote of thanks was passed the local newspapers for their full and excellent report of the Conference proceedings and other minor matters were dealt with.

At length one minister started a rousing evangelistic hymn, which was capitally sung, the several excellent singers the conference contained supplying the full parts of the same in a most entertaining manner.

This singing led to a prayer meeting, which continued till twelve o'clock.

At high midnight the wearied members of the stationing committee entered the church and presented their final draft of stations, which was adopted, and the district chairmen and secretaries elected and appointed. The final draft of stations will appear in to-morrow's issue.

The conference adjourned at 1.45 a.m., and later in the morning—at 9 o'clock—assembled again to formally dissolve Thus ended the eleventh session of the Bay of Quinte conference.

The Douro Picnic will be held on the grounds adjoining the new church on Wednesday, June 20th.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number. are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

A New Use for the Compass.

A man who has decided theories on hygienic subjects is said to carry a compass in his pocket for the proper placing of his bed when traveling. He thinks this of the utmost importance in securing perfect repose, and urges his friends to form the habit of sleeping with the head towards the north, in order to get the benefit of the electric currents which are constantly passing from north to south.

This is a very old theory, and it certainly would be well for poor sleepers to test it.

In the absence of a compass it is said that a watch may do duty for one by pointing the hour hand to the sun, when the south will be exactly half way between the hour and the figure XII. on the dial of the watch, and of course the point directly opposite would be the north.

In houses which face east or west this method of placing the bed in sleeping-rooms is generally the one best adapted to the shape of the room, but where the exposure is north or south it might have an awkward effect.

To remedy this, set a projecting brass rod in the wall a short distance from the ceiling, and of a length equal to the width of the bed. Throw over it a long scarf, tent fashion, and push the bed up under it close to the wall.

This scarf may be made of two widths (for a single bed) of dotted Swiss or any delicate white goods, ruffled all around, or of one of the dainty colored chintzes which will bear laundering. It should reach within a foot or so of the floor, and serves to cover the back of the bedstead, which, if not of brass, might be unsightly set in this way.—Harper's Bazar.

KING OF DIAMONDS.

ENORMOUS FORTUNE GATHERED IN THE KIMBERLEY DISTRICT, AFRICA.

B. I. Barnato, Whose Wealth Will Soon Eclipse That of Any Millionaire Known in the World—Something of the Marvelous Wealth of South Africa.

King of Diamonds! He lives in far away South Africa. His name is B. I. Barnato, and he is said to be the wealthiest diamond miner in the world. The story of his career reads like a page from the "Arabian Nights." Barnato went to Cape Town in 1873, comparatively a poor man. Three years later he bought the first claim in what is now the flourishing town of Kimberley, the centre of the diamond mining industry in Africa. The price he paid for it was inconsiderable.

In 1881 he owned four claims, which he floated into a company for about $100,000 a claim. He was now on a sound financial basis. In 1884 he bought another tract of land, paying the highest price ever given in Kimberley. But he made from that speculation alone $100,000. With the money now in his command he began operations in diamond mining stocks.

His system was to amalgamate different mines and thereby centralize capital. At the present time he represents one-half of the diamond exports of the Kimberley mines. One can estimate from Mr. Barnato's holdings what his income must be. Diamonds weighing 38,000,000 karats, or seven and a half tons, have been found at Kimberley since he purchased his first claim. In the rought their aggregate value is $250,000,000. These figures are given by George F. Kunz, of Tiffany & Co., and can be relied upon as correct.

It is only a question of time and the continuance of the diamond yield when Mr. Barnato will eclipse in wealth the Indian Maharajah and the big millionaires of this country. Yet the bulk of his wealth has been accumulated within the past ten years. As diamonds are small and can easily be smuggled out of the mines by the workmen, it is found necessary to keep the strictest watch upon them.

Most of the miners in South Africa are natives. They are divided into two classes. One class devotes its entire time to spying upon the other class. These detectives are usually chosen from the Zulus, who make, by long odds, the best officers of any native tribe. They are keen sighted, quick witted and attentive, regular in their habits, and simple in their wants. The Kaffirs are the workmen. These men are passed in squads through the various departments of the searching-house.

The searching-house is arranged according to this plan: The miner, on going to work, takes off his clothing in the first apartment. He passes into the second nude and in the third puts on the regulation working garb of the company. On coming out of the mine this order is reversed. The miners are searched at midday when they come in for their meals, as well as in the morning and evening. There are always trustworthy inspectors present to see that everything is properly conducted.

Notwithstanding these precautions a great deal of thieving goes on It is a problem to the companies how to prevent thefts on the part of employees. As illustrating the difficulties they have to contend with in guarding against the dishonesty of workmen, the following rule, adopted two years ago, may be of interest: "Officers of the searching department must understand that the duties in which they are engaged are of a preventive nature. Emergencies may arise when officers will be required to perform difficult and dangerous service in apprehending thieves and tracing stolen diamonds. When detailed for this duty officers must act with zeal and determination." To encourage the zeal of the officers a reward of 25 per cent. on the value of the stolen gems was offered to him who succeeded in recovering them.

During the construction of the new Croton acqueduct there was no end of complaints as to the way in which the contractors treated the workmen. They established lodging houses and stores, where the men could get credit for their daily needs, and even for whisky, if they were disposed to drink, the sums spent being deducted from their month's earnings. Whoever invented the scheme was a shrewd man. As most of the workmen had anticipated their wages at the contractor's stores, he had little cash to disburse on pay-day.

In the diamond fields of South Africa the same system prevails—at least, so far as the native workman are concerned. It is called there "compounding," whatever that word may mean. The "compound," or barracks, of the workmen is inclosed by four high walls, and comprises a spacious dormitory, recreation sheds, a hospital and a general store. The utmost regard is paid to sanitary regulations, and nothing has been left undone in this respect, no matter how costly it might have been.

The store is bountifully supplied with goods bought from the local merchants, and the miners can purchase whatever they want upon presenting coupons issued by the clerk of the mining company. The average cost of living in the "compound" is about 5 shillings a day. The chief difference between this system and that adopted by the Croton acqueduct contractors lies in the fact that no liquor is sold in the South African stores, while on the line of the acqueduct improvised rum shops were numerous.

The natives know the value of the coupons issued to them thoroughly, and are economical and saving. The "compound" is inspected daily by a physician, so that the health of those who work in the mines may be preserved. Consequently most of the native miners are healthy and perfectly contented.

It is different, however, with the white miners. As a rule they will not consent to enter a "compound." They prefer to live in houses by themselves, although the expense is much greater. Attached to one of the mines there are about sixty-six of these dwellings, forming three sides of a square, with an open space in the centre. These buildings were erected at the expense of the company and are comfortably arranged. Wood, water and medical attendance are supplied free. The rent, however, including taxes, is 25 shillings, or $6.25 a week.

Intelligent white labor receives a higher compensation than is given the native workman, and, therefore, no complaints are heard. All this has occurred within Mr. Barnato's time, and he has been an important factor in evolving the system. He has introduced in South Africa a system of employing the natives in remunerative work that might be studied to advantage by those who are straining their minds over the Indian question.

TANNIN IN TEA.

Percentage of Tannin in Different Brands of Tea.

Some examples which have been forwarded to us, says the British Medical Journal, of the results of analyses for tannin and theine in tea indicate considerable variations in the amount of tannin, according to the quality of the tea and the state of growth at which it is picked. In some blends of China teas the percentage of tannin extracted by infusion for thirty minutes was 7.44; theine, 3.11; and a similar result was given in the examination of the finest Moying; while, on the other hand, with fine Assam tea a percentage of 17.73 of tannin by weight was extracted after infusion for fifteen minutes, and two blends of Assam and Ceylon tea, gave, respectively, 8.91 and 10.26 of tannin. On the whole, it is probable that the Indian teas are much more heavily loaded with tannin than the China and Japan teas. Moreover, the common method of prolonged infusion in boiling water is well calculated to extract the tannin, while it dissipates the flavor of the tea

To be drunk reasonably, tea should not be infused for more than a minute, and with water of which the temperature does not exceed 170° F. It should be taken without sugar or milk, which would drown the flavor of the delicate and aromatic infusion thus obtained. This, at least is how the tea is drunk both in China and Japan, whence we have borrowed the use of it. With our European method of prolonged infusion in boiling water we destroy all the best flavor of the tea, and we extract such heavy proportions of tannin as to cultivate indigestion as the result of tea drinking. Indigestion is unknown among tea drinkers in the East, and it is in all probability only the result of defective use of the leaf.

Child Inebriety.

At first thought it would hardly seem necessary to discuss this subject in respectable communities. When one remembers, however, how often a little whisky or brandy is prescribed for trifling ailments, such as colds, stomach trouble, etc., there would seem to be some foundation for the remarks of Dr. Keeley in a lecture delivered at Minneapolis, Minn. The doctor said: "Alcohol is the same liquor on the nursery table or sideboard as in the saloon, and has the same effect when given to a baby as when taken by an old person. Much has been said about the heredity of inebriety, but there is no evidence that this disease is hereditary. If it is possible that its heredity reaches back any further than the cradle and the nursery, then it certainly can reach no further than the influence that alcohol may have on the unborn child if liquor is drank by the mother. I do not doubt that inebriates are born and made in this manner. Mothers may sometimes be inebriates or take liquor as a remedy. The danger is to the child. The alcohol, no doubt, circulates through the brain of the unborn infant under such circumstances, and puts the stamp of inebriety on the delicate tissues.

"When the child is born its first crying breath is likely to inhale the odors of liquor. It enters the cradle and its cry is satisfied by opium and whisky. The method of causing inebriety in childhood is the secret of intemperance. It is to intemperance what the riddle was to the dragon slain by Jason when he recovered the golden fleece. That alcohol is a universal and general prescription for children's diseases needs no proof. I do not doubt that a satisfactory substitute can be found in each case for the alcohol given under these circumstances for children creates the disease of inebriety. Mothers should not give their children alcohol, and medical science must find us a substitute."

(From Our Own Correspondent)

COUNCIL MEETING.

Council met pursuant to adjournment on June 4th inst. Members all present. Minutes of two previous meetings and court of revision read and confirmed. On motion of Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. Bullock, the reeve was instructed to give orders to pathmaster to procure road scrapers when required. By-law No. 480 passed, authorizing the reeve and treasurer to borrow the sum of $1000 to meet current expenditure. The reeve and Councillor McCliggott were appointed commissioners to arrange with parties who may have gravel to dispose of either by the acre or yard. Mr. King was appointed a commissioner to expend $25 on side road between lots 5 and 6 in Ward No. 3, being a grant made to said road in 1893. The reeve and clerk was instructed to make search in the registry office for plans of the subdivisions of the original lots in cons. 11 and 12, and procure copies of all such plans not already in possession of the council and in the event of finding that the plan of any such subdivision has not been fyled to notify parties who should fyle such plans to have same fyled forthwith, and when proper descriptions are found as to lands liable to be sold for arrears of taxes, to authorize County Treasurer to insert such descriptions opposite such lands in Assessment Rolls, where necessary, for sale of lands for arrears of taxes. Moved by Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. McCliggott, that whereas complaint has been laid before the Council that some parties have been stealing cattle and sheep in several parts of the county, that the Reeve and D. Reid interview the County Council with a view to offering a reward for information, apprehension and successful conviction of such parties. The Reeve and Treasurer were authorized to procure a Ledger for use of Treasurer, also that Treasurer pay cost of same. Moved by Mr. Walsh, seconded by Mr. McCliggott, that whereas the Provincial Board of Health has called the attention of the local Board to the necessity of having the people of the Province vaccinated owing to the prevalence of small-pox in the neighbouring States and likely to be communicated to this country, be it herefore resolved that the Secretary write the Trustees of the several schools in the municipality, asking their opinions as to whether it is advisable to have vaccination performed at the school houses in their respective sections, and if it is advisable to have the Act respecting vaccination and innoculation brought into operation, chapter 205, revised Statutes of Ontario. 1887, and to reply to the Local Board of Health immediately. Council then adjourned to a call from the Reeve.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.
"It's Fair's way."
Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

And see you get what we advertise

LADIES' BLOUSES—All our $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Blouses we let you have your choice for a one dollar bill.

LADIES' CLOAKS AND RUBBER COSSAMERS—to keep the rain out and protect your dresses—in some instances at HALF the original prices. For instance, Cloaks that were $6 to $8 now going at $2.75 to $3.50.

LADIES' COLOURED CLOTH CAPES—specially reduced to suit all cases—you-may-take-them prices.

JACKETS—Latest styles, large sleeves—cost of material. MANTLES—Profits pushed aside—it's a clear sweep—It's Fair's way.

LADIES' SILK PARASOLS 75c., $1, $1.50. If you want an aristocratic Umbrella, with fashionable handles and sensible covering, you know where to look for it. UMBRELLAS RE-COVERED WHILE YOU WAIT. The prices tell, and everyone tells the prices.

MR. WIMAN IN THE BOX

He Tells the Story of His Transactions With R. G. Dun & Co.

THE CASE FOR THE DEFENCE

Wiman's Relations With Dun Were of a Very Intimate Nature — The Accused's Letter Asking for Mercy — Boardman's Strong Appeal.

NEW YORK, June 14.—In the trial of Erastus Wiman yesterday the prosecution put in the letter written by Mr. Wiman to Mr. Dun. It reads:

MY DEAR MR. DUN—I have had occasion to write you more than once in terms of humiliation, but never before under such circumstances as now, in which I have a confession to make to you. It is that improperly and fraudulently I have signed the name of E. W. Bullinger on the back of two cheques of your firm made to his order. I will not urge that this was done without any evil intent, or that he would have signed them himself had I asked him, or that I had any intention of defrauding you or him. Simply and frankly, I must say that I committed this act without authority and most imprudently, and can ask no excuse or palliation, except such as in your abundant charity and goodness of heart you may in mercy extend to me for the sake of my dear wife and children, and for the sake of the long service rendered to you. I pray God that your heart may still be softened toward me and that I may not be made to suffer the penalty of my offence.

Respectfully yours, ERASTUS WIMAN.

Mr. Wellman then rested the case for the people.

Mr. Boardman then began the case for the defence. He said that the charge against Mr. Wiman was the forgery of a cheque for $5,000 and the uttering of it after the forgery. Mr. Boardman continued: "We do not deny these facts. The sole question for you to decide is, did Mr. Wiman sign that cheque with the intent to defraud his partners? It does not matter what the judge may think, or what I may think, or what the learned district attorney may think, but, gentlemen, what do you think? We have seen that Mr. Wiman had been in the habit of signing about 75 to 90 per cent. of the cheques of the firm. We all admit the testimony in regard to the $5,000 and to the overdrafts made by Mr. Wiman. They have proved that at the end of 1890 his account was overdrawn $45,000, that at the end of 1891 the account stood $135,000 against Mr. Wiman, and that at the time the cheque was drawn Mr. Wiman owed R. G. Dun & Co. $187,000. Mr. Boardman then spoke of his long friendship for Mr. Wiman and the latter's long record of benevolence and of public work. He recited the principal events of Mr. Wiman's life, and told how as a poor lad he had begun life in Toronto, Canada, how he finally had come to New York to take charge of the business of R. G. Dun & Co.

Mr. Boardman spoke for an hour and a half. All through his address Mr. Boardman attacked young Douglass, who he said was always jealous of Mr. Wiman.

Mr. Wiman took the stand and Gen. Tracy began with questions in regard to his early life. Mr. Wiman said that he was born in Toronto sixty years ago, and that he began life at sixteen years of age as a printer, earning $1.50 a week. Four years later found him working as a reporter on the Toronto Globe at a salary of $6 a week.

Continuing his story, Mr. Wiman said: "I rendered some service to the city of Toronto at that time, and I was presented with a gold watch as a testimonial. After that I was employed on the Toronto Board of Trade, and while there was made the Toronto correspondent for Dun's agency. In those days it was known as B. Douglass & Co. I got $4 a week from them for my work. I was made manager of the Toronto office after a while at a salary of $1,200 a year. After that I was made manager of the Canadian business, and the name of the firm was changed to Dun, Wiman & Co. I then had an interest in the business with a guaranteed income of at least $3,000 a year. I remained in Canada until 1865 when I came to this city to take charge of the general business."

"Why were you called to New York?" was asked.

"Because," said Mr. Wiman, "I was making about $30,000 a year for the firm in Canada, and the business in this country was not paying expenses. When I came to New York in 1865 the business was being run at a loss. When I was put out of it a year ago the annual profits exceeded half a million of dollars. That is the result of my work for R. G. Dun & Co. Shortly after coming to this city I began work on the publishing of our reference book. It was a great work. I set up a printing office and bought over twenty tons of type, at a dollar a pound, and enough brass to cover a ten acre lot."

Gen. Tracy got him to state that Mr. Dun was interested with him in nearly all the outside enterprises with which he was identified. He knew that Mr. Wiman was in the habit of overdrawing his account. "Did he know that your account was overdrawn at the time you drew the cheque for the $135,000?"

"Certainly, he did."

"You were in the habit of talking over your affairs with him?"

"Certainly. He was away from the city six months of the year and when he was away I wrote to him every day. When he was here we saw each other every day. He was interested with me in all my Staten Island enterprises and knew that I was constantly in need of money to carry them on."

"Mr. Wellman has said that Mr. Dun did not know at that time that you were overdrawing your account. Is that true?"

"It is not."

Gen. Tracy then produced a letter written in July, 1892, to Mr. Wiman by Mr. Dun, in which the latter upbraids the former with overdrawing his account so much and refers to previous conversations on the same subject. He concludes by saying that Mr. Wiman must content himself with drawing no more than $3,000 a month. The letter was written before the cheque for $135,000 had been drawn by Mr. Wiman. Mr. Wiman said he did not draw that cheque until the end of that year.

Continuing, the witness said that Mr. Dun knew that he, the witness, owned over $300,000 worth of real estate, and that he was holding it ready to reimburse Mr. Dun should the necessity arise. The whole trend of the testimony went to show that the relations between Dun and Wiman were very close, and that Wiman had practically made the business of R. G. Dun & Co. what it was.

An adjournment was taken until to-day, when the case is expected to go to the jury.

IN DEFENCE OF HOOPER.

The Evidence Taken at the Trial at Three Rivers, Que.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 14.—At the close of the court the Crown in the Hooper case had exhausted the witnesses. The defence claim having sixteen more witnesses to hear. The first one heard was Mrs. Hooper's mother, who caused a great deal of amusement by saying she was fatigued and could not bother answering any more questions. She told the Queen's counsel to go and find out for himself. She procured a chair and a glass of water and her cross-examination was continued. She declared that Hooper never told her that his wife was crazy or in a lunatic asylum. Her daughter never complained of ill-treatment from her husband, but on the contrary said he was a bon garcon. Another witness, Edmond Leblanc, Hooper's brother-in-law, swore to the deceased saying that she had thrown herself into the river for the salvation of the world. A neighbor of the previous witness named Laurin, testified to the same effect.

The only witnesses heard in the afternoon were on the side of the defence. Miss Elmire Auger, of Louiseville, was present at the house of the Misses Desaulniers when Hooper, accompanied by his brother-in-law, came for his wife, who said: "John, my husband, I love you."

Henry Racine, butcher of Louiseville, found a pair of woman's cotton drawers on the railway track about half a mile west of Louiseville station with the initials "G. L." Another witness named Bourassa said he found a petticoat a little farther west marked with the same letters.

Miss Celina Down, of Ottawa, where the prisoner once boarded with his wife, said Hooper was always kind to the deceased during the five months they lived with her.

Alex. Stewart, of Salisbury, gave evidence as to accused belonging to the Sons of England. The crown has still one witness to bring in, rebuttal, so that to-morrow may see the end of the trial.

THE NEW DURHAM MYSTERY.

Evidence at the Inquest Establishes the Most Startling Circumstances.

NORWICH, Ont., June 14.—Important and deeply interesting evidence was forthcoming at the Hartley inquest yesterday, bringing the widely spread interest in this case to its climax.

Ling's evidence completely substantiated the truth of the evidence given by his father, mother and Rev. Mr. Best, Baptist minister, to whom he made a confession, stating that Mrs. Hartley had offered him a reward of $1,000 to keep silence as to the fact that he knew that she had administered poison to her husband.

Evidence was given fully establishing the fact that she had given him poison in various quantities. Ling contributed evidence of a demoralizing character as to his relations with Mrs. Hartley at frequent intervals during the absence of Mr. Hartley.

Mrs. Hartley was put on the stand, but, acting under the advice of her counsel, absolutely refused to make any statement or answer any questions.

Fred Hartley, her son, was compelled to own that he suspected that his mother had poisoned his father. During his evidence the jury was melted to tears, and the scene was dramatic in the extreme. Other important evidence of a criminating character was advanced at the night session.

ONE YEAR AT HARD LABOR.

Corkery, the Ex-Monk, Sentenced for Disturbing Public Worship.

HAMILTON, June 14. — Prof. James Corkery, ex-Monk and anti-Romanist, was tried before Judge Muir in the Court of General Sessions on the charge of disturbing the public worship in St. Mary's church on Sunday, May 6.

Father McEvay, and other witnesses, testified to the effect that the defendant, when handed the blessed sacrament at the communion service on the date mentioned, struck the hand of the priest and the wafer fell in pieces on the floor, at the same time Corkery said: "I protest, you should be ashamed to call that God," or words to that effect.

The ex-Monk defended himself and made a number of rambling statements.

Judge Muir, in sentencing the prisoner to one year's imprisonment in the Central prison at hard labor, said he was unable to determine if Corkery was a knave or a fool, but the pardoning power was merciful and might be extended to him.

The Case of Contractor Neelon.

TORONTO, June 14. — Judgment was given by the Court of Appeal in the famous court house case, the suit of Neelon against the city and Architect Lennox. This was an appeal from the verdict which was given a little time ago in favor of the city and Mr. Lennox in the case brought by Mr. Neelon, the deposed contractor. The amount involved was about $350,000. Mr. Neelon sought to claim damages for dismissal, and to prevent Mr. Lennox from carrying out the work by day labor. The contractor lost his case, but appealed. The appeal was dismissed with costs yesterday. This confirms the victory of the city through Mr. Lennox. Mr. Blake, counsel for Neelon, has in the past declared his intention of continuing the fight through the Supreme Court at Ottawa to the Privy Council if necessary.

DEWDNEY'S DESPATCH

Creates Some Surprise Among British Columbia Members.

CORROBORATED BY MR. DAVIE

The Premier of the Province Also States That There is No Distress That They Cannot Relieve—No Dominion Election to be Held Until 1896.

OTTAWA, June 14.—It is understood that Major-General Herbert, to settle all rumors in connection with the lately imported stock of Martini-Metford rifles, for use in Canadian militia, has requested two well-known local shots to pick teams for a competition between Martini-Metford and Martini-Henry rifles. Those gentlemen will have their teams ready and will shoot to-morrow at the Rideau Rifle range.

Paymaster Benjamin of the G.G.F.G. has resigned after having served twenty two years.

At the Government caucus the redistribution of Quebec constituencies was discussed at length and it was practically decided to hold the matter in abeyance. The principle of redistribution, however, as now claimed by Quebec, was admitted, and it was left in the hands of the Ministers to decide whether or not the matter should be gone on with. It was arranged that there should be two revisions, one each year before 1896, it having been decided to run the full term and have no election until 1896, unless under the most extreme and exceptional circumstances. The French treaty and fast Atlantic steamship line were not referred to. The Government informed their supporters that the introduction of the insolvency bill in the Commons depended entirely upon the time it took the Senate to dispose of it.

Dupont, who voted with the Opposition in the Ellis matter, was absent, and Putnum, of Hants, N.S., and Wilson, of Lennox, two good Tories, sat in the Commons Chamber while the caucus was going on. They assign no reason for absenting themselves.

There is something very strange about the despatch received by Lord Aberdeen from the Lieut.-Governor of British Columbia which state there was no loss of life from the floods in that province and that the report as to damage done to property was greatly exaggerated. British Columbia papers received corroborate the despatches of more than a week ago as to the wreck and ruin caused by the overflowing of the Fraser river. On the other hand a telegram was received by the British Columbia members from Premier Davie, of the province, which was couched in exactly similar terms to the despatch of Lieut.-Governor Dewdney. Mr. Davie's despatch was in effect that there was no distress so far beyond what the province can relieve. The despatches of Premier Davie and Lieut.-Governor Dewdney have therefore put an end to some private schemes which were about to be started for the relief of the sufferers, but who are, it is said, being cared for. This, however, is not credited here, despite the despatches of Messrs. Davie and Dewdney, since telegrams from private citizens to the British Columbia members and also to the Government have a very different tale. These private despatches say that urgent aid is required.

DUNCAN M'INTYRE DEAD.

A Well-Known Railroad Promoter Dies in Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 14.—Mr. Duncan McIntyre, the prominent financier and railroad man, died here yesterday from heart failure after an illness of several weeks.

Mr. McIntyre came from Scotland to Montreal in the early years of his life and finally established the wholesale dry goods house conducted by his sons under the name of D. McIntyre & Sons. After laying the nucleus of what is now a large fortune he took up railway ventures. As president of the Canada Central railway he conducted the sale of that franchise to the Canadian Pacific Company and became one of the directors of that company. He was largely instrumental in building the Ontario and Quebec division of the C. P. R., and when the road was finished and in good running order he retired from active work, still retaining a large financial interest in the undertaking. Three years ago he secured control of a great deal of G.T.R. stock, and was chosen as a member of the directorate of that road, but he never took any active interest in the work of the board. He leaves a family of three sons and three daughters.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon. The family has received numerous messages of condolence from all over the continent.

Mill, Dwelling and Contents Burned.

HEPWORTH, Ont., June 14.—Yesterday the shingle and planing mill, owned by James Hawley and leased by Wm. Foster, caught fire. The flames spread rapidly to Mr. Hawley's dwelling and gained so furiously that nothing could be saved, and in less than half an hour the mill and dwelling with contents were a smouldering heap. It is supposed that a spark from the furnace falling in the dry cedar shavings was the origin of the fire. Mr. Hawley's loss on mill and dwelling will be $2,500, and Mr. Foster's loss will be about $1,500 on stock. Neither have any insurance.

Increase in Exports to Britain.

LONDON, June 14.—British imports from Canada during the month of May increased 56 per cent. compared with last year, and for the five months of this year the increase was 73 per cent. The chief increases for the five months were: Fish, 500,000 pounds; wheat and flour, 45,000 pounds; bacon, 35,000 pounds; cheese, 55,000 pounds; wool, 20,000. The exports from Great Britain decreased 44 per cent. during May, and for the five months there was a decrease of 17 per cent cent. During that period railroad iron declined 77,000 pounds.

Assaulted With Brass Knuckles.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., June 14.—Chas. Tims was arrested at South Bend for pounding Harry Lyle in Pfander's saloon. They got into a midnight broil. Tims wore brass knuckles and cut his assailant's head in several places. Lyle was taken home unconscious and has not yet regained consciousness. His condition is considered critical. Tims will be held awaiting the result of Lyle's injuries.

INSPECTION OF CHARITIES.

All institutions in receipt of aid under the Charity Aid Act of Ontario are subject to inspection from time to time by the Inspector of Prisons, who is authorized to make all proper enquiries as to maintenance, management and affairs thereof, and to particularly satisfy himself by the examination of registers and other means as to the correctness of returns made under the Act, and to report to the Government.

The annual return for each institution is made by its officers according to forms prepared by the Government. They are verified under oath, and any person who wilfully makes or is a party to procuring to be made a false return is liable to penalty of $1,000.

In the strict sense there is only one sectarian institution in the Province, the Nicholl's Hospital at Peterborough, which by its charter has been established for the benefit of the Protestant population of the said town. All others, whether under Protestant or Roman Catholic management, admit patients and inmates without distinction of church, race, creed or color.

It is not stated that there will be an election for the Commons before 1896. At the first caucus of the Conservatives at Ottawa this session it was arranged that there should be two revisions of the Dominion voters' lists, one each year, before 1896, it having been decided to run the full term, and have no election until that of 1896 unless under the most extreme and exceptional circumstances.

THE DOMINION PROHIBITION CONVENTION.

Address of the Ontario Branch to the Electors.

In connection with the announcement of the Dominion Prohibition Convention, which is to be held in Montreal on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 3rd and 4th, the following address of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance will be of interest:

To the Electors of the Province of Ontario:

A general provincial election is close at hand, and the executive committee of the Ontario Branch of the Dominion Alliance respectfully and earnestly appeal for wise united action, on the part of all who deplore the evils of intemperance, and desire to see, at the earliest possible date, the enactment of effective legislation, to the full limit of the ascertained power of the provincial legislature, for the suppression of the traffic through the operation of which those evils exist.

At no time before in the history of our province was there as favourable an opportunity for the working out of the principles which we have frequently affirmed and never was there before placed on prohibitionists a heavier responsibility in relation to the prohibition question, which is to-day the most important issue before the electorate.

In many meetings and conuentions there have been made strong declarations as to the duty of temperance men to make partisanship subservient to principle and vote, in every election, so as to make their ballots tell effectively for the promotion of this great reform. The time has come for action in harmony with these declarations.

The events which have given the prohibition movement the prominence which it occupies in the present electoral contest may be briefly summarized as follows:—

The Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, at its session in 1893, in response to a great many petitions, enacted a measure providing for the taking of a vote of the electorate on the question of immediate total prohibition to the full extent of the jurisdiction of the Legislative Assembly and the Dominion Parliament, respectively.

The vote was taken on January 1st and resulted in a majority of 81,769 in favour of prohibition. Following up this voting a great representative prohibition convention was held in Toronto on February 6th. This convention adopted the following resolution:—

That a deputation be appointed to wait upon the Ontario Government and respectfully request them to declare in favour of the total prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquor to the full extent of the power vested in the Legislature.

The deputation was appointed and laid the request of the convention before the Attorney-General and his cabinet. The Attorney-General gave the deputation in writing the following reply:—

"If the decision of the Privy Council should be that the province has the jurisdiction to pass a prohibitory liquor law as respects the sale of intoxicating liquor, I will introduce such a bill in the following session if I am then at the head of the Government.

"If the decision of the Privy Council is that the province has jurisdiction to pass only a partial prohibitory liquor law, I will introduce such a prohibitory bill as the decision will warrant, unless the partial prohibitory power is so limited as to be ineffective from a temperance standpoint."

This declaration was hailed with much pleasure by the friends of the prohibition cause.

The question of jurisdiction has been submitted to the Supreme Court by the joint action of the Provincial and Dominion Governments, and in reference to it a final authoriative decision is shortly expected. The legislature about to be elected will therefore have to deal immediately with the question of direct prohibition legislation to the limit of its authority, as demanded by the electorate.

Although the Government are thus definitely pledged to carry out, as far as in their power, the demand of the people for prohibition, it is clear that this doing so must largely depend upon the co-operation of a legislature favourable to the unconditional fulfillment of that promise, ready to carry out the expressed will of the people, and believing in the principle of prohibition.

It is therefore manifestly the duty of prohibitionists to support in the approaching contest only such candidates as will co-operate in the carrying out of the pledge that has thus been given.

There is a matter of some importance to which the attention of our friends is also respectfully called. The effectiveness of prohibition will be largely dependent upon the thoroughness of its enforcement. Prohibitionists have endorsed and stood by the wise policy of holding the Government of the province directly responsible for the carrying out of whatever law exists in relation to the liquor traffic. Only thus can the will of the whole people be made effective in every part of the Province. We must guard against the danger of the committing of such power to any local authority, which (specially if elective) would necessarily be least favorable to thorough enforcement, where thorough enforcement would be most needful. It is therefore suggested that candidates everywhere should be pledged against the unwise proposal to take away from the Provincial Government the duty and the responsibility of carrying out the law relating to the liquor traffic.

This appeal is made in full confidence that the people of Ontario who declared themselves so strongly against the liquor traffic on the first of January, will wisely exercise their electoral power at the present crisis, so as to ensure the triumph of the principle so overwhelmingly endorsed.

On behalf of the Executive Committee.

F. S. SPENCE, Secretary. JOHN J. MACLAREN, Chairman.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 14, 1894.

The earnings of the Grand Trunk railway for the week ended June 10 were $307,314, a decrease of $64,149 as compared with the corresponding week last year.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts limited. One load of white wheat sold at 62c standard. Red is quoted at 61c and goose at 58c. Oats firm, 200 bushels selling at 39 to 41c. Barley is quoted at 41 to 42c, and peas at 66c.

As a result of heavy selling in Chicago the final outcome of the day's trading in wheat showed a net depression of 1 1-4 to 1 3-8c. Corn followed wheat, closing 3-8c below. Oats were firm and closed 1 8 to 1-4c higher. Estimated—Wheat, 37 cars; corn, 283 cars; oats, 110 cars; hogs, 31,000.

Speculation at the New York Stock Exchange was confined almost exclusively to American Sugar and Chicago Gas. The first named ranged between 100 1-2 and 102 7-8, ex dividend of 3 per cent., and closed at 101 7-8. Chicago Gas was in demand throughout and a new pool was said to be buying.

Buffalo.—Cattle—Nothing doing. Sheep and lambs—Except for choice ewes and wethers there was practically no demand. Hogs—Fourteen cars; fairly active; bulk of sales were at $5.10, but some choice Yorkers and pigs brought $5.15; roughs dull at $4 to $4.40.

Three Wants.

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense,
Lie in three words, health, peace, and competence."

So says the poet. Competence counts for little when one is sick, and peace is disturbed, when health is upset, so that the poet rightly places health first. To have good health you must have pure blood. From the blood the system receives all its material of growth and repair. The best blood-purifier is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is world-famed and sold everywhere. It is a soverign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished or impure blood, as consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, old sores, skin diseases and kindred ailments.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, promptly, thoroughly and permanently cured. Send 10 cents in stamps for large illustrated treatise, sent securely sealed in plain envelope. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE TAY CANAL.

Brings Grist to Hon. John Haggart's Mill—"Haggart's Ditch" Cost $2,500 a Year and Yields a Revenue of $136.

The question of an appropriation to the Tay Canal came up in the House of Commons the other day. This canal is known known as "Haggart's Ditch" because its chief function consists in bringing grist to Sir John Haggart's mill in Perth. The Montreal Star supplies a little history of this undertaking, which has caused the ratepayers of Canada to contribute to the private property of a Cabinet Minister. The Star says:—

"The Tay Canal, or "Haggart's ditch," taps the Rideau Canal, wanders through several swamps, and ends abruptly at the mill race of John Haggart's grist mill in the venerable town called "Perth." Construction work was begun nearly ten years ago. Even in those days the present minister was an old timer in the Tory party. He had a pull and exercised it. Under the magic spell of Sir Charles Tupper, Parliament granted $132,000 towards the work in 1882. He was careful to admit that this would not embrace the damages for flooded lands. A year later saw another vote of $75,000. The lowest tender far exceeded this amount. In parliament Mr. Haggart justified the undertaking. He dwelt upon the great influence his inland water way would exert in developing commerce. The iron deposits in that region would be blazing with blast furnaces and there was to be an endless procession of barges laden with phosphates. Incidentally there would

BE CARGOES OF WHISKEY

(a brand then only known to the natives), but now about to be exploited in the wider market owing to cheap transportation. Prospective cargoes made legislators see the wisdom of giving the canal ample depth. Hence, in 1884, Sir Charles Tupper persuaded Parliament to give him $100,000 more. A year later came another vote of $55,000, followed in 1888, by another lump of $78,000. Another year flew by, and Mr. Foster gave the insatiable canal $25,000. The annual demands went on apace until two years ago the total appropriations reached nearly five hundred thousand dollars.

Mr. Charlton could see no sense in this big expenditure. At last Mr. Haggart admitted that the tonnage did not exceed 20,000 tons a year, while the savings in freights equalled about $30,000 annually. But the minister had finally got the canal extended up to his grist-mill. What a record of tonnage! Reading from official returns Mr. Charlton gave the list of craft which cartisd freight on its raging waters. It included three steamboats, a skiff and one barge. The steamer John Haggart appeared with painful frequency in these trips. But Mr. Charlton smiled an exultant smile when he read the record for the extension from Perth to Haggart's mills. The official returns showed that these tranquil waters had only been stirred once, and on that occasion by Millionaire McLaren's yacht.

The traffic on the canal between October 1892, and June, 1893, was as follows, viz.: A scow, a skiff, two yachts and two tugs, which yielded a revenue of the magnificent sum of $135.76 on a work which cost 158 times that sum. Mr. Haggart had, however, increased the head of water at his mill by 2½ feet besides having the site of his mill transformed from a piece of marsh to a well drained piece of property lined along its length with fine stone facing. The only traffic on the extension had been by Mr. Peter MacLaren's yacht and if it was built for his benefit he did not reap it, as his yacht passed through but twice.

Italy's Cabinet Reorganized.

ROME, June 14.—The cabinet has finally been reorganized. Signor Sonnino, Minister of Finace, will assume the portfolio of Minister of the Treasury, and Signor Boselli will become Minister of Finance, Signor Damiano will succeed Signor Bosselli as Minister of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture. ## THE CONFERENCE AT OTTAWA

The Daily Chronicle Considers Its Objects Intensely Practical—A Special Committee to Investigate Pleuro-Pneumonia—Manchester Ship Canal.

LONDON, June 14.—The defence committee of the Imperial Federation League has drafted a memorial urging upon the Government that, inasmuch as Canada and Australia request an Imperial subsidy for the new steamship service and a guarantee of the intetest on the money to be spent on the new cable, they ought to help defray the expenses of the navy. The memorial suggests that the Earl of Jersey, Great Britain's delegate to the colonial conference in Ottawa, be instructed to submit this proposal to the conference and to ask that Canada and Australia consent to contribute to the naval fund, provided that they be allowed to share in the administration of it. Several peers and commoners are among the signers of the memorial.

The Ottawa Conference.

LONDON, June 14.—The Daily Chronicle publishes a sympathetic leader concerning the Ottawa Colonial Conference. It says: The objects before the conference are intensely practical, thus making a great advance over the last gathering of a similar kind. It would be premature to pass judgment on the steamship and cable proposal. They certainly do not lack courage; moreover they are designed to advance important political ends. We fear, however, that it will not be easy to get Belgium and Germany to acquiesce in the necessary modification of existing treaties.

To Investigate Pleuro-Pneumonia.

LONDON, June 14.—A special commission, consisting of the Board of Agriculture officials, Sir Henry James, an eminent Unionist lawyer, and Dr. John S. Burdon Sanderson, M.A., professor of physiology at Oxford, has been appointed to examine the veterinary experts regarding the exact nature of the disease from which it is suspected Canadian cattle are suffering. The Canadian experts still maintain that it is a non-contagious lung trouble and not pleuro-pneumonia, as the British experts would have the public believe.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

REGARDING UNION.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—I do not think the remarkable unanmity of sentiment in favour of church unity, manifested by the large audience assembled in the George street church, on the occasion of the introduction of the ministers of the town to the Methodist Conference should be allowed to pass without comment.

The current of public opinion is day by day running more strongly in the direction of a large liberality in the non-essentials of Christianity. This is partly due to the spread of education, in a larger measure to the broadening influences of the press and of the knowledge of the world that has come through the great facilities for travel in the present day. But these are only indirect and auxiliary forces to the spirit of unity, which is in a far greater degree the result of what might almost be called a new vision of Christianity.

We are beginning to realize that our Lord was uttering no mere form of words when he prayed "that they may all be one," that it was a very magnificent ideal of the church that floated before the mind of St. Paul as he wrote, "There is one body and one spirit even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith one baptism, one God and Father of all, Who is over all and through all and in all," and that He meant what He said when He enjoined the Ephesians to give diligence "to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." We are beginning to appreciate the profound truth of the same Apostle's words: "There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are diversities of ministrations, but the same Lord; and there are diversities of workings, but the same God, Who worketh all things in all."

In theological matters error may be divided into two kinds. First, absolute and, second, relative error. Absolute error is a contradiction of act or truth; relative error consists in the transposition of the true order and importance of truths. And I think it is this kind of error into which the Christian churches have fallen in the past. We have not sufficiently emphasized those things upon which our Lord laid stress. We have not perceived the far-reaching import of the saying that before the two great and inseparable commandments of love to God and love to man "hang all the law and the prophets." We have not felt the depth of earnestness which found utterance in the words, "A new commandment give I unto you, that ye love one another, even as I have loved you that ye love one another." We have not sufficiently applied our Lord's own test of the true signs of discipleship—"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have loved one to another."

But it is one of the clearest facts and one of the most hopeful and inspiring signs of an age that is full of promise, that we are all alike beginning to see our present imperfections and are unanimous in desiring their removal. From England, from the United States, from all parts of Canada come abundant and frequent testimony to the strength of the movement for unity. We need not be in too great a hurry for action. The strongest and most abiding reforms are those which result from a thoroughly tested and matured public opinion. To arouse, to enlighten and to strengthen this should be the aim of all lovers of unity to-day.

Yours truly,
HERBERT SYMONDS,
St. Luke's Rectory, June 12th.

A NEW ORGANIZATION ESTABLISHED IN TOWN.

Branch 14 of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers Elected Officers.

The stationary engineers of the town met last evening in the Sons of England hall and organized themselves into an association to be known as Branch 14 of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers.

The meeting was called to order by Provincial Deputy A. E. Edkins, who installed the following officers who were elected:

President, S. Potter; Vice-President, C. Robinson; Secretary, W. L. Harper; Treasurer, F. E. Hunt; Conductor, Wm. Taylor; Doorkeeper, John Morency; Trustees, Wm. Wilson, Thos. Duncan, Joseph T. Stewart.

The meeting hereafter will be held Wednesday evenings, in the Sons of England Hall, Hunter street.

The association is not a Labour organization in any sense of the word, its whole energy being devoted to the study of steam and its appliance to power, etc.

A PRETTY JUNE WEDDING.

Mr. Symonds Performs the Ceremony in St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham.

A very pretty wedding took place at six o'clock last evening, in St. Luke's Church, Ashburnham, being the marriage of Miss Florence Chrow, youngest daughter of the late Edward Chrow, of Peterborough, to Mr. William Mitchell, formerly of Cobourg.

The bride was tastefully gowned in cream cashmere, trimmed with lace as was the bridesmaid, her sister, Miss E. A. Chrow. Both carried handsome bouquets of natural flowers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Symonds in the presence of a large number of the friends of the young couple. Mr. D. Yarnold assisted the groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony an adjournment was made to the residence of the bride's mother, 127 Smith street, where the wedding dejeuner was served and an opportunity given to the guests to admire the many handsome presents which were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have taken up their residence on Antrim street.

MR. BURNHAM'S EXPLANATION EXPLAINED.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—Your article in your issue of June 13th regarding my visit to the parish priest of Ennismore is a choice specimen of latter-day literature, though it is quite in keeping with the performances of some of your agents. I paid a visit to the priest and asked him to come to the meeting to hear our platform with respect to Separate Schools. I had a very pleasant chat of half an hour with him, and the only regret I had was that he did not feel at liberty to transgress his custom of avoiding political meetings. The statement that I sought in any way, directly or indirectly, to obtain his influence, in behalf of Mr. Winch or anybody else, is a pure fabrication and hardly courteous to the reverend gentleman himself. We are anxious to explain to all men, without distinction of race or creed, what our platform is.

On the other hand, I may say that I am not a P.P.A. man, nor shall I ever join any organization which adopts a policy such as I understand theirs to be. I reserve the right of a free man, to come and go where I please and I shall continue to do so. The language attributed to Mr. Campbell, M.P.P., who speaks here on Friday night, or the sentiment contained in it were never uttered by him. I saw that statement in the paper you got it from likely, and I asked him about it and he repudiated both sentiment and language with indignation, saying that he had denied the report a hundred times already—but then I can quite understand such reports after yours about myself. With regard to Mr. Winch, he can defend himself, but as he is not given to "blowing his own horn," I should like to say that a more liberal-minded man than he does not exist in Canada. Mr. Winch has stated publicly that he is a Conservative only; the regular nominee of his party, and that he is not a member of the P.P.A. or any other political organization.

As for myself, I did nothing unbecoming on which I should hesitate to do again. Truly politics in this riding have come to a pretty pass.

Yours, etc.,
HAMPDEN BURNHAM.

P. S.—I went out to the Ennismore picnic yesterday. Could you not make something out of that?

H. B.

[We cheerfully give space to the above letter of Mr. Burnham, in which he endeavours to let himself and the supporters of Mr. Winch, down as lightly as possible on account of their erratic course in this campaign. Of course everyone believes, and we believe, (in a parliamentary sense) Mr. Burnham when he says he did not visit the reverend gentleman to solicit his aid on behalf of Mr. Winch. Of course he was not in Ennismore on Monday night in the capacity of a politician, and he would, doubtless, wish us to believe that he was not in Ennismore for the purpose of making a political speech on behalf of Mr. Winch. Is it not a little strange that there should be so nice a coincidence between the occasion of a political meeting and Mr. Burnham's choice of a time to make a "friendly call" such as he asserts he did make? Mr. Burnham may have been anxious to have the people of Ennismore listen to his eloquent opinions upon the Separate School question, but he is not the candidate of the Conservative party. As he says in his letter, Mr. Winch is the Conservative candidate and consequently a supporter of Mr. Meredith, and the people know well what Mr. Meredith's policy, attitude and action towards the Separate Schools are. Is it not also a little strange that the happy idea did not strike Mr. Winch and his friends of inviting to his meetings the clergy in other parts of the riding? Did Mr. Burnham make a "friendly visit" to the Protestant ministers of Bridgenorth and Lakefield to invite them to listen to "our" platform with respect to Separate Schools? Mr. Burnham insinuates that the statement that he paid a visit to the priest is "hardly courteous" to that gentleman. It may be left to the opinions of honest men to judge whether such a statement is less courteous than the invitation of Mr. Burnham to the reverend gentleman to come to a meeting to hear the opinions of Mr. Meredith or his friends on a subject which he has used to discredit the priesthood, to insult the hierarchy of the Church and to justify to himself the application to the religious minority in Ontario of the insulting title of "The Common Enemy." It is rather asking too much of consistent people to request them to take lessons in courtesy towards Roman Catholics from Mr. Meredith and his friends in West Peterborough. The closing sentence of Mr. Burnham's letter is a just comment upon the course of Mr. Winch and his friends, and is especially applicable to the Ennismore episode, for in spite of his ingeniously ingenuous explanation, the fact remains that Mr. Burnham did make in effect, the overtures which the EXAMINER stated in yesterday's issue, and when a political party will descend to the double-faced role which Mr. Winch and his friends have been playing in West Peterborough, one may verily exclaim with Mr. Burnham—"truly politics in this riding have come to a pretty pass"—one supporter of Mr. Winch mustering the P.P.A. forces against the Liberal candidate and another striving to induce a worthy member of the Roman Catholic priesthood to listen to an hour or two's railing against distinctive institutions of the church he is sworn to serve. This is as bad as the actual supplication for the influence of the pastor in favour of Mr. Winch and Mr. Meredith. It is to be hoped that the courteous refusal to interfere in politics will convince Mr. Winch and his supporters that politics have not yet "come to the pretty pass" they seem to think and wish they have done. As to Mr. Burnham's postscript—we have no desire to "make" anything out of that; it is only hoped that the promoters of the picnic were able to "make" something out of his visit as an infinitesmal offset to the injury Mr. Meredith, Mr. Winch and his supporters have been trying to inflict upon the religious minority.

MR. STRATTON'S SIXTEENTH MEETING.

A BIG RALLY OF THE ELECTORS AT FRAZERVILLE.

Mr. Stratton's Representative Course Heartily Endorsed—Several Addresses Given—Evidences of Popularity and of a Triumph at the Polls.

One of the most successful meetings of the campaign in the interests of Mr. Stratton was held last night at Frazerville. Mr. John Lightfoot occupied the chair, the hall being well filled, and notwithstanding the extreme heat the electors took the greatest interest in the the addresses given, receiving them enthusiastically.

Mr. Robert Shaw, Warden of the county of Peterborough, referred to the valuable assistance rendered the township of Harvey through the efforts of Mr. Stratton, and the great improvement in the condition of the township since he became member.

Mr. Mansfield, reeve of Galway, spoke in a similar strain in reference to his township. Eight years ago the highways of Galway and Cavendish were in a very unsatisfactory condition, but owing to Mr. Stratton's efforts, they had been greatly improved and now the residents could travel with comfort and reach their market, the town of Peterborough, much more frequently than they could formerly. Besides, Mr. Stratton had been of the greatest assistance to the settlers in the matter of attending to many details which a live representative who made the interests of his constituents a first charge upon his activity, could, and in this case, did do.

Mr. James Middleton, reeve of Smith, bore testimony to the active and successful interest taken by Mr. Stratton in the township of Smith and in the riding generally.

Mr. W. H. Murray then dealt with the brilliant financial record of the Mowat Administration, which had so wisely looked after our resources that, after every public service had been liberally dealt with, there remained a surplus of over six millions of dollars, and the Province had solid assets of nearly a hundred millions.

Mr. Stratton addressed the electors dealing with the most prominent public questions which are agitating the public mind and are at issue in the present campaign. His remarks were listened to with the greatest attention and received with great favour as shown by the enthusiastic applause.

This meeting was a most successful one and afforded another evidence of the popularity of the candidate who has represented West Peterborough so faithfully for eight years and of the desire of the electors to again place him at the head of the poll on June 26th.

THE COUNTY COURT.

Woodcock vs. Elliott—This was an interpleaded issue directed to try the title to certain goods claimed by Mrs. Joseph Woodcock as against an execution creditor of her husband. She set up title to the goods, and being gift in contemplation of marriage on this grounds. Judgment reserved. John Burnham, Q.C., for claimant, Stratton & Hall for execution creditor.

In the case of Queen vs. Huffman, in which Mr. W. A. Stratton appeared for the defence, the prisoner was acquitted of the charge of indecent assault on the little girl, Warner, of Norwood, it being proven that he did nothing in any way to harm the child.

THE PRESENTMENT.

The Grand Jury recommended the renewal of the closet and wash-room conveniences at the goal and heartily approved of the Judge's suggestion regarding the erection of a House of Refuge, as there were at present numerous persons in the gaol who were not criminals but simply unfortunates who were destitute and could not provide for themselves.

Concerning the town hospitals they remarked as follows in their presentment: The grand jury have visited the Nicholls Hospital and have none but words of praise in reference to its premises, equipment and management. They have to congratulate the district on being the beneficiary under the late Mrs. Nicholls who so liberally supplied funds for the erection of the hospital and its endowment. The grand jury found the hospital in admirable condition, supplied with appliances for comfort and care of patients and in every respect a credit to the founder, the trustees and the superintendent. It is only due the trustees to recognize in a formal manner the time, attention and care devoted to the carrying on of the institution, as well as the gratituous service so cheerfully and ably given by the medical men of the town.

The Grand Jury also visited and inspected St. Joseph's Hospital in Ashburnham and were delighted to find so substantial an addition to our public institutions. The premises, equipment and appliances were perfect. The management and care of the fine institution speaks volumes for the good and kindly spirit of those who have built, equipped and supported it so liberally. The Grand Jury feel satisfied that few cities in the Dominion are so well provided in the way of hospitals as is the town of Peterborough.

After receiving the presentment, Judge Weller formally dismissed the jurors, directing them to call upon the county treasurer for the amounts due them.

Just One Point

That we would draw special attention to to-day; that is, that we are in down right earnest in our endeavours to present you such attractive values all this month of June as cannot fail to draw a very large part of your trade our way. Just how—NOT TO DO IT—would be to follow a very prevalent practice, which exists of advertising a great many lines which, on examination, are often found to exist only in the advertiser's mind.

But, TO ACCOMPLISH OUR AIMS, we give in our advertising to-day the earnest quality which has marked it since we commenced business. What we write and print, you can afford to read; you are equally interested with us in what we have to tell you.

WE DO NOT HAVE TO do any bogus advertising to draw trade. The value of our goods and the mottoes:—

"SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS"
"SPOT CASH AND ONE PRICE"

under which we trade, are in themselves the secret of the success of our business.

DAY AFTER DAY persons come to our store simply to look, and to their find astonishment that they have been paying 10 to 20 per cent. more for the same goods elsewhere, and they say we really did not believe until now that there was such a difference. ALL WE ASK IS THAT YOU COMPARE OUR VALUES and we are satisfied as to where you will trade.

OUT OF GRATITUDE, on account of the success of our cash business this season, we have purchased and arranged for further supplies of

Folding Tables, Folding Music Racks, Folding Book Racks, Folding Chairs and Rockers,

All to be given away FREE to our customers. Circulars and Cards explaining the Premium offer has been delivered to every house. If for any reason you haven't got one, call at once if you wish to get one of these FREE articles.

IT IS A FACT that we do not have to give premiums to build up our trade, but we have been so successful this season that we thought our friends would appreciate this offer.

CARPETS

Are being cut in prices for this month. This should interest you. Then if you wish them made and laid quickly, we can, with the aid of our new Carpet Sewing Machine, which, by the way, is the only one in this part of the country, guaranteed to make and lay any carpet large enough for the largest room in the place at four or five hours notice. The progressive character of our business has made itself quite apparent in the carpet room as in all departments.

We are closing out the balance of our stock in to make room for new goods, as our buyer has gone. Make no mistake about it. No matter what others may advertise in the way of excuse sales when they do not mean to take effect for a year, we will always sell lower, because we buy lower, and we have no bad debts to lose.

ACCUSATION AND COUNTER ACCUSATION.

The Town Councillors Meet to Discuss the Sewerage Question, but Get off the Track and Talk of Other Things —Another Special Meeting Called.

A special meeting of the town council was called last evening ostensibly for the purpose of discussing the new sewerage system. On motion, however, it was resolved to go into "general business" also. The upshot was that "general business" occupied the attention of the members until half-past ten, consequently another meeting of the council has been called for next Tuesday evening, when the sewerage question will be taken up if the members do not again forget the purpose for which they are assembled.

Although the rules are that no member may occupy the floor more than once unless the mover of of a resolution or unless the council goes into committee, one member was on his feet no less than thirteen times and half a dozen of the others were not far behind him in this regard.

Through its solicitor, Mr. A. P. Poussette, the Street Railway Company stated that many of the citizens were anxious to have the Lock street line extended to the river. Willingness to do so was expressed providing the council would accept the extension as a part performance of the extension required to be made in 1895.

This communication was what started the apple of discord rolling and for a couple of hours the the members apparently had a good time among themselves writing amendmennts as fast as the Mayor could handle them and speaking to each one.

The whole difficulty lay in the fact that the Street Railway Company wished to lay their new tracks along precisely the same street as that upon which the new sewer would be built, and the councillors wished to lay some obligation upon the company by which it would be compelled to lay the tracks temporarily to one side of the road until after the sewer had been laid or else bind them to move the track as required. As the extension proposed lies in the township of North Monaghan where the city fathers have not the "say," and as Mr. Bradburn stated emphatically that Monaghan wanted the rails and in the centre of the road bed, and as that is precisely where the sewer would have to go, there was a deadlock.

Mr. Kelly moved that the request be granted.

Mr. Roger was willing to grant the request with the proviso that the Street Railway Company laid the rails under the same conditions as the former rails were laid in the town, viz, that they could be moved to one side if the town contemplated building a sewer.

Mr. Mason thought if he was in the company's shoes he would go ahead and lay the rails without saying as much as by your leave to the council.

Mr. Hughes wanted the whole matter referred to a committee and Mr. Cahill thought that Mr. Roger's motion was nearly right, but introduced one which in his opinion was better adapted to the situation.

Mr. Kelly warned the council to be careful and not rub the street railway people the wrong way as they had the town at their mercy and could go ahead and lay this new track just where they felt like it. Then Mr. Kelly was asked if he was in the council chamber to represent the street railway interests or the interests of the town, and then everyone forgot about the sewer, the street railway and everything else connected with the order of business and speaker after speaker claimed the floor to deliver homilies on the respective evils and advantages which might result from such questions being propounded by a member of the council to another member.

The following resolution of Mr. Cahill's was finally discovered to embody in effect the wishes of the majority of the members and was accordingly passed:

"That the extension of the Street Railway to the river Otonabee be accepted by this Council in lieu of the extent of railway, foot per foot, which the company should build within the town limits next year and that the matter be referred to the Sewerage committee for the purpose of having provision made in the agreement to be entered into between this corporation and the street railway for removing the street railway track at the expense of the street railway Company should it be found necessary to do so for the purpose of extending the town sewerage to the river along Lock street."

THE NEW SEWER.

The special committee on sewerage reported that the solicitor had on request drafted a bylaw to meet the requirements for the construction of a sewer from Townsend street to the river, and also a by-law regarding the appointment of an arbitrator to discuss with the township of North Monaghan the feasibility of extending the sewer through a portion of that municipality. It was also recommended that the solicitor institute proceedings regarding the extending of the sewer from Townsend to West Brock street under the sanitary provisions of the Municipal Act.

As it was almost eleven o'clock by the time this report was presented it was tabled and will be taken up for consideration on Tuesday next.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From the Toronto Exposition Company asking the council to memoralize the Dominion Government for a grant for the purpose of aiding Toronto in holding a Dominion Exposition.—Received.

From John Condon, asking remission of his statute labour tax as he is a tenant.—Referred to the Court of Revision.

From the town clerk, re the petition of Henry Owens and others concerning the construction of a sewer on Sherbrooke street, stating that the petition was not sufficiently signed.—Referred to the Sewerage Committee.

From Waterworks Superintendent Henderson, stating that the circuits in the mains were being completed as fast as practicable, thus doing away with the dead-ends, and that the company would put in double nozzle hydrants in place of the single nozzle ones, as required by the fire underwriters, provided that the corporation pay for the work entailed and also the new hydrants. Attention was called to the fact that the single nozzle hydrants had been inserted in the first instance by the direction of the council, hence the expense of the change would have to be borne by the municipality and not by the company.—Referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee.

On motion of Mr. Hall the question of the was referred to the Finance Committee for the settlement of details. Mr. Hall introduced another motion which was rather sweeping inasmuch as it called for the recouping of those councillors who had incurred extra expenses over and above the amount allotted them for the Trent Valley Canal trip to Ottawa.

The following accounts were passed:

|---|---|
| Central Bridge Company | $ 1 24 |
| Carswell & Co | 3 75 |
| James Stevenson | 23 75 |
| P. P. Home | 12 00 |
| A. Kingscote | 3 00 |
| T. E. Boldy | 3 85 |
| W. Croft | 1 50 |
| R. Stevens | 6 25 |
| J. P. Hurley | 2 90 |

The Council adjourned.

HON. G. W. ROSS TO-NIGHT.

The attention of the public is again directed to the fact that Hon. G. W. Ross, Ontario's brilliant Minister of Education, and Mr. Stratton, will address the electors of Peterborough in the Opera House to-night. Hon. Mr. Ross is one of the most convincing and vigorous speakers in the Ontario Legislature, and his address to-night, which will deal with the leading public questions at issue in the present campaign, will be of the greatest interest and importance. Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate, whose relations to the electors as the past representative for two terms and as an applicant for a renewal of confidence, is of special interest to the public, will also address the meeting. The chair will be taken at 8 o'clock. The electors are urged to attend. Ladies will be welcomed, and the gallery and the boxes will be reserved for them. It is hoped that the importance of the occasion and the excellent addresses that will be given will attract a large attendance of the electors.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL.

A Short Session During the Afternoon —In Committee all Morning.

Yesterday afternoon the special committee on the Warden's address presented through its chairman, Mr. Pearce, the following report:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your committee on Warden's address beg leave to report as follows:—

Your committee approve of the action of the Warden in having the consideration of the late Mrs. Foley's will postponed and recommend that this matter and all the papers referring thereto be referred to Finance committee.

Your committee approve of the action of the Warden in reference to the course taken by him with respect to the legislation which was ultimately passed as satisfactory to this county.

Your committee beg to approve of the action of the Warden with respect to the Trent Valley Canal scheme. They are pleased to know that the Government fully recognize the vast importance of the speedy construction of this waterway and that they have given a distinct pledge to put at least one section of the canal under construction this season and to proceed further as fast as the finances of the country will permit.

Your committee are pleased to learn that the bridges of the county, with the exception of the floating bridges, have sustained no injury, owing to the spring freshets.

J. B. PEARCE,
Chairman.

The report was adopted.

A GRANT ASKED FOR.

Messrs. George Elliott, president, and W. J. Green, secretary, representing the West Peterborough Agricultural Society, and Messrs. F. Birdsall, president, and T. Blezard, M.P.P., director, of the East Peterborough Society, were heard in reference to a grant to the societies.

The question was referred to the Finance Committee.

The I.O.F. requested the council to allow the Order the use of the court house for the annual meeting of the High Court on August 14, 15 and 16. The request was granted.

Don't forget the Douro Picnic Wednesday of next week.

A BIG REWARD

Is Offered for the Capture of a Noted Express Robber.

Agent Boddy, of the uptown C. P. R. ticket office, is in receipt of a notification from Governor Stone, of Mississippi, offering a reward of $500 for the capture of Charles O. Summers, a noted express robber, who effected his escape from the Mississippi State Penitentiary on the morning of the 8th of April and is still at large.

CHANCE FOR LOCAL SLEUTHS.

Summers is 27 years old, but looks to be older; is 5 feet 6¼ inches high, weighs about 150 pounds, complexion fair, hair light, eyes blue; the letters "C. S." tattooed on top of his left forearm, scar on fore finger of left hand, small scar on right side of back near middle, two small scars on outside of left thigh; occupation, railroad man, and is said to be one of the best yard men and switchmen in America. He is an ex-detective, and was at one time in the employ of the Pinkerton Agency at Chicago. He is fairly educated, writes a good hand, composes quite well, and is somewhat given to writing verses.

He escaped from the walls of the penitentiary on the 7th of August, 1893; was captured by W. A. Pinkerton in San Francisco, Cal., on the 16th of December, 1893, and again escaped as above stated, on the 8th day of April last, by bribing the guard, and took the guard with him.

The express-robber is supposed to be in Canada. Here, then, is a chance for the local detectives to get in their good work, win glory, and earn half a thousand.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

Athlete Cigarettes have no rivals.

Grand Trunk Railway.

J. G. Gibson, Conductor on G. T. R., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "It gives me pleasure to inform you of the excellent results I have received from the use of your great remedy K. D. C. For a considerable time I had been a great sufferer from acute indigestion; my body was wasting away for want of proper nourishment, which my stomach refused to accept, nor was I able to find any remedy that afforded any relief, until one of my sons brought home a few packages of K. D. C., and requested me to try them. It is now about six or seven months since I commenced taking the K. D. C., my health has improved, my weight has greatly increased, and I feel like myself again."

Beautiful Lawns.

OMEMEE.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Fine growth; the low lands are picking up.

Large numbers of our farmers drove to Peterborough markets last Saturday and were well pleased with prices obtained.

The merchants have closed their respective places of business on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 7 o'clock p.m.

There were quite a few attending the Ennismore picnic Wednesday. Some paddled down, others drove.

Large numbers drove down from here on Sunday last to the conference services and came home delighted and profited with the days proceedings.

Jno. Lane and Wm. English were the first of our citizens successful in making Peterborough on bicycles.

The farmers along the east end of Emily township, bordering on Smith township, and Ennismore township, say J. R. Stratton must not go, as no man could fill his place as satisfactorily in the interests of his constituents generally, and they hope to see Mr. Stratton sustained with a respectable majority, as well as the Mowat government.

PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Rev. Dr. McKay, Late Missionary at Formosa, the New Moderator.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 14.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada convened here last night. After the retiring sermon by Rev. Dr. Sedgewick the roll was called. Rev. George Leslie McKay, D.D., for twenty-two years missionary to Formosa, was unanimously chosen for moderator and was led to the chair amidst great applause. This is the first instance in which a missionary of the church has been called to occupy the high position of moderator of the General Assembly.

Burned by a Lamp Exploding.

Is It Tom Scott's Body?

WINNIPEG, Jn. 14.—On the bank of the river, two feet under ground, a coffin and skeleton have just been discovered and it is believed to be that of Tom Scott, who was shot by Riel during the Red River rebellion of 1869. An investigation is to be made.

Arrested for Sending a False Report.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 14.—At the instance of the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company, a newspaper correspondent has been arrested for sending out false reports of the wrecking of a Raymond excursion train.

SITUATION IN MOROCCO.

Soldiers of the New Sultan Fighting With Tribesmen.

TANGIER, June 14.—The soldiers of the new Sultan are raiding the villages in the vicinity of Rabat and have had several skirmishes with the tribesmen. A French mail courier has been attacked and his mail parcels stolen. The foreign residents are alarmed. The British gunboat Bramble has arrived.

LONDON, June 14.—A despatch received from Tangier says: "The Beniscar tribe which declared against Abdul Aziz on Tuesday, has been subdued with but little bloodshed. Couriers arriving here say that the people of Fez are about equally divided in their sympathies between Abdnel Aziz and Muley Mehomed."

A despatch from Tangier says that the chief Moorish princes have been removed from their commands in the army. Several of them have been imprisoned. Muley Hassan's political testament provides for a council of regents during the first years of Abdul Aziz's reign.

MADRID, June 14.—The Madrid press assert that the British cable to Tangier is the only one in working order and that it was monopolized the whole of Monday night by the British minister in sending and receiving London despatches. Attention is called to this monopoly of the cable as endangering the interests of other powers.

BIG FIRE IN PANAMA.

Nearly a Million and a Half Damage by Flames and Water.

PANAMA, June 14.—A disastrous fire broke out yesterday, destroying fully a quarter of all the buildings in the city. About 225 buildings are in ruins. Thick showers of sparks and brands fell throughout the district where the fire started and thousands of persons were at work on roofs clearing off combustible materials and pouring water down the heated walls. The wind blew a gale. The streets leading from the burning district are choked with crowds of workers and spectators and with families trying to drag their household goods to places of safety. No full estimate of the loss is yet possible. A vast quantity of merchandise in shops and in storage has been burned. The loss in private houses has been nearly as great. The present estimates of the loss vary between $1,250,000 and $1,500,000.

Mrs. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

Children Cry for Fitcher's Castoria.

Given an Inch, They Want an Ell.

PITTSBURG, Kas., June 14.—A peculiar strike has occurred at the Black Diamond coal plant near here. Superintendent Wilmer was so well satisfied with the work of his men that on Saturday last he posted notices saying that he would advance their wages two cents on the box. For some reason the miners, who had been apparently contented before, became suddenly avaricious and demanded a further increase of three cents—five cents higher than the old price. Pending a reply from the company the miners quit work yesterday.

Manchester Canal Finances.

MANCHESTER, June 14.—The city council discussed last evening Sir John Harwood's statement made at the last week's meeting that the deficiency in the ship canal companies' account would be some £146,000 by next December. The statement was criticised severely by most of the members of the council. Eventually resolutions expressing confidence in the financial success of the canal were passed without opposition.

Coaching Exhibition at London.

LONDON, June 14.—A coaching exhibition was opened at the Aquarium. It includes articles of about every sort used in driving and riding. Some fine old paintings and prints also are shown. The Princess Louise lent to the exhibition the sleigh which she used in Canada when the Marquis of Lorne was Governor-General of the Dominion. The American exhibits are creditable and were regarded with much interest.

At the Trinity House Banquet.

LONDON, June 14.—At the Trinity House anniversary banquet last evening the Duke of York presided. The Earl of Rosebery touched upon the relation of the powers, notably as they might be affected by complications in Morocco. The death of Muley Hassan, he said, had opened an important question which but for the wisdom and moderation of statesmen now at the head of European affairs might prove to be the source of much trouble.

Cut the Wires to White Lodge.

LONDON, June 14.—The special wire to White Lodge, Richmond Park, Surrey, the seat of the Duke and Duchess of Teck, which has been erected in view of the approaching accouchement of the Duchess of York at White Lodge, has been cut three times since Saturday by unknown persons. Communication has been restored and a special corps of watchers are guarding the wire day and night.

Purchased an Ancestral Castle.

DUBLIN, June 14.—Thomas Nevins, an Irish American, has bought for £60,000, from the Earl of Fingall, Killeen castle at Tara, County Meath. The purchase is subject to the approval of the land court. Killeen castle dates from the twelfth century.

A Disastrous Fire in Michigan.

REED CITY, Mich., June 14.—Holliday's mill, located one mile north of Ashton, together with 3,000,000 feet of lumber, 700,000 feet of logs and a lot of wood, two houses and a barn, were destroyed by fire. The logs were the property of Peter Carlson. Holliday's loss is estimated at $50,000, with no insurance.

BUSY LIFE IN PARIS.

SOME MODES OF LIVING IN THE BEAUTIFUL CITY.

French Women Are Busy Women—Hotel Life Very Independent and the French Like It—A Contrast With Three Other Modes—The Morals.

In Paris one has the choice of at least four modes of living. One may keep house, live at the public hotel, in furnished apartments, taking one's meals there or elsewhere, as is most convenient, or one may board in a pension. All these modes have their advantages. The hotel and furnished apartments give one a very independent life. Housekeeping has its cares and burdens, but also its home comforts and pleasures, which cannot be obtained elsewhere. In the pension there is less independence than in the hotel or furnished apartments, because the meals are served at regular hours and one feels obliged to be on time. This is a good thing, if one is settled in any place, but if sight-seeing, the furnished apartment or the hotel is better. Since the life in the pension is a very common one in all the large towns in France it will be the first condition considered.

Because I wished to study this phase of life, and also because I wanted daily practice in speaking and hearing the French language, I chose the pension de famille. In a boarding-house of this sort one hears a great deal of French spoken at the table twice a day, and also in the salon in the evening. It is almost impossible to get into a pension where foreigners are not admitted, so that one will more than likely have the advantage of hearing a good deal of bad French as well as good.

The life in the pension de famille is very regular. Breakfast in your room at any time between certain hours; luncheon in the dining-room at twelve o'clock, and dinner in the dining-room at seven o'clock. After dinner all who have not engagements adjourn to the salon, the ladies with their fancy-work, for French women never seem to be idle. Sometimes there is music, card-playing or some other amusement. During the day, when you are in the house, you spend the time in your chamber; the salon is rarely used.

When you first come to the pension madame asks you when you will have your breakfast served. I found that I could have my breakfast at any time from half-after 7 to 9 o'clock, so I decided to have my fire made at half after 7, and my breakfast served at 8 o'clock.

The breakfast is the same every day in the year: Two small rolls, a small piece of butter, a small pitcher of hot milk and a still smaller pitcher of coffee, and three blocks of sugar. If you wish you may substitute tea or chocolate for the coffee.

You might think that one would tire of this breakfast, but, on the contrary, you welcome it with pleasure each morning. The bread and the butter are always delicious, and the hot drink does not vary much in quantity. The French housekeeper gets everything down to a fine point, and as one studies the cost and mode of living, one realizes that this is a necessity.

Every morning the servants are up at 6 o'clock; the boots and shoes must be cleaned, fires made, hot water and breakfast must be taken to the chambers, and countless other duties must be performed. The servants are kept busy until 11 o'clock at night, except on rare occasions.

After breakfast the mistress of the house goes to market, looks after the servants, and attends to all the little details of the household, which in a house like this are without number.

Cleaning and Curling Feathers.

White or light colored feathers can be washed in benzine without losing their curl or color. They should be swung in the air until dry. Another plan for white feathers is to wash them in warm water and castile soap; rinse three times to remove fully all the soap; pass through a warm solution of oxalic acid and then lightly starch; dry in a warm room by lightly beating each feather against the hand or near the fire. Hats trimmed with feathers should be kept in a bandbox when not in use to preserve them from dust and damp. In the summer rip feathers out of winter hats and put them in a tightly-sealed box with gum camphor. To curl ostrich feathers have a dull knife, with the top hollowed out near the point if you are going to make a business of it. Hold your feather over a fire, but not sufficiently near to scorch it, shaking it gently until warm; then holding the feath in the left hand, place the fibre of the feather between the thumb and knife edge and draw it along quickly, curling the end only. If feathers are damp at any time the curl may be retained by holding the hat over the fire and waving it until dry; then place in a cool room for the fibres to stiffen. Feathers may also be curled over a knife held near a hot flatiron, the heat making the curl more durable. A little blue in the water in which white feathers are washed improves the color.

Not Appreciated in China.

China offers a fine and as yet uncultivated field for the woman's rights movement. In that country, as we all know, the birth of a girl is regarded by a family as a real catastrophe. So somebody, with the interests of the afflicted family at heart, drops the infant into a convenient body of water. So common is this that a large pool in Foochow bears the legend, "Girls must not be drowned in this pond"—a warning which has disheartened many a Chinaman anxious to facilitate his daughter's journey to a better land.

The Toronto Home for Incurables.

PARKDALE, Ont., Feb. 27th, 1888.—Gentlemen, it gives me pleasure to let you know I have derived great benefit from the use of Nerviline. I have been a great sufferer from Neuralgia in the face, and last two years was quite a martyr to the malady. So soon as I observed the Nerviline advertised I obtained a bottle from our druggists, Messrs. John Gray & Co., Parkdale, and the effect was marvellous; pain ceased and I can enjoy sound sleep at night, and rise refreshed. I cannot speak to highly of it and heartily recommend it. ## EMPEROR WILLIAM OF GERMANY AS A MORALIST.

Even at the Request of His Grandfather He Declined to Rescind an Order Against Gambling in His Regiment—His Sentiments Still Unchanged.

The opposition of the Emperor of Germany to gambling in every form among his officers is creating something akin to consternation in army circles. The wearers of the stars, straps and gold buttons almost fear to touch cards in their own rooms for fear his majesty, in some way, will hear of it and reprimand them. This policy of the ruler is not a whim of the moment. It is in accordance with a resolution taken in his younger days, when he was suspected to be in sympathy with everything "wild" in the German capital. It is brought about by the suicide of a promising young lieutenant in the regiment to which the prince was attached and of whom he was exceedingly fond. While playing one night in the Union Club, the "swellest" organization in Germany, he staked his fortune, lost it and left the green table to send a bullet through his brain. His royal highness was much affected by the news and made a vow that, should he live to second the throne, he would preclude such tragedies if possible. He adopted the policy long before the unhappy death of his father, however. A short time after the suicide of his friend, he became commander of the hussar regiment of the Garde-du-Corps. Among the orders with which he surprised his subalterns one morning was that directing them to give up gambling in the Union Club or resign from its membership lists. The officers of the guard in German regiments are necessarily wealthy men, and when they ceased to play for high stakes life at the club became comparatively monotonous. A committee was appointed to call upon old Emperor William to endeavor to induce him to persuade his grandson to withdraw the obnoxious order. His majesty promised to do so, sent for Prince William and asked him to rescind the command. The prince remained steadfast. The old emperor insisted.

"Allow me to ask your majesty," finally broke out the prince, "if I am still colonel of this regiment?"

"As a matter of course," came the answer.

"Then I ask your majesty to allow me to uphold my order," he replied, "or otherwise I hand back the command into your hands at once."

The old hero, pleased with the spirit of the young soldier, patted him on the shoulder and continued:

"That is impossible. I could not get so good a colonel again. The order shall remain."

The determination showed at that time—he was then only about 26 years old—he continues to show and never misses an opportunity to give expression to his abhorrence of gambling. German fathers and mothers give the Emperor unstinted praise for his policy and pray that he may be successful in its execution. It is a policy which meets the approval even of the socialists. Nothing that he has undertaken, in fact, has gained for him more genuine friends and admirers.

For the Complexion.

Since the time when the Greeks craved personal beauty as the greatest gift of the gods and Roman matrons believed so strongly in the pre-natal influence of music, flowers and amiability upon the symmetry of their sons and daughters, how to attain this supreme gift is still the dominant thought of woman.

She craves to be goodly to look upon, and she can accomplish this—unless she be hopelessly ill-favored—by persistent use of the small aids to beauty which are everywhere accessible.

A clear complexion is, of course, rightly considered the first essential to beauty, and unless the skin be healthy and fine handsome features can not make good the blemish.

The cold water fad is essentially English, for the icy plunge is a punishment, and therefore, according to our medical men, wrong for us. Tepid and warm baths help us most, while for the face the water must be as hot as we can bear it to produce the best results. Almond meal is a delusion and a disappointment when used on a thin, delicate skin, for while usually found to be recommended for that very kind it often makes it blotchy.

Better than almond meal is the bran of Indian meal used at night. Lather the hands with the finest soap, dip them in the bran and vigorously wash the face, using quite hot water to rinse it. Mop nearly dray and rewash several times in a pint of hot water into which you have dropped twenty drops of benzoin—not benzine. This whitens the skin and closes the pores.

Horseradish grated in buttermilk will remove freckles, it is said, and quite an admissible way to get a good color is to dampen the cheeks with a little extract of ginger.

Comfort for the Sick.

In cases of sleeplessness as well as sickness frequent changing of pillows will have a soothing influence. The case should fit the pillow and be kept smooth. A change of night-gowns is restful, and the refreshing sense of cool water or some spicy toilet water, like lavender or orange flowers, applied to the forehead, throat, hands and feet cannot be overestimated.

A Little Sweet Oil.

To induce a little baby or a grieving child to put out his tongue, drop a little sweet oil on the upper lip.

Elephants Poor Sailors.

Elephants are dreadful sufferers from sea sickness during ocean voyages.

"Is this hot enough for you?" is a silly question; but if you meet a man who complains of suffering from the heat, ten to one you will find, on inquiry, that he does not use Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system and free his blood from irritating humours.

Bad Blood causes Blotches, Boils, Pimples, Abscesses, Ulcers, Scrofula, etc. Burdock Blood Bitters cures Bad Blood in any form from a common pimple to the worst scrofula sore.

A pale or sallow complexion may be overcome by the use of Eseljay's Liver Lozenges. They purify the blood and give tone to the complexion.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.

Mrs. T. S Hawkins, Chattanooga Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer SAVED MY LIFE." I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 25c. Sold by Geo. A. Schofield.

A VOICE FROM ALGOMA.

Roman Catholic Opinion of the P. P. A.

A numerously attended and influential meeting of the Catholics of Algoma was held on the 9th inst. to discuss the P.P.A., G. Fitzgerald, Esq., was elected chairman, John Tansey was requested to act as secretary. The object of the meeting was explained by Medard Framont in the French language and by John Tansey in English. The following preambles and resolutions were passed unanimously.

1. Whereas, it appears from the printed ritual of the P.P.A. that it is an association the object of which is to do all the harm it can to the Roman Catholic church and its members individually.

2. And whereas its members solemnly swear to use their utmost endeavours to exclude all Roman Catholics from office in the gift of the people and from all political offices under government of the people.

3. And whereas such conduct is contrary to the teaching of Christ, who enjoins on us to do as we would be done by; and therefore unchristian.

4. And whereas as such course of action tends to deprive the country of the services of able and trustworthy public officers.

5. And whereas Catholics as a body have in the history of this country shown themselves fair and disinterested in the treatment of their fellow Christians of other forms of belief:

Therefore, the following resolutions were unanimously passed.

1. Moved by John Tansey seconded by F. D. Pepin. That the principles and action of the P. P. A. are both unchristian and unpatroic, and deserving of the condemnation of all upright and honourable men.

2 Moved by Medard Framont seconded by Edward Ryan. That Catholics have ever been ready in defence of this country and in upholding of lawfully established government.

3. Moved by James Jones, seconded by Paul Cote, that all loyal subjects of her gracious Majesty, the Queen, are entitled to treatment on terms of perfect equality in matters affecting their civil and religious rights and liberties.

4. Moved by Alphonse Metivier, seconded by Theodore Routhier, that all aiders and abettors of the P. P. A. are unworthy of the countenance and support of Catholics.

Moved by Oliver Fenville, seconded by Pierre Bardeleau, that in the exercise of our franchise we will refuse our votes to candidates for legislative honours who do not distinctly and unreservedly disown and repudiate sympathy with that association known as the P.P.A., and we also heartily agree with the Catholic Record, North-West Review, La Veritee, of Quebec, Toronto Globe and other liberal minded newspapers of this country in the noble stand they have taken in exposing that secret society known as the P.P.A.

The following gentlemen were appointed to act as a committee in forwarding the minutes of this meeting to the press for publication.

JOHN TANSEY,
FRANK PEPIN.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

CRICKET.

The dry rot seems to have gotten into the memuership of the cricket club, at least into the members of the first eleven and many of them have not turned out to practice once since the match with Trinity School.

The club started out with most brilliant prospects early in the season and if the members could only have been prevailed upon to turn out for practice a career of victory doubtless lay before them, as the personnel of the first eleven, it was thought, was stronger than the team of any previous year. It was so strong in fact that the boys thought practice wasn't necessary to enable them to go out and win from everything that came along. This idea was rudely dispelled, however, when the school boys came up from Port Hope and polished off the local by something like ten wickets. This reverse seemed to drive the members from the extreme of confidence to the extreme of the other thing, and no matter how often one went over to the grounds of an afternoon never more than three of the first eleven were by any chance found there.

An effort will be made on Saturday afternoon to revive the drooping interest among the members, and the following are expected to turn out for a scratch match:—Messrs. T. Rutherford, S. Ray, R. B. Rogers, Billet, Lief, Wonham, W. J. Montgomery, W. T. Parker, C. McGill, C. Halliday, W. A. Stratton, W. Sallsbury, C. S. McKee, H. Burnham, Guy Rogers, W. J. Drope, S. Adams, W. A. Kenner, Geo. J. Horkins, Geo. Hatton, W. Stocker, H. Morphet, F. H. Allison, C. Dumble, P. C. Goldsmith and any others who may be desirous of playing. Game called at 3:30 o'clock.

LACROSSE.

The return match of the Peterboroughs with the Port Hopes comes off on the grounds of the latter on the 27th. An excursion will be run from Peterborough on that day, and a big crowd will likely go down. Arrangements have been made lowering the rate to 75 cents for the round trip. The 57th Battalion band will accompany the boys.

The Port Hope papers claim that the Ontarios won by four straights against the Peterborough Shamrocks in less than an hour. The town boys say they were treated in a square and manly way by their opponents, and that the game was won on its merits.

THE WHEEL.

Mr. Geo. J. Horkins is in good condition to carry the message in the great relay race against time over his portion of the road lying between Grafton and Colborne. The distances is something over nine miles, and it is safe to say that the message will hustle over that particular nine miles as fast as it will over any like distance along the line—all things being equal.

The local bicycle club will send quite a delegation to the Montreal meet on the 1st. It is understood that over thirty of the members have signified their intention of going, and a private car has been secured.

Mr. Gus. Hay will accompany Mr. Horkins over the route. He is also as fit as a string for the ride.

FOOTBALL.

The following tenm will go to Keene Saturday, to play football with the eleven of that place:—Goal, Evans; back, Brown; half-backs, Hall and Hamilton; centre Bell; left wing forwards, Collins, Snowden and Nesbitt; right wing forwards, McWilliams, Cluxton and Simpson.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part I is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 20 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 1. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

Stabbing Affray in Port Huron.

PORT HURON, Mich., June 14.—A probably fatal stabbing affray occurred last night in Yanndales' saloon. Three Poles were out looking for a man by the name of Lincoln, against whom they had an old grudge. They were drinking and quarrelsome. Albert Richards, an employe of Howard Mill, got mixed up in the row outside of the saloon and was stabbed in the back by one of the Poles, the blade of the knife penetrating the lung just over the heart. Some one yelled "murder" and the Poles dispersed. Patrolman Houle called a carriage and took Richards home where he now lies at the point of death. The police started an investigation at once and arrested Cornell Varnier, Al. Rosen and August Berker. It is thought that one of them did the stabbing.

Brakesman Killed at Guelph.

GUELPH, Ont., June 14.—James Cooney, a G.T.R. brakesman from Hamilton, lost his life here last evening. One section of an excursion train from the vicinity of Welland was coming down to the passenger station and Cooney was sitting on the brake rod. The brakes were suddenly reversed and he was thrown under the wheels, his head and arm being crushed. Death was instantaneous. He leaves a wife and two children living in Hamilton.

An Indian's Confession of Murder.

ANNAPOLIS, N.S., June 14.—Rather a sensational report was circulated here a day or two ago, which has since been confirmed, to the effect that the supposed death by drowning of Arthur Ruggles, late agent of the Dominion Savings Bank, and Mr. Burrill, in the Lake of the Woods' vicinity some days ago, was caused by shooting. An Indian known by the name of "Charles," who claimed to own the lake, having confessed, on his deathbed, to shooting the men, as he alleged, for persisting to go on the lake. It is said others have been murdered by the Indian for the same cause.

Plant Sentenced to Seven Years.

TORONTO, June 14.—Judge McDougall sentenced Louis E. Plant to seven years in Kingston penitentiary for highway robbery. Plant was searched before leaving jail and a quantity of cayenne pepper was found in his possession. Dashing pepper into the eyes of his guards seems to be a favorite method of escape with Plante, he having got away once in Colorado in this way. The desperado would probably have used this while on his way to the courthouse had it not been discovered.

A Funny Unknown.

An English bishop preaches regularly in his sleep.

Remodeling Feathers.

Thin, worn-out tips or plumes may be improved by fastening two together and then curling the fibres as though they were one. Other worn-out feathers are curled up to be very narrow, using a tight curl, like the Prince of Wales cluster. If only the ends are good cut the quill shorter and use for a tiny tip. Pompons, like a huge rosette, are made of two or three tips twisted to form the soft ball, and aigrettes added in the centre. Buy good feathers in the beginning for their wear and appearance. The shaded feathers are about fifty per cent. more costly than the ordinary ones, but they are always extreme novelties. Long plumes can be doubled up to disguise their length when desired. Tips can be pieced out in length, as well as added in the way of thickness, using glazed thread for fastening them securely together. Working with feathers requires patience, and deft and neat fingers, but all of these are easily obtained with a will and experience, and nothing will excel them as ornaments of use and beauty in the dress and millinery lines. Feathers are now mixed with fur, lace, velvet, ribbon, flowers, straw, etc., and are worn almost as much during the summer as in the winter months, owing to the caprice of "Dame Fashion."

The Coming Dividend.

I hear it whispered that Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Morgan are about to declare another $250,000 dividend. It will be remembered that, according to the terms of the late Governor Morgan's will, that sum of money was to be paid to the present E. D. Morgan upon the birth to him of every child. Mr. Morgan has already declared two dividends, and this third one is expected almost any day now!—New York Recorder.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.

"It's Fair's way."

Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

And see you get what we advertise

LADIES' BLOUSES—All our $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Blouses we let you have your choice for a one dollar bill.

LADIES' CLOAKS AND RUBBER COSSAMERS—to keep the rain out and protect your dresses—in some instances at HALF the original prices. For instance, Cloaks that were $6 to $8 now going at $2.75 to $3.50.

LADIES' COLOURED CLOTH CAPES—specially reduced to suit all cases—you-may-take-them prices.

JACKETS—Latest styles, large sleeves—cost of material. MANTLES—Profits pushed aside—it's a clear sweep—It's Fair's way.

LADIES' SILK PARASOLS 75c., $1, $1.50. If you want an aristocratic Umbrella, with fashionable handles and sensible covering, you know where to look for it. UMBRELLAS RE-COVERED WHILE YOU WAIT. The prices tell, and everyone tells the prices.

CARPET ROOM SPECIALS.

Best Tapestry Carpets, 75c., were 95c. Best Five-Frame Brussels, $1.05, were $1.38. Best Wool Carpets at Toronto prices—all the style you want—all the wear you want. It's what you get for your money, not what you pay in apparent price. "It's Fair's way."

LOCAL NEWS.

Young Women's Association.

Classes as usual this evening, beginning at eight o'clock. Teachers, Misses Montgomery and Walker. Hope there will be a full attendance.

Don't forget the Douro Picnic Wednesday of next week.

Card of Thanks.

We desire hereby to publicly and cordially thank the members of the Peterborough Fire Brigade for their prompt response and excellent work done on the occasion of the fire in our works on Friday morning. On behalf of the Peter Hamilton Agricultural Works. Peter Hamilton, president.

Makes People Well Quick

Life is short and if you can strike the right spring medicine at the first shot, time and nerve energy is saved. Three doses a day of that celebrated Sarsaparilla for sale at Lynch's drug store puts you "in fighting trim" in quick order, gives you a strengthened system, a pure skin, a toned liver and pure blood. Lynch's, 168 Hunter street.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices dtf Married Yesterday.

A very quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Eastland, when their fourth daughter, Epsie, was united in marriage to Mr. J. R. Morrow, of Toronto, travelling agent for Heintzman pianos, etc., by Rev. Geo Edwards. A few invited guests were present. Quite a number of costly gifts were presented to the happy pair, who left on the C.P.R. train for Toronto, thence to their future home at Niagara.

Music Hath Charms.

No band like Sousa's has ever before been heard here. Nor has there been any leader like him. Band and master act together as one, and the result is perfection. The work of both has that precision and finish, that swing and spirit, that soul and certainty, which unerringly betoken the master. To see and listen to Sousa, is to surrender one's self to the sensations familiar under the genius of Nikisch and his orchestra, or of Paderewski and his magic spell. They give one grand concert in Bradburn's Opera House, commencing at 2 p.m. sharp, on Friday afternoon, June 22nd. Prices:—Box seats $1.00, reserved seats 75c., general admission 50c. Seats on sale at Street Railway office.

The Wabash Railway Trains

running every day in the year between Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are the finest known to the railway service; they are complete and solid vestibuled from end to end, the entire train being a moving palace of connected apartments, all furnished with the most luxurious elegance and perfection of commodation known to the car builders' art. They include free reclining, palace, sleeping and dining cars of the latest and best patterns. Call on or write any railway agent for tickets and all information, or address J. A. RICHARDSON, Canadian passenger agent, north-east corner King and Yonge streets, Toronto.

A Midnight Blaze.

This morning at about 1.45 the fire bells rang out their notes of warning and almost before they had ceased to ring the firemen were out and at the scene of the blaze, viz., the Peter Hamilton foundry. The celerity with which the boys got around was amazing, and the brigade is deserving of no small amount of credit for the efforts which were put forth. Mr. Hamilton was in the foundry at midnight and there was no sign of fire, and yet a couple of hours later the roof of the blacksmith shop was in a blaze. It is surmised that a spark lodged in them during the day and smouldered until the flames burst out. The damage was slight, on account of the quickness with which the brigade arrived on the ground.

A Fatal Accident.

The Lindsay Watchman has the following to say concerning the death of Conductor William Davis, who is well known in Peterborough:—"The sad intelligence was received in town yesterday evening of the almost instantaneous death of Conductor William Davis, of this town, at Tait's Siding, near Midland, about 5.20 o'clock. It appears from the brief information to hand that the deceased fell from the top of a car, going under the wheels. He was badly cut and crushed and his death resulted almost instantaneously. Poor Davis was well known in town and he was very popular with all who knew him. He was a member of Midland Lodge, I.O.O.F. He leaves a widow and a family to mourn his untimely end. The remains were brought to Lindsay about 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning."

A Wedding in Cavan.

A happy company met at the residence of Mr. Jas. Brock, Cavan, the other evening, the occasion being the marriage of Mr. Elmor H. Jones to Miss Ellie, daughter of the host. The beautiful marriage service of the Methodist Church was read by the pastor, Rev. Wilmott G. Clarke, B. A. Between fifty and sixty friends and relatives of the contracting parties were present to assist at the happy occasion. Miss Lillie, sister, assisted the bride, and Mr. Elsworth Jones, brother, performed like service for the groom. The bridal gifts were numerous, costly and useful, showing conclusively the high regard in which the bride is held by her friends and acquaintances, who all join in wishing many happy years to the young couple.

LACROSSE.

The Port Hope Times speaks as follows concerning the game of lacrosse which was played there Wednesday: "The Shamrocks of Peterborough played the first home game in the Eastern series of C.L.A. with the Ontarios of Port Hope yesserday afternoon in the athletic grounds. The match resulted in a victory for the local twelve by a score of four straight games in thirty-five minutes actual playing. The visitors were outclassed by the home team in every department, but took their defeat with the best possible grace, and the Ontarios consequently look forward with pleasure to their future contests with the Shamrocks. The Ontarios put up a good game, but were never forced to exert themselves to any great extent. The home division played a much better game than they did against 'Varsity, but the defence was not playing their usual game. The ball is held too long, and not got away quick enough, and as we said before, the flags are half the time unprotected, owing to the defence allowing themselves to be drawn out. This mistake of holding the ball and being drawn out by the opposing home, will prove fatal to the team if it is not remedied before the Toronto and Peterborough games."

At Madoc yesterday the Belleville and Madoc teams again met. The excitement ran high, as the Belleville team were strengthened by a number of Indians. However, the result was 4 to 1 in favour of Madoc. Belleville failed in shooting on goal. On the home Madoc was especially strong. This, and Madoc's strong defence account for the result.

NEWS NUGGETS

—The water has just reached the right temperature for bathing purposes.

—The rector of St. Luke's will give the last of his weekly addresses this evening, which will consist of a review of the Biblical addresses given during the past winter and spring.

—Bandmaster Miller has very kindly promised the services of the band in aid of St. Luke's garden party to be given in Mrs. Orde's grounds, Ashburnham, on Wednesday evening next.

—The band will not play in the park to-night. While the band regrets very much to disappoint the public, it thinks that it is its first duty to assist in "saving the country," and as it has been engaged for the political meeting to-night, it is compelled to obey the call.

—W. A. Wadsworth, Grand Vice-President Sons of Ireland Protestant Association, and J. M. Dixon, Deputy Organizer, are in town to-day and will organize a lodge of that order here to-night at eight o'clock, in the Orange Hall, over the China Hall. A number of our Irish Protestant citizens have handed in their names as charter members. All Protestant Irishmen and their descendants are requested to be present, when all information relative to the order will be given.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

A Drop of 25 Per Cent.

Frank Anthony is bound to do the fruit trade of the town, and for the next two weeks will sell at 25 per cent less than what other dealers are charging. After that date he will sell right along at Montreal prices, good fresh first class fruit; Messina and blood oranges—in boxes of 100, 200 and 80. Bannnas, lemons and all kinds of fruit—first class and repacked. Frank says he is going to stay in Peterborough for life, and is going to make the fruit trade lively. Wholesale, 161 Hunter street, retail Aylmer street.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

AN ECCENTRIC DOCTOR.

The Czar's Physician is Somewhat of a Crank.

Prof. Zakharin of Moscow, who attended the Czar during his recent serious illness, is almost as well known in Russia for his eccentricities as for his eminence as a physician. When he is called to attend to a patient, special arrangements must be made in the house; all dogs must be kept out of the way; all clocks must be stopped; all doors must be thrown wide open.

The Professor on entering begins a process of gradual undressing, leaving his furs in the hall, his overcoat in the next room, his goloshes in the next room, etc. He insists on perfect silence on the part of the afflicted relatives, except in reply to his questions, when their speech must be literally "yes" and "nay." He has a theory which he expresses in the maxim, "Take a rest before you are tired," and, accordingly, he sits down every eight or ten steps. His demeanor towards doctors with whom he happens to be unacquainted makes him greatly feared by them, and some eight years ago a kind of public agitation was gotten up in opposition to him, in which many hundreds of doctors took part.

Resolutions were passed and addresses were presented, and echoes of the gathering storm made themselves heard in the press. These manifestations of feelings were speedily supressed in a way characteristic of Russia. The then Governor-General of Moscow, Prince Dolgorukoff, sent for the editor of the Medical Journal in which the addresses were printed and told him that if he published a word more about Zakharin he would have to leave Moscow in twenty-four hours' time.

His eccentricities, however, cease at the bedside of his patient; there he is courteous and considerate, most painstaking and minute in his examinations, and very thorough in his treatment. So successful has he been in his profession that he is believed to be worth some half million sterling.—British Medical Journal.

Little Savings in the Kitchen.

If crackers are stale or moist, sprinkle slightly with salt, and heat in a moderate oven.

Dry the leaves and left-over stalks of celery, and keep them in a self-sealing glass fruit jar, to flavor soups with.

Don't pay five cents more for flour in a cloth sack, when you can buy more and better cloth for the same amount of money.

Don't throw away a lamp wick as soon as it is short, but wash it, baste a strip of white muslin to the lower end and use it a week or two longer.

If hard soap is taken from its wrappings and stood edgewise on a shelf in a warm room, or put in a bag and hung behind the kitchen range for a few weeks, it will last decidedly longer than otherwise.

Every ounce of suet, fat, cold meat and bones should be saved and utilized for making croquettes, hash soup, drippings, or soap-grease. Break the bones before stewing them for soup, so that the marrow may escape.

A teaspoonful of molasses or soft soap, added to a saucer of blacking, which has been wet with vinegar, makes a first-rate stove polish, and the stub of an old broom does better and quicker work than an ordinary blacking brush.

The syrup left from sweet pickles or canned fruit, should be kept and added to mince-meat. The syrup from pickles needs no further preparation but that from fruit should be scalded, and put in a glass fruit jar. Several kinds can be mixed together.

A "Bed Day" for Tired Ones.

It is told of Phœbe Cary, who was a remarkably sunshiny and loving woman, that whenever she used to feel "out of sorts," she would shut herself up in her room for rest until the serenity of soul was restored. She was wise enough to discern the physiological side of amiability and govern herself accordingly. A mother of two restless children acts upon the same principle by insisting upon an occasional "bed day." She has observed that "crossness" with them is invariably the result of too much activity; that nervous force is expended faster than muscular strength is generated, and tries to restore the balance in the manner named.

The children understand that the measure is not a punishment, but enforced solely for sanitary reasons, and are allowed plenty of playthings and quiet games. This mother testifies that the next day her small brood is "bright and chipper as young robins." The experiment for either children or adults is worth trying, especially after the excitement and irregular habits necessarily connected with a holiday season.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Sir John Thompson Introduces the Electoral Franchise Bill.

OTTAWA, June 15.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir John Thompson introduced his electoral franchise bill. He said that the principal feature of the bill was that the revision of the lists would provide for the coming into force of the Redi-tribution Act of 1893. The new lists would be as laid out in that bill, although provision would also be made for the holding of bye-elections as the constituencies were now constituted. The franchise would be the same as in all the provinces. The provincial lists would be used by the revising officer as a basis for the revision. These officers would add names and take applications of those who had been left off the local lists. The differences between the local and Dominion lists were not so great as to necessitate the payment of the extra cost as under the new bill a revision could be made every year. While the Government thus gave up its present federal franchise for those of the provinces it was decided to hold control of the lists by placing them for revision, as at present, in the hands of the Dominion officer.

Mr. Laurier congratulated the Government on the change to the provincial lists, but he thought that the obnoxious feature of the Franchise Act of 1885—the revising barrister—should be removed.

The bill was read a first time.

In reply to Mr. Lowell, of Welland, Sir John Thompson said that the Government had not entered into any negotiations with or made representations to the American authorities with regard to the application by them to Canadian workingmen of the "Alien Labor Law."

The Premier also said that the Government was not aware that large quantities of garbage and refuse were dumped into the Niagara river from the city of Buffalo and other places on the American side of the river. The Government never made any representations to the American authorities with regard to the same.

Sir Adolphe Caron also replying to Mr. Lowell, said that the Government had prepared plans for a monument to perpetuate the memory of the men who lost their lives in the battle of Lundy's Lane.

Mr. McMullen followed with a resolution asking that the superannuation system of the civil service be abolished, which was debated at some length.

The House divided on the resolution, and it was lost by 35 yeas to 91 nays.

Capital Notes.

Before the Agricultural Committee Prof. McEachern, V.S., spoke at length on the question of tuberculosis in Canadian cattle, denying that such a thing exists.

J. C. Wilson, of Argenteuil, Que., is here and had an interview with Sir John Thompson about the vacant Senatorship for that district. No appointment will likely be made until the close of the season.

A delegation is here from Toronto, headed by the Mayor. It is the intention to ask the Government to Toronto exhibition for the purpose of paying transportation of exhibits. This is asked on the ground that it is contemplated to make the exhibition a Dominion affair.

Three Wants.

"Reason's whole pleasure, all the joys of sense,
Live in three words, health, peace, and competence."

So says the poet. Competence counts for little when one is sick, and peace is disturbed, when health is upset, so that the poet rightly places health first. To have good health you must have pure blood. From the blood the system receives all its material of growth and repair. The best blood-purifier is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which is world-famed and sold everywhere. It is a soverign remedy for all diseases due to impoverished or impure blood, as consumption, bronchitis, weak lungs, scrofula, old sores, skin diseases and kindred ailments.

Delicate diseases of either sex, however induced, promptly, thoroughly and permanently cured. Send 10 cents in stamps for large illustrated treatise, sent securely sealed in plain envelope. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A TERRIBLE EXPLOSION.

Three Men Frightfully Mangled on the Soulanges Canal.

COTEAU DU LAC, Que., June 15.—A terrible accident occurred at this place through which three men were killed and three others dangerously wounded. The men were charging holes with dynamite for the purpose of blasting rocks in section 17 Soulanges Canal, when the dynamite prematurely exploded.

The names of the killed are: Patrick Drohan, aged 40, married, leaves a family of eight children (Drohan came here from Smith's Falls, Ont.); Rory McDonald, aged 35 years, unmarried, from Glengarry, Ont.; James Scanlan, about 23 years of age, unmarried, from Welland.

The first two named were found terribly mangled. The injured are: Thomas Costello, James Kelly, and W. Wheet Hurlburt. Their injuries, it is thought, will not prove fatal.

The first two were old men at this kind of work, having been working here for the past two years. They were very sober and reliable men.

It is unlikely that the cause of the explosion will ever be known, as only those killed could give the reason.

Boy Drowned in Paris.

PARIS, Ont., June 14.—Alex. Cran, thirteen years of age, eldest son of Jas. Cran, manager of the Bank of British North America, was drowned in the Grand river here last evening. It appears he, with several of his companions, younger than himself, were in bathing and the young lad above mentioned went too far out in the stream, and, being unable to swim, was drowned. Mr. James Wheeler, who heard his screams, ran to his assistance, but too late to rescue him alive.

Smallpox at Colchester Lighthouse.

COLCHESTER, Ont., June 15.—Drs. Hobley, of Amherstburg, and Parke, Medical Health officer of this township, have just returned from Colchester lighthouse and have pronounced the case of Manson, son of the lighthouse keeper, smallpox in a modified form. A quarantine has been instituted and all communication stopped so that there will be little danger of it spreading. The board of health are on the alert and will use every precaution necessary. The patient is doing well.

Young Man Drowned While Bathing.

WALKERTON, June 15.—A young man named Clayton Broddy, about 19 years of age, clerk in Mr. Cryderman's drug store, was accidentally drowned here yesterday while bathing. The young man could not swim, and getting into a hole was unable to get out. The body was found shortly afterwards. His relatives live at Erin, Ont.

Run Over and Killed.

HAMILTON, June 15—Last evening at the Beach train was backing up from Cannon street to King street station, a man supposed to have been trying to jump on at King street crossing, slipped and fell under the wheels and was instantly killed. The remains have been identified as those of Fred Williams, a tailor of this city.

Mrs. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flanelette. Good Straw Hats.

ACHILL'S CATASTROPHE

A Terrible Accident Overtakes a Party of Agricultural Laborers.

THIRTY-FIVE ARE DROWNED

The Party Was Composed of Irish Harvesters on Their Way to England to Work in the Fields—Their Boat Capsized by a Sudden Squall.

DUBLIN, June 15.—A boat containing harvesters crossing from Achill, Ireland, to Westport, county Mayo, was capsized yesterday, and thirty-five of its occupants were drowned.

Many of the agricultural laborers on the island of Achill go to England every year to work in the harvest fields. The unfortunate party for Westport, intending to leave that place for England. When half the distance across Clew bay the wind became squally, but did not blow hard enough to make the trip dangerous. They were only about a mile from Westport when a tremendous gust of wind struck them, and the little sailing vessel capsized in a twinkling in full view of hundreds of people on shore, who heard the agonizing shrieks of the drowning ones and saw them sink before any aid could reach them. Boats were immediately put out and forty-eight of the party were saved. Eighteen bodies have thus far been recovered.

The craft on which the harvesters left Achill was a one-masted fishing boat of fifteen tons, known on the coast as a hooker. All on board were between the ages of 16 and 30. Undoubtedly the boat was overloaded.

When the accident occurred the skipper was trying to jibe about. A strong gust of wind struck the boat just at the moment when he made the attempt. The majority of passengers were entangled in the sails, cordage and deck gear immediately after the hooker went over, and probably all would have perished but for the quickness of the help from Westport.

The steamer Elm lowered four boats and saved seventy-five of the passengers. The other thirty-five were drowned.

The shore boats, which reached the hooker about fifteen minutes after the accident, collected the dead bodies. Fifteen of the drowned were girls and women between the ages of 15 and 25; three of them were boys under 20.

Nationalists Are Angry.

CORK, June 15.—The Pope was appointed Monsignor Brown to be Bishop of the Diocese of Clerin, Queen's county. The appointment has greatly incensed the Nationalist party, who are furious at the rejection of Canon Keller, who was imprisoned for refusing to disclose the secrets of the "plan of campaign." Canon Keller was selected by the leader of the diocese for the bishopric and his name was placed at the head of the approved list of candidates.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts limited. Two loads of white wheat sold at 62c standard. Red is quoted at 61c and goose at 58c. Oats firm, 200 bushels selling at 40 to 41c. Barley is quoted at 41 to 42c, and peas at 66c.

Buffalo.—Cattle—Eleven cars fresh and three cars held over; stock on sale, mostly half-fat grassers, for which values are 25c lower, and little done. Sheep and lambs—Thirty cars on sale; almost lifeless. Hogs—Fifteen cars on sale; fair inquiry; early sales; good mediums were at $5.10 to $5.15.

Selling of wheat in Chicago by the prominent local heavy weights was more powerful than all the damage reports and drought news that was received, and with much lower cables caused a decline for the day of ⅞ and ⅞c. Corn was firm, closing ⅛c higher. Oats were also firm, June closing ⅛c higher.

There was a considerable increase in the volume of business at the New York stock exchange, but the gain in this respect was at the expense of values. Sugar opened at 101¼ to 101, rising to 101⅞ and finally breaking to 97, a net loss of 4⅛ per cent. for day. The railway list was firm early in the day and continued so until Union Pacific and Atchison developed marked weakness. The market closed weak and ⅛ to 2⅛ per cent. lower, except for Sugar.

The County Court concluded this afternoon. David Doig and son were both found not guilty of the charge of receiving stolen goods. There were three charges against them, but the other two were traversed to the next session, the defendants being allowed out on their own recognizance, which means practically that the crown has abandoned the suit. Robinson, on two charges of housebreaking, was sentenced to a year in the Central and Edward Tighe, for gross indecency, will do time in the county gaol for three months. The latter appealed for a new trial on the ground that the evidence of one of the crown witnesses could be disproved, but the appeal was not granted.

At the meeting of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111 I.O.O.F. last night a very pleasant event took place. Bro. Wm. Batisby, a member of Durham Lodge, Port Hope, but who has been in Peterborough a few years, has identified himself with Peterborough Lodge. By his untiring exertions and constant attendance, combined with an unblemished character, he has in a great measure secured for this lodge the success which it has attained. The members thought it but right that he should have some recognition for his faithful services, and accordingly presented him with a gold headed cane and the following address:

Dear Brother Battisby:

Your most earnest brothers and friends of Peterborough, Lodge No. 111, I.O.O.F., feel that the time has now come that we should in some manner recognize your most zealous efforts for the promotion of our lodge;

Although living at so great a distance from the lodge to which you belong, you have never been idle in the good work have endeavoured by every fair and honest means to advance the good feeling and interests of our lodge, for which we will ever be thankful to you.

To no one of our own members do we owe so great a debt of gratitude.

Through your efforts alone our lodge has been increased by one-tenth of its present membership.

Your clear unblemished character comprehends not only the integrity that will not offer but the spirit that will not submit to an injury; and whether it belongs to a committee, it is the foundation of peace, of independence and of safety.

Private credit is wealth public honour is security.

You will now accept at our hands this cane as a small remembrance of your services, and we trust that in your declining years as you look upon it, it will call back to your memory the many pleasant evenings we have spent together.

With best wishes for yourself and family's prosperity, we remain in Friendship, Love and Truth, yours ever.

MR. STRATTON'S SEVENTEENTH MEETING.

Brilliant Address by Hon. G. W. Ross.

Mr. Stratton's Excellent Account of His Stewardship.

A Large and Enthusiastic Gathering—Mr. Barton Earle Appears on Behalf of Mr. Winch—Hon. Mr. Ross' Splendid Address—Bristling with Solid Facts—Mr. Meredith's Instability—A Highly Successful Gathering.

Last nights meeting in the opera house in the interests of the candidature of Mr. Stratton was a grand success. The fact that Hon. Mr. Ross, the brilliant Minister of Education, was to address the meeting and the added fact that Mr. Stratton, the Liberal candidate, would also give an address filled the opera house to overflowing. The ladies were very largely in evidence filling the gallery, private boxes and occupying places in the front row of seats in the main auditorium. The hall had been beautifully decorated with flags, banners and bunting by Mr. Alf. Kingscote and Mr. G. M. Roger's green houses contributed a fine display of flowers for the platform.

Hon. Mr. Ross, accompanied by Mrs. Ross, arrived in town by the 7:33 C. P. R. local train, and was met at the station by the band and a large gathering of citizens and given a most enthusiastic welcome. A procession of carriages, occupied by many of the prominent supporters of Mr. Stratton, escorted the Minister of Education to the Opera House and as he and Mr. Stratton took their places on the platform, they were received with enthusiastic plaudits. There were no useless preliminaries but business was begun at once.

Mr. Peter Hamilton occupied the chair and in a brief introductory address explained the object of the great gathering, in which he took occasion to refer to the excellent record of the Mowat Government and of Mr. Stratton who had represented the riding in a most successful and satisfactory manner. Arrangements were made by which the friends of Mr. Winch were allowed one hour at the close of the address of Mr. Stratton, who was the first speaker.

Mr. Stratton, who was most enthusiastically received, referred to the pleasure it it gave him to see such a large gathering of the electors present, and to see that so many ladies were present, which he took as a compliment to his advocacy of equal rights, for he (Mr. Stratton) had voted to extend the franchise to the ladies. (Applause.) Mr. Stratton referred to the exceedingly cordial reception he had met in every part of the riding, from old and young. He was pleased to see that not only the old men who had grown gray in the advocacy and support of Liberal principles still stood by him, but that also the young men who were coming forward to take their places were strongly arrayed upon his side, and this was no more than he expected for he was a supporter of the Government which had by the help of his vote extended the

to the young men of Ontario. (Cheers.) In this election the young men that cast their ballot enjoyed an unique privilege—a privilege which would probably never come again to the young men of any succeeding generation. The young man of 21 years of age who in this election cast his first ballot was not born when the Mowat Government came into power, and he would be casting his ballot under, and he (Mr. Stratton) believed for the Government, which during the voters whole lifetime had wisely and prudently governed this province, and which by successive reforms had brought the enlargement of the franchise to the point of giving every young man in the country the privilege of casting his vote and taking his share in the Government of the first province of Confederation. (Cheers.) And the prominent and foremost position Ontario occupied was largely do to the efficient, wise and prudent Government it had enjoyed for the past nearly quarter of a century at the hands of the Mowat Administration. Coming to his personal relations to the electors, Mr. Stratton said that he was proud to come back to the people after having served them eight years as their representative to give an account of his stewardship. (Cheers.) It was a great source of satisfaction to him that after serving the riding for eight years all that his opponents had to bring against him was contained in the petty little sheet that had been issued by his opponents at at the beginning of this contest. He referred to that his opponents had given him. (Loud cheers.) The question had been sneeringly asked by them what had Mr. Stratton done for Peterborough? The speaker pointed out what had been done through his efforts in improving the means of communication with the back country, by which the condition of the people had been improved and they were enabled to more easily reach Peterborough, their market town, and the faces of the north country people were now almost daily seen on the streets of the town, while before he (Mr. Stratton) became the representative, the visits of these people were made once or twice a year. By the money which he (Mr. Stratton) had procured to be spent on the improvement of roads, the people of the north country were enabled to come to town easily and spend their money with the merchants of of Peterborough. (Cheers.) Here was an instance of mutual benefit, for, whatever benefitted the county benefitted the town. He (the speaker) took it as a high compliment to the manner in which he had discharged his duties, that after eight years of representation, all his opponents could urge against him was that the commissioners had not issued certain hotel licenses. And after all what was the burden of this complaint. Who had been injured? Had any interest of temperance had been prejudicially affected? Reference was made to the Foley will matter. The late Mrs. Foley had bequeathed a large sum of money to be devoted to the relief of the poor of Peterborough. The representatives of the county claimed that this applied only to the poor of the county, outside the town. The matter drifted along, nobody taking any interest or urging the

of the town to a share of the bequest till he (Mr. Stratton) took up the matter and submitted a proposition for a basis of settlement and the matter was now under consideration and he had no doubt that, as a result of the efforts, he had felt it his duty to make as representative of both the county and the town, the decision would be that the poor of the town would be granted equal rights with the poor of the county, and that would mean that Peterborough town's share of the generous bequest of Mrs. Foley would be the sum of a thousand dollars a year to be devoted to the relief of the unfortunate and the lessening of local taxation to that amount. (Cheers.)

The speaker then went on to point out the various positions taken by the opponents of the Mowat Government in this riding from time to time. In 1883 the campaign was fought out on the "Facts for Irish Electors." In 1886 the "Ross Bible" was their platform. In 1890 the great Conservative party could not get a candidate who dared take the field, and they united on Mr. Carnegie who was the champion of the so-called Equal Rights movement. And now at this election the brilliant lights of the Conservative party in West Peterborough had felt that discretion was the better part of valour and, with a desire to save themselves, had persuaded Mr. Winch, who, in a moment of weakness, had consented to be led forth to the slaughter. (Laughter.) And the party at present were playing the same shifting tactics; in one part of the riding the P.P.A. was enlisted in their interest and in another the aid of the clergy was sought. Mr. Winch was striving to ride two horses at once; in fact so many horses were being ridden that they

as shown by the fact that at Bridgenorth two of Mr. Winch's speakers didn't know their own horse, but hitched up and drove off another animal. (Great laughter.)

Mr. Stratton adverted to the objection to the Ontario ballot. He claimed that it was a secret ballot, and showed that what Mr. Meredith now clamoured for he opposed at the time of its adoption—this secret ballot. The late Sir John Macdonald and Sir John Abbott, had in the House of Commons both favoured the Ontario ballot when the Dominion ballot Act was being framed. The Ontario ballot was the same as that used in Great Britain by the seven million electors, and the same as that used in the Australian colonies. In fact the ballot both in this country and in England was a gift of Liberal statesmen. (Cheers.) Mr. Meredith opposed giving the ballot to the Separate schools and now he wished to force it upon them. The timber policy of the Mowat Government was contrasted with that of the Dominion Government and that of John Sanfield Macdonald. The timber sold under the Mowat administration realized a thousand dollars more per square mile than that sold by Sandfield Macdonald. It was inquired, if sales of timber were not made from time to time what would be done with the thousands of men who were now given employment by the lumbering industry? The disastrous consequences to labouring men and to the many industries that circled around the lumbering business and received patronage from it were shown. If the sales of timber ceased our lumbering operations ceased. Referring to the export duty on logs to prevent their removal to the United States, Mr. Stratton pointed out that the larger share of the labour employed was in the getting out of the timber. And if an export duty was to be levied it could not be done by the Mowat Government. Under the Confederation Act that was the duty of the Dominion Government, and the representatives of Peterborough in the House of Commons, that they did not see that justice was done in this matter? They both sat in the House of Commons at Ottawa, when the export duty was removed from saw logs—that same export duty which the opponents of the Mowat Government were blaming the latter for not putting on, though they had no power in the matter? (Cheers.) Referring to biennial sessions, Mr. Stratton said that was a proposal to transplant American institutions on Canadian soil. His plan in order to reduce the expense of legislation, namely, to reduce the number of representatives was better. The necessity of an annual inspection by the representatives of the people was pointed out. To this the Opposition replied that we had a provincial auditor; and we had a Dominion auditor, but that did not keep McGreevy and Connolly out of jail. (Cheers.) Mr. Stratton closed an effective address which was received with hearty demonstrations of approval by appealing strongly for national unity and united action in the building up of a great country. As far as this riding was concerned, he had the greatest confidence in the result and that on the evening of the 26th of June he would retire to rest to rest the representative of West Peterborough. (Enthusiastic Applause.)

MR. WINCH'S CHAMPION SPEAKS.

Mr. Barton Earle, who was warmly received by his friends, appeared in behalf of Mr. Winch. He began by reciting the several disadvantages under which he laboured on the occasion. He said he had been moved to take an active part in this contest against the Mowat Government by the "license scandal" in Peterborough and other places. He then referred to the license reduction bylaw in which he had taken an active interest and professed to give several reasons why it had not been passed. One reason was, Mr. Earle averred, that it did not suit Mr. Stratton's purposes and several other equally fanciful reasons were given for the course in the matter the commissioners had seen fit to pursue. A passing reference was made to Mr. G. M. Roger and the Ennismore episode. Mr. Earle spoke with earnest indignation of the iniquity of "three ignorant and villainous saloonkeepers" preventing eminent Conservatives from town, representatives of the first families, from addressing the electors of Ennismore. Referring to the question of prohibition Mr. Earle gave what he called a history of the prohibition movement, making the extraordinary claim for Mr. Meredith and the Conservatives for the advance of prohibition interests generally and its promotion to the sphere of practical politics. He asserted, and attempted to show proof, that Mr. Meredith was a better friend of prohibition than Sir Oliver Mowat. Mr. Earle then went on to point out the evils he alleged were inherent in the placing the Education department under a responsible minister, alleging that, necessarily, Mr. Ross as a Cabinet Minister must be

A PARTIZAN MINISTER OF EDUCATION.

Mr. Earl criticised the managment of High Schools. He asserted that the system of inspection was worthless and that two inspectors were unnecessary and that the place of one could be better filled by a sanitary engineer, Mr. Earle closed his address amid the hearty applause of his friends.

THE MINISTER OF EDUCATION.

Hon. G. W. Ross was greeted with an ovation indeed when he rose to address the audience. In doing so he stated that, as when he had addressed a Peterborough audience eight years ago, it was a labour of love which brought him to the town. As he was a school-master himself at one time, as well as Mr. Earle, he thought it might not be out of place to liken Mr. Stratton to a school boy who, eight years ago, had just entered the primer; four years ago, on his second election, he had graduated into the high school, and if he kept on in the same way doubtless he would soon earn the degree of LL.D. at the university. He had proven himself to be a trustworthy member of the Legislature—(applause)—and an independent member, as he had, on one occasion, voted against the government, but that was in favour of granting the franchise to the ladies. He had done this for the ladies, but he thought he wouldn't do it for anyone else. Mr. Stratton was, he stated, an member on committee work and a member able to hold his own in debate. As an old school-master he was proud of "his boy" to night and he was sure the people of his constituency were equally proud of him—(applause)—and would not see him replaced by another. He hoped in the present contest that Mr. Stratton's friends would stand by him and not "wince." (Laughter.)

He was glad that Mr. Earle had gone into the question of temperance. That gentleman had endeavoured to lead the audience to believe that they stood a better chance of getting prohibition with Mr. Meredith in power than if Sir Oliver was retained. He said that Mr. Mowat was opposed to the reduction of licenses—(Here Mr. Earle jumped up and said that such was not the case, he had said no such thing.) Mr. Ross, however, had taken down the words as they had taken down the words as they had dropped from his lips, but said that it did not matter, but that he would not allow him to shift his ground on all his statements in the same manner, as he wanted to pin him down to some of them pretty closely. The Minister of Education then went on to say that by the passage of the Crooks Act in 1876 Sir Oliver had reduced the number of hotel licenses by one half. If he was not favourable to temperance would he advocate and place such legislation on the books! He had been instrumental in reducing the number of shop licenses by two thirds, and had abolished the selling of liquor on all vessels. The speaker left his audience to judge by these statements whether Sir Oliver was in favour of temperance legislation or not. Mr. Meredith, he stated, had the provisions of the Crooks Act going into effect until 1877. He could not understand how a prohibitionist could conscientiously support Mr. Meredith. When Sir John Carling, the London brewer, was running for the Dominion House, Mr. Meredith had vacated his seat in the Legislature to help him in his election—truly a strange action for a temperance man. Now, in this present elecion contest, Mr. Carling was canvassing for Mr. Meredith—the brewer canvassing for the prohibitionist—and yet this was the honourable temperance man, whose course, Mr. Earle was championing.

Sir Oliver Mowat, the speaker stated, had not entertained the idea of taking up the Marter Bill, because his Legislature had not the jurisdiction to put its provisions into force. Petitions had come showering in from all classes and denominations to the number of several hundreds, nay, almost a thousand asking for the taking of a plebiscite and only four or five at the outside had come in regarding the passage of the Marter Bill. Mr. Mowat on his responsibility as Premier, had come out boldly and manufully and said that if the courts decided that a prohibitory law could be enforced, a prohibitory law the people would have. (Applause.) In strong contrast to this manly declaration the leader of the Opposition stated that he would let the people decide the question. "Man alive!" ejaculated Mr. Ross, "haven't they decided the question and decided it by a majority of 80,000!" What more could anyone ask? Mr. Meredith had opposed the passage of the enactment for the taking of the plebiscite and then turned completely around and proposed putting the country to the expense of having another vote taken on the matter. In this, as in every other important question, Mr. Meredith and was constantly changing his ground.

Mr. Earle had charged the Mowat Government with making a strong effort to capture the temperance vote and at the same time to coerce the liquor influence. Nothing of the kind was the case. Nearly all the legislation was always on the side of temperance and in the advocacy of its interests and the Opposition regularly voted against these enactments.

If the license commissioners were appointed by the municipalities saturnalia would reign indeed and how the liquor influence would be brought to bear in local politics. At present the appointment of the commissioners was vested in a power far removed and where no possible liquor influence could reach it. It was impossible for any man to submit conclusive evidence that the Ontario Government coerced the liquor vote (cheers) and he challenged the opposition to cite a single instance in contradiction of his assertion. (Applause.) The present administration had made the owner responsible for accidents which might occur or result through the too free use of liquor in a saloon or hotel. It had placed the power in the hands of the municipalities to reduce the number of licenses. It had prohibited the sale of intoxicants to minors and had introduced temperance text books in the schools. "Has the Earle of Barton or Mr. Meredith ever done anything better than that for you," queried the speaker. If you want temperance legislation, stated he, better let well enough alone and not jump hastily to a conclusion on the statement of campaign orators when such a plain record as that of the Mowat Government lies before you telling its story on the face of it.

The Minister of Education then turned his attention to the bitter personal remark Mr. Earle had made regarding his being and by the time he finished with Mr. Earle, if that gentleman was not flayed it was because his understanding was as impervious to the home thrusts delivered by Ross, as Mr. Earle's statements were false and intentionally misleading. Mr. Earle had also stated that the high schools were being nourished at the expense of the public schools and that both were deteriorating in efficiency. Mr. Ross questioned him as to whether he pretended to say that the Collegiate Institute was not as good under the present management as it was when he was connected with it? "Nourished on the Public Schools," indignantly reiterated Mr. Ross. Mr. Earle, said he, reminds me of the boy who was set the task of writing an essay on political economy. When his paper was opened the only words found there were "short of information." (Laughter). This would apply to Mr. Earle most excellently. He was indeed lamentably "short of information." Mr. Ross then went out into figures proving conclusively that while the attendance at the Collegiate Institutes had greatly swelled since the regime of Dr. Ryerson as head of the Educational department, yet the grant per capita had been decreased just one half since that time. It was hard, he thought, to conceive how a man of Mr. Earle's education could get up on a public platform and make such mis-statements unless he had some ulterior motive in view in so doing.

In the days of Dr. Ryerson there had been 53 different text books in use in the schools of the province, and if a scholar moved from one town to another in all likelihood he would find that a different set was in use from those he formally studied and the result would be that he would have to go to the expense of fitting himself out with an entirely new set at a great additional expense. Now there were only nine different text books in use in each school—one book for each subject. No matter if a student moved from one end of the province to the other he would find precisely the in use. (Cheers.) Now that's not bad for a "partizan minister," is it? queried he of Mr. Earle.

Ten years ago, continued Mr. Ross, it cost a child $10.83 to go through a course of study from the first to the fourth book. That is the text books used to cost that amount. I have reduced the cost to $4.06 and the scholars go as far as the fifth book (Cheers.) "Not so bad, is it," asked he, "considering that it was done by a partizan Minister of Education. (Laughter.) Another thing, continued he, that I have done is to lower the price of drawing books from 15 cents to five cents, and give a better book too for the latter price. There were 300,000 school children, so the "partizan Minister of Education" saved the province just $30,000 by this one stroke. He had reduced the price of copy books from ten to five cents, thus effecting a saving of another $15,000 a year. This was done for the public schools and yet Mr. Earle had charged that the high schools were being fostered at the expense of the public schools. If time would permit, Mr. Ross stated, that he could lay before his audience items of expense which he had curtailed to an extent that $80,000 or $90,000 WAS SAVED YEARLY.

(Cheers.) Formerly it was necessary that a pupil passing through the High School would have to purchase 131 text books before he completed his course—now only 35 were needed. Eighty of these 131 text books had been purchased abroad. Being something of a Canadian, Mr. Ross did not like this and had

SO CHANGED THE ORDER OF THINGS that now only two of the text books in use

MR. STRATTON'S SEVENTEENTH MEETING.

were imported. One imported text book had been replaced by one compiled by Principal Fessenden, of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute. (Cheers.) The English History now in use in the schools of the province was also compiled by a Canadian High School master and so well was it liked that it had been introduced into the schools of half a dozen other provinces as well. Ontario's text books, declared he, are being used everywhere, some of them even in the United States.

In his time alone, Mr. Ross stated, the attendance at the high schools had been doubled. And is not grand to think, continued he, that the mechanic and the labouring man can send his children to these high schools at such a comparatively small cost and that the pupil can there fit himself for the higher walks of life, and in graduating can take a position which will bring him in sufficient of a remuneration to support his parents as well as himself.

Referring to the remark of Mr. Earle to the effect that two High School inspectors were not necessary, Mr. Ross explained that Dr. Ryerson thought they were, as there were three in his time; that Mr. Meredith thought they were needed as he had never proposed to cut them off. Did anyone, queried he, ever know a system of education being conducted without inspection? There are now 22,000 High School students and surely the services of two inspectors were needed to look after them. Then again, Mr. Earle had proposed in all seriousness to supplant the inspectors by a sanitary engineer. Now, exclaimed he, "what had a sanitary engineer—a sewerage expert to do with inspecting High Schools. If anyone else had made such a suggestion he would say that he was preparing himself for the lunatic asylum, but as it was Mr. Earle, and, as he had made other statements just as unreasonable, he considered him a fit subject for an asylum without going further. You will not find an educationalist in the province, said he, to agree with him—a sanitary engineer, forsooth—a man for sewage and drains. In England, in Germany, where, with the exception of Ontario, the best system of education in the world was in vogue, in France, Holland and Belgium the inspection system was adhered to. Mr. Earle might think that his opinion was more weighty than that of the educationalists of these combined nations, but he was the only one who would form that idea. Mr. Ross then dwelt on the profound egotism of the man in setting his intellect up above those of the most brilliant educationalists in the world.

The education department sent an exhibit to Chicago last year, he continued, and competed with the world. He, himself, had been asked to be one of the five judges of the educational exhibit, but had declined, as in the showing which he intended that Ontario should make. At the close of the exhibit the awards were made and what did the department get which had for its head a "partizan minister?" The award read in effect as follows: "To the province of Ontario we give the award, not for the best system of education, but for having the only complete system of education, from the Kindergarten to the University." (continued applause.) The judges had passed over the exhibits of France, Germany and England and given the highest award to the little province of Ontario. (cheers.) The province got the first award for the best system of high school education in spite of Mr. Earle's condemnation. The text books in use in the schools had also been taken and received the highest award as had the Ontario system of training teachers, all of which systems had been worked up to this point of perfection by himself, the man whom Mr. Earle characterized as the "partizan Minister of Education." "Call me partizan if you will," continued he, "but as long as Canada can challenge the world and carry off the educational awards in the face of the older nations, I care little for the petty carpings of small souls." Since his appointment 227,000 students had graduated from the high schools and taken high standing and if one student could be found of all these to say that he or she had been favoured or treated unfairly for political ends he would resign his portfolio. "In the mouths of two or three witnesses all things are sure," quoted he, and here are 227,000 witnesses for Mr. Earle to pick from.

HONOURED ALONG WITH GREAT MEN.

The Governor General and the Lieutenant Governor that very day had been presented along with himself (Mr. Ross) with the degree of LL.D. by the University Senate. Strange, wasn't it, that a minister who was apostrophised by Mr. Earle as being "partizan" should have this high honour conferred upon him by a senate composed of both Reformers and Conservatives.

Mr. Ross then turned his attention to affairs of a more general nature as connected with the Mowat Administration. "When you are looking for a leader," said he, "you look for a man of stability of character consisting in the advocacy of great measures. In England Peel, Salisbury and Gladstone had all been advocates of great principles, which they had made it their life work to try and bring into effect. Canada could look to no greater country for precedent. Then there was Sir John A. Macdonald, he with a noble persistency and with a great breadth of mind devoted his life to the extension of the power of the Dominion and to the strengthening of the bond which united her to the Mother Country. As a Liberal he would not soon forget the work of that lamented leader. Sir Oliver Mowat possessed exactly the same characteristics which denoted the greatest statesman.

Mr. Meredith was characterized by no such stability of purpose, as he had spoken and voted on both sides of almost every important question which had come before the legislature and had descended so low as to invite his followers to adopt which was the distinguishing feature of the present campaign. No great questions of reform had been advocated by the Opposition—they had came forward with no great scheme, but had contented themselves with snarling and barping over how many eggs the superintendent of an asylum could suck and other small matters of a like nature.

In enlarging on the vacilliating policy of Mr. Meredith and proving the statement he had made to the effect that the leader of the Opposition was a man of no stability of purpose, Mr. Ross cited the following instances of where he had "flopped" on important questions:—

At one time conservatives had favoured the Ontario ballot, but now their leader was opposed to it.

The Conservative Government had introduced Government House and Mr. Meredith had always upheld its retention until the last session of the legislature, when he veered around and was now favouring its abolishment.

Seven years ago the leader of the Opposition was opposed to biennial sessions; now he favoured them being held.

For two sessions he had supported Mr. Mowat in his fight for the territory in the north-western part of the province, when the Dominion authorities were trying to gain possession of that excellent timber tract, which was also so rich in minerals. Before the question was settled, however, Mr. Meredith was found ranged in line on the side of the enemy and fighting tooth and nail against the rights of the province.

At first Mr. Meredith was opposed to the ballot for Separate Schools, and brought in a bill entailing the compulsory ballot for the Separate Schools.

THEN WHEELED AROUND

In his career the leader of the Opposition had been found on both sides of the fence regarding the appointment of license commissioners by the county councils.

In view of all these circumstances he claimed that Ontario was too big a province to be placed in the hands of a man who did not possess that fundemental principle of statemanship—stability of purpose. It was too big a province to be placed in the hands of a man who was continually trimming his sails to every faction breeze that blew.

Mr. Ross then made a strong appeal to the electors to keep up the standard of Canadian politics and not allow undesirable Americanisms to creep in. Personally he had no fault to find with Mr. Meredith, but as a statesman he was vacillating and no conscientious man could solicit a vote on the ground of the stand he was taking on any particular question, as there was no telling how soon he would flop around and change his platform to suit the circumstances.

All the charges which had been brought against the Administration were matters of detail—little trifles.

LOOK AT OUR FINANCES,

said he. The Administration has made disbursements amounting to $72,000,000 in the last 20 years. Can the Opposition point to a single dollar that was dishonestly spent? No. Can they point to a single dollar that was dishonestly paid out? No. Can they point to a single dollar which has not been accounted for? No, again. (Applause.)

Mr. Ross claimed that in this campaign it was charged that the Mowat Administration had passed the Separate School Act—No such thing, said he, it was passed before he was born.

Ninety-three per cent. of the children attended the public schools and seven per cent. of them, the Separate Schools. The Separate Schools were a part of the educational system. It could not be abolished by the Provincial Legislature, nor by the Dominion Parliament. It would take an act of Imperial Parliament to abolish the system. Mr. Meredith, he stated, in his speeches about the iniquity of the Separate School Act forgot that Dr. Ryerson was instrumental in having it framed. There was more than one class of Separate Schools. There were Separate Schools for Roman Catholics, Separate Schools for Protestants, and also Separate Schools for the coloured people. If the Roman Catholics could not have schools of their own, many of them would grow up in ignorance and he left it to any P. P. A. man present if it wasn't preferable to have an educated Roman Catholic to an ignorant Roman Catholic. All the legislation which had gone into effect had been with the end in view of promoting the efficiency of the Separate Schools. He challenged anyone to say that any such legislation was against the interests of the public schools or impaired their efficiency in the least. No one was hurt and only benefit has been derived from the following of such a course. As a Canadian he felt bound to guard and care for the moral and intellectual welfare of every Canadian boy and girl, and when he retired he wanted to do so without the fear of having the charge made against him by any Roman Catholic citizen that he had neglected their welfare in an educational sense. So far as he could see the education which they were receiving would equip them for the duties of citizenship and prepare them for they chose to follow. If this charge was the head and front of the Government's offending them they were willing to be condemned.

This Separate School act was a part of the confederation of which Sir John A. Macdonald claimed to be the father. Around him were grouped in the framing such well known Conservatives as Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Leonard Tilley and Sir George Cartier, and this was the act which bound the province to the Separate School system in which no vital change could be made. In view of these circumstances he could most solemnly charge Mr. Meredith with raising this sectarian cry for ulterior motives. At the time of confederation there were 68 Separate Schools. In the last five years the number had increased to eighty-three. If Mr. Meredith was in the employ of the hierarchy he could have done no more than that or produced better results. The question was asked why the same teachers were not appointed in the Separate Schools as in the Public Schools. The answer was simple enough, the constitution did not allow it. It was the same way with the text books, they could not be forced on the Separate Schools, though those in use now in the Public Schools were of so excellent a character that the Separate Schools had adopted 80 per cent. of them of their own free will. (Applause.)

If it was inefficiency in the Separate Schools which the electors demanded, they would have to get some other Government, as the present one would not serve them under those conditions. We believe, said he, in dealing with the minority with of justice and fair-play which the constitution demanded. That measure they should have and no more, and that measure the public schools should have and no more.

"We have a country now of which we are proud," said he, (applause), "but I am distrustful of the Americanisms which Mr. Meredith would like to introduce." We don't want any biennial sessions, continued he, what we want is the good old British rules in this respect. (Cheers.) We don't want officers appointed by the people but rather would continue in the British methods of making a government responsible for its appointments. Canadians had no use for Mr. Meredith's pet American schemes. We did not need to look to America for ideas when before our eyes was Britain—the mother of nations and the arbiter of the destinies of the world. (Cheers.

Mr. Ross concluded his remarkably logical and fluent address by a strong appeal to his audience to pull together for the good of the country and quoted the following adapted quotation from Macaulay:—

> Then none were for a party;
> Then all were for the state;
> Then the great man helped the poor
> And the poor man loved the great!
> Then the lands were fairly portioned—
> The spoils were fairly sod,
> The Canadians were like brothers
> In the brave days of old.

The outbreak of cheering which occurred was spontaneous and the audience was fairly carried away for a time.

Mr. Stratton read a communication which was handed in asking his position on the labour question. In reply he stated that he always had voted in the legislature for the labour measures and always would try to forward anything in their interests which lay in his power. (Cheers.) If at any time a bill came up in the House regarding the shortening of the hours of labour his interrogator could bet his bottom dollar that J. R. Stratton would be found with his shoulder at the wheel pushing such legislation through. (Cheers).

The meeting was closed with cheers for Her Majesty the Queen, Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Stratton and Mr. Ross.

A DISINTERESTED ENDORSEMENT.

To the Electors of Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN,—I am a farmer in Emily. I have always voted Conservative, but had I a vote in Peterborough I should certainly poll it on the 26th June for J. R. Stratton. You ask me why? Well, I will tell you. When the county of Victoria, assisted by the two members for East and West Victoria, made their big push in 1892 to have the Pigeon Creek Bridge closed, and when the county of Peterborough would have allowed them to have done so, Mr. Stratton, with an energy that is commendable, protected the interests of the town of Peterborough and made our natural town more convenient for us. I had occasion to call upon Mr. Stratton during that protracted and bitter fight between the two counties and he seemed to recognize the importance to Peterborough of the keeping of the bridge open and it is to him that we look with pleasure on preserving our bridge for us, and the merchants of Peterborough owe him a debt of gratitude. The act asked for by Victoria would have abandoned the bridge and we should have been compelled to go to Lindsay and thus deprive us of our best market and the cheapest place to buy goods. I have always voted Conservative, Mr. Editor, but you could depend upon, it electors of Peterborough, I should vote for Mr. Stratton. I am anxious he should be elected and this is why I pen you these few lines. Anything I can do, you may depend upon it I will gladly do it. And whah is my benefit is Peterborounh's benefit, as I spend all my money in Peterborough.

Yours truly,
CONSERVATIVE.

THE ENNISMORE PIC-NIC.

Athletic Sports—Fine Day—Good Crowd Great Enjoyment and Large Receipts.

The Ennismore picnic was a great and grand success on Wednesday. The sports and other entertainments passed off most pleasantly under the mature and skilful direction of Father McCall. The Ennismore Minstrel orchestra was present and rendered sweet music throughout the day. Father Keilty, of Douro, the former pastor, was present, as was Father O'Connell, also a former pastor, and Father Scollard of the Cathedral.

The net proceeds of the picnic amounted to about $400, which sum will go into the coffers of the general parish fund.

In the aquatic sports the single canoe race (open to both counties) was won after an exciting contest by George Taylor, of Chemong village, Stephen Nichols and Garner Nichols making respectively good second and third.

Stephen Nichols, R. Nichols and Garner Nichols came in in the order named in the single canoe race open to the towns.

Taylor and Nott won the double canoe race.

The athletic sports for a good list of prizes were greatly enjoyed and the picnic was quite up to the general run of parish picnics in Ennismore—what more could be said. The name of them and the fame of them is known throughout the length and breadth of the Midland district. Quite a number were present from Lindsay, having gone over on the Columbian.

BUFFALO LAWYER SHOT.

The Ex-City Clerk Murdered by a Husband He Had Wronged.

BUFFALO, June 15.—The murder last night, of Ex-City Clerk William E. Delaney, while not shrouded in as much mystery as that of Montgomery Gibbs, has created as much excitement and has caused a large number of prominent members of the bar to ask: "Who's turn next?"

Delaney, who was a prominent lawyer and Democratic politician, was shot in his apartments over the Gold Dollar saloon by George A. Bartholomew, aged 26 years, of Victoria, Ont.

Two women and a man were in the room at the time of the shooting and up to midnight the police had not captured or identified any of them. At that hour Bartholomew walked into No. 1 Police Station and gave himself up. He told the police that one of the women in the room at the time of the shooting was his wife, and the other's identity would be made known during the day.

Bartholomew refused to tell the police why he shot Delaney, but it is supposed that he followed his wife to the latter's room, where he surprised the trio. Bartholomew told the superintendent of police that he would have nothing further to say until he had time to engage counsel.

The building where the murder occurred is in the most prominent part of Main street and the street was crowded at the time. Delaney's room was on the fourth floor and to the rear of the building, so the shot was not heard on the street.

Delaney was taken to the emergency hospital, where it was found that a bullet of 38-calibre had entered the right side and passed almost completely through the body. Death occurred within ten minutes after the shooting.

Delaney was one of the counsel for Sheriff Beck, and appeared for the defence in all the election trials here. He was a handsome man, about 38 years old. He had long been prominent in politics, serving several terms as city clerk, where his ability as a parliamentarian made him a party leader.

EARL JERSEY'S DUTIES.

The Conference at Ottawa Discussed in the Imperial House.

LONDON, June 15.—In the House of Commons Mr. Sydney Buxton, in answer to a question by Sir George Baden-Powell, said that the duties of the Earl of Jersey as British delegate to the intercolonial conference at Ottawa were simply to listen to the proceedings and give information. He was not entitled to bind the Government. Therefore the Government, being unaware of the powers of the other delegates, would not be able to arrange for Parliament at the present session to consider or determine questions referred to it by the conference through any matter requiring immediate attention would be considered.

Mr. James S. Hogan asked the Government if, in view of the willingness of the principal colonies to contribute their share of the expenses of the defence of the empire, it was not unjust to impose an estate tax upon them.

Sir William Harcourt said Mr. Hogan's question was founded upon a mistaken idea. The imposition of death duties had nothing to do with the receipt of money from the colonies for national defence. The matter of imposing the duty, he said, was not a case for particular exemption.

A Horrible Quintuple Tragedy.

CAMDEN, N.J., June 15.—A quintuple tragedy last night startled Cramer Hill, a suburb of this city. John Kauffmann, a Bavarian, 50 years of age, cut the throats of his wife, Rosina, and his three children and then hanged himself. Kauffmann was in destitute circumstances. The fact that the shutters remained closed excited the suspicions of Frank Hartman, and he communicated his fears to Justice Schmidt. The latter went to the house and pulling open the shutters saw the body of Kauffmann hanging by the neck between the double doors on the first front room. Further investigation showed the body of Mrs. Kauffmann on a bed in the middle room of the first floor clasping her dead infant in her arms. Upstairs in another room were found the bodies of the five-year-old twin boys with their throats cut from ear to ear.

The Plague in China.

HONG KONG, June 15.—There were eighty-six deaths here from the plague on Tuesday. Nine British soldiers have been attacked with the disease. The military authorities are taking extraordinary precautions to prevent its spread among the troops. The leading Chinese residents are removing to Canton on gunboats those sufferers who are willing to go. The exodus of natives continues. Thousands of placards have been posted in the streets of Canton giving notice that if the government of Hong Kong carries out its expressed intention of destroying the Chinese quarter in that city, the British settlement in Canton will be burned. The health authorities reported eighty-two deaths from the plague to-day.

Trial of Robb, the Correspondent.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 15.—The newspaper correspondent, R. Robb, who was arrested on the charge of having recently caused the publication of a criminally libellous report to the effect that a Canadian Pacific railroad train had been wrecked and that forty members of a Raymond-Whitcomb excursion party had been killed, was placed on trial. After the case had been opened and several witnesses had been examined for the prosecution, the hearing was adjourned at the request of defendant's counsel until to-morrow.

NEW DURHAM MURDER

Mrs. Hartley and Henry Ling Lodged at Brantford.

WILL BE TRIED FOR MURDER

The Verdict of the Coroner's Jury Was for Wilful Murder in Administering Poison to the Deceased, Caleb Hartley — Trial Tuesday Next.

BRANTFORD, June 15.—Maria Hartley and Henry Ling, of New Durham, against whom the coroner's jury at Norwich found a verdict of wilful murder in administering poison to Caleb Hartley, the storekeeper at New Durham, and from the effects of which he died on May 13 last, arrived in the city and were promptly lodged in jail. Ling, who was arrested by County Constable Allan, was kept in his house until he was taken by train to Brantford and brought before James Grace, J. P. He was formally remanded until Tuesday, June 19.

Ling said he had told a straight story and he did not fear the consequences as he had no hand in the affair at all. She had told him that she administered the poison, though he did not see her give any of it.

When asked why he had not given information of her efforts to poison her husband, Ling said he did not think it was any of his business to interfere. He had been led into his present fix through the woman, and he had no doubt his lawyer, Mr. Jones, would be able to show that he had no part in the business. He admitted the killing of Hartley was an awful affair, but he had no responsibility.

Mrs. Hartley, who is charged with the murder of her husband, and accused by the jury of actually administering the poison, arrived in the city at noon yesterday. She came by road accompanied by her brother and a constable, and after partaking of dinner at the American hotel went to the police station and thence to the jail, where she will await the preliminary trial. She was dressed in black and looked very pale and not a little nervous. She was quiet and refused to make any statement of any kind whatever.

THE EVIDENCE ALL IN.

Hooper's Second Trial Nearing a Close—The Final Testimony.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 15.—Amid the stifling heat in the court house yesterday the ladies fanned themselves vigorously. The jury and prisoner showed signs of fatigue. The evidence given was the last to be heard, and the lawyers address the court to-day. The judge will give his charge to-morrow and the verdict will probably be rendered to-morrow night.

Mr. Wm. Weir, president of the Ville Marie Bank, Montreal, an expert in handwriting, was examined by the defence and gave it as his opinion that the words "Good-bye, John, I am going to drown," written on the margin of a newspaper and letters shown him, said to have been written by the prisoner's wife, were the work of the same person.

The contractor for the laying of drain pipes at Louiseville, named Veillette, said he found no evidence of a woman falling into the excavations on the day that Mrs. Hooper fell into the water.

Mr. Casson, a stenographer, who took the evidence at Hooper's previous trial in Joliette, testified to the correctness of certain depositions read to the jury. Three other witnesses who have already been heard were briefly examined and this closed the evidence.

"Is this hot enough for you?" is a silly question; but if you meet a man who complains of suffering from the heat, ten to one you will find, on inquiry, that he does not use Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system and free his blood from irritating humours.

TRIAL OF MR. WIMAN

Conclusion of the Evidence in the Case Against Staten Island's Ex-King,

SOME DAMAGING ADMISSIONS

Different Sums Due the Firm Had Been Collected by the Defendant and Appropriated to His Personal Use—Case Looks Bad for Mr. Wiman.

NEW YORK, June 15.—When court began yesterday, Mr. Wiman's examination by Gen. Tracy was continued. A part of the time was taken up in eliciting evidence about correspondence which passed between the defendant and Mr. Dun, especially a letter from Wiman explaining his financial position. Wiman produced this letter and read it.

In it the writer dwelt upon his long service with the company, and complained that had not his interest in the business been reduced from 25 to 17 per cent he would not have been in such a financial difficulty. He also spoke of his property, and said that he hoped within a short time he would be able to realize on his investments and pay back his indebtedness. After reading the letter Mr. Wiman went into a long explanation of how he expected to be able to repay all his obligations. Gen. Tracy then came to the time Mr. Wiman drew the $5,000 Bullinger cheque.

"When you drew that cheque did you have any intention of defrauding R. G. Dun & Co?"

"No, sir."

"Or Mr. Bullinger?"

"No, sir."

"Why did you draw the cheque, then?"

"Well, my account in the office was very closely watched and I needed the money. I wanted to draw without having it shown against my account."

"At the time you drew that cheque had you any doubt about being able to repay the money?"

"Not the slightest."

Foreman of the jury—"Did you notify Mr. Bullinger that you had drawn the cheque?"

"No, sir; I did not."

Continuing, Mr. Wiman explained how he had come to use Mr. Bullinger's name. He said he had known Mr. Bullinger for a long time and that the firm usually owed Mr. Bullinger about $15,000 or $18,000 a year, and that Mr. Bullinger had told him (the witness) that he (Mr. Bullinger) would allow him to use the money. Mr. Bullinger had never given him actual authority to use his name, but the witness thought his position in the firm gave him that right. In signing the cheque he had merely wanted to transfer the firm's money in the bank to his account.

With regard to his confession, witness said he had received a telegram from Mr. McFarland asking him to call at his office. He did so, and Mr. McFarland had told him he ought to write some sort of a letter to Mr. Dun. It was entirely on Mr. McFarland's suggestion that the letter was written.

Mr. Wellman then tried to introduce other letters of a similar nature, but Justice Ingraham sustained Gen. Tracy's objection.

Mr. Wellman produced letters written by Wiman to both Mr. and Mrs. Dun in a most abject vein, begging for mercy for his past misdeeds. These letters referred to the fact that against the rules of his firm he had borrowed $25,000 from the Chemical National Bank on a note.

After this Mr. Wellman brought out the fact that shortly after this time Wiman had taken $25,000 from the trust funds of the company, and on a subsequent occasion $8,000. These amounts had been returned to the firm by Wiman after it was discovered that he had taken the money.

Mr. Wellman made the witness make some damaging admissions. By means of various letters and telegrams written by Mr. Wiman and by means of the company's books, Mr. Wellman showed and got the witness to admit that during the year 1891 he had collected altogether $67,000 due the firm and diverted it to his own personal use. And during this time the witness was writing to Mr. Dun, telling him that he would not overdraw his account.

During the questions in regard to this affair the witness remained perfectly stolid, every now and then saying that he was a partner in the house and had a right to do as he wished with the money collected.

"I paid it all back again, anyway," he said.

"How?" asked Mr. Wellman.

"With the cheque for $135,000," responded the witness, with a smile.

"But the cheque was bad," said Mr. Wellman.

"No, it was not," said Wiman.

"Do you mean to tell the jury that a cheque for $135,000 drawn against an account of less than $10,000 was good?"

"It might have been. I could have made it good within an hour if necessary."

The whole afternoon was taken up with such testimony. The sums of money taken differed, but the method was the same in each case. All this mass of evidence made the greatest impression on the jury. The jurors leaned forward in their seats and listened with the strictest attention. The court room was hushed and every one save Erastus Wiman seemed intensely shocked at the revelations that were made.

After Mr. Wellman finished the cross-examination at half-past four Gen. Tracy began the re-direct examination. Under his leading Wiman said that all the letters which the people had put in as evidence had been written in the strictest confidence. He thought it was a breach of trust to make them public.

Justice Ingraham interrupted the proceedings and said that he should instruct the jury that it would have been a crime for Mr. Dun to have concealed any evidence of crime that he might have in his possession, and that he had merely done his duty as a citizen in making the contents of the letters public.

The defence then called Henry T. Metcalf of Staten Island, John J. Withrow of Toronto, F. F. Thurber of this city, Dewitt Stafford of Staten Island, R. J. Kimball of this city and Frank S. Gannon, the superintendent of the Rapid Transit & Ferry Line to prove the defendant's general reputation for integrity and honesty. Mr. Wellman remarked sarcastically that he was quite willing to concede that Wiman's reputation (with a strong accent on "reputation") was very good. The defence then rested.

The general impression is that the judge will charge the jury against the prisoner at the conclusion of the addresses by the counsel.

Pump House Blown Up.

GREENSBURG, Pa., June 15.—Yesterday the citizens of Alverton were startled by a terrific explosion which shook the houses of the village, and in many instances broke the glass in the windows. It was soon discovered that the pump house of the McClure Coke Co. had been blown up with dynamite. The building was a complete wreck, but it is thought the machinery is not badly injured.

Miners Will Hold Out.

PITTSBURG, June 15.—At a mass meeting of about 4,000 miners, held at Carnegie, it was decided to hold out for 79 cents per ton. The strikers asked for the resignation of every man who signed the agreement at Columbus, and refused to listen to addresses from District President Cairns and District Secretary Warner.

Twenty Years for Murder.

PARIS, June 15.—Gaston Richard, a seventeen-year-old anarchist, was sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment for having killed the female restaurant-keeper, Crozet, in a cafe on the outskirts of Paris.

A Good Peach Crop.

WINDSOR, June 15.—It is stated that the crop of peaches in Essex county this year will be the most abundant for several years past.

HARWOOD DISCHARGED.

The Last of the Notorious Georgetown Campbell Case.

GEORGETOWN, June 15.—The last of the notorious Campbell case was brought to a close, when Wm. Harwood was tried before Judge Snider, of Milton, on the charge of perjury in connection with that case.

Harwood was a witness on the Campbell case and was charged with having sworn falsely in his evidence, given last February. He appeared before Judge Snider then, and elected to be tried by jury. His trial was postponed till the Court of Quarter Sessions, and he was allowed out on bail of $600. The prisoner was ably defended by Mr. Wm. Laidlaw, of Toronto.

A large number of witnesses were examined on both sides, occupying most of the day. The judge charged the jury somewhat strongly against the prisoner, but after an hour and a half's deliberations the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, which was greeted with considerable satisfaction by nearly everyone present.

Carriage Factory Destroyed.

BLENHEIM, Ont., June 15.—Fire broke out last evening in the building occupied by Slater & Henry, carriage manufacturers, completely destroying it. It was caused by the explosion of a gasoline lamp. Loss about $1,000.

A Young Child's Sad Death.

STIRLING, Ont., June 15.—Mr. W. J. Cassidy, while backing his team out of shed here last evening, accidentally upset the wagon in which were his two young sons, aged 5 and 7 years, killing the younger instantly.

North Bruce Patrons.

TARA, Ont., June 15.—At a convention of the Patrons of North Bruce, forty out of sixty lodges being represented, D. McNaughton was again selected to contest the riding for the Legislature.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. # GREAT BARGAINS AT KELLS' SALE!

Everything Lovely! Everything Propitious!

EARNESTNESS continues to characterize each day's sales. There is no let up to the splendid success which has marked our Enlarging Sale from the very outset. On Saturday last our salesmen were simply lost in the crowds of buyers, and many, we are sorry to say, could not be waited on.

THANKS! THANKS!

We feel impelled, even at this early stage of our sale, to express our hearty thanks for the generous patronage extended to us, on this, the occasion of our First General Stock-Clearing Sale. We have to apologize, however, to those of our customers who we have been unable to wait upon during excessively crowded days, and also for the topsy-turvey shape of the store during the busiest hours of ceaseless selling.

Don't Forget Our Promise.

There will be a lot of goods sold during the next week, and we want to let our prices make such a name for our goods as will continue to draw the crowds.

Everything goes until our big stock is melted away like icicles before a hot sun.

We have determined to realize on our stock whether we do so at a loss or not. Here are a few of the Special Drives for the week:—

MANTLES.

This department must be closed out at once. It's a pity to give new goods such a slicing, but it's an all over bargain time, and there's no help for it. The Clearing Prices must be made sweeping enough to make the selling quick and prompt, as we have no time for waiting bids.

MILLINERY.

Including this season's Felt and Straw Shapes, Feathers, Ribbons and other Trimmings will be reduced to one-half. The doings of this department for the next few days will eclipse even the past good record. Everything will go to the people at almost their own price. You'll find all that's new here, and the service of skilled milliners at your command.

DRESS GOODS.

Another severe cut in prices all through our Dress Goods will put increased interest in our sale. Visit the department, see the goods, and you will buy.

PARASOLS.

The Parasol counter is one of the busiest spots in this busy store. We offer special inducements this week. All that are good, all that are new, at figures to startle and please.

Every Department is certain to awaken strong interest. We have made ample provision for the emergency, and you will be rewarded by such Exceptional Values as cannot be duplicated by any other Retail Store.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.
"It's Fair's way."
Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

WIMAN FOUND GUILTY

Judge Ingraham Reserves Sentence Until Wednesday Next.

HIS CHARGE TO THE JURY

Mr. Boardman Makes Application for a New Trial—How Mr. Wiman Received the Verdict—He is Interviewed in the Tombs by a Reporter.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The jury in the case of Erastus Wiman brought in a verdict of guilty. The judge will deliver sentence on June 20.

The summing up of the counsel for and against Mr. Wiman were heard with the deepest ieterest. Gen. Tracy made a most powerful and affecting address on behalf of the prisoner. He dwelt on Mr. Wiman's services to the firm of Dun & Co. He said that it was owing solely to Wiman's efforts that Dun was able to to enjoy his great income of $1,000 a day. "Yes, gentlemen, it was Erastus Wiman who carried that business on his broad shoulders, and no one else. It was Erastus Wiman, who, by his reputation for charity and goodness and integrity gave the firm the standing it enjoyed." Gen. Tracy concluded by pleading Wiman's previous excellent character.

Mr. Wellman addressed the jury on behalf of the people. His points were clearly put and very telling. In reply to Gen. Tracy he said that, even if Wiman had intended to return the money which he got by forgery, so did every forger at the beginning of his career of crime. If Wiman built up Mr. Dun's business, that gave him no right to steal Dun's money.

The Judge's Charge.

Justice Ingraham, in his charge to the jury, said that the attempt of the counsel for the defence to make the jury believe that the judge and jury were antagonistic was a mistake. They both make up the court, the judge gave the law and the jury dealt only with the facts. He said that the jury must disregard everything but the facts brought out on the witness stand. The reported charity of the defendant had nothing whatever to do with the case that was pending, nor had Mr. Dun anything to do with the prosecution. The people of the State of New York were prosecuting the case and no one else. "And right here, gentlemen, it is not improper for me to speak of this fearful greed for gold that is one of the marked characteristics of the age. Men are not content to make their money in a legitimate way. They must speculate and go on speculating until they are forced to do crime to get money. They go on from bad to worse until they end in prison.

Justice Ingraham then explained the law in regard to forgery and added that in signing the name of Bullinger on the back of the cheque Wiman had come within the statute, but he is not guilty of forgery unless the intent to defraud is perfectly clear.

In putting that money to his own account he had defrauded not only R. G. Dun & Co., but also E. W. Bullinger, against whose account the $5,000 was charged. Justice Ingraham then briefly over the facts of the case as already presented. He ended by saying: "Gentlemen, it now rests with you to decide whether that cheque was signed with intent to defraud. That alone must determine your verdict. I know that your duty may be hard, but it is hard for me too. We both have a stern duty to perform, and we must do that duty regardless of any future consequences."

General Tracy then asked to have the jury charged that if Wiman had believed that he was really a partner of the firm, the writing of the cheque was not a forgery.

Justice Ingraham denied this application.

General Tracy then made many other similar requests, all of which were denied.

Mr. Wiman's False Hope.

The jury retired at 2.30. As the hours passed and nothing had been heard from the jury room Wiman's hope increased. He chatted and laughed with his friends and seemed in the best of spirits. "I am sure of a disagreement at least," he said to a reporter not ten minutes before the jury came in with their verdict, and only fifteen minutes before Mr. Wiman had sent a telegram to his wife telling her that things looked very bright for him.

As the jury filed into the court room it was very easy to see what the verdict was. The jurors showed plainly that they had decided adversely Wiman's fate. As Wiman rose to face the jury his ruddy face became deadly pale and he trembled violently. The foreman of the jury was much more affected, however. Indeed, he was actually weeping when he delivered the verdict:—"Guilty, with a strong recommendation for mercy." The other jurors would not look at the prisoner and hurried from the court room as soon as Justice Ingraham had thanked them for their services to the state.

As soon as the verdict was announced Mr. Wiman fell back in his chair with a groan. His young son placed his arm about his father's shoulders and the two sat silent for a few minutes. Then Sheriff Brown came and Erastus Wiman started for the Tombs and immediately after his father's departure young Wiman started for home to tell his mother the sad news.

Both Gen. Tracy and Mr. Boardman seemed very much surprised at the verdict. Mr. Boardman said the case would be appealed. Judge Ingraham adjourned court until next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock when Wiman will be sentenced. The penalty for Mr. Wiman's crime is imprisonment for not more than ten years in the State prison. There is no minimum penalty, it being discretionary with the judge.

After hearing the verdict Mr. Wiman said: "There is nothing I can say. My case will, of course, be appealed. I am not guilty for I did not intend to defraud any one. I was persecuted not prosecuted."

The usual motion for a new trial was made by Mr. Boardman, one of Mr. Wiman's counsel. The arguments will be heard next Wednesday. Meanwhile Mr. Wiman will remain in the Tombs. Throughout the trial Mr. Dun and Mr. Douglass were in constant attendance.

Interviewed by a Reporter.

To a reporter who called on him at the Tombs Mr. Wiman said, pointing to the four walls of his cell: "Well, here I am convicted of a felony. It is a terrible thing, but, as you see, I do not give way. I have great energy, great will power and I am a philosopher. I will not let this situation crush me down.

"Believe it or not, it is almost a relief to have this terrible ordeal over with. No one will ever appreciate what I have suffered the last few years, the terrible strain I have been under in the relations with my partners.

"Of course it is dreadful to think that I may soon be in Sing Sing prison, but the hope of the future will buoy me up. I know now that I did wrong, but I committed no crime that I ever knew of. If I had thought endorsing that Bullinger cheque was a forgery do you think I would not have torn it up? It was in the office and available, so that I could have destroyed it at any time, but I never dreamed of crime, I never entertained any criminal intent. I simply considered that I was using money that I would pay back in a short time.

"If Justice Ingraham imposes a light sentence I do not think that I will appeal. I don't feel as if I had the right to ask my noble lawyers, Gen. Tracy and Mr. Boardman to do all the work over again. I have no money to pay them. I have been unable to give them a cent for all they have already done for me. I don't want to ask any more if I can avoid it. If I am to go to Sing Sing I shall try to keep my mind occupied while in prison and devote myself as much as possible to study, and I trust to have enough energy left when I come out to build up a new business. I am in my sixtieth year, but I feel able to do a great deal yet, if I ever get the chance again.

"When the jury stayed out so long I was jubilant. I was so confident that they would appreciate the fact that I had no criminal intent. Every man on that jury did what he conscientiously considered his duty. Of that I am confident. But I did not see how, under the many ways in which Justice Ingraham charged on the point of criminal intent, they could have found me guilty. My only consolation is that my wife and my children, who have shown such unceasing devotion, take my position bravely. They are true to me to the last."

THE WOMAN IN THE CASE.

Mrs. Harry Thorner Arrested in Connection With the Murder of Delaney.

BUFFALO, June 16.—A warrant has been sworn out charging Mrs. Harry Thorner with murder. She disappeared shortly after the Delaney murder was made known and led the officers a merry chase through the small Canadian villages across the river from Buffalo. She finally came back voluntarily. Mrs Thorner will be the principal witness at the trial.

Mrs. Thorner is the wife of the young man who attracted considerable attention in New York sometime ago by representing himself to be a son of C. J. Hamlin, the noted turfman. He is now one of the American colony of fugitives from justice located in Canada.

The remarkable chain of circumstantial evidence which connected Giles C. Rush of Washington with the murder of Delaney, while he was peacefully at home in bed, is the subject of general comment. Bartholomew, the murderer, spent most of the day in a cell on the detectives' floor at police headquarters, smoking and reading, apparently at peace with all the world.

In the afternoon he gave out a story of the crime in an unofficial way, after the superintendent of police promised him that it would not be used against him in his trial.

For Federation in the Antipodes.

LONDON, June 16.—The Pall Mall Gazette prints a long article on the proposal of Sir George R. Dibbs, Prime Minister of New South Wales, for the establishment of an Australian Federation, following the precedent of the Dominion of Canada in its construction. The Gazette expresses the opinion that the principal difficulty in the way of the success of such a plan would be the protective tendencies of Victoria, and the free trade principles which dominate New South Wales. The only hope, the Gazette thinks, is in the system proposed by J. Hofmeyer, the Afrikander leader, which contemplates free trade within the empire and a 2½ per cent. ad valorem duty against the world. The revenue derived from the operation of such a system would form a fund for imperial defence. The Gazette hopes Mr. Hofmeyer will succeed in converting a sufficient number of delegates to the Ottawa conference to advocacy of his system.

Bad Blood in the Congo State.

BRUSSELS, June 16.—The government has received news from the African district of Gubanghi, bordering on the Congo State, that the French and Belgians there are on bad terms. The hostile feeling grows out of the disputes in regard to the occupation of that territory As was announced in the French Chamber of Deputies by M. Hanotaux, French troops are en route to the Oubangui country, but the Belgians there greatly outnumber the French and in these circumstances a conflict would result very seriously to the latter.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT

Amendment Respecting the Sale of the Thousand Islands.

ONTARIO NOT IN THE PURCHASE

The Government Rejects the Proposition Made by the Province That the Sale be Suspended Until a Grant be Obtained From the Legislature.

OTTAWA, June 16.—In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir Richard Cartwright moved an amendment on going into supply in regard to the sale of the Thousand Islands. The Government some time ago published advertisements in the press asking for tenders for a large number of these islands. The time for receiving tenders was to be July 2. Sir Richard Cartwright called the attention of the Government to the fact that the Ontario Government had made a proposition to the Dominion to deal with these islands. This proposition was dated April 26 last. There were three points in it. The first was that these islands should be utilized as a public park. In the second place the Ontario Government suggested that they would pay one-half and the Dominion should pay the other half. The third proposition was that the Dominion should withdraw the notice of sale so that the Province would have an opportunity of laying the matter before the Legislature and getting a grant for the purpose of purchasing the islands.

The amendment of Sir Richard Cartwright, which was, of course, a want of confidence motion, was to the effect that the sales should be postponed to enable the Province to lay the matter before the Legislature.

Mr. Daly, Minister of the Interior, and Sir John Thompson objected to the amendment. The latter said that if the Dominion agreed to give these islands for a park to Ontario all the other Provinces would likewise want public parks. The amendment was defeated by 32 yeas to 64 nays.

The balance of the sitting was taken up in supply.

Capital Notes.

OTTAWA, June 16.—Senator Flint, of Belleville, died at the Grand Union hotel yesterday, aged 89 years and 4 months. He went up west last week to attend to some private business, and on his return caught cold, which at his great age developed fatally.

Sir John Thompson, as Minister of Justice, has made a recommendation for the approval of His Excellency the Governor-General, to liberate Donald Morrison, the Megantic outlaw, on the ground of ill-health. The petition asking this, and the report of the surgeon of the penitentiary recommending the same have already been referred to. It is likely that the news will be conveyed to the warden of the St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary to-day and that to-morrow Morrison will be a free man.

Opening of intercolonial conference here has been postponed to June 28. It was to have been held on the 21st inst. The Australian delegates to the conference, who are now at Vancouver, B.C., will not be able to reach here by the 21st inst., the date set down for the opening of the conference. The detention of the delegates is due to the floods, which have washed away part of the Canadian Pacific railway. The Australian delegates now at Vancouver are: Sir Henry Wrixon, Hon. Simon Fraser, Hon. Nicholas Fraser, of Victoria; Hon. A. H. Thynne, Queensland; Hon. T. B. Sutton, New South Wales, and Albert L. Smith, New Zealand. The delegates who are on their way from England, are: The Earl of Jersey, Britain; Mr. Playford, South Australia; Sir Henry De Villers, Sir Charles Mills and J. H. Hoffmeyer, Cape Colony.

Mr. McWilliams, solicitor of the Toronto Industrial Exhibition, accompanied by a large deputation of members, waited on the Premier to urge that the Toronto fair of 1895 be a Dominion exhibition, and that the Government pay for the transportation of exhibits. They were given the usual assurances.

CANADA AND THE WEST INDIES.

More Efficient Telegraphic Communication Urged by Halifax Merchants.

HALIFAX, N.S., June 16.—At a meeting of the Halifax Board of Trade the following resolution was unanimously adopted: The Board of Trade of the city of Halifax, representing the mercantile interests of our community, beg to submit a memorial to the Government for a better telegraphic communication between Canada and the West Indies. Necessity of immediate action on this great question is very urgent owing to approaching intercolonial conference at Ottawa. Your memorialists are of the opinion that the present communication is unsuited to fill the development and proper direction of the resources of Canada, and that much good would be done to Canada by bringing her nearer to the West Indies by a more direct line and cheaper rates. We would urge that when the question of a more direct line of telegraphic communication between Canada and the West Indies is submitted to the Government, that it should render any assistance to any company who will undertake this project and make this great measure an established fact with as little delay as possible.

Trial of the Stouffville Thieves.

STOUFFVILLE, Ont., June 16.—The trial of the parties arrested some ten days ago, suspected of being implicated in the numerous thefts in this locality during the past year, was resumed here yesterday. Sufficient evidence was received to warrant the committal of Daniel Forsyth and Frank Elson, a well-to do farmer, for receiving and disposing of the stolen goods. The chief witness in both cases was Samuel Haigh, the prisoner who turned Queen's evidence. The other prisoners were remanded until Friday of next week.

Mrs. Harriet A. Marble, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was for years a martyr to headache, and never found anything to give her more than temporary relief until she began to take Ayer's Pills, since which she has been in the enjoyment of perfect health.

Eseljay's Liver Lozenges do not purge or gripe like pills. They simply assist nature in the production of the necessary ile to promote a healthful habit of the rgans of digestion.

Pittsburg Miners Accept the Columbus Agreement.

ILLINOIS MEN TROUBLESOME

Deputy Marshals are Powerless to Hold the Mob in Check—Another Bridge Set on Fire by Strikers in the Ohio District and Traffic Blocked.

PITTSBURG, June 16.—The miner district convention voted unanimously in favor of resuming work on June 18, and with the same vote ratified the action of the Columbus convention and endorsed the action of the national officers.

ZANESVILLE, Ohio, June 16.—A trestle was burned near Granger's Station on the Brush Creek branch of the Columbus, Shawnee & Hocking railway. Cannellville trains are unable to move and assistance was sent out from here. Striking miners are suspected of firing the trestle.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16.—Advices from Mount Oliver state that the miners have again broken out and are stopping all trains on the Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis railroad and that United States deputy marshals there are powerless. Col. Brinton telegraphed Deputy Burroughs to swear in more deputies and arrest all ringleaders.

DECEASED WIFE'S SISTER.

The Imperial Bill Lost in the Lords on the Second Reading.

LONDON, June 16.—The Earl of Dunraven moved in the House of Lords the second reading of the deceased wife's sister bill. He said that the experience of the United States and Canada, which did not forbid a man marrying his deceased wife's sister, was a sufficient refutation of the objections of the bishops. It was a hardship and a cause of expense that a man to marry his deceased wife's sister, and legitimize his children by her, must go abroad to have the ceremony performed. Lord Herschel, the Lord Chancellor, spoke in favor of the bill. The Archbishop of Canterbury and Lords Selborn and Dudley spoke against it. The bill was lost by a vote of 129 to 120. The Prince of Wales, Lord Rosebery and most of the Liberals supported the bill. Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Norfolk, many other Tories and some twenty bishops opposed it.

Finding Bodies of the Drowned.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—A great number of bodies are being found in the river south of St. Louis. In the last two days eleven have been reported found at different points between this city and Cairo. One body was picked up at Windsor, two at Sulphur Springs, one at Bushburg, four at Twin Hollows, one at Horine and two at Rush Tower. Some of these are supposed to be Coxeyites, drowned by the upsetting of the big raft ten miles below here during the night succeeding Gen. Kelly's departure from St. Louis.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Pimples may be permanently cured by the continued use of Eseljay's Liver Lozenges.

Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam cures coughs colds, asthma, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles.

THE RELAY RACE.

Messages of Greeting Carried From Sarnia to Montreal.

TORONTO, June 16.—The great relay race from Sarnia to Montreal, an event of considerable interest to wheelmen, is over. Before daybreak yesterday a courier was handed a message of greeting from the mayor of Sarnia and from the mayors of other cities and towns on the routes to the president of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association at Montreal. By relays of bicyclists the message was carried from the Tunnel City to Montreal. Two hundred and twenty of the speediest bicycle riders in Canada participated in the event, the arrangements for which were made by the Toronto Mail. An interesting feature was a race from London to Toronto between two divisions of couriers. One route was via Woodstock, Brantford and Hamilton and the other via Stratford, Guelph and Brampton. The former division reached here first, being twenty-four minutes ahead of schedule time.

The Earl of Aberdeen forwarded a message to Sir Donald Smith, via courier, upon arrival of the riders at Government House.

BABY MUST BE WEANED.

A Nourishing and Health-Giving Diet is Necessary.

Lactated Food a Perfect Substitute For Mother's Milk.

Baby must be weaned. The change is often fraught with great danger to the little darlings. Hundreds of babes die a few weeks after they have been deprived of nature's fount of life. No wonder we hear of so many deaths at weaning time; it is sheer nonsense to expect a weak and delicate stomach to retain prepared foods that would give indigestion to an adult.

When baby is about to be weaned, it is absolutely necessary to provide a food that contains the principal constituents of mothers milk. Science has given mohers the celebrated Lactated Food which is a perfect substitute for breast milk. It is nourishing, strengthening, easily assimilated, readily digested and very palatable.

When Lactated Food is used, babies can be weaned safely and easily in the heat of summer. This scientific Food aids and corrects digestion, and protects from all the dangerous and deadly summer complaints.

Thousands of doctors, mothers and nurses in Canada know the life-giving properties of Lactated Food, and strongly recommend it.

Purchased in Foreign Markets.

LONDON, June 16.—In the Huse of Commons Sir Ughtred J. Kay Shuttleworth, Secretary to the Admiralty, stated in reply to a question by Mr. Charles E. H. Vincent that it was true that the British Admiralty had purchased [illegible] supplies in foreign countries. The reason for this, he said, was because these supplies could be bought cheaper abroad than at home.

Attempt to Poison Her Lodger.

MELBOURNE, June 16.—Mrs. Martha Needle, a widow keeper of a lodging house, has been arrested on the charge of attempting to kill one of her lodgers, a man named Juncken, by giving him arsenic. From discoveries made the authorities believe the woman's husband and three children and Juncken's brother, all of whom died recently were poisoned by her.

Perished in a Burning Building.

BUFFALO, June 16.—The valuable dodge roller mills at Williamsville were destroyed by fire yesterday. Henry W. Dodge, one of the proprietors, perished in the building.

Dangerous Summer Complaints.

Cramps, dysentery, cholera morbus, diarrhea, and, indeed, all bowel complaints, require quick relief, or the result may be serious. At this season these troubles are common, and no family should be without a supply of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer, a safe, sure, and speedy cure, for all the troubles named. The medicine was discovered many years ago, and time has proved its excellence. Every reputable druggist keeps a supply on hand, and each bottle is wrapped with full directions. 25c. New Big Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have used your Yellow Oil and have found it unequalled for burns, sprains, scolds, rheumatism, croup and colds. All who use it recommend it. Mrs Hight, Montreal, Que.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL STILL IN SESSION.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES SUBMITTED.

On Motion the Council Decided to Build a House of Refuge if the Town will Back them up in the Scheme.

The County Council held a brief session yesterday afternoon. The following resolution introduced by Mr. Burnham and seconed by Mr. Pearce, was passed :—

That the council, having considered the presentment of the Grand Jury at the present sessions of the peace, urging the establishment of a House of Industry and Refuge and the presentment of other Grand Juries in reference to the same matter, hereby express their willingness to erect and maintain such an institution, if the town of Peterborough will join with them in such erection and maintenance, the proportion of the town's expenditure, if it cannot be mutually agreed upon to be decided by arbitration, and that a copy be sent to the county Judge, and that copies thereof at the opening of each court be laid before the presiding Judge, so that in future the strictures passed in reference to the want of proper accommodation for indigent persons, by Judges and Grand Juries may be directed not as now to the county, but to the town, if they decline this proposition, also that a copy hereof be forwarded to the town Council.

THE COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS

1. That with reference to the communication of Miss M. H. Orr, Bobcaygeon submitting an offer for the sale of her property at Bobcaygeon, at a valuation and in addition to contribute one third of the purchase price thereof for the purpose of founding a home for the poor and indigent in Victoria and Peterborough, your committee appreciate the offer made and the spirit which actuated the same, but find the offer impracticable to carry out at present, and that the clerk be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to Miss Orr.
2. That the Warden and Messrs. Aunger, Hawthorne, Mansfield and Casement be a committee to act in conjunction with the Board of Trade of the town of Peterborough, with the object of developing the mineral resources of this county and that the clerk be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Board of Trade.

Carried on motion of Messrs. Forster and Joyce.

The Committee on PUBLIC PROPERTY

reported as follows :—

1. That the county engineer be instructed to have a private entrance opened into the retiring room of the judge in the Court House and the said chamber repaired and refitted.
2. That the county engineer be instructed to procure for the registry office a new case for the holding of registered plans, the one now in use being inadequate for the purpose.
3. That the matter of fitting up a lock-up for county purposes be referred to the county engineer and the special standing committee on roads and bridges with power to act.

Carried on motion of Messrs. Middleton and McIlmoyle.

On motion of Messrs. Joyce and Forster, the following report of the

was passed :

1. That the report of Mr. J. C. Brown, county school inspector, be received.
2. That it appearing that the public school inspector has been introducing the alphabetical system of teaching in the schools of the county, we recommend that this council disapprove of the action of the inspector and request him to discontinue this system of education until such time as it shall appear to be approved of by the Minister of Education.
3. Your committee recommend that a by-law be prepared to raise the county equivalent for the government school grants.

On motion of Messrs. Mansfield and Pearce the report of the

was passed.

1. That the petition asked for by the Dominion Live Stock Association be forwarded to the House of Commons, of Canada in Parliament assembled duly signed on behalf of this council.
2. That $10 be granted to the Prisoner's Aid Association of Canada.
3. That no action be taken in the matter of the petition from Canada's great Industrial Fair.
4. That no further action be taken in the matter of the communication from the clerk of Owen Sound in the matter of the lowering the railway passenger rates.
5. That no action be taken in the matter of the application of the Prisoner's Aid Association of Canada to endorse a memorial for the establishment of a reformatory for young men.
6. That no action be taken in the matter of the application for a petition that payment of county officers be by salary instead of by fees.
7. That Messrs. Casement, Pearce and Middleton be a committee to take into consideration the application of the Canada Land Law amendment association to memorialize the Ontario Government for the extention of the Torrens system of land transfers to the County of Peterborough and to report the same to the present session.

EQUALIZATION.

Through its chairman the committee on equalization reported, recommending that no change from the equalization of last year be made.—Carried.

A vote of thanks was unanimously passed and tendered Mr. Aunger for his courtesy in bringing to the Council Chamber so many valuable samples of minerals from Belmont.

In reply Mr. Aunger stated that he hoped his action would prove an incentive to the other members of the Council to do likewise. He would like to see a huge pyramid built of samples of minerals in the Court House Park.

TANGIER, June 16.—Abdul Aziz has been proclaimed Sultan in Fez. No militant opposition to his succession has been manifested there despite the previous apprehensions of trouble. His uncle, Muley Ismail, has been appointed Khalif of Fez. A large force of French and Algerian troops has been ordered to the Algerian border to watch the course of events in Morocco.

How to Look Well and Feel Well.

THE PLAN ADOPTED BY SENSIBLE PEOPLE.

They use Paine's Celery Compound and Keep up their Strength and Vitality in the Hot Weather.

"How to look well and feel well" during the oppressively hot summer months, is a subject that should command the attention of every busy man and woman. There are thousands ofbusiness men, clerks, toiling, bustling housewives and girls employed in offices, stores and workshops, who lose in strength and vitality in the months of July and August.

As a rule, these daily workers feel ordinary weather ; but, when the sun pours down his scorching rays day after day, and when the air is heated and heavy, then all life and heart seem to depart from every day toilers. They look pale, listless and nervous ; they are irritable, languid and broken down. It is no exaggeration to say that, "They feel worse than they look."

To those who find life a burden in summer time, we would strongly recommend the wise and unfailing plan adopted by some fortunate men and women, who, even in the hottest weather, look well and feel well, and always escape the debilitating effects produced by a heated and impure atmosphere.

The wise, prudent and vigorous in summer use Paine's Celery Compound as a tonic and strength giver. This remarkable medicine, it must be remembered, is not intended exclusively for the rooting out of disease and for the cleansing of the blood ; its toning qualities and its virtues for keeping well people regular, strong and active are favourably known to those who have used it in summer time.

At this time a few extracts from letters may prove useful and helpful.

A busy wholesale grocer doing business in one of our largest cities says :—"During the hot summer weather of 1893 I used Paine's Celery Compound, which was recommended to me by a banker. It kept me in perfect condition during the whole summer and gave me strength and regular appetite. I did not find it necessary to go to the seaside with my family. It will be my friend every succeeding summer.

A young lady in a large Montreal dry goods house, says : "Two summers ago, one of my lady friends advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound during the hot weather as a tonic and health-builder. I used the medicine morning, noon and night, and was always vigorous and active, while many girls around me in the store, of stronger constitutions, were complaining of lassitude and debility."

A well-known lady and mother of six children says : "I seriously and confidently recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all mothers who wish to keep up their health and strength during the very hot weather of summer time. I used the medicine every day and I feel hearty and strong, and have no difficulty in getting through with my household work and cares, which are never very light. Since I have used the compound I do not find it necessary to go off to the country for two or three months to gain health. In every dose of Paine's Celery Compound I find a supply of strength."

Moral. You save time and health and banish all discomforts by using Paine's Celery Compound during the summer months.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability ?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability ; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance :

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them ; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says : "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay ; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached ; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability ; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

A cordial invitation is extended to all women interested in mission work.

At the World's Fair.

The Chicago Record of June 28th, 1893, says:—"There will be a general regret that the Manhattan Beach engagements of the Sousa organization will prevent its continued appearance on the grounds. It is the best concert band on the continent, and unless some of the talked-about European bands are brought over to take its place it will be badly missed at the World's Fair." This celebrated musical combination gives a performance in Peterborough, on Friday June 22nd, commencing at two o'clock sharp in the afternoon. Seats on sale at Street Railway office.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The open season for maskinonge begins to-day.

—No arrests yesterday or last night and no police court this morning.

—Canoeists are out by the dozens in the Little Lake these evenings.

—Early closing goes into effect in the Book and Fancy Goods stores on Monday.

—The recruit class turned out in large numbers last night for drill in the armoury.

—The year book for the members of St. John's church will be distributed to-morrow in the pews, morning and evening.

—A new crossing is being put in at the corner of Water and Charlotte streets. It is being filled with cracked stone and gravel.

—"Songs that Never Die" music book is superior to all others. Call and see it at 99 Hunter street, or address box 504 for a copy, subject to approval.

—Mr. Isaac Kerr, of South Monaghan, left a stalk of barley in this office this morning which measured five feet two inches in length. Who can beat this?

—The regular meeting of the W.C.T.U. will be held on Monday, June 18th, at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Paton, 202 Brock street, at 3.30 p.m. All are welcome.

—The late Conductor Davis, who was so suddenly killed on Wednesday last, was in charge of the train which took the Fire Brigade excursion to Orillia last year.

—The firm of J. J. Turner & Son to-day received an order for a fifty foot tent from Brantford from the same firm to which they sent one quite recently. This is flattering testimony of the A. 1. quality of the tents, etc., which the firm turn out.

—Don't forget the sale of superior English furniture on Wednesday, 20th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Col. Corry-Smith. 'Busses will carry passengers free to and from the sale, connecting with the street railway at the corner of Charlotte and Park streets. Sale at 12.30 p.m. 3d141 —On Monday evening there will be a social tea, etc, in St. Andrew's. A free tea will be served in the school room from 5.30 to 7.30, after which an excellent programme of short addresses and music will be rendered in the church. Silver collection at the door. All are cordially invited.

—Owing to the fact that the key of the Orange hall was not forthcoming, a local branch of the Sons of Ireland Protestant Association was not organized last night. Arrangements have been made for the opening of the hall this evening, when Grand Vice-President W. A. Wadsworth and T. M. Dixon, Deputy Organizer, will be present to initiate the officers.

—Canoeists are complaining that the boys who bathe on the piers in the evenings are accustomed to do so without even trunks on. Last night quite a few of the youngsters were out on the river and lake naked in a big river driver's scow. The consequence was that those canoeists who were out with ladies were prevented from returning up the river. The chief is after these boys to-day with a sharp stick.

—This summer's advertising can be made profitable if proper precaution and skill are exercised in conducting it. The people are ready to avail themselves of offers which appear to present means of economizing. And the merchant who will advertise an article that is really serviceable, at a price consistent with the times, will find that he will get a good share of the money that is spent. The man who fails to advertise this summer will find it a most dreary season.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

CRICKET.

The second eleven of the Trinity School-Port Hope, cricket club, arrived this morning and play was started at eleven o'clock with the second eleven of the local club. For Peterborough the following are playing: W. Stocker, P. Goldsmith, V. McGill, C. McKee, W. J. Drope, W. W. Kenner, J. Comstock (sub), Guy Rogers, Hal. Burnham, Adams and C. Dumble.

THE WHEEL.

The great relay ride is probably almost over by this time as the message was due in Montreal at 5.35 p.m., but it is thought would arrive there at least an hour earlier. Appended is a table of the time allowed and the time made between the towns in this section:

| Schedule Time. | | Actual Time. |
|---|---|---|
| p.m. | | p.m. |
| 5.14 | Whitby | 4.44 |
| 5.32 | Oshawa | 5.00 |
| 7.37 | Port Hope | 6.57 |
| 7.55 | Cobourg | 7.22 |

| 10.10 | Trenton | 9.21 |
| 10.55 | Belleville | 9.58 |
| 10.25 | Shannonville | 10.20 |

Kingston Station, June 16, at 3 a.m.—Relay couriers passed here at 11:55 a.m., 1 hour and 20 minutes ahead of time. They passed Gananoque at 2.24½, having lost 13 minutes between here and there.

Messrs. Horkins and Hay, who rode between Grafton and Colborne, it will be observed, gained five minutes on schedule time, riding the nine miles over a sandy road in 30 minutes.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Bert Brooks has returned home for the summer vacation from Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., where he has successfully completed his second year's course in electrical engineering.

In the list of successful students at the University examination, there appear the names of Mr. W. A. P. Wood, who has passed his second year in Arts with second class honours in Mathematics. Miss Maggie Campbell, of Keene, who passed her first year in Arts, with second class honours in Modern Languages and Mr. Rollie McWilliams, who passed his second year in Arts and secured first-class honours in Political Science. These are all students of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute, and their success is a strong tribute to the excellent teaching of this excellent institution.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part 4 is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, half-tone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 4. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

Just One Point

That we would draw special attention to to-day; that is, that we are in down right earnest in our endeavours to present you such attractive values all this month of June as cannot fail to draw a very large part of your trade our way. Just how—NOT TO DO IT—would be to follow a very prevalent practice, which exists of advertising a great many lines which, on examination, are often found to exist only in the advertiser's mind.

But, TO ACCOMPLISH OUR AIMS, we give in our advertising to-day the earnest quality which has marked it since we commenced business. What we write and print, you can afford to read; you are equally interested with us in what we have to tell you.

WE DO NOT HAVE TO do any bogus advertising to draw trade. The value of our goods and the mottoes:—

"SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS"
"SPOT CASH AND ONE PRICE"

under which we trade, are in themselves the secret of the success of our business.

DAY AFTER DAY persons come to our store simply to look, and to their find astonishment that they have been paying 10 to 20 per cent. more for the same goods elsewhere, and they say we really did not believe until now that there was such a difference. ALL WE ASK IS THAT YOU COMPARE OUR VALUES and we are satisfied as to where you will trade.

OUT OF GRATITUDE, on account of the success of our cash business this season, we have purchased and arranged for further supplies of

Folding Tables, Folding Music Racks, Folding Book Racks, Folding Chairs and Rockers,

All to be given away FREE to our customers. Circulars and Cards explaining the Premium offer has been delivered to every house. If for any reason you haven't got one, call at once if you wish to get one of these FREE articles.

IT IS A FACT that we do not have to give premiums to build up our trade, but we have been so successful this season that we thought our friends would appreciate this offer.

CARPETS

Are being cut in prices for this month. This should interest you. Then if you wish them made and laid quickly, we can, with the aid of our new Carpet Sewing Machine, which, by the way, is the only one in this part of the country, guaranteed to make and lay any carpet large enough for the largest room in the place at four or five hours notice. The progressive character of our business has made itself quite apparent in the carpet room as in all departments.

We are closing ont the balance of our stock in to make room for new goods, as our buyer has gone. Make no mistake about it. No matter what others may advertise in the way of excuse sales when they do not mean to take effect for a year, we will always sell lower, because we buy lower, and we have no bad debts to lose.

MR. WINCH'S MEETING.

Mr. Winch, though the owned the meeting in the opera house last night, was conspicuous by his absence, and he suffered by his absence, for the local gentlemen he left as his agents did not do him much good by the petty intriguing and ungenerous treatment which was extended to Mr. Winch's opponent, who was an invited guest at the meeting. The remarks of Mr. Kendry, who, on this occasion, as in the council, forgets his place and intrudes with his speeches in a place where he should keep silent, and of Mr. Earle were not of a character to deserve of particular notice. The chief speaker of the evening was Mr. A. F. Campbell, who is a good talker and probably the flower, or, rather, "bouquet," of the Opposition platform speakers. Mr. Campbell may have been presented with bouquets on his leaving Algoma but if he returned thither now he would more probably be presented with a club, for like a great many other supercillious Conservative members, Mr. Campbell has not, it is stated, set foot in his constituency since he was elected, and he seems to know this, for he dared not present himself for re-election. One term of Mr. Campbell was enough for the people of that constituency. If the promises and statements he made to his constituents in Algoma were anything like the reckless statements made by him last night, it is no wonder that he dared not face the electors again. Mr. Campbell denied most emphatically last night having said he would like "to bind the Roman Catholic hierarchy hand and foot and put them where the dogs would not bite them"; but Mr. Campbell is reported to have made these statements in the campaign of 1887 in Algoma, and they were quoted almost daily in the public press, and Mr. Campbell took no steps to contradict them. He has waited four years to repudiate them—till another election campaign, when such words are likely to be injurious to him in his crusade on behalf of Mr. Meredith and Mr. Winch. It is a little surprising that Mr. Campbell had the assurance ance to mention what he calls the Mowat gerrymander, when the party he supports have "hived" the Grits in Ontario so that a Liberal can hardly be elected, but he showed a glimmer of good sense when he advocated Mr. Stratton's proposal to reduce the expense of legislation by reducing the number of representatives instead of by biennial sessions. His declamation against minority representation was wasted breath for there is no minority representation and the seats have been redistributed in Toronto in so fair a manner as to challenge the approval of even the Empire. His claim that license holders are used to furnish money for party purposes, meets no response in Peterborough. It is well enough to talk of distant places but it is well known that there is no ground for Mr. Campbell's charge in Peterborough. The election of license commissioners has no possible ground of justification, especially on Canadian ground. Mr. Campbell's criticism of the Ontario was wide of the mark. Ontario timber is sold by widely advertised competition in the most open and public manner and the prices obtained are higher by a thousand dollars per square mile than the highest price obtained by John Sandfield Macdonald. One effect of these sales is to give employment to workingmen and to keep large associated industries in operation. Mr. Campbell tried to evade the fact shown by Mr. Stratton that the Dominion Government smothered the bill to prevent Poles and Hungarians from invading our timber woods and taking work from honest Canadians and tried to show that the Dominion Government which had the power should not put an export duty upon logs, but that it was the duty of the Ontario Government which had not the power. Objection was taken to the Ontario ballot, the same as that which is thought good enough for seven million British electors. Mr. Campbell, while indulging in a little pantry politics, did not attempt to dispute Mr. Stratton's proof that the public institutions of Ontario were better and more cheaply maintained than any others on this continent. The denunciation of colonization road expenditure as a form of bribery, must have been made in a moment of weakness by Mr. Campbell. The people of the back country evidently like to to be bribed in this manner. If the building of good roads for settlers to enable them to get to their market is bribery, then Mr. Campbell is welcome to all the capital he can make out of it in West Peterborough, town or county. Forty thousand dollars procured by Mr. Stratton's exertions to improve roads in West Peterborough and to bring town and county together is a practical proof that Mr. Stratton and the government he supports are alive to the wants of the people. If spending the people's money for the people's benefit is bribery Mr. Campbell has a strange conception of the functions of an Administration. Can he, by any chance have heard of the Trent Valley Canal, manipulated on behalf of the government Mr. Campbell and Mr. Winch supports for years, not so much by public money as by promises? Mr. Campbell's charge that improper use was made of public money in connection with the Parliament buildings, Toronto, is absurd on the face of it. The Opposition made the charge in Parliament, but being offered a commission of investigation, they, knowing there was nothing in the trumped-up charge, declined an investigation. If they could have proved their charge they would have done so gladly. Mr. Campbell endeavoured to belittle the surplus, but it cannot be denied that Ontario has a surplus, in cash and interest-bearing securities, of over six millions of dollars, or deducting, if it is desired, the railway annuities, of four millions; and Dominion Government railway annuities are not charged as a debt, and the Ontario railway annuities are paid year by year out of current funds, and are growing less year by year. The charge that the Mowat Government have wasted Sandfield Macdonald's surplus of $3,800,000 is disproved by the facts. He left liabilities chargeable to his surplus of $1,550,000 for railway aid. There was $500,000 charged against Ontario by the Dominion at Confederation, which was not due in Sandfield's time. $200,000 had to be paid to Quebec as her share of common school lands and $100,000 was paid the Dominion Government for Rockwood asylum; add all this together and we have $2,350,000. To this add $1,500,000 cold cash in the bank to the credit of the Ontario Government to-day, and you have the Sandfield MacDonald surplus accounted for. This surplus was used to pay obligations that the Ontario Government did not incur and which they are not responsible for. The Sandfield Macdonald surplus has lost its power to charm as an election expedient. Mr. Campbell was remarkably liberal in his statements and perhaps his liberality in this regard was due to the fact that there was nobody to follow his address.

The Committee Reports That the Result Bids Fair to far Surpass Their Most Sanguine Expectations.

As the First of July draws nearer the arrangements for the big demonstration on that day grow, if possible, more perfect, and the management promise to furnish such a day's amusement as will remain green in the memory of those who are here to see the fun, as long as they live.

The calithumpian procession will be one of the finest ever witnessed in Ontario. The applications which have come in ask ing for permission to have floats appear are a guarantee that it will be a spectacle never to be forgotten.

Then there is a list of horse races and sports with prizes, the equivalent of which have never been offered in the district. The balloon ascension when Prof. Walcotte will ascend about a mile and then drop to terra firma with a parachute will also be something worth witnessing as will the magnificent display of fireworks in the evening.

It's a Sign of Danger, when pimples, blotches and eruptions appear on the skin, no matter how slight. It warns you that your blood isn't pure. Heed the warning while there is yet time; clear up your system and purify the blood by taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It rouses every organ into natural action, purifies and enriches the blood and through it cleanses and invigorates the whole system. It attacks all scrofulous, skin and scalp diseases in the right way —by purifying the blood.

The diseases that it cures come from a torpid liver, or from impure blood. For everything of this nature, it is the only guaranteed remedy.

In Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Sour Stomach, Biliousness; all Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Affections, even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages—if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

THE MAKERS of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy will pay you $500 if they can't give you a complete and permanent cure.

A NORTHWEST MIRACLE.

THE UNIQUE EXPERIENCE OF MRS. GEO. COLLISON OF PRINCE ALBERT.

Physicians Declared She was in Consumption—A Victim of Deadly Night Sweats and Her Case Pronounced Hopeless — Her Pastor Encouraged Her to Begin the Use of a Medicine that Saved her Life—The Days of Miracles in Healing Have not Passed.

Mrs. George Collinson is a well known and esteemed resident of Prince Albert, N.W.T. This lady has had a remarkable experience, having almost entered the valley of death when the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills restored her to health and strength and she now relates her marvellous story for the benefit of suffering humanity. We cannot do better than give Mrs. Collison's story in her own words She says: "We formerly lived in Carberry, Man., where I lay ill for a year and a half. My case was pronounced hopeless by all the doctors there, and they agreed that I had not long to live and in fact I had but little hope of recovery myself. The doctors stated that my trouble was consumption, and when they said they could do nothing for me I determined to go to my old home at Tara, Ont., and see if the doctors there could help me. I remained there for three months and returned home not any improved. I was so weak I could scarcely walk across a room, and when I reached Carberry I was forced to take my bed and at times was so weak I could not turn myself in bed. For some months I was troubled with chronic diarrhœa and after returning home I called in another doctor who had just located there. He checked the diarrhœa, but held out no hopes of my recovery. This doctor stated that not only were my lungs in a very bad condition, but that abscesses had formed. I suffered from the weakening effects of night sweats, and had alternate chills and fevers. They my trouble became aggravated by the cords in my legs drawing up to the extent that it was impossible for me to straighten them. I was bandaged from my chest to my ankles, and my feet and hands would swell terribly. I had severe pains about the heart and coughed and spit so much that I thought the end was coming fast. When my minister called one day I told him I would like to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but as other medicines had failed me I feared they might, too. He told me to remember that we must do all we could to preserve life, and perhaps God would bless the Pink Pills to the benefit of my health. I then began to take them, very lightly at first for my stomach was very weak. When I had taken the Pink Pills for a time I began to revive somewhat, and there was an improvement in my appetite. After using Pink Pills for about a month I could sit up, and in four months from the time I began using them I could do my own work, and was I firmly believe healthier, than I ever was before. After I began the use of Pink Pills I took no other medicine, but took with them occassionally juice of lemon and crushed sugar. It is a pleasure for me to speak strongly of the medicine which, with God's blessing, saved my life, and you are at liberty to give my experience the widest circulation, as it may be the means of benefitting some other despairing sufferer. My husband joins his grateful thanks with mine, and we both feel justified in saying that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a marvel among medicines."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills furnish in a condensed form the constituents necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, assisting it to absorb oxygen, the great sustainer of organic life. By this means this great remedy strikes at the root of disease, speedily driving it from the system, restoring the patient to full health and strength. Most diseases afflicting mankind have their origin in an impoverished condition of the blood or a shattered nervous system, and acting directly upon these Pink Pills, are a specific for all such troubles. Thousands of grateful people testify to the benefits they have derived from the use of Pink Pills, and no other medicine has ever published such strong and carefully authenticated evidence of merit. If in need of a medicine do not be persuaded to try something else, but insist upon getting Dr. Williams Pink Pills. Sold by all dealers or sent by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or 6 boxes for $2.50, addressing the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., or Schenectady, N.Y.

Bradstreet's Report of Trade.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Bradstreet's says: The practical arrival of midsummer season and the usual slacking of business, extreme heat and need of rain in Northwestern and Southeastern States, continued uncertainty as to the tariff preventing merchants from anticipating demands next fall, together with the large number of idle wage earners in industrial mining and other lines, all combine to produce continued dullness in business. In the south there are five cities at which merchants are said to have enjoyed some improvement in business. Needed rains in Southern Texas are said to have stimulated demand from jobbers at many points. West and northwest, few if any evidences of improvement in business are to be perceived, except those telegraphed from Omaha, Chicago and Detroit. Special telegrams from the more important of Canadian business centres show no general improvement from previous conditions.

Fight With Chinese Pirates.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 16.—The steamer from China reports that a band of pirates, with eight junks, recently planned to attack Tanchi, a walled village in the district of Heinning Quangtsang. The villagers, learning of the intention, procured the assistance of some Yamen runners and soldiers, so that when the pirates arrived they were surrounded by a force of 500 men. There was a desperate fight, in which thirty-two pirates were killed and three captured. Three of the junks were seized and many pirates were drowned while trying to escape to their squadron. Eight villagers were wounded, one mortally.

William Heeney's Death.

HAMILTON, June 16.—The body of the man who was killed at the King street station of the G.T.R. was not positively identified until yesterday. The remains were supposed to be those of one Williams, a tailor, but the corpse was so frightfully mangled that the identity could not be made positive. Yesterday, however, the body was identified by John Tunstead, hat manufacturer, as that of his partner, William Heeney, who resided with his wife at 112 Grant avenue. He was probably trying to board the moving train when he was killed. Deceased has no family.

Boy Drowned in the Ottawa River.

OTTAWA, June 16.—A young lad named Seguin, a son of Piler Baptiste Seguin, lately employed in the E. B. Eddy yards, was drowned in the Ottawa river, on the Hull side. Young Seguin and three companions were running on the logs in the bay below the slides from Eddy's mills, when the four fell between the logs and but for the timely arrival of one of Mr. Thomas Osborne's boom men all would have been drowned. The boy Seguin, who was 15 years of age, sank before aid could reach him.

The Anti-Canadian Crusade.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 16.—The anti-Canadian crusade has gained an important point. Heretofore the street railway company has employed a very large number of Canadians annually. Select Councilman Byrne recently opposed a grant of right of way to the company because of this fact and had the grant tabled. President Watson, of the street railway company, now announces that hereafter only citizens will be employed by the company.

A Lad Who Had Been Dropsical From His Childhood Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills—The Remedy That Never Failed.

McINTYRE, Ont., June 4—The young son of Hugh Lamont of this place has been afflicted with dropsy from infancy. He was bloated and swollen all over. His parents were at their wits end to find some cure for him when they read of Dodd's Kidney Pills. Mr. Lamont got six bottles of the pills and the boy began taking them. Before the sixth box was finished he was cured. It doesn't matter whether the patient is young or old, the pills will effect a cure of any kidney disease or of any disease arising from disordered kidneys.

TRAGEDY AT NANAIMO.

Suspicious Circumstances Attend the Death of Mrs. Lobb.

NANAIMO, B.C., June 16.—A sad tragedy is that which occurred here last week, the particulars of which have not been previously transmitted owing to a break in the telegraph wires.

On Friday night last Mrs. Sydney Lobb, wife of Accountant Lobb, of the Nanaimo Colliery, was shot through the heart. Death was almost instantaneous. The shooting took place in Mrs. Lobb's bedroom. Her husband communicated the awful news to the neighbors immediately afterwards. Mr. Lobb was very much excited at the time, when at the late hour of 11 o'clock he rushed over to a neighbor's house and startled the inmates by crying: "My wife has shot herself!" There was no one else in the house at the time of the shooting. The coroner decided that an inquest was necessary, and after the evidence of the distracted husband, and an examination of the surroundings, the jury decided that it would hardly be possible for Mrs. Lobb to have fired the fatal shot herself.

On their finding the authorities decided that a thorough investigation should be held, and in pursuance of this Mr. Lobb was placed under arrest and an examination of the facts is now in progress before the police magistrate. Mr Lobb occupied an important position in the colliery and in this city he has always been held in the highest esteem. He is half crazed with grief over the death of his young wife, and the proceedings of the trial place him in a pitiable plight. He admits that he had given cause of grief to his wife and blames himself very much for his conduct.

Mr. Lobb was a former resident of Toronto and before coming to Nanaimo he was with the C. P. R at Vancouver. The deceased lady, who was a Miss Elliott before her marriage three years ago, is also from Toronto. There are two children, the youngest six months old.

Murdered His Family and Suicided.

BORDEN, Ind., June 16.—The bodies of George Brock, his wife and their young son were found in a secluded hollow near this place. The bodies were enclosed by a rude pen, built by Brock to keep the hogs from devouring them. Brock killed his wife and son and then himself. He had been made desperate by poverty and hunger.

At the Tomb of Emperor Frederick.

BERLIN, June 16.—The Emperor and Empress observed the anniversary of Emperor Frederick's death by going to the Mausoleum yesterday, offering silent prayer at the tomb and laying wreaths at the head and foot. Hundreds of other persons were at the tomb. Many of them left wreaths and great bunches of flowers.

The Status Quo in Morocco.

LONDON, June 16.—Sir Edward Grey, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, stated in the House of Commons that the powers had decided upon concerted action to maintain the status quo in Morocco, but had not yet decided to formally recognize Abdul Aziz as Sultan of Morocco.

Threatened to Kill His Mother.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Arthur Rock, a young tough, was arrested for threatening to kill his mother because she would not give him money. Rock declared he would fix his mother as he had his father, whose body was found in the river several months ago with a stab wound in the side. The police will investigate the case.

Forbidden to Marry Foreigners.

LONDON, June 16.—The Daily News correspondent in Paris says that Gustave Paul Cluseret will introduce shortly in the Chamber a bill forbidding cabinet officers to marry foreigners and disqualifying for cabinet office all men having foreign wives.

Cholera in Poland.

LONDON, June 16.—A Vienna despatch to the Standard reports 60 cases of cholera and 25 deaths at Ciechanowiece, Russian Poland, 30 miles from the Prussian frontier.

The Plague in Hong Kong.

HONG KONG, June 16.—The health authorities report 84 deaths from the plague yesterday.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts limited. Wheat unchanged at 62c for standard white. Red is quoted at 61c and goose at 58c. Oats firm, 300 bushels selling at 41c. Barley is quoted at 41c to 42c, and peas at 66c.

Buffalo—Cattle, fifteen cars on sale, bulk half-fat grassers for which no demand. Sheep and lambs, thirty cars on sale. Continues dull, and if anything lower on the full sales made. Hogs, twenty-two cars, 10 to 15c lower, $5.05 was best paid for selected lots.

Trading at the New York stock exchange was entirely professional in its character. At the opening Sugar rose 1 per cent., but the close was unchanged. The general railway list was quiet throughout. The market closed irregular, with net changes of ⅛ to ¼ per cent. Sales were: Listed, 70,000; unlisted, 81,000. Chicago Gas contributed 23,000 and Sugar 80,000.

The drought in the Northwest has been broken, and wheat declined on that news in Chicago. Corn also closed lower at a net loss of ⅝c. Oats closed ⅛ higher for June and ⅛c lower for July.

CHEATING WITH DICE.

JOHN NEVIL MASKELYNE TELLS HOW SHARPERS DO IT.

The Mysteries of Electric and Loaded Dice—Dispatchers and Securing Explained—How These Are All Made and What They Look Like Illustrated.

Some devices for cheating at cards are described by John Nevil Maskelyne, a well-known English sleight-of-hand performer, in his book, "Sharps and Flats." In the same book he tells how dice are loaded and otherwise falsified, by which means innocent gamblers are cheated of as much money as at cards.

Methods of cheating with dice are divided into two classes—the manipulation of the proper dice and the employment of improper ones.

The familiar "loaded dice" of romance are clumsy affairs now little used. They do not spin properly, which reveals their peculiarities to intelligent people.

The commonest way of manipulating fair dice is called "securing." One die is held against the inside edge of the box, while the others are rattled freely in the box. One therefore falls to the table in the position in which it has been held. The inside edge of the box is roughed with glasspaper to prevent the die from slipping.

"SECURING" A DIE.

The die to be secured is taken from the table with the six upward, which falls from the box again in that position. How they are handled and thrown is shown by the illustration. Of course, it requires great skill and care to remove the fingers so that the die falls on the face intended. Only practice makes perfect.

By this method the lowest possible throw with two dice will be seven. The average of an infinite number of fair throws is seven. With one die secured it is necessarily much higher.

Dice which do not bear the correct number of spots on their faces, are called "dispatchers." "Loaded" dice are of course loaded in one side and tend to fall with one side downward. "Electric dice" are the very newest device.

Dispatchers are of two kinds, high and low. In a high dispatcher three adjacent sides of a die are marked with two, four and six, respectively. In fair dice the two opposite sides number together seven spots. In dispatchers, the side opposite six is six, opposite four is four, and opposite two is two.

In a low dispatcher three adjacent sides are marked one, two and three. A high dispatcher cannot throw less than two, and a low more than three. If the sharp uses a high dispatcher and gives a low one to his opponent, each using one fair die as well, the former will average thirty per cent. better than the latter in his throws.

A price list of gambling commodities says:

"Loaded dice—Made of selected ivory, loaded with quick silver, and can be shaken from the box, so as to come high or low, as you wish. With a set of these you will find yourself winner at all dice games, and carry off the prize at every raffle you attend. Sold in sets of nine dice, three high, three low, and three fair. Price per set complete $5."

Electric dice are made of celluloid. A cylindrical cavity is bored from the six sides almost to the face of the ace side. At the bottom of the cavity, immediately above the ace, is a thin disk of iron. The cavity is filled in with cork, and a loaded disk of the same weight as the iron one, leaving space for the insertion of a celluloid plug bearing the six spots. The die is therefore evenly balanced and will spin like a fair one.

These dice must be used on a table having an electric magnet beneath it which can be put in and out of effect at the will of the sharp. The magnet brings the ace side, near which is the iron disk, against the table and turns up the six. The sharper demagnetizes the magnet before lifting the die from the table, otherwise its efforts to stay there would be noticeable.

Unfair dice are usually "rung in" after the game has commenced.

Electric dice are particularly useful in hazard. A pair of dice being made to fall six and one, he can throw a "nick" whenever he pleases. If he gives his dupe a pair, made to fall both sixes or both aces, the dupe can be made to throw a "crab" whenever his opponent pleases.

A dice top, or teetotum, can be made to fall on any particular side, after the manner of a loaded die.

In false roulette wheels the copper points forming the recesses into which the ball falls are made to move in two sets. By moving one of these slightly the man who spins the wheel can close all the high numbers or all the small ones, according to the betting.

THE OPPOSITION MASS MEETING

IN THE OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

Mr. Winch's Case Presented—Mr. Stratton's Forty Minute Address—His Enthusiastic Reception in the Enemy's Camp—A Model Chairman—Speeches by Messrs. Kendry, Earle and Campbell.

Last night the Opera House was well filled to listen to addresses by the Opposition orators on behalf of Mr. Winch. Mr. A. F. Campbell, of Algoma, was the chief speaker and was met at the station by the friends of the Opposition and escorted to the Opera House by the band and citizens in carriages. To quote the gentlemanly comment of the Review on Hon. Mr. Ross' arrival, "the backs were very suggestive"—whatever that means.

Mr. Kendry occupied the chair and upon the platform were grouped several of the prominent sympathizers of the Opposition.

The chairman apologized for Mr. Winch's absence and invited any representative of Mr. Stratton who desired to be heard to come to the platform. Mr. Stratton, who was present in the audience, advanced and as he took the platform was received with an enthusiasm which amounted to an ovation and showed that his enemies could not get an audience together which did not contain hosts of friends of the popular Liberal candidate and that, even in the camp of the enemy, he did not lack for friends. The chairman announced that Mr. Stratton would be given forty minutes to address the audience. Mr. Kendry, though he occupied the chair and was supposed to be there to maintain order and give fair play, showed the cloven hoof of partizanship by entering upon a somewhat lengthy and rambling speech, in which he showed a high conception of the duties of a host, for his remarks consisted chiefly of a venomous personal attack upon his guest on the occasion, present by special invitation. Mr. Kendry also turned his attention to Mr. Roger and criticised his course as a councillor and as a supporter of Mr. Stratton, though it did not seem to have much bearing upon the destinies of the province. Mr. Kendry declared that he could beat Mr. Stratton in an election (a voice—why didn't you do it?) though it does not appear that he jumped very promptly at the chance presented last September, when Mr. Winch was nominated and who was not exceedingly anxious to be sacrificed. When the chairman had made sufficient display of himself he introduced

Mr. Barton Earle, who was well received and seemed to speak with greater confidence, the absence of the Minister of Education, doubtless, contributing much to his greater self-possession. Mr. Earle again took up the Educational system of the Province. He asserted again that Hon. Mr. Ross was a partizan Minister. He went on to discuss the objections to having a Minister of the Crown at the head of the Education department. He criticised the mode of preparing text books. Hon. G. W. Ross, he said, gave too much attention to politics, to be competent to decide upon the fitness of text books, and that text books now in use were the laughing stock of the teaching profession. Mr. Earle made another grab for the scalp of the High School inspectors. He asserted that the price of Mr. Seath's conversion from Toryism was a High School inspectorship; he prepared examination papers which could only be answered by the studying of the grammar he had prepared, and thus that grammar was forced upon the schools. Mr. Earle continued his criticism in a similar strain for some time, and when he resumed his seat he was very cordially applauded.

AN OVATION TO MR. STRATTON.

Mr. Stratton rose to address the audience and was received with vociferous applause, long continued. He expressed the pleasure it gave him to address the large and intelligent audience assembled, on the great public questions that were agitating the public mind, though he felt that he would be able to do but scant justice to such important subjects in the short space of 40 minutes which the generosity of the chairman had allowed him. Mr. Earle complained that he had only got forty minutes at the meeting the previous night, though at the end of 30 minutes he had anxiously asked if his time was up and showed an evident desire to quit and he complained when he thought he could make some capital out of the occurrence. Mr. Stratton pointed out how very brave Mr. Earle was to-night, when the Minister of Education was not present, and he would hardly make the assertions he had made if that gentleman had been there. Referring to Mr. Kendry's taunt that he (Mr. Stratton) had three speeches—one for Ennismore, one for Smith and one for Peterborough—he asserted that this was not true. He had in all his addresses endeavoured to present the leading public questions and the chief difference in his several speeches was the different arrangement of the subjects and as much variation of language as possible in making similar statements. He had no double policy. He appealed to the electors for their support upon the broad platform of equal rights, that distinguished the Liberal party, and hoped the day would never come when that great party would deviate from that principle. It was left to his opponents to pursue in the hope to win public favour. It had been charged that he had done nothing as yet for the benefit of the town, and Mr. Kendry had wasted a good deal of eloquence to belittle his exertions for the benefit of the town in the Foley will matter. Every one knew what he had done—he had placed the matter in such a position that the courts were considering the claim of the town to rank with the county under that will. For four years what had Mr. Kendry been doing to show that Peterborough town was in Peterborough county? Did it become Mayor Kendry whose duty was to guard the interests of the town, but who had neglected it, to villify him (Mr. Stratton) who had done all in the matter that had been done to push the claims of the town and procure the large sum of $1,000—not for one single year, but $1,000 a year for all time to come, for the poor of the town (cheers) and he believed and felt sure that the decision would be in favour of the town. (Renewed cheers.)

A SHIFTING AND CROOKED COURSE

Mr. Stratton in dealing with the license matter said, that Mr. Kendry should be the last man to open his mouth on that subject. When Mr. Kendry was running for Mayor he had it is well known, the support of nearly all the hotel keepers in town, and at the same time he was posing as the temperance candidate; and while the Women's Christian Temperance Union were praying on bended knees for the election of this great champion of prohibition, Mr. Kendry, in another part of the town—(and here the palpable hit aroused an outburst of cheering which prevented the conclusion of the sentence from being heard, but it can be easily imagined.) And when the reduction by-law, of which Mr. Kendry had been speaking so pathetically, came up in the council Mr. Dennistoun and Mr. Winch and Mr. Bradburn, Mr. Kendry's great prohibition allies, voted against it (cheers) in spite of the numerously signed petition presented to the council—(Here Mr. Kendry rudely interrupted Mr. Stratton, and though he had cut him down to forty minutes wished to still further shorten his time but the audience had more fair play than Mr. Kendry and forced him to take his seat and allow Mr. Stratton to continue) which he did saying, "it's quite plain that Mr. Kendry doesn't relish hearing the truth. (Cheers.) He (Mr. Stratton) could not see how Mr. Winch could now pose as a prohibitionist. Mr. Winch was a capital horseman, but, Mr. Stratton said, he was afraid Harry had not had enough training to gracefully (laughter). Referring to the Ennismore episode Mr. Stratton pointed out how the speakers had failed to take advantage of a gathering of the electors of Ennismore to give them an address; and showed that whenever he went into the country districts he had similiar trouble in getting the key of the meeting places. Referring to Mr. Earle's charge of incorrect reports of the High School Inspectors, Mr. Stratton asked what report Mr. Earle meant, and until that information was given, no opinion could be pronounced of its correctness. Mr. Stratton regretted Mr. Winch's absence that evening, though he was abundantly represented by proxy, and since Mr. Winch chooses to be represented on this platform and in this campaign by proxy, perhaps he expects to be represented in Toronto by proxy, and from the indications, the certainty was that he (Mr. Stratton) would be the proxy. (Cheers.)

Mr. Stratton said the chief point with the electors was the condition of our finances. After 22 years of wise rule the Mowat Government had a surplus of over six millions of dollars, or, if we deducted the railway annuities, a surplus of four millions. Mr. Marter claimed that if the Mowat Government had hoarded the money like Sandfield Macdonald the surplus would have now been twenty millions, but that was not the policy of the Mowat Government. They preferred to give back the surplus revenue to the country to lighten the taxes of the people and to develop the resources of the country. Since 1872 the Mowat Government had expended 72 millions of dollars. Now the total cost of the expenditure to carry on the machinery of government—that is, civil government and legislation—was only about ten millions, and if the government had contented themselves with that, the surplus would have been much larger than Mr. Marter claimed. But the government believed in returning the people's money to the people and of the seventy-five millions the Mowat Government nearly sixty millions for the lessening of taxation in the shape of grants to public works, colonization roads, agriculture education, asylums, hospitals, and charities, municipal loan fund, etc. Was this money well expended? The Opposition had never dared to charge that a single dollar had been improperly spent. Was it economically spent? The increase in expenditure for civil government had been since 1872—in Ontario, 37 per cent.; in Quebec, 86 per cent., and in the Dominion, 76 per cent. The cost of legislation had increased—in Ontario, 16 per cent.; in Quebec, 22 per cent.; in the Dominion—the government Mr. Winch and his friends supported—146 per cent.! While the government of Ontario had been liberal it had been economical, and the public institutions of Ontario were maintained in a better condition and at a cheaper rate than anywhere on the continent. On Mr. Stratton referring to the expenditures on colonization roads some dissent was made, and Mr. Stratton said Mr. Winch's friends didn't like to hear about colonization roads. They did not wish the north country to enjoy the privileges the town enjoyed. But he, Mr. Stratton, believed in benefitting the north country, and permitting them to reach town where their money was left with our merchants. (Cheers.) As to the abolition of Government House, Mr. Stratton said he had voted with Mr. Meredith against its abolition in the session of '86-'87, but he found it was not safe to vote with Mr. Meredith for that gentleman had flopped, and had now taken the opposite side. The abolition of Government House which was erected by Sandfield MacDonald, was a matter for the people to decide. Mr. Stratton said he found a general sentiment against its retention and he would for his part try to CARRY OUT THE POPULAR WILL.

HAD RETURNED TO THE PEOPLE

Referring to the timber policy of the Government Mr. Stratton showed that Ontario got $1,250 per square mile for its timber. John Sandfield MacDonald got $275 and the Dominion Government had sold one limit to political friends without competition for 5 cents per mile, which was afterwards sold for $55,000. As to the export duty on logs that was a Dominion matter and where were Mr. Stevenson and Mr. Burnham that they did not remedy the evil? (Cheers.) Mr. Campbell said at Lakefield that foreigners had been allowed to come into our woods and work, but when Mr. Taylor, the government whip, at Ottawa, introduced a bill to exclude foreign labour, the government smothered the bill and thus failed to protect the rights of Canadian labour. (Cheers.) With a forcible closing appeal to the electors to support a government that had treated them so well for 22 years, Mr. Stratton closed his address amidst enthusiastic applause.

MR. CAMPBELL HAS THE FLOOR.

Mr. Campbell was warmly greeted when he took the platform to answer the arguments advanced by Mr. Stratton. Mr. Campbell opened his address by referring boastfully of the conquests which he usually made among the ladies in the localities where he spoke. He then denied the assertion, which has appeared in the press to the effect that he had once made the statement that he would like to have the power to bind every Roman Catholic hand and foot and throw them where the dogs couldn't bite them. Mr. Campbell was positive that Mr. Mowat would not be returned with as large a majority of straight supporters on June 29th as he had at the last session of the Legislature. He, however, was not sanguine enough to predict his defeat. The gerrymander, he stated, had been the means of keeping Sir Oliver in power after he had gotten the ascendancy on a catch vote.

The speaker then went on to claim for the Opposition the merit of wishing to decrease the number of representatives in the Legislature. It was plain that Mr. Campbell as far as local politics are concerned, as only the evening previous, while standing on precisely the same platform, Mr. Stratton had advocated precisely the same movement carrying it indeed so far as to state that one representative was enough for the whole county of Peterborough.

The question of minority representation was then dealt with by Mr. Campbell, but by a singular oversight he omitted to mention the fact that Mr. Mowat has just abolished this system as it existed in Toronto.

The stale, bald cry of "the wicked partners" was then raised by the speaker and Mr. Barton Earle, still raw from the flaying he received from Mr. Ross the previous evening, was long and loud in his applause when he heard that gentleman being characterized as a "wily politician."

The campaign fund, he declared, was raised by unfair means by the Reform party, but he was careful not to particularize and dealt largely in generalities in regard to this accusation as he did for the matter of that in nearly every question he handled seeming to prefer to indulge in inuendo rather than make which could be laid hold of and contradicted.

The idea of introducing the American scheme of electing the license commissioners was warmly advocated by the speaker.

The timber limits, he stated, were bought by the speculators, who had held them for four or five years and then sold them at a large profit. He thought the Government might just as well have held these limits and sold them at the increased price themselves.

The very moment, he declared, that the Dominion Government attempted to put an export duty on logs to encourage their manufacture into timber at home, the United States would retaliate. The province, he held, should make arrangements when selling their limits to have the logs manufactured into timber in Canada by the Canadians. Mr. Campbell did not explain, however, why or for what reason the United States would overlook such a policy being adopted in provincial matters when they would retaliate if the Dominion Government took steps which would have the same effect.

The "fee question" received some attention from the speaker, who held that the fees should be replaced by stated salaries and the officials appointed by the municipalities.

Mr. Campbell then went into the "peanut policy" which characterizes the tactics of the Opposition and questioned the price of the etc., which was consumed in the public institutions. He stated that three-fourths of a million dollars were expended in keeping up the public institutions. He did not compare the cost of running the Ontario institutions with those of other provinces or states, but just let his bare statement stand, to the effect that this money was being squandered without attempting to back up his statement with any facts whatever.

A vicious attack was then made by the speaker on the colonization road system and also upon the present government buildings, which he designated as an "ugly pile." The audience, however, arose en masse and called upon him to retract this statement and for some minutes the cries No! no! You're wrong! You're wrong! rang through the hall. Mr. Hampden Burnham in a speech at South Monaghan some weeks ago lauded these same buildings to the skies and declared they were a credit to the Administration.

A big attack was made on the surplus by the speaker. He declared that he would not only prove that the Province had no surplus but was very deeply in debt. In fact, he stated that the Mowat Government had expended almost $3,000,000 more than they had received.

The meeting was closed by three cheers for the Queen, led by Mr. Stratton. Three cheers were given for Mr. Meredith and Mr. Campbell, after which three more rousing cheers were given for the Mowat administration.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.
"It's Fair's way."
Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

And see you get what we advertise

LADIES' BLOUSES—All our $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 Blouses we let you have your choice for a one dollar bill.

LADIES' CLOAKS AND RUBBER COSSAMERS—to keep the rain out and protect your dresses—in some instances at HALF the original prices. For instance, Cloaks that were $6 to $8 now going at $2.75 to $3.50.

LADIES' COLOURED CLOTH CAPES—specially reduced to suit all cases—you-may-take-them prices.

JACKETS—Latest styles, large sleeves—cost of material. MANTLES—Profits pushed aside—it's a clear sweep—It's Fair's way.

LADIES' SILK PARASOLS 75c., $1, $1.50. If you want an aristocratic Umbrella, with fashionable handles and sensible covering, you know where to look for it. UMBRELLAS RE-COVERED WHILE YOU WAIT. The prices tell, and everyone tells the prices.

CONVICTION OF WIMAN

He Is Interviewed in the Tombs and Talks of His Case.

MANY MESSAGES OF SYMPATHY

He Receives a Large Number of Letters From Prominent People—When Released He Will Start Another Agency—Criticizes the Judge's Charge.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Erastus Wiman has been interviewed again by a reporter. In talking of his conviction, he said that he did not know of any special point that could have led the jury to agree on the verdict they reported. He took several exceptions to the judge's charge, and said that Judge Ingraham took a civil, the Sumpter case, and applied to this a criminal action. "The judge," said Mr. Wiman, "talked about the right of a cashier to sign cheques affecting the case. If a cashier had a right to sign cheques, how much greater was my right when it was shown that I signed 75 per cent. of all the cheques, and that Mr. Dun himself had not signed the firm's name to a cheque in ten years." Mr. Wiman took exception to Justice Ingraham's incorporating into his charge his mere opinion, inference or the assumption of a theory to be a fact in imputing the defendant's "greed for gold" as a primary motive for his offending.

"Greed for gold," said Mr. Wiman, "could never have tempted me to forge for $5,000. Why, man, I was making $80,000 a year and was living on $15,000. What more could a man want? Greed; great heavens! I was working for others all my life, for my partners, my family and a good many I can remember and some that I have forgotten. But one side of all the affairs of R. G. Dun & Co. was eliminated by the evidence during the trial. I would not have summoned any witness from there because it would entail for them the penalties consequent on antagonizing powers that be. As for Mr. Douglass, he is the representative of a family. There are nine nephews of them scattered about the country in the various branches of the concern. They lost no opportunity, in their jealousy of my preeminence in the concern, to poison the minds of both Mr. and Mrs. Dun against me. Mr. Dun is an old man in his dotage. They naturally look forward to the time when he will die and Mrs. Dun inherit the business, and they wished to stand as well with her and seem as necessary to her in the business as possible.

As to the enterprise outside of the business there were just twenty four of them. Among them, for instance, were the Staten Island Ferry Rapid Transit Company, Electric Company, Amusement Company, nickel-in-the slot machines and Caribou mines in Colorado. Twelve of these Mr. Dun and I were jointly interested in. Some of these were very profitable. He was willing enough to benefit by them, and is still receiving rich dividends from some of them. In one enterprise I let him get bonds where I got stock, and that's where I was foolish; he is getting the interest from those bonds still, where the stock is making no dividends.

"I have not seen my lawyers since the verdict was rendered and do not know what their course will be. The verdict was no great surprise to me, because it seemed to me that the judge took a harsh view of the case from the beginning. He seemed to regard me as guilty from the start. You say, if you please, that I said that if a jury of my peers have determined me to be guilty, I shall endure my punishment with composure and resignation. If it is not to be too long, I will come out afterwards and start another commercial agency, and I do not feel too old yet to make a success of it and thus prove the part that I have filled in the business I have left."

Mr. Wiman was, as he conversed, opening his mail and a score of telegrams. It is unlikely that any convict in the Tombs ever before received so many expressions of sympathy and confidence from men and women of high standing.

Gen. B. F. Tracy said that Wiman's case will be appealed. "We can do nothing," he added, "for Mr. Wiman until after he is sentenced on June 20. We will serve notice of an appeal on Judge Ingraham then." Wiman cannot be bailed until the matter of an appeal is settled.

Fighting in Samoa.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Mail advices to the State Department from Samoa, dated May 28, say there had been some fighting near Apia among the natives, but no serious trouble was anticipated. Robert Louis Stevenson, the novelist, who lives at Apia, has imported for the protection of his family six repeating rifles and a case of ammunition.

Morocco's New Sultan.

MADRID, June 18.—Sultan Abdul Aziz, in his proclamation to the people, promises amnesty to persons guilty of offences against his father, but threatens most severe punishment on anyone daring to resist his authority. He has ordered the summary execution of several Bedouins charged with robbing caravans.

W. W. Phelps Dead.

ENGLEWOOD, N.J., June 18.—Yesterday Judge William Walter Phelps passed away. The end was so peaceful that for some minutes after he had breathed his last his family, who were watching at the bedside with intense sorrow, would not believe that the end had come.

A VERDICT OF GUILTY

J. R. Hooper Convicted of Attempting to Drown His Wife.

HE PROTESTS HIS INNOCENCE

He Makes a Speech, in Which He Declares He Has Not Received "British Justice"—The Judge Charged Strongly Against the Prisoner.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 18.—Judge Bourgeois, in the Hooper trial, in his address to the jury, followed the evidence from the time Hooper took his wife out of the lunatic asylum at Kingston until her disappearance at Louisville, while in his car. His marriage vows to this woman charged him to love and protect her, and that, if she was not thrown into the river by his own hands, he had failed to guard her from falling, and that omission was a crime equal in the eyes of the law. The judge also spoke in French, and the jury, after being out seventeen minutes, returned a verdict of guilty.

The court room was jammed, but there was no demonstration. His honor immediately adjourned the court until to day.

Then the prisoner said: "Your Lordship, I wish to again state before God, before the court and all these people that I am innocent of any crime whatever. I have not had British justice, and I hold in my hand the damaging evidence to show that a Queen's counsel was suborned against me.

"You charged very strongly against me and I believe that you did it in what you believed to be British justice, but it was not justice to me. God is a just God, and he would strike me dead if I am not speaking the truth. It is a fact that the woman jumped off the train before I did."

At the close of the sentence the accused raised his voice to an awful pitch and with his hand upraised made a most impressive scene. He added: "My life is gone and it does not matter to me whether the sentence is one day or a lifetime." Before discharging the jury Judge Bourgeois said: "Gentlemen, the verdict you have rendered is according to the evidence."

Hooper will make a long speech before his sentence.

Situation in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., June 18.—It is rumored that the Whitewayites will make an attempt to seize goods from the steamer Silvia, which has just arrived, but it is not likely the project will succeed, as the Government is aware of the intention and issued orders to the police and mariners so as to be able to prevent the success of the scheme. No trouble was experienced on Saturday, though threatening overtures were made several times against the strong body of police in charge of Shea's premises. Business is much interfered with. Marshall and Roger made an application for a mandamus Friday, directing the receiver-general to grant permits for argument of the matter Thursday. Action may be taken against the Sheas for unlawful detention of goods.

An Actress Attempts Suicide.

NIAGARA FALLS, June 18.—Martha Conway, an actress until recently connected with the Minnie Seward company, which has been playing here, shot herself with a revolver in her room at the hotel Atlantique on Saturday. The would-be suicide is a handsome young woman. According to members of the troop she had become infatuated with Mr. Sommers, the husband of Minnie Seward, and, being despondent, decided to kill herself. The physicians say the wounds are not necessarily fatal, though the bullet entered her left side under the heart, and, striking a rib, glanced out into her left arm near the elbow. When assistance reached the woman she implicated Mr. Seward as the one who shot her, but later admitted it was her own deed.

Drowned While Bathing.

SHELBURNE, Ont., June 18.—A sad drowning accident occurred at Sheppard's millpond, a few miles east of here, on Saturday, in which Hilyard Irwin, aged 20, of this town, lost his life. The young man, accompanied by several others, drove out to the pond for the purpose of bathing. The party went out in a boat to some distance from shore, when the boat upset. Irwin, who was unable to swim, sank to the bottom, while his companions succeeded in reaching the shore.

THE GREAT RELAY RACE.

Enthusiasm in Montreal When the Riders Arrived With the Messages.

MONTREAL, June 18.—The Sarnia-Montreal relay race finished four hours ahead of schedule time. Harvey and Lyman were due here from Blue Bonnets at 5.35 p.m. They arrived at the Windsor at 1.26.38. About fifteen minutes past one the crowd were on the tiptoe of expectation, and when a bicycle rider would appear several would cry "Here they come," but they did not come. About twenty-five minutes after one several members of the patrol dashed up and began to clear the road of the crowd which had gathered in the centre of it. At 26 minutes and 38 seconds after one two blue jerseyed riders dashed up at racing pace and one of them handed a small leather pouch to an official. The latter ran over to Acting Mayor Costigan, who carried it to a small table, where he affixed his official signature to the legal looking document which was in the pouch amid the frantic cheers of the assembled multitude.

The two riders stumbled wearily up the steps of the Windsor and threw themselves on the inner marble steps. Harvey, of the O.B.C., who carried the pouch, gave vent to a prolonged sigh. They were not allowed to stay here long, as their friends took them away to the toilet room, where they were washed and rubbed down. A few minutes after the arrival of the first riders, Smart, who rode the relay from Dorval to Lachine, and several others, who reach from Lachine to the finish, arrived. When the riders go on the asphalt pavement at Fort street, the paces commenced to be at a terrific speed. And on their arrival at the Windsor they were carried several hundred yards further on by the momentum.

After signing the paper Acting Mayor Costigan was called upon for a speech. He said: "Gentlemen, I did not come here for speech making, but as you have requested me I will say a few words in praise of our Canadian youths, whom I consider to be the finest in the world for pluck and endurance. You see how a message sent from Sarnia could be brought to Montreal in a short space of time."

Mr. Lane, president of the C.W.A., then made a few remarks. He thanked Ald. Costigan for his kindness for attending, and said that Canadians, whether in sports or anything else, could always hold their own against the world. He then called upon Lieut.-Col. Houghton to speak. The lieutenant colonel gave a very pleasant little speech on bicycling and sports in general, which was well received by the crowd.

Sir William Van Horne and Sir Donald A. Smith were to have been present at the finish, but, owing to the relay finishing so soon, they were unable to attend. In the pouch were three messages, one to Sir Donald A. Smith, one to the Mayor and the other to Sir Wm. Van Horne. Across the envelope was written: "Via the fast cycle line." The pouch was made of leather with a strap to over the shoulder, and was fastened by a spring lock. The following inscription in gold letters was on the pouch: "Sarnia to Montreal, eastern division." The messages in the pouch were as follows: "The swift and trustworthy wheelmen convey our hearty greetings from Toronto. (Signed), ABERDEEN, Governor General.

To SIR DONALD SMITH, K.C.M.G., Montreal.

Dear Sir William: I send this message by the new fast cycle line. This line will not be a rival of the C.P.R. for freight or

The Great Mine Strike.

CHICAGO, June 18.—Ninety per cent. of the miners went to work this morning under the Columbus scale of wages. Telegrams from the bituminous coal fields of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio and parts of Illinois verify this statement. It is estimated the total loss by the strike in wages of miners, loss to operators and manufacturing industries will reach $20,000,000.

The Kaiser Lays a Corner Stone.

BERLIN, June 18.—The laying of the new cathedral corner stone was one of the most elaborate functions of the last two years. The weather was clear and bright and thousands of spectators gathered near the Lustgarten before ten o'clock. The Empress and the eldest three Princes, all the Ministers of state and a vast number of high military officers were present.

An American Aristocrat Weds.

PARIS, June 18.—M. Ugo Gregorini, son of Col. Bingham Gregorini, of Bologna, was married to Miss Grace Connolly, of Augusta, Ga., niece of the Marchioness of Anglesey. The civil marriage ceremony was performed on Saturday. A Catholic ceremony was solemnized in the church of St. Pierre de Chaillot yesterday.

Twenty-six Drowned in a Collision.

ODESSA, June 18.—News of a collision in the sea of Azov between the Greek barque Egyptos and the Russian steamer Marousia has just been received here. Both vessels sank. Four of the crew of the Egyptos and twenty-two of the crew of the Marousia, including all the officers, were drowned.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS FOR PALE PEOPLE

ANOTHER COLLEGE PRINCIPAL

The Rev. Dr. Hare, Principal of the Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, a gentleman who is widely known as a skilful educationalist, and also as a profoundly interesting lecturer in the field of natural science, but not so familiarly known as, though he is none the less heartily an advocate of, the temperance cause, has seen fit at this critical period in the advance of the prohibition movement to pronounce himself a supporter of Sir Oliver Mowat,

Dr. Hare says in an interview with a representative of the press: "I have taken no part in the public discussion of politics, and do not wish to express an opinion upon the many economic questions that agitate the public mind, but do emphatically state that temperance people in a great convention sought and obtained a pledge of prohibition from the Mowat Government that was eminently satisfactory, and that they cannot now violate their tacit promise to support the Government in their attempt to give them the desired legislation without a breach of faith.

"Respecting the attitude of the Leader of the Opposition on the question of Prohibition, it is gratifying to temperance people that he has gone as far as he has; still the fact that he is one step behind Mr. Mowat, and is holding out to those interested in the liquor business another opportunity of fighting restrictive legislation, gives him and his party a decided advantage over Mr. Mowat with anti-temperance electors. The fact that Mr. Mowat took his present advanced position on prohibition to meet the strongly expressed wishes of temperance leaders, and that Mr. Meredith, even with this example before him, has not yet taken an equally satisfactory position on this question, should be considered by all who aided to secure this pledge from Mr. Mowat, a reason for supporting him at the polls."

PRINCIPAL AUSTIN SPEAKS.

The Rev. Prof. Austin, principal of Alma Methodist College, St. Thomas, who was prominent in the formation of the prohibition third party, of which Rev. Dr. Sutherland, D. D., was president and was also a leader in the Equal Rights movement of a few years ago, has announced himself as being heartily in favour of the Mowat Administration in the coming election. Prof. Austin, on the third party organization being succeeded by the Advanced Prohibbitionist Association, immediately became identified with that movement and is a prominent member of it. Speaking of the political situation Prof. Austin said: "I consider that the temperance electors should give Sir Oliver Mowat an opportunity to carry out the pledge which he has given us. If the Mowat Administration were not sustained tneir successors would say the government went to the people on that issue and you didn't support it. We went to Sir Oliver and asked him to do certain things. He undertook to do them and to be consistent we must support him." Prof. Austin stated that he was taking this view publicly and in making the above utterance was quite willing to see it published, as he considered it to be unquestionably his desire to take strong ground at this juncture in support of the Mowat Government.

CANADA FOREVER.

Beautiful Views of Our Beautiful Dominion.

In the pages of the EVENING EXAMINER will be found a coupon referring to "Canada," a portfolio of original photographic views of our beloved country. This portfolio is published in weekly parts. Each part contains not less than 16 pages 10x14 inches in size of illustrations and descriptive matter. Twenty-six parts will comprise the series, making altogether upwards of four hundred superb photographic views, covering the whole vast domain of British America. The object of this splendid series of Canadian fine art pictures is to provide the people of Canada with a scenic and descriptive reproduction of the artistic beauties of Canada and the evidences of its resources and material progress—to show Canada's glorious lake, river and mountain scenery—to depict in panorama of photographic pictures the urban and rural life of the Canadian people—to place within the reach of our own people the means of acquainting themselves with all that is notable in the national features of our own country. Every home should have one of these portfolios; they will be a never-ending and perpetual delight to the family, to callers and friends, an ornament to the home, a mine of wealth of scenic beauty and illustration of the resources of Canada. How to get this portfolio. Cut out the coupon printed in each issue of this paper and send or bring it with ten cents to the EXAMINER office. Part 4 is now ready, and the remaining parts up to 26 will be issued weekly. Only 10 cents a week will give you at the end of the series a magnificent volume of nearly 400 pages. The pictures, 400 in number, are superb, halftone photographs of mountains, rivers, lakes, forests, cities, towns and other picturesque features of the land we live in. Be sure to cut out the coupon and enclose ten cents with it and get series No. 4. Begin at the beginning and don't by delay regret that you are missing this great chance.

DUMMER.

From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. William Carveth, of Dummer, has just completed the stone work of his new brick building. The masons have made a very good job of it. The neighbours congratulate Mr. Carveth on putting up such a fine building in such a convenient place, only a few rods from Zion church, store P.O., and blacksmith shop, half a mile from the cheese factory, and one mile from the public school. If he builds according to the foundation he will have a nice home.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Rosebery's Foreign Policy Displeases the Radical Members.

THE CONFERENCE AT LEEDS

Labouchere Will Introduce a Flat Resolution Against the Lords—The Anglo-Belgian Treaty—Character of the Late Lord Chief Justice of England.

LONDON, June 18.—The mutual concessions which have been made in the interest of the passage of the budget by the House of Commons by the end of the first week in July, have greatly relaxed the tension on the opposing parties in Parliament. A great many Liberal members of Parliament have promised to take part in the Leeds conference, but the Opposition members refuse to pair with them for the occasion, and it will be a dangerous matter for the Liberal party in Parliament to be caught napping. Mr. Labouchere will certainly attend the conference, and he has given notice of his intention to re-introduce the resolution which he offered at the conference of the National Reform Union last week, which demands that whenever the House of Lords has rejected a bill which has been passed by the House of Commons, it shall only be necessary for the House of Commons to again vote its approval of the measure when it forthwith becomes a law. Many attempts have been made to dissuade the Radical leader from introducing the resolution but to no purpose. To the importunities of the Liberals they retort: "This confirms our belief that the Liberal party chiefs are not in earnest. They do not aim to destroy the House of Lords, but to merely tinker with it."

Rosebery's Foreign Policy.

Lord Rosebery's foreign policy has further displeased the Radicals, who largely share the views expressed by Sir Charles Dilke in his recent letter to the Chronicle, in which he challenges the present foreign policy of England and accuses Lord Rosebery of having renewed Lord Salisbury's assurances to Italy in regard to the Mediterranean.

Anglo-Belgian Agreement.

The Anglo-Belgian agreement is becoming more mysterious than ever. Mr. Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, seriously maintains that it is an old treaty which has been in the pigeon holes of the Foreign Office for four years, and that he himself signed it in 1890, having suggested that a river is preferable as a frontier to an imaginary line. England, he declares, has only obtained a lease which entitles her to travel over certain territory and not a lease of the territory itself.

The Khedive's Proposed Visit.

The decision of the Khedive of Egypt to abandon his visit to London and Paris has greatly relieved the court and the Government, for if he had been feted here the Sultan would have been angry. This has been an invariable experience hitherto. Such potentates as the Khedive, however, greatly prefer Paris to London.

The Achill Disaster.

Subscriptions have been opened in behalf of the relatives of the Achill harvesters who were drowned in the bay of Clew by the capsizing of their boat on Thursday. Achill island would be one of the loveliest resorts for tourists in the United Kingdom, but the extreme poverty of the inhabitants of the island deters tourists from visiting the place. The Achill land is barren. It has never been useful in the way of agriculture, but the island raises a noted breed of ponies. Mr. William O'Brien, M.P., has issued an appeal for aid in behalf of the islanders and his wife has subscribed £50 to the fund. The drowned men include the best of the working population of the island. These men have hitherto brought back to the island every autumn some £15 or £20 each, which they had earned in the English and Scotch harvest fields. This money was expended in maintaining their families and helping the old and poor of the friends through the winter.

The Late Lord Coleridge.

The death of a lord chief justice of England is always an event. Lord Coleridge was not a great lord chief justice, not a great lawyer, perhaps not a very great advocate. He was not generally liked, though he had many warm friends. He was not universally trusted. Englishmen sometimes said he was not English, meaning that the emotional side of his nature expressed itself more freely than is usual with the English. Various other criticisms were and are passed upon him. The fact remains that he had abilities of a very high order, and a career of unbroken and very brilliant success in life. He had the capacity to be a great lawyer, had he chosen. He liked patriotic theology better than law, and culture was to him more than Coke upon Littleton. He was charming in conversation, charming in oratory, persuasive, mellifluous, literary, and on the whole a stately figure in English life.

A gentleman, under forty years of age, whose hair was rapidly becoming thin and gray, began the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in six months his hair was restored to its natural color, and even more than its former growth and richness.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability ?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability ; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance :

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them ; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says : "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay ; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached ; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability ; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

numbers fifty people. Its leader is the renowned John Philip Sousa, for fourteen years the bandmaster of the United States Marine Band at Washington, distinguished alike for his ability as a leader and his masterful work as a composer. His marches, notably the "Washington Post," "High School Cadets," and numberless others, are probably played by band and on pianos and hand-organs and whistled on the street more extensively than any composition of the time. Sousa's music nets him a handsome fortune every year, and he is said to play them himself inimitably. His marches will be heard as encores at his concert on Friday afternoon in Peterborough.

Be Careful Where You Bathe.

The Chief of Police has turned his attention to the bathers in the river and lake and on Saturday evening took quite a number of them to task. He made no arrests, but simply warned them to be more careful in future. It appears quite a few of the boys would plunge in at Inverlea and swim down to Smith street bridge and, the current being too swift for them to swim back against, would take the land for the return journey and flit through the park in rather scant attire. This practice, the Chief says, will have to be discontinued. The boys who bathe from the first pier in the Little Lake would be wise to don a bathing suit in the future, as a special watch will hereafter be kept by the police just in that locality.

A Burlington Wedding.

A Hamilton exchange speaks as follows concerning the marriage of Miss Maggie Hopkins, a neice of Mr. D. E. Hopkins, of Stewart street, Ashburnham:—"A pleasant event took place at Burlington last Wednesday evening, when Robert J. Webster, of London, and Miss Maggie, F. Hopkins, of Burlington, were happily united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's mother, Church street. The bride wore a handsome cream dress and looked beautiful. The bridesmaid was Miss Etta Webster, of London, who was dressed in a rich pink costume. The groom was ably supported by Frank E. Hopkins, of Burlington. Master Carl F. Hopkins, of Burlington, and little Miss Jessie Webster, of London, acted as page and maid of honour. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wray R. Smith, of Stony Creek. The presents were both numerous and beautiful. Among them was one given by the bride's Sunday school class, accompanied by an address as a token of their appreciation of her valuable instruction while with them. After the guests, who numbered about fifty, had finished their congratulations, they repaired to a spacious tent erected on the lawn, where tea was served. Many of the friends accompanied the happy couple to the railway station. They started on their wedding tour, with the intention of visiting some of the chief cities in the province, Toronto, Kingston, Ottawa and Montreal. Mr. and Mrs. Webster will make their future home in London, where Mr. Webster has been doing business for some time.

—Don't forget the moonlight excursion this evening. An enjoyable time guaranteed.

—Messrs. Lech & Sons on Saturday shipped three large bales of furs to Leipsig, Germany.

—Court of Revision meets to-night for the consideration of the last of the appeals.

—Owing to the coal strike in the States the Fenelon Falls pulp mills are temporarily closed down.

—Special meeting of council to-morrow evening. The subject of the new sewer will be taken up and discussed.

—The farmer will soon pocket a little money from the sale of his wool, as the time for washing and shearing the flocks is now at hand.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What? Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store.

—A 10-year-old boy named Larocque, of Lachute, Que., bought some tobacco the other day and began to chew it. He swallowed some juice and it killed him.

—The Peterborough Lacrosse Club's excursion down the river takes place to-night per steamer City of Peterborough and palace scow. A good time is anticipated.

—Mr. Jack Murphy is again on duty at the fire hall, having just recovered from the injuries received at the time the Dickson Co.'s stables were burnt in Ashburnham several months ago.

—The Haliburton correspondent of the Bobcaygeon Independent says:—Mr. William Duncan, from Peterborough, has rented the grist mill from the Company. He comes here with a very high character and is reported to be a really first-class miller.

—Burglars were at work again at Calcutt's brewery yesterday. Nohing of much importance was missed but an odd glass of ale or so. Those birds should make themselves scarce in and about the place, as Sunday loungers about the brewry will be henceforth looked after sharply.

—Don't forget the sale of superior English furniture on Wednesday, 20th inst., at the residence of Mrs. Col. Corry-Smith. 'Busses will carry passengers free to and from the sale, connecting with the street railway at the corner of Charlotte and Park streets. Sale at 12.30 p.m. 3d141

—The Lakefield Band have received an invitation to participate in the band competition to be held in Peterborough along with other sports on July 1st. The band will be unable to go on account of another engagement. The boys would like to go down to show 'em how to play on that day.—Lakefield News.

—Mrs. J. A. Hartley, Murray street, has two fine rose bushes on her lawn which have attracted considerable attention this year on account of the profusion of roses which are in bloom upon them. On Saturday Mrs. Hartly counted 75 blossoms on one bush alone. This morning when she went into the garden to pick a bunch for a friend this bush was found to have been completely stripped during the night by "flower fiends."

—The engine of the 7.50 p.m. west bound C.P.R. express from Toronto jumped the track as it was pulling out of the yard in Toronto Saturday evening. The train was not going at a very rapid rate of speed, but the wheels on the right side of the engine buried themselves completely out of sight in the ground. The baggage car was also derailed. Some few Peterborough citizens were on board.

—Mr. Harry Calcutt, Brewer, Ashburnham, is having placed in the bottling department of the brewery, one of "The Wm. Payne's" famous self-acting elevators which is deemed necessary for conveying bottled ale from the ground floor to the upper stories, at the same time it can be used for the lowering of 60's which are used for bottling purposes. This will be a great help to teamsters, as well as to the employees engaged in that department, as some 60 to 75 dozen cased goods leave this department daily. They were formerly carried by hand. The business at this season of the year is exceptionally large in the beer trade and numerous improvements have been made in the Ashburnham brewery. Mr. Calcutt has deemed it necessary to place a new delivery wagon on the road, which will be used exclusively for delivering in the surrounding towns and villages throughout the midland counties.

DOMINION DAY PICNIC.

The Beautiful Grove of St. Joseph's Hospital to be Used on the First.

The Cathedral picnic to be held in the beautiful grove surrounding St. Joseph's Hospital on Dominion Day will, without doubt, attract thousands of visitors across the river to Ashburnham on the first. The Cathedral clergy are so justly famed for the manner in which they carry out any entertainment in which they take a hand, that it is a guarantee that this picnic, which is being conducted under their auspices, will be a great and glorious success.

A Brilliant Bundle of Honours.

The Collegiate Institute, judged by results, is doing excellent work in spite of the condemnation it is receiving from the seekers of campaign ammunition. On Saturday the EXAMINER mentioned the success of three pupils of the Collegiate Institute at the Toronto University examinations and now we have the pleasure of recording the great success of Mr. John VanEvery, son of Mr. Wm. VanEvery, town. Mr. VanEvery's triumphs include second class honours in Modern Languages, first class in philosophy, first class in English, second class in French, Italian Spanish and German, and first class in psychology and logic in the second year examinations. He also captured class "A" in second year pass in Latin and history. It is a credit to a student to take honours in any subject, but when a student "swipes" honours in nine subjects at one examination he is entitled to the greatest praise for the credit he reflects upon himself, his town and the excellent school—the Collegiate Institute—in which was laid the foundation of his success.

NOMINATIONS TO-MORROW.

No Addresses—Entirely Formal Proceedings.

The official nomination of candidates for the Ontario Legislature will take place at the Court House to-morrow. There will be no addresses, the proceedings being entirely formal and official.

THE ONSLAUGHT ON THE SCHOOLS.

Throughout the present campaign there has been a vicious and deliberate attack upon the management of our Public Schools, High Schools and Collegiate Institutes. The leaders of this onslaught are Mr. Barton Earle, an ex-teacher of the Collegiate Institute, and Mr. Hampden Burnham, a graduate of our Collegiate Institute. These attacks are both impolite and unpartriotic. They are not justified by the facts. As was conclusively shown by Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, at the Opera House meeting on Thursday night, there is no truth in the charge that High Schools are being fostered at the expense of the Public schools, and both are in the highest degree of efficiency, each fulfilling its special function in a manner to win the highest encomiums from all genuine friends of elementary as well as liberal education. The Collegiate Institute has been worked up to a high standing and it now ranks among the first schools of the province. Results are a fair test of efficiency, and, judged by this standard, the attacks of Mr. Earle and Mr. Burnham are unpatriotic and unjustifiable and tend, if they are received with any degree of credit, to injure the standing and success of the school. The claims by these gentlemen—one of them at least—that the inspection is worthless is a direct condemnation of the present staff, who are highly endorsed by the inspectors, and a direct attack on Mr. Fessenden, who is responsible for his staff. Even if the "worthless" inspection pronounced bad teachers good, no one should be asked to condemn the present principal who is satisfied with his staff and the excellent work they are doing. When a desire to gain a little temporary political advantage by decrying our Collegiate Institute and staff, through the Minister and Department of Education, is doubtless the highest motives of these critics, their criticisms should be received with more than the proverbial grain of salt. One must conclude that our high school, with whose maintenance the public are in sympathy to the reasonable extent that has not yet been exceeded; and these gentlemen, with a supercilious disregard of the benefit of the masses, characteristic of the party to which they belong, subject themselves to the reproach that in the interest of the classes they oppose the existence of a school which gives opportunity to the sons and daughters of poor men to get, at a cheap rate, all the advantages of a higher education and to raise themselves into a sphere of life which they could not attain without the help of schools of this class. But anything to beat Mowat—traduce the schools or anything else, to gain a fleeting party advantage.

COMMITTEE ROOMS.

Mr. Stratton's committee rooms will be open every night hereafter from 7 o'clock p. m. The daily papers are on the tables, so that those who desire to use the hall as a reading room can do. This announcement is made so that Mr. Stratton's supporters and the supporters of the Mowat Administration can at all times have a place in which to confer and report or exchange information and suggest action in the interest of the Liberal candidate in the West Riding.

PERSONAL.

Mr. George Morrow was up in North Toronto for a few hours Saturday evening.

Miss E. Cochrane, of Peterborough, is visiting friends in the village.—Lakefield News.

Master Frank Trollope left this morning for a two months' visit to his sister in Brussels, Ont.

Miss Maggie Fee, of Toronto, formerly of Peterborough, spent a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Fee, town.

Mr. Charlie McKee went up to Toronto on Saturday. He will probably be away a couple of months on a holiday trip.

Collegiate Institute pupils figure pretty prominently in the examination list of Toronto University. Miss M. H. Fife, daughter of Dr. Fife, passed the senior matriculation or first year examination successfully in English, French, German, Latin, mathematics and physics. Another credit mark for Peterborough lady students of the Collegiate Institute.

Mr. R. W. Muncaster, who is the manager of an extensive jewelry establishment at Charlotte, North Carolina—the largest in the state—was summoned home on Saturday by the sad death of his little son. Mr. Muncaster will anticipate the holidays he intended to take during the summer and remain in town for a month or so. His many friends will sympathize with himself and his family in their affliction.

The Rev. Mr. Edwards occupied his pulpit yesterday morning and evening. He took for his subject St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians exhorting them to receive Timothy with kindness and brotherly love, making his application apply to the congregation in behalf of his successor, for whom he bespoke a warm welcome and united support. The pastor closed his three years pastorate by a practical sermon in the evening entitled "Knowledge of God."

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

Just One Point

That we would draw special attention to to-day; that is, that we are in down right earnest in our endeavours to present you such attractive values all this month of June as cannot fail to draw a very large part of your trade our way. Just how—NOT TO DO IT—would be to follow a very prevalent practice, which exists of advertising a great many lines which, on examination, are often found to exist only in the advertiser's mind.

But, TO ACCOMPLISH OUR AIMS, we give in our advertising to-day the earnest quality which has marked it since we commenced business. What we write and print, you can afford to read; you are equally interested with us in what we have to tell you.

WE DO NOT HAVE TO do any bogus advertising to draw trade. The value of our goods and the mottoes:—

"SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS"
"SPOT CASH AND ONE PRICE"

under which we trade, are in themselves the secret of the success of our business.

DAY AFTER DAY persons come to our store simply to look, and to their find astonishment that they have been paying 10 to 20 per cent. more for the same goods elsewhere, and they say we really did not believe until now that there was such a difference. ALL WE ASK IS THAT YOU COMPARE OUR VALUES and we are satisfied as to where you will trade.

OUT OF GRATITUDE, on account of the success of our cash business this season, we have purchased and arranged for further supplies of

Folding Tables, Folding Music Racks, Folding Book Racks, Folding Chairs and Rockers,

All to be given away FREE to our customers. Circulars and Cards explaining the Premium offer has been delivered to every house. If for any reason you haven't got one, call at once if you wish to get one of these FREE articles.

IT IS A FACT that we do not have to give premiums to build up our trade, but we have been so successful this season that we thought our friends would appreciate this offer.

CARPETS

Are being cut in prices for this month. This should interest you. Then if you wish them made and laid quickly, we can, with the aid of our new Carpet Sewing Machine, which, by the way, is the only one in this part of the country, guaranteed to make and lay any carpet large enough for the largest room in the place at four or five hours notice. The progressive character of our business has made itself quite apparent in the carpet room as in all departments.

We are closing out the balance of our stock in to make room for new goods, as our buyer has gone. Make no mistake about it. No matter what others may advertise in the way of excuse sales when they do not mean to take effect for a year, we will always sell lower, because we buy lower, and we have no bad debts to lose.

A NEW IDEA!

A Cut in Dress-Making } Commencing June 12.

We have made special arrangements by which all Dresses bought at our store during the next two weeks will be made up for our customers at the uniformally Low Price of $2.00.

Ladies are assured that the same care and attention will be given to their dresses as if they paid the regular prices for making them up.

The above Reduction means a saving of from $1.50 to $2.00 on each dress.

DRESS GOODS.

In connection with the above, we desire to say that we are at present giving much attention to our Dress Goods Department. Our display of new and fashionable patterns and fabrics for the summer season will greatly interest the ladies at present. The strong values we can give in Dresses, coupled with the above substantial Reduction in Dress Making, affords an unusual opportunity for SAVING MONEY.

MR. ROGER SPEAKS FOR HIMSELF.

Mr. Earle and Mr. Kendry Challenged.

The following is the copy of the letter sent to the Review to-day :—

To The Editor of the Review :

SIR,—It is quite a novelty to me to have been the recipient of so much attention as I have lately been favoured with at the hands of yourself and of other supporters of Mr. Winch, an attention which has appeared to me to be somewhat wasted, inasmuch as I am not a candidate for the people's suffrages.

The solicitude of yourself and friends and the many kind offers of advice and assistance regarding the regulation of my conscience have been most touching, and though occasional expressions of respect and acknowledgment of service rendered in the promotion of license reduction have been rather confusingly mixed with sundry reflections and insinuations as to character and conduct, still, on the whole, I have been rather comforted to perceive that your anxieties were not aroused so much on account of the character of the influences I was exercising as on account of the direction in which it was being exercised. It is a comfort to think that had I been a supporter of Mr. Winch you would probably have seen less of evil in me, and that my fault is, after all, more one of policy than of principle.

It has seemed to me rather curious that while you were so solicitous about my condemning the license commissioners for their alleged opposition to the enforcement of the by-law, you yourself had no words of condemnation for Mr. Winch's effectual opposition to its original passage.

If I remember aright Mr. Winch ridiculed and opposed prohibition before the Dominion Prohibition Commission when it sat here, and still is, as I think you admit, largely interested in the liquor business in town. Under such circumstances I fail to understand on just what temperance grounds you expect me to leave my own party and come out in support of Mr. Winch.

Would you consider it impertinent if I were to ask what Mr. Winch has ever done for the cause of temperance that I or anyone else should be attacked in his behalf?

Would Mr. Kendry mind specifying just when and what he has ever done to advance the same cause that entitles him to join in the chorus of attack?

If Mr. Earle would refrain but for a moment from his fulminations against Mr. Stratton and Sir Oliver Mowat, perhaps he would be good enough to tell us what it is he finds in the temperance record of Mr. Winch or his party that so excites his admiration as to induce him to round on one who has exerted himself in that interest? Are there no motes in the eye of their own party requiring the attention or obscuring the vision of these gentlemen that they have so much time and eloquence to spend on the shortcomings of their opponents? What have they to say about Mr. Winch's evidence before the Prohibition Commission? What about his opposing license reduction while in the council? What about his participation in the liquor business, and what about his campaign treating practices anyway? These gentlemen are very free with insinuations and innuendo regarding another, but I defy them to come out in print, and, dealing with these matters categorically, show by what contortion of reasoning they can condemn me and justify themselves at the same time.

As to your own share in the attack I have not thought any reply called for. I presume it will be generally accepted as the outcome of party exigencies and as a matter of business, and I fancy intelligent readers will be more likely to recognize in it a deficiency of sounder argument than zeal for principle. At all events the record of a lifetime ought to be able to take care of itself as against partizan newspaper reflections and misrepresentations.

My position, Mr. Editor, is just this: We have to deal with material and cope with circumstances as they surround us. While I never expect to find any party free from error or fault, I do not intend on that account to withhold my hand from helping to shape the destinies of my country, but associating myself with the element in which I see most good. I intend to exert my influence, whatever it may amount to, always and only for the correction of error and the advancement of righteousness, according to the best of my judgement.

Political attacks upon any person, party or cause will have no effect unless based upon a record which attests their sincerity and unless accompanied by comparisons showing that there is something to be gained by a change. I believe that both our temperance and financial interests are safer in the hands of the government of Sir Oliver Mowat, they having given the most satisfactory evidence of sympathy with temperance reform and their administration having been, as the Mail admits, "clean and free from scandal." For these reasons I intend to support that administration. So far as example is concerned, I think I have in Rev. Dr. Potts as good a temperance precedent as Mr. Kendry affords and in Rev. Principal Grant, an educationalist, at least the equal of Mr. Earle; two gentlemen, both Conservatives of breadth of view and height of patriotism sufficient to recognize the claims and qualifications of an illustrious opponent and to prefer the triumph of principle to the pandering to party and I trust that the 28th of June will prove that there are enough such men in this Province to convince its politicians that honesty is, after all, the best policy. I thank you for the courtesy of publication of this.

Yours truly,
G. M. ROGER.

MR. STRATTON'S NINETEENTH MEETING.

A ROUSING RALLEY IN HARVEY.

Taylor's School House Filled to the Door—Mr. Stratton and Mr. R. R. Hall Address the Electors—Mr. Earle Appears for Mr. Winch.

As the campaign progresses to a close a greater interest is being manifested and a larger attendance is present at the campaign meetings, and as the contest progresses the increasing favour shown to the Liberal candidate gives greater certainty to his success. At the meeting held at Taylor's School House, Harvey, on Tuesday night, the building was filled to the doors. Mr. R. Waram occupied the chair.

Mr. R. R. Hall opened the speaking with an exhaustive review dealing with the excellent condition of the financial standing of the province after the Mowat Government had handled the finances for the past 22 years, which was ample reason why the Government that has so ably, honestly and efficiently discharged this great trust should be given another lease of the power they have so prudently and, as far as the province is concerned, profitably exercised.

Mr. Barton Earle followed with his usual fulminations upon the prohibition questions, claiming that the prohibition promise of Sir Oliver Mowat was conditional, while Mr. Meredith's was positive. He also dealt with the school question in his accustomed manner, denouncing the system of inspection and demonstrating, to his mind, the too great attentions the High Schools and Collegiate Institutes were receiving.

Mr. Stratton followed Mr. Earle and pointed out that while Sir Oliver Mowat positively promised to give all the prohibition the constitution permitted him, Mr. Meredith's prohibition promise was doubly conditional—conditional in the first place on the result of a second plebiscite and conditional in the second place on the highly improbable contingency of Mr. Meredith getting into office. Mr. Stratton then went on to discuss very fully the many important questions that enter into the present campaign. He was very heartily received, and there can be doubt that Harvey will give Mr. Stratton a big lift on June 26th.

A PLEASANT OUTING.

Christian Endeavourers go Down the Otonabee for a Trip.

There was a small crowd attended the excursion of the local union of Christian Endeavour on Friday. The Endeavourers who missed this treat will have reason to regret it when they have the reports from their more fortunate brethren. Everything tended to make this one of the most enjoyable outings the Endeavourers had ever undertaken. The day was perfection in itself; the sail down the river is a treat that none could afford to miss. The open air meeting on the grounds was conducted in the true Endeavour spirit, the Rev. Mr. Young, Rev. Mr Trotter, Mr. Ward and Mr. A. J. Johnston taking part in the meeting, which throughout was instructive and bristled with that enthusiasm which can only be realized when the spiritual and social portions of our natures are brought together to do homage to our Master. Many of the excursionists enjoyed a stroll around the beautiful grounds, while others took to canoeing, a number having brought canoes along with them.

The boat left the wharf at 8.20 a.m., arriving at the grounds at 10.45 a.m., making remarkably good time. Returning, left Jubilee at 4 o'clock, arriving home at 7 o'clock, making the return trip in three hours. This is extra good time, considering the heavy current that is at present running, owing to the high state of the river.

Mr. Buntin, the purser of the boat, showed every courtesy to the excursionists, as did also the captain and the crew. The committee who had the excursion in their charge were disappointed in the number that attended, but used every endeavour to make all who attended as comfortable as possible. A very sociable time was spent on the boat, both going down and on the return trip, games were introduced, hymns sung and everything took that sociable form that one very seldom meets with on excursions of this kind.

Chester Loomis was Crippled With Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town, as he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

is the result of a healthy physical condition. "Beauty is but skin deep" yet it greatly depends on a clear complexion, free from wrinkles and hollow cheeks.

Health always brings wealth of beauty. A healthy state of the system comes with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It's a medicine prepared for woman's ailments—it cures those derangements and weaknesses which make woman's life miserable.

A woman who neglects to take proper exercise is particularly prone to excessive congestion, debility and a sluggish circulation. This is the time we advise the "Prescription." In all derangements and displacements of the special organs which result in "signs of inflammation," in catarrhal discharges from the lining membranes, and in distressing irregularities—this medicine is guaranteed to benefit or cure, or the money is returned.

CRISPI'S NARROW ESCAPE.

The Italian Premier Congratulated by European Powers.

ROME, June 18.—An attempt was made to assassinate Premier Crispi as he was riding in a carriage on his way to the Chamber of Deputies. As he arrived in the vicinity of the Chamber a man approached his carriage and fired two shots at him from a revolver. Both shots missed their mark, but one of the bullets imbedded itself in the side of the carriage. The man was promptly arrested and disarmed. Signor Crispi maintained the utmost composure and gave no sign that he realized his danger.

Premier Crispi's assailant is a carpenter named Paul Loga. He is 36 years old. He came to Rome on Thursday to kill Crispi and expressed his regret that he was unsuccessful. The majority of the European sovereigns and statesmen have congratulated Crispi on his escape.

Loga is known among his anarchist comrades as Marat. When being examined before the examining magistrate, he said he was a native of Marseilles, and that the first Italian city visited by him was Genoa from which he was expelled. More recently he had been in France where he had been connected with the staffs of several anarchist journals. He repeated to the magistrate that he came to Rome to kill Crispi, and regretted that he had not succeeded. "Now kill me, and do it quickly," he added. "I would rather die now than live for thirty years in your prisons."

King Humbert and Prince Victor Emmanuel called on Premier Crispi to congratulate him on his escape from assassination. Letters and telegrams of congratulation have been received to-day by the hundred at the Premier's house.

VIENNA'S MINE HORROR.

Two Hundred and Thirty-one Men Perished in the Karwin Disaster.

VIENNA, June 18.—The number of men who perished in the Karwin mines has been definitely ascertained to be 231.

During the 104 years the Karwin mines have been in existence there have been many disastrous explosions in them. The last was in March, 1885, when 102 men were killed.

The mines are in two sections, and have an annual output of 700,000 tons. Most of the coal is consumed in Vienna. All the shafts were provided with the most modern ventilators, including double doors, connecting the working shafts with the air shafts, and oil lamps of the Muzler system. The Franziska shaft is 286 mitres deep and connects by passage with the Johannes shaft, which is 336 metres deep.

Count von Larisch, owner of the mines, was in the village and personally superintended the work of rescue, which was carried on with more zeal than discretion. The rescue party consisted of several foremen, officials and miners, of whom one overseer, two head miners, one official and ten miners were killed by ensuing explosions.

The men who escaped from the burning mines say the explosions originated through dynamite blasting by a miner. Such blasting was against the rules, but the rules were disobeyed by the miners to save work.

Accident on the C. P. R.

MONTREAL, June 18.—A special despatch from St. Henri de Mascouche says: A very serious accident occurred on the C. P. R. at this point on Saturday night. It has effectually blocked traffic and the express train that left Montreal at 8.05 was delayed until about 10 o'clock on the wrong side of the scene of the accident. The damage done was great and the force of men available here would not be able to cope with the work of repairs. Messengers were despatched to Three Rivers and a large gang of men were engaged and sent to the scene of the accident. Twelve cars were derailed by reason of a broken axle on the engine. Conductor Frechette and Engineer Boldue were in charge. The train was going west.

How To Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Safe, sure, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

Children Cry for

Pitcher's Castoria.

Hamiltonians Disappear.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 18.—Evangelist Belleville left his home on Wednesday evening to buy a postage stamp and nothing has been heard from him and no one has seen him since. Mrs. Belleville is grief stricken on account of her husband's absence and she believes he has committed suicide while suffering from melancholia. Belleville has four children, the eldest eleven years of age. A fruitless search has been made for him for the last two days. A demented female named Louise Andrews, twenty-nine years of age, has also disappeared and cannot be found. The police are endeavoring to trace her.

An Italian's Ghastly Find.

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., June 18.—An Italian while wandering along the river noticed a small box lying close to the bank. He went over to it and was horrified to find that it contained the dead body of an infant. He gave the alarm. A doctor was called and he expressed the belief that the child was alive when placed in the box. The body was taken to the morgue and an inquest will be held. It is generally believed here that it is a case of cruel murder, death having resulted from the desertion of the heartless mother.

Farmers Visit the Capital.

OTTAWA, June 18.—The farmers of Russell county took the city by storm on Saturday. They are here to the tune of 600 strong, on the special excursion which Warden Hurtubise has been engaged in arranging for during the past week. The greater number of the excursionists went direct to the experimental farm, but returned to the city about two or three o'clock in the afternoon. At the farm Hon. Mr. Angers and other Ministers of the Crown gave addresses.

Killed by a Trolley.

MONTREAL, June 18.—One fatal and another very serious accident caused by the trolley cars took place yesterday. While a French-Canadian woman named Boulanger was crossing the car track at Rachel street she slipped and fell and was run over and instantly killed by a trolley car. A man named Matte was badly injured by being struck by a trolley car on St. Lawrence street.

$5,000 Fire in Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 18.—A fire which took place Saturday night on the premises of H. O. Edy, manufacturers' agent, McGill street, did considerable damage. The fire spread to the adjoining premises, occupied by the Bushnell Co., lubricating oils, and J. H. Nagle, furrier, which suffered considerable injury. The total loss is estimated at between $5,000 and $6,000.

Burial of the Drowned Harvesters.

DUBLIN, June 18.—The burial of the thirty-three of the harvesters drowned by the capsizing of their boat on Thursday took place at Westport. The scenes at the cemetery were very pathetic

The Trial of J. R. Hooper.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 16.—In defence of the prisoner at the Hooper trial Mr. J. A. Renaud spoke in French, after which Mr. Donald McMaster, on behalf of the Crown, addressed the jury in English. Mr. Denoncourt, Q. C., continued in French and the judge will give his address. The verdict will be reached this afternoon.

A Boy's Peculiar Death.

PENATANGUISHENE, Ont., June 16.—A sad accident occurred here last evening. A little boy about seven years old by the name of Frank Maines climbed a tree and is supposed to have slipped and fallen to the ground when a stick ran into his breast and broke his ribs. He lived only a few minutes without becoming conscious.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

SAILING THROUGH AIR.

ARCHED WINGS THE SECRET OF FLIGHT IN FLYING MACHINES.

Lilienthal Describes the Principal of His Latest Invention—He Has Soared for Nearly 300 Yards With the Apparatus He Has Constructed.

The experience of the century and more which has elapsed since the invention of Montgolfier has taught us that the balloon is of practical service only when confined. The whims of the winds are too capricious to afford a trustworthy basis of procedure, and notwithstanding the expedients which the progress of science has made it possible to apply, all attempts to control a free balloon, or to guide it in any given direction, have thus far been unavailing, and we seem to be no nearer a satisfactory solution of the problem than were our predecessors of a hundred years ago. The attention of investigators has been diverted, therefore, to flying machines, like Prof. Wilner's, and air ships, like Mr. Maxim's.

Herr Otto Lilienthal, of Berlin, who has some celebrity as "The Flying Man," has conducted a long series of experiments, which have at length been rewarded with an encouraging measure of success. Herr Lilienthal was born forty-six years ago in Anklam, near the Baltic coast of Pomerania, about sixty miles to the north-west of Stettin. A residence so near the sea afforded him in early life many opportunities of prosecuting his favorite studies and observations. In later years he migrated with his younger brother, Gustav, his enthusiastic coadjutor in all his researches, to Berlin, where he established and is now conducting a large manufactory of small steam engines, whose mechanical appliances furnish him with every facility for the construction of his flying apparatus. He resides, however, in the suburb Lichterfelde, and his late experiments have been conducted chiefly in the neighboring localities of Steglitz and the Rhinower Bergen. He is an accomplished mathematician and a close observer of nature.

After many experiments with flat wings, or plane surfaces, Herr Lilienthal became convinced that it was the gentle parabolic curve of the wing which enables a bird to sustain itself without apparent effort in the air, and even to soar, without a motion of the wings, against the wind, like the albutross, or sea gull or stork; and this may be regarded as the most important outcome of Herr Lilienthal's investigations.

"Now that we possess diagrams," said Herr Lilienthal, "which plainly illustrates all these phenomena, it seems quite easy to explain the flight of birds, for every crow that flies over our heads offers a practical solution of the riddle. Recent researches into the laws of atmospheric resistance lead clearly to the deduction that curved or arched surfaces are to be preferred to flat ones. But the original discovery was by no means as simple and self-evident as it now appears. There are still prominent investigators who will not see that the arched or vaulted wing includes the secret of the art of flight. As we came upon the track of this idea, my brother and I, who were then young and wholly without means, used to spare from our breakfast, penny by penny, the money to prosecute our investigations; and often the struggle for life compelled us to interrupt them indefinitely."

To the conviction that concave or vaulted wings were essential to success, Herr Lilienthal was led not only by the examination of a great variety of natural wings, and by theoretical deduction, but by actual experiment. The means adopted for this purpose were ingenious and simple. He fitted up an apparatus in the form of the "fly fans" found on the dining tables of clubs and restaurants, with two long arms revolving horizontally, to the ends of which surfaces of different kinds and degrees of curvature could be affixed in any required position. The motive power was furnished by a weight and could be exactly measured. There was also an adjustment which enabled the observer to measure the lifting force of various surfaces moving at different angles of inclination through still air.

By this means Herr Lilienthal was enabled to reach conclusions which were of great value to him in the construction of his flying machine, and the most important of them was that the most effective form of wing was that whose convexity, as measured by the versed line of the arc, should be one-twentieth of the breadth of the wing, or, of the length of the chord connecting the opposite edges.

The flying machine devised and now used by Herr Lilienthal is designed rather for sailing than for flying, in the proper sense of the term, or, as he says, "for being carried steadily and without danger, under the least possible angle of descent, against a moderate wind, from an elevated point to the plain below. It is made almost entirely of closely woven muslin, washed with collodion to render it impervious to air, and stretched upon a ribbed frame of split willow, which has been found to be the lightest and strongest material for this purpose.

Its main elements are the arched wings, a vertical rudder, shaped like a conventional palm leaf which acts as a vane in keeping the head always towards the wind, and a flat horizontal rudder to prevent sudden changes in the equilibrium. The operator so adjusts the apparatus to his person that when in the air he will be seated upon a narrow support near the front, and, with the wings folded behind him, makes a short run from some elevated point, always against the wind, and, when he has attained sufficient velocity, launches himself into the air by a spring or a jump, at the same time spreading the wings, which are at once extended to their full breadth by atmospheric action, whereupon he sails majestically along like a gigantic sea-gull. In this way Herr Lilienthal has accomplished flights of nearly three hundred yards from the starting point.

"No one," said Herr Lilienthal to me, "can realize how substantial the air is until he feels its supporting power beneath him. It inspires confidence at once. If the wings were flat the speed might be greater, but the sustaining power would be reduced, and the descent would therefore be more rapid. With arched wings it is possible to sail against a moderate breeze at an angle of not more than six degrees to the horizon.

"It was only gradually that I arrived at the proper dimensions. Those which I now employ are never more than twenty-three feet from tip to tip, and I am thus enabled by a simple change of posture so to alter the position of the centre of gravity as to restore the equilibrium.

"There are limits also to the breadth of the wings or their extension backward. The operator must be able in a moment to to transfer the centre of gravity so far to the rear as to overcome the action of the air, which might otherwise tend to throw him forward and precipitate him to the earth. It is not easy to realize in practice at first, but after a short experience the movement becomes almost involuntary."

"But is there not great danger," I asked, "of a serious fall in such cases?"

"No," replied Herr Lilienthal. "When there is no wind the apparatus acts simply as a parachute. I have more than once found myself in this position, when I have utilized the speed obtained in gradual descent in rising to a greater height, to soar over some obstacle like a tree or a crowd of people. Under favorable circumstances it is easy to mount to a height even greater than that of the starting point, but the forward motion is thereby partially or wholly neutralized, and it may happen that one comes to a complete standstill in midair. In such cases it is only necessary to throw the centre of gravity so far back that the air shall act more powerfully on the forward surface, and the gradual gliding descent is resumed. So, in landing, I bend backward exactly as a crow does when alighting in a field and reach the ground without the slightest shock. The worst that is likely to happen in any case is the breaking of the apparatus; there is little danger to life or limb.

"I am far from supposing that my wings, although they afford the means of sailing, and even of soaring in the air, possess all the delicate and subtle qualities necessary to the perfection of the art of flight. But my researches show that it is well worth while to prosecute the investigations further, and in the end, perhaps to realize the beau ideal of all modes of motion and to put it to practical account."

Having demonstrated the practicability of sailing and soaring, Herr Lilienthal has sought in his recent experiments, to reach a practical solution of the problems of actual flight. The first difficulty to be overcome was the discovery of a suitable motor. Herr Lilienthal conceived the ingenious idea of employing, as a motive force, the vapor of liquid carbonic acid, which, under ordinary atmospheric pressure, boils at a temperature far below that at which mercury freezes. The engine devised by Herr Lilienthal required no fire, nor boiler, nor steam chest—only a diminutive cylinder with the requisite valve arrangements, which may be readily worked by hand, and a small reservoir of the liquid acid lying close beside it.

The engine first constructed was of two horse power, with a receiver to contain enough carbonic acid to last for two hours, and was attached to the front of the flying apparatus. The whole contrivance, with the necessary machinery to impart motion to the wings, added less than twenty-five pounds to the weight, and this will probably be reduced in future by the use of some alloy of aluminum instead of iron in the manufacture of the heavier portions. The wings were also fitted with rotary pinions capable of automatic action under the pressure of the air. The first experiments with this apparatus were rather too successful, at least in demonstrating the power of the engine. Unfortunately the inventor had underestimated the energy of his motor, which acted with such unexpected vigor that the wings were broken, and the modifications thus shown to be necessary will require some time for their completion. It is only by a series of trials that the proper relations between the various parts of the machinery can be determined. Herr Lilienthal confidently expects, however, eventually to solve the problem in this way.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

ST. ANDREW'S ANNIVERSARY

THE THIRD UNDER THE PASTORATE OF REV. A. M'WILLIAMS.

Successful Services Throughout the Day—Interesting Statistics of Progress—Eloquent Sermons by Rev. Thos. Goldsmith.

Yesterday anniversary services were conducted in St. Andrew's Church by Rev. Thomas Goldsmith, of Toronto, so well and favourably known in Peterborough. It was the third anniversary of Mr. MacWilliams' pastorate. It is needless to say that these have been three years of great prosperity in this congregation. The church, almost empty, is now full. The membership has increased from about 130 to 320, nothwithstanding that many have been removed by death and by leaving for other parts. The Sunday school has also had phenomenal growth, now numbering about 350, there being over 100 in the pastors Bible class. There are also large and active junior and senior Y.P.S.C.E. societies. The prayer meeting is now largely attended. The Ladies' Aid and the W.F.M.S. are also large and doing excellent work. In fact the congregation is now large and well organized in every department. The labours of Mr. MacWilliams and his faithful workers have not been without fruit and must be very gratifying and encouraging to all.

In the morning Rev. Mr. Goldsmith's text was St. John ixy, 22:—"Lord, how is it that Thou wilt manifest Thyself unto us and not unto the world?" He began by showing that the one great design of Jesus while here on earth was to reveal the Father. This revelation proceeded on the principle of love, It was with the heart that we see God. "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." Therefore, Christ took the disciples to the sick chamber, to the needy or to the house of mourning, and showed them how He acted in the presence of such—His infinite love, mercy, sympathy, and then told them this is how the Father acts, for "I and my Father are one." But this revelation was but partial as they were not able to receive greater in their present condition. It would be too dazzling. Coming then to the text proper, the speaker said. First, God does manifest himself to the people. He manifested Himself to the angels and archangel, and the spirits of just men in heaven, yea, he manifested Himself to the lost souls in hell. He then went on to show that He manifested himself in this world to Adam, talking with him in the garden, etc., but sin entered and the soul became dark, his spiritual vision was dim so that he could not see God any more than when we can see the sun when hid behind the dark clouds. But God in a special manner now manifests himself to some and not to others. Not that God passed by some in the atonement, no; for these was ample provision in the atonement and God had no pleasure in the death of any, but some refuse the light—the offered mercy and so never see Him. "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life". The speaker then passed to a second proposition. How shall God manifest himself to some and not to others? Here the impure in heart were compared to those who were blind or whose eyes were diseased. The sun might be shining and the object there, yet they could not see it, so the impure of heart were spiritually blind and diseased. The object was there, the light was shining, yet they could not see it. But the pure had sight and healthy spiritual eyes and so could see God. "Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God." They see Him in nature, in the home, in providences. The Holy Spirit gave this sight, healed the diseased eyes. This was an eloquent sermon of forty minutes and was listened to with great profit and pleasure by the large congregation present.

THE EVENING SESSION.

In the evening there was again a large congregation. Rev. Mr. Goldsmith took for his text Cor. II chap. 6th v—

We then as workers together with Him beseech ye also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

The eloquent preacher went on to say that the church of God was a hive of industry without any domes. All were workers together with God and that implied dependence. His subject was the gospel of work which combined devotion and practical work. In the whole mass of the church there was not to be found an idler. No idle man could be a Christian. There was no equivalent for the duty of active work. There was not one member in the church that could not be dismissed without injury. Christ was the head of the church and everyone of its members. It was the custom to exalt the sanctified intellect in the work of the church yet some humble character might bear a greater influence in the church, than pulpit genius—one held the ear of Heaven by prayer while the other merely held the ear of his audience. Which agency of the pulpit was not to be disparaged, yet there might be a greater influence with God and good in the prayerful agency of the members of the church. This suggested the idea of personal responsibility. There were various agencies to be employed—there were many who could not be got into the church, but it was possible to get the church into them through the agency of a Godly consistent life and the influence it exerted. It was left to individual members of the church to work out their own salvation by working for the salvation of others. Vitality was the essential element of the church. It was not numbers, nor wealth, but consecrated devotion to God that conferred vitality. There was diversity in the church of God, but this was only a corporate expression of individuality and the perfection of the church resulted from the combination of compensating qualities in the units of the church. There was a fellowship of labour and responsibility in the church and also a fellowship of reward. The feeblest worker would not be overlooked, nor he that cometh in at the eleventh hour. The united forces of the church were working with God, and who could resist the work that had the whole resource of God's infinity of power at its back? Where was the honour like that of working with God? The work of the humblest member of the church was a ministering to the whole body of the church. The truth of the text, "it is better to give than to receive," was eloquently insisted upon. Every dollar invested in the relief of suffering humanity came back in something better than gold—God's grace. The sublime approval on the great day would not "well said," but "well done."

Special mention should be made of the excellent music by the choir under the leadership of Mr. Mulligan. The expressions of approbation were many. To-night a social tea will be served from 6 to 7:30 p. m. in the school room. The tea is free. At 8 sharp the programme in the church will begin. Short speeches by local pastors and Rev. Goldsmith will be given, also special music by the choir. Silver collection at the door.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

CRICKET.

Peterborough's second eleven scored quite a signal victory over the second eleven from Trinity School, Port Hope, on Saturday at the P. A. A. A. grounds, defeating them by nine wickets.

The visitors went to the bat first and were retired with a score of only 30 runs to their credit. Not a pair made any kind of a stand.

When the Peterborough's went in to wield the willow a beautiful exhibition of batting was given. The boys placed and cut and drove their balls with scientific accuracy and first class stands were made by Goldsmith, Halliday and Guy Rogers as will be seen by the score. The side was only retired after 106 runs had been chalked down to its credit.

When Trinity came in off the field the local team felt in good spirits, being confident of having the game well in hand. The visitors, however, were successful in putting together the by-no-means-to-be-despised score of 80 before the last wicket fell. Palmer with his 16 and Gilmour with his 20 helped them out not a little.

When the Peterboroughs went to bat they only needed four runs to tie and Dumble and Rogers easily made these after Stocker was bowled.

NOTES.

No regular umpire was chosen to officiate, anyone who felt inclined took a hand at it until he got tired.

Strange to say the ball didn't go over the fence once during the game, consequently there were no fours made.

When the Trinity School nine went to bat for the second time every man was bowled, not one being stumped, caught out or run out.

Guy Rogers' stand, which resulted with 22 to his credit, was indeed a brilliant showing for so young a cricketer. His runs were piled together by careful play in which his form showed out to good advantage. He is a man for the first eleven, where he will likely be found hereafter.

The result of the next game by either the first or second eleven will be looked forward to with interest.

The Toronto cricket club won from the Trinity School first eleven Saturdna by four wickets.

FOOTBALL.

The Peterborough Public School football team went to Keene Saturday afternoon to play a friendly game with the Public School football team of that place. The two elevens lined up in the field as follows:

| Keene. | | Peterborough. |
|---|---|---|
| F M Langlin | goal | F Nesbitt |

Referee Mr. Wigmore.

The Peterborough boys won the toss and decided to kick against long odds, viz.—the sun, the wind and the somewhat steep grade. No score was made in the first half, but when the teams changed goals and the visitors had the grade with them they were successful in winning a game. This was the only goal scored during an hour and a half of exciting play. The teams were pretty evenly matched and the contest was a most interesting one.

The Peterborough boys speak in high terms of the courtesies extended to them by Mr. Purdy, of the Keene Public School, and also were well pleased by the decisions of the most impartial referee, Mr. Wigmore.

The teams were banquetted in the town hall at the conclusion of the game.

LACROSSE.

The Peterborough lacrosse club will choose their team from the following players for to-morrow's match on P.A.A.A. grounds:—Wasson, Begley, Heap, McCabe, Mein, Davidson, Phelan, Dobbin, McDonough, Lipsett, Glover, Temple, Borland, Logan, Lynch. W. E. Lech, field captain.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Its amusing to hear some of our country cousins saying: "They have the old boat fixed up in good shape." Evidently they cannot understand that it is the new steamer "City of Peterborough."

Counting from Healey's Falls, some 56 miles from Peterborough, there are in all some 39 steamers, carrying from three to three hundred and fifty passengers, all of which are fitted up with either single, double or triple expansion engines, and with single or twin screws, with the exception of the largest palace boat afloat on these waters, the "City of Peterborough," which is a side wheeler and is considered just about right for modern travel, speed, safety and comfort.

Peterborough citizens no doubt know that the river Otonabee is one of the most picturesque rivers in Ontario, and consequently the "City" has been plying the waters night and day since her trial trip, and is greatly in demand for forthcoming excursions.

The "Adam Watson" annual picnic from ports along Rice Lake to Hastings yesterday per steamer "Daisy" was a grand success, the ladies particularly being in abundance, two to one being the order of the day, as the ladies went free. Mr. Watson is a most courteous and painstaking manager, and saw that everything was carried out Al.

The steamer Daisy, Capt. Chas. Calcutt, arrived in port Saturday morning well laden with market produce from the Lake and landing stages along the route.

The steamer Beaver of Gore's Landing, Capt. Harris in command, was also in port Saturday.

The City of Peterborough commenced her popular Saturday afternoon trips down the river day before yesterday. It was largely attended.

Bills are out announcing the excursion per City of Peterborough to Jubilee Point under the auspices of St. Peter's Court No. 225, Catholic Order of Foresters, Thursday, June 21st. The steamer Daisy will in conjunction with the above, run from Keene, calling at all landing stages along the route.

Mr. Robert Jackson, the genial manager of the Jubilee Point hotel, has employed a number of expert fisherman to fill a contract for 150 lunge. He intends giving those attending the picnic on the 21st inst. a fresh fish dinner, which will be something unique.

The Christian Endeavour Society's picnic took place Friday down the river to Jubilee, and was well attended, returning home about 8:30 p. m.

The young lady of Cobourg, who had the misfortune to lose her watch at the Farmers' Institute picnic, Jubilee Point, the other day, has through her advertisement, which appeared in the EXAMINER, recovered the same.

The fishing season has this day set in, and the anglers may be seen paddling their own canoes down the river, being, by the way, as requested by an invitation issued by the "Finney Tribe,"—quite a number of invitations have been issued.

Human Nature.

When a man begins to show marked attentions to a young lady, the other young ladies who would like to be in her place speak of his fondness as "infatuation." It is only those who have no interest in the matter who are willing to admit that it is a case of "love."—Boston Transcript.

A man who subscribes for a weekly newspaper in Georgia recently deducted four cents from his yearly subscription because he missed three issues. This is the same man who climbed over the fence for fear of wearing out the gate hinges.—Atlanta Constitution.

"Hit doan pay," said Uncle Eben, "to lose yoh tempuh, an' good nature am er good blessin' to a community. But dah am 'casions when er man hez ter git mad er be a hypocrit."—Washington Star.

It is tarnal hard to keep soul and body together. But it is harder to keep your mouth together.—Buffalo Courier.

The man who believes only half he hears generally gets along pretty well if he selects the right half.—Puck.

A Very Queer Craft.

There came trailing into Quarantine the other day, says the New York World, one of the queerest crafts that has ever passed inside the Hook. Save for the fact that she bore no guns about her decks and that her name—Turret Age—was painted on her bows, the marine sharpe would have all taken her for some ship of war.

The crew of the queer vessel describe her as a whaleback, and in certain respects she it one. But she is so different from the common type of whalebacks first launched on the Great Lakes that she may be said to represent a particular type of her own.

A peculiarity of this peculiar craft is the manner in which she is steered. Instead of her steam steering gear being attached to the rudded quadrant over the ship's median line, it works at the starboard side and is operated by a single steel shaft that passes along from the bridge. She is 311 feet long over all, 38.2 feet beam and 24.1 feet depth of hold. When loaded with full cargo there is, by actual measurement, only five feet four inches free board in salt water and four feet eleven in fresh.

Under fair conditions the Turret Age is capable of making about eleven knots She was intended to be speedy, however, and the main advantage derived from her type is the economical cargo-carrying ability. On her present voyage from Sydney, Cape Breton, she brought 3,200 tons of coal. Through the build of the Turret Age it is possible to discharge cargoes similar to this in about thirty hours, which in itself is an economical feature of some importance. The vessel was built by William Doxford & Son, of Sunderland, England, who were the builders of the Turret, another peculiar craft.

A New Litany.

From tailors' bills, doctors' pills, sudden chills and other ills—deliver us.

From want of gold, wives that scold, maidens old and by sharpers "sold"—deliver us.

From babies' cries, half-baked pies, a pair of black eyes and stinging flies—deliver us.

From seedy coats, protested notes, sinking boats and illegal votes—deliver us.

From modest girls, with waving curls and teeth of pearls—well, never mind.

Canadian Oarsmen Abroad.

LONDON, June 18.—Out at Henley-on-Thames the usual pastoral quiet is rapidly giving place to daily scenes of charming activity. Wright and Ryan, the Canadian oarsmen, are here and delighted with their surroundings, and express themselves as eminently satisfied with the course. Guy Nickalls, who won the trophy last year, is the prime favorite for the Diamond Sculls, and deservedly so. He is a first-rate athlete and an excellent oarsmen, lacking, however, the style which seems peculiar to Canada, and which the British are quick to perceive. Ryan for this reason is now sharing with him the distinction of favorite, and the betting is at evens. When he is more familiar with the course and can show in his daily spins what he is capable of in the matter of speed he will, it is believed, take first place. Both the Toronto men are in good health.

The Intercolonial Conference.

LONDON, June 18.—The friends of the colonies in the city are very much chagrined at the statement on behalf of the Government made by Mr. Sidney Buxton, Parliamentary Secretary of the Colonial Office, in the House of Commons, to the effect that the Earl of Jersey, the Imperial delegate to the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa, had received no mandate even to express the views of the Imperial Government. The Pall Mall Gazette says that he should have plenipotentiary powers or nothing at all unless the conference is to be merely a big "talkee talkee."

Drowned in the Humber.

TORONTO, June 18.—A little boy named Walker, whose parents live on Bloor street west, went swimming with two companions in the Humber on Saturday. He got beyond his depth and was drowned before assistance could arrive.

Young Man Drowned at Elora.

ELORA, June 18.—Robert Loaney, aged 21, went bathing with several of his companions in the saw-mill dam. All at once one of his friends missed Loaney. They dived and found the body, life extinct. His home was at Riverview. He was a Good Templar.

Rejoice With Us!

Only a few times in many years has been our pleasant privilege to give the ladies of Peterborough that which every lady appreciates most—a new dress of seasonable fabrics, just when it is most needed—AT HALF OR LESS THAN HALF PRICE. But, while we do not make much on these two lots of Dress Goods, you save from 25 to 50c. on every yard.
"It's Fair's way."
Don't let your dress speak of a prosperous past, but be up to date in the fashion, as our low prices enables you to be.

DRESS IN GLOVES.

The colour, make, and fit are what you need when you are out. If you dress without the proper effect in gloves, you are out of style. Our glove display comprises everything in this line in vogue this season.

There are fads in bonnets and dresses and wraps,
And fads so funny we love;
And though it may seem unlikely perhaps,
'Tis a fact there is a fad in a glove.

On the crinoline dress there are plenty of jokes,
And the fad is a subject of jest;
But the glove that suits both young and old folks,
Is at Fair's—it leads all the rest.

CUT THIS OUT

SENTENCE ON HOOPER

Twenty-five Years for Attempting to Drown His Wife.

HE SPEAKS FOR THREE HOURS

From Copious Notes, and Claims That Witnesses and Jury Were Prejudiced Against Him—The Jury Ably Defended by the Crown.

THREE RIVERS, Que., June 19.—Hooper spoke for three hours yesterday from copious notes which he took during his trial, claiming that witnesses and jury were prejudiced against him.

Mr. McMaster, for the crown, replied that the jury was as intelligent a one as could be found in this country. The judge, before passing sentence, said that the prisoner had had a fair trial, and that his own relatives if they had been on the jury could not have done otherwise than give the same verdict. Hooper was then sentenced to twenty five years in the penitentiary.

THE COXEY ARMY.

They Renew the Agitation Once More—Imported Bombs for the Capitol.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—C. T. McKee, Christopher Columbus Jones, Commissary, has opened headquarters in Moor's hall for the purpose of recruiting another Coxey army to start for Washington, June 25, to take part in a proposed monster demonstration on July 4.

McKee says he will raise another army which he hopes will number 2,500 men.

He gave a glowing description of the condition of the Coxey army now encamped on the outskirts of Washington and said they proposed to stay in Washington until Congress passed the Coxey good roads bill.

"Business failures continue to increase," said McKee, "and thousands are suffering the pangs of hunger, while others are driven to suicide, and before the snow flies I fear we shall be in the midst of a bloody revolution."

Resolutions were adopted requesting Gen. Coxey to come to this city and address a mass meeting of commonwealers next Sunday.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—A morning paper here publishes the plot of anarchists to blow up the National Capital, White House, National Treasury, etc. The leader in the plot is said to be Honore Jackson, who narrowly escaped hanging with two anarchists in Chicago and who was an active spirit in the Louis Riel rebellion in British America. The plot is said to be the outgrowth of the Coxey movement.

Fatal Accident at St. Johns, N.B.

ST. JOHNS, N.B., June 19.—A singular and fatal occurrence took place here yesterday morning. An old three story wooden building, containing three families and belonging to Miss McCormick who lived on the lower flat, suddenly collapsed into a heap of ruins. Of eight persons buried in the ruins, seven were taken out alive and but little injured. Miss McCormick died before she was released. The young girl who slept with her was only slightly injured. The men, who slept together on another flat, were saved by a long bedpost which sustained the weight of material above.

Accident to an Artilleryman.

ST. CATHARINES, June 19.—A serious accident happened to one of the members of the Welland Field Battery on Saturday afternoon. J. Clark, of the Port Colborne battery, was leading one of the cavalry horses to water when the animal became unmanageable. Clark was kicked in the hip and fell heavily to the ground. He remained insensible for several hours. He is now lying at the hospital in a critical condition.

Evangelist Belleville Found.

PORT CREDIT, Ont., June 19.—Evangelist Belleville was committed and taken to Brampton jail for attempting suicide at this station Saturday morning. Trackmen found him early in the morning with his head lying on the rail, and while being taken to the village authorities he broke away and plunged into the Credit river, from whence he was rescued with difficulty.

Killed by a Moving Train.

WALKERVILLE, Ont., June 19.—James Doyle, an employe of the Ontario Natural Gas Company, was instantly killed at Pelton yesterday by a working train on the Lake Erie & Detroit River Railway. He jumped from the moving train, but his clothing caught and he was drawn under, five cars passing over him. He was a horrible sight, being literally cut to pieces.

Killed by a Falling Tree.

HEPWORTH, Ont., June 19.—Shortly after dinner yesterday a young man named Gordon Worach and two younger brothers were chopping down a tree on lot 28, D line, Ambin. In falling the tree struck a stub, which broke off, striking Gordon on the back of the head, and causing his death in about two hours.

Died From the Effects of Morphine.

DETROIT, Mich., June 19.—A. L. Benton, aged 28, a despondent baker, who was once proprietor of the Benton house at Ridgetown, Ont., was found dead in his room, 112 Washington avenue, Saturday night. On a table was found a bottle of morphine, of which he had partaken.

ANTI-LORDS MEETING

Resolutions to Be Submitted by the Liberal Federation

FOR ABOLITION OF THE LORDS

The Power Exercised by the House of Lords to Mutilate and Defeat Reforms Passed by the Commons Should Cease to Exist.

LONDON, June 19.—The anti-Lords conference will be opened in Leeds at eleven o'clock on Wednesday morning, with Spencer Watson in the chair. The committee of the Liberal Federation will submit to the conference three resolutions:

First.—That the power now exercised by the House of Lords to mutilate and reject measures passed by the representatives of the people in the House of Commons has been systematically used to defeat reforms is inconsistent with the right of free popular self-government and should cease to exist.

Second.—That the meeting call upon the Government to introduce a measure for the abolition of the Lords veto by providing that whenever a bill passed by the Commons shall be altered or rejected by the Lords the same bill may be reaffirmed by the Commons with or without such alteration, and be subject only to the royal assent and thereupon becomes law.

Third.—That the meeting assures the Government of the resolute support of the party in any steps that may be deemed necessary to enforce the passage of this great constitutional reform.

The Evicted Tenants' Bill.

LONDON, June 19.—The Daily News says that John Morley, Chief Secretary for Ireland, has assured the Nationalists of the Government's intention to deal with the evicted tenant's bill before the prorogation of Parliament.

Morocco's War Indemnity.

TANGIER, June 19.—The Spanish treasury official who came to Morocco on a warship to collect the first instalment of the war indemnity, which the late Sultan, Muley Hassen, agreed to pay to Spain in satisfaction for the attacks made upon troops, has been unable to collect any of the money or to obtain a definite assurance of its further payment.

CANADA'S PARLIAMENT.

A Quiet Day in the House—Other Ottawa Gossip.

OTTAWA, June 19.—Yesterday was private member's day in the House and very little business of importance was done. Several questions were put and answered and Mr. Perley moved for all the papers and correspondence in regard to the carriage of mails between Prince Edward Island and the mainland. He advocated the tunnel scheme.

This idea was supported by Mr. Wood, Westmoreland, who said that it would take ten years to build the tunnel and meantime something ought to be done to improve the present service.

Mr. Davies was of opinion that the Government was only fooling with this tunnel scheme, since it would cost between ten and twenty million dollars and they were not prepared to expend that amount.

Dr. Sproule, in moving for certain correspondence, read a number of letters from Dr. Wright, of Detroit, who was an inspecter of cattle at Windsor and Sarnia, who was dismissed from the position by the Government, to show that the doctor tried to blackmail the Grand Trunk Company and also the Government by threatening to publish articles in the press which at that time (in 1888) would cause the Canadian cattle to be scheduled in England if certain concessions were not made to him by increasing his salary and otherwise. The motion was passed.

Capital Gossip.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 19.—The Citizen yesterday called upon the Government not to sell the Thousand Islands, and last night the Journal says: "In all God's good world there is no territory better worth preserving from private monopoly and restriction, or which a better opportunity offers to preserve. A few score thousand dollars transferred to the credit of the Indian department of the Dominion is all that is required. It is earnestly to be hoped that the Minister of the Interior will eventually decide to recommend to the Government the public retention of the islands."

Judgment was given in the Exchequer Court yesterday in the case of Grier v. the Queen. The Tait estate, of which Mr. Grier is administrator, was awarded $83,022.01. The estate held a lease of certain lands on the Lachine canal, and on the termination of the lease the Government was ordered to pay for all fixtures and structures erected on the land in question.

There was another farmers' excursion in the city yesterday. It came from St. Anicet, Que., and consisted of over 200 persons. The greater part of the day was spent at the experimental farm.

Lord Aberdeen yesterday signed an order giving a pardon to Donald Morrison, the Megantic outlaw, who is confined in St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary, Quebec.

Alleged Misappropriation of Funds.

BUFFALO, June 19.—R. E. McIntyre, a young Canadian lawyer who has been doing newspaper work in this city, was arrested this morning on the charge of grand larceny. A warrant sworn out in Toronto in March, 1893, accuses McIntyre of misappropriating $5,000 belonging to his client Henry Becket. Mr. McIntyre denies the allegation, saying the money which is involved is $1,900 and is secured by notes. The whole affair is some legal transaction and McIntyre says it is a piece of spite work. He has been back and forth between here and Canada several times since and will fight extradition proceedings.

ON BEHALF OF WIMAN

Staten Island Petitions the Judge to be Merciful.

THE SERVICES IN THE TOMBS

Comforting Messages Received by the Convicted Man From Steadfast Friends—Says He is Quite Happy and Certainly Has a Cool Spot.

NEW YORK, June 19.—A petition is in circulation on Staten Island asking that mercy be shown to Erastus Wiman. The petition so far is signed by about fifty residents, but it is expected that when Wiman is brought before the bar for sentence the petition will contain several thousands of names.

Services at the Tombs were conducted by the Rev. Jamie Johnson, pastor of the Episcopal church of New Brighton. It was the church in which Mr. Wiman so long edified the congregation by acts of piety. He was in the foremost of the worshippers, and his name stands out prominently as one of the deacons. The Rev. Mr. Johnson was allowed to officiate in the Tombs by special request. He did so to illustrate the feeling that is entertained in the New Brighton church for Mr. Wiman. The latter was much affected, and as he knelt tears rolled down his cheeks.

"The Tombs," said Mr. Wiman to a reporter, "is the coolest and kindest place in New York. That much, at least, I have found out to my great satisfaction since I came here." Beyond expressing his pleasure that his experiences and surroundings were as agreeable as he had found them, Mr. Wiman had very little to say. He deprecated the publications which had appeared as to his experiences, visitors, etc., at the Tombs. He did not relish, he intimated, being made a hero of, and he felt that he should not be followed into the Tombs, at least not with sensational stories as to what was happening to him within its walls. "I am glad to see the newspaper men," said Wiman, "but I think there is no longer anything of public interest in my case."

As to the probability of an appeal, he said he was entirely in the hands of his counsel.

Mrs. Wiman, a slender woman of fair and delicate face and seemingly in feeble health, passed some time with him yesterday morning. The interview was held in the public apartment containing the library. Two of Wiman's sons were present at the interview between Mrs. Wiman and her husband.

Flowers, fruit, telegrams, visitors and letters poured in upon the prisoner all day long. He was permitted to have some of the flowers and fruit in his cell. Wiman did not give out for publication any of the telegrams or letters of sympathy. He intimated that he felt greatly consoled by them. At least fifty men called at the Tombs to see Mr. Wiman. Most of them were business and personal friends. Some were from Staten Island. Some of those who called to tender their sympathy and regard were employes of the commercial agency with which he was connected at the time of his downfall. Only a few of these were able to see Wiman. Wiman is bearing up well under his confinement and misfortune. His voice was very steady and his tone cheerful.

STOCK YARDS BURNED.

Five Thousand Five Hundred Sheep Consumed in a Jersey City Fire.

JERSEY CITY, June 19.—The Central Stock Yards and Transit companies' big abattoir at the foot of Sixth street caught fire Saturday evening and everything it contained was destroyed. The loss will be $1,500,000, covered by insurance.

John Morton, an employe, is missing, but it is not known that he was in the building at the time. There are two horses, 6,000 sheep and twenty cattle in the building. Of the sheep 200 were saved and the horses were taken out, but all the rest perished.

The burned property consisted of the abattoir, a two storey wooden building, 480 by 370 feet, two freight cars, four cars loaded with coal, the cattle barge Arlington, the coal barge Maria Hoffman, owned by the Berwynd-White Company; a refrigeratory with about 200 dressed hogs and 3,000 dressed beeves. There was also a quantity of machinery used in making oleomargarine and for reading purposes. Eighty men are thrown out of work.

Students and Troops in Conflict.

ROME, June 19.—The closing of Naples university on account of the riotous conduct of the students has been followed by a violent agitation, which culminated in a hot fight between the students and the troops this afternoon. The students had attempted to force open the university building and drive off the police. They refused to disperse when three companies of infantry came up on the double quick. Several stones were thrown at the troops and the leaders of the students defied them to charge. Eventually two of the three companies advanced with fixed bayonets. The students stood their ground, fighting desperately with clubs and stones. After many on both sides had been wounded the military arrested the leaders of the mob and scattered the others.

Committed Suicide While Insane.

NORTH SYDNEY, June 19.—One of the crew of the steamer Stockholm City, now here undergoing repairs, committed suicide, Saturday, while insane from the effects of alcoholism. He chased Rev. F. B. Slattery through Water street, then when the police tried to arrest him he cut the arteries in his arm with a keen knife. He bled to death in the hospital a few hours after His name was Alfred Harris, Liverpool, graduate of Oxford. As medical student he practiced abortion, was found guilty of wilful murder and sentenced to death. He was reprieved and the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment, then reduced to ten years and he was allowed at large as ticket of leave man. He was very well connected in England.

THE MOWAT GOVERNMENTS CARE OF THE AFFLICTED.

The record of the Mowat Government is brilliant in every particular, but in no respect is it brighter than in that of dealing with those poor unfortunates who have been bereft of their reasoning faculties. The true spirit of Christianity is exhibited by the ample provisions which the province has made for this unhappy class of individuals, and the philanthropic world looks with admiration upon the liberality of Ontario in this respect. True there are some who do not hesitate to condemn the expenditure on the care of the insane, as one of the extravagances of the Mowat administration, but such a charge meets with no sympathy among the intelligent citizens of the province of Ontario. The hearts of the Ontario people are in the right place, and no matter what their creed or nationality, they look with favour upon the words of Him who signified his approval of kind deeds to the unfortunate, in the words: "For as much as ye have done unto to the least of one of these, My little ones, ye have done it unto Me."

The care of the insane, the blind, the deaf and dumb, is not only the duty of the public, but it should be esteemed a privilege, and it is so esteemed by all but a few carpers who, badly in need of a grievance, are ready to grasp at anything. The afflicted ones of Ontario are not only well cared for, but they are cared for at a very low cost. One of the serious charges preferred against the administration is that a host of eggs and pickles were consumed at these institutions, too many in fact, for which too great a price was paid. So far as the quality is concerned, he would be a base creature, indeed, who would object to these poor creatures having the very best that can be procured. Their lot is sufficiently sad, without curtailing them in the quality of their food. However, it is stated in some quarters that the asylums and institutes for the afflicted could be run much more economically, in other words, that the management is extravagant. Of course it is easy enough for some one on the outside who knows little or nothing of the requisites of such institutions to make charges of extravagance, but it is a more difficult task to substantiate these assertions. A fair way of ascertaining the truth or falsity of such charges is by comparison with similar institutions elsewhere. It might be well to state that since 1872 the province has expended the enormous sum of $14,000,000 upon hospitals, charities and asylums. It has five large asylums for the insane and an asylum for the idiotic, accommodating in all 4,803 patients. Besides, it has institutes for the deaf and dumb and blind, and grants aid to 97 charitable institutions. Here is a comparison of the cost of the maintenance of patients in the asylums of Ontario, Montreal, the United States, England and New South Wales, which is to the point and proves beyond question that, notwithstanding all the fault-finding of the Opposition grievance hunters, the Ontario institutions are run the most economically of any in the world:—

|---|---|
| Cost per inmate per annum for maintenance of patients in Ontario asylums based on average of three years | $138 43 |
| Montreal Protestant asylum, average for 1892 and 1893 | 151 12 |
| 78 U S asylums, average cost of maintenance | 227 88 |
| English asylums, average of 21 years | 151 84 |
| New South Wales asylums, average for 21 years | 193 96 |

Thus another peg is ruthlessly knocked from under the platform of Sir Oliver's opponents.

Another feature of the maintenance of the public institutions of Ontario is the relief that is afforded to municipalities by their existence by lessening local taxation. Since 1872 the Ontario Government has expended fourteen millions upon hospitals, charities and asylums. If these institutions had not been in existence the four thousand odd unfortunates that can be accommodated in our refuges would have to be maintained by the municipalities and, without the facilities now existing, the cost would be greater, and the unfortunates, doubly dear to their friends from the afflictions they suffer, would not be so well cared for. The Opposition complain of the cost of maintaining these institutions. They are more cheaply maintained in Ontario than in any other province in Canada or state in the Union across the lines. The total expenditure of the Ontario Government since 1872 in erecting asylums, etc., has been $4,200,000, making a grand total of $18,200,000 for erection and maintenance of these institution during the past twenty-two years. The expenditure has been straight and honest, and the Mowat Government are worthy, on these grounds, of a renewal of the lease of power they have discharged so faithfully and economically.

THOSE who know me are aware that in politics I am a Conservative, but that does not prevent me from acknowledging the merits of a political opponent. Sir Oliver Mowat is an honour to the Province and to Canada, and I agree with Principal Grant, another Conservative, that Ontario cannot afford to dispense with his services. The people cannot afford to ignore honesty in politics, or to display want of appreciation of those who manage our public affairs well.—Rev. R. E. Knowles, Presbytorian Minister, at Ottawa.

WHAT might have happened to the richest province in the Dominion if any easy-going politician had had charge of its strong-box? What plunder there was for a gang! We have timber limits worth tens of millions; we could stand a debt of twenty or thirty millions as easily as Quebec. A politician of easy virtue would have lavished these millions on heelers and hangers on, who, in return, would be enthusiastically voting him a god. Does not this thought throw some light on what we have escaped, and on what we owe to the man who has been in charge of our strong-box for twenty-two years?—Principal Grant.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

As Well as Ever

After Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cured of a Serious Disease.

"I was suffering from what is known as Bright's disease for five years, and for days at a time I have been unable to straighten myself up. I was in bed for three weeks; during that time I had leeches applied and derived no benefit. Seeing Hood's Sarsaparilla advertised in the papers I decided to try a bottle. I found relief before I had finished taking half of a bottle. I got so much help from taking the first bottle that I decided to try another, and since taking the second bottle I feel as well as ever I did in my life." GEO. MERRETT, Toronto, Ont.

WARSAW.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Address and Presentation.

On the evening of Monday, the 11th inst. a goodly number of members and adherents of the Presbyterian church Warsaw, assembled at the manse to say good bye to the pastor's wife on the eve of her departure for Regina, N.W. T. to visit her aged mother and other relatives. As soon as all were comfortably seated, and a general conversation going on, Mrs. Robt. Knox, South Dummer, suddenly took a position in front of the pastor's wife and read the following address, and Mrs. Jno. Wason handed her a well filled purse:

DEAR MRS. HYDE,—As you are about to leave us for some weeks to visit your aged mother, we, the members and adherents of the Presbyterian church, desire to embrace the opportunity of expressing our warm regards for you as a friend, as well as the wife of our esteemed pastor. May your sojourn to the Northwest be a pleasant one, giving you renewed health and strength. We would now wish, in a humble way, to convey to you those feelings by asking your acceptance of this purse as a slight token of our sincere regard for you. May the Lord watch over thee and us when we are absent from each other. We will now say good bye till we meet again.

Signed, YOUR LOVING FRIENDS.

The pastor, the Rev. R. Hyde, very feelingly replied on behalf of his wife, thanking the members and adherents for their kindly expressions contained in the address, also for the well filled purse, which in a higher degree gave stronger evidence of their loving regard and good will for the welfare of their esteemed pastor's wife. After singing the hymn "God be with you till we meet again" the company took their departure for their respective homes.

A Shield Against Summer Complaints.

Lactated Food Saved Babies' Lives

A New Brunswick Mother's Testimony.

The daily use of pure Lactated Food conduces to safety, good health and happiness for the infants of Canada. Physicians declare that Lactated Food is a necessity for infants who are deprived of breast milk.

When this nourishing and life-sustaining Food is fed to the infant in summer time, it shields and protects from all the fatal complaints that can cut down so many poorly fed babies.

A New Brunswick mother, who has used Lactated Food, writes as follows:

"When my baby was born it weighed only four and a half pounds, and did not increase much in weight up to its second month. I was advised to use Lactated Food by a friend, and I am happy to say it worked wonders. My baby girl continued to grow and increase in weight, and now, at sixteen months, she weighs twenty-five pounds. She was not sick an hour during the hot weather last summer; I am sure Lactated Food was her great preserver. I wish every mother knew of the good qualities of this Food."

MAY MONTHLY REPORT.

Mr. Telford's Summary of the Month's Weather.

May, our flowery May, has again gone, although we can't say in beautiful style—constant raining and drooping frost have been our regular visitors not taking any part in our temperance prohibition phase in preparing for the general ballot exhibition. Let us now take a straight look at our departed friend. The month came in warm, but soon changed; on the fifth, to one degree below the freezing point, and again on the 12th down to two degrees or only 30 degrees above zero, only 6 times rising to or above 50 degrees at 1 p.m.; only 13 times at 70 degrees or a little above, leaving the mean temperature of the month at 54 21-31 degrees. Rain fell on 10 days to the unusual depth of 7 68-100 inches and eight times we had thunder storms or distant thunder; nine times we had frost, some snow once; five times solar corona, three awful gales and twice fog. The following are the different points from which the wind was blowing at sunrise during the month, respectively, namely: South-west, 7 days; south-east, 6 days; north-east, 9 days; west, 2 days; and north-west, 7 days. THOMAS TELFORD.

Congratulated on His Appointment.

HAMILTON, June 19.—W. Murton is today being congratulated upon his appointment to the shrievalty of Wentworth county. Although the appointment has not been gazetted, Mr. Murton has the assurance of Hon. J. M. Gibson that he has been selected for the position.

Found Drowned.

QUEBEC, June 19.—The body of an unknown man was found floating in the river at Silloy on Saturday evening. Coroner Belleau is endeavoring to have the body identified. It is thought that it is the body of Gauthier, who lost his life in the recent St. Alban's disaster.

Struck by Lightning.

PETROLEA, Ont., June 19.—Last night about 8 o'clock, and during the storm, a barn belonging to Mr. English of this place was struck by lightning and totally destroyed. The building, containing implements, etc., was insured in the Mercantile.

Missing Woman Found.

HAMILTON, June 19.—Louisa Andrews, the woman who wandered away on Friday, was found by her friends on Saturday, none the worse for her wanderings.

Nothing Strange.

Intelligent people, who realize the important part the blood holds in keeping the body in a normal condition, find nothing strange in the number of diseases Hood's Sarsaparilla is able to cure. So many troubles result from impure blood, the best way to treat them is through the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla vitalizes the blood.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF.

Proposed Increase of Duty by the Spanish Government Discussed.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Senate made good progress yesterday with the tariff bill. Beginning at 10.30 with the schedule N, "Pulp, paper and books," it disposed of that and the succeeding chapter N, "Sundries," and at 6.15 o'clock, when it adjourned, it had reaches the free list. The only important check to rapid progress was caused by the amendment of the Finance committee to place bituminous coal on the dutiable list at 40 cents a ton. Mr. Hill made his expected fight and moved to strike out the paragraph and to place bituminous coal on the free list. After a long and somewhat heated debate Mr. Hill's motion was rejected by 51 to 7.

An interesting debate, marked the first day's consideration of the Hatch anti-option bill in the House. Mr. Hatch and Mr. Bryan (Dem., Nebraska), advocated the passage of the bill on the ground, with others, that gambling transactions in food products affected injuriously the prices of those products, and Mr. Warner (Dem., New York) opposed it for various reasons, one of which was that the bill would not put a stop to gambling, but destroy or harass legitimate traffic. In the earlier part of the session bills were passed authorizing railroad companies to issue interchangeable 5,000 mileage tickets with privilege of excess baggage (requested by the National Association of Commercial Travelers), and granting right of way to the East Nebraska and Gulf Railroad Company through the Winnebago reservation in Nebraska.

Spain threatened retaliation upon the United States for the abrogation of the Cuba commercial treaty whereby the sugar products of that country are admitted free into the United States in return for a material reduction in the rate of duty on exports from the United States has not long been delayed.

Representative Harter (Ohio) has been informed that the Spanish Government has ordered an increase of 24 per cent. on the duty on all classes of shipments from this country to Cuba, and that this new rate will take effect July 1. Mr. Harter thinks an easy remedy for this kind of retaliation, which is also threatened by Germany, is to attach to the tariff a provision doubling the rate of duty upon all articles coming here from any country which may increase existing rates of duty upon articles produced or manufactured in the United States.

Happy days and restful nights result from using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It so regulates all the bodily functions and strengthens the nervous system that worry and fatigue are comparatively unknown and life is truly enjoyed. It is certainly a most wonderful medicine.

The endorsements of Sousa's band by musicians, press and people, without the inevitable conclusion that the band is without an existing peer, and that no music lover can afford to miss its concert to be given in this town on Friday afternoon. Bandmaster Sousa has fifty perfect musicians, and his two grand vocal artists are all equally renowned and equally great, and the combination is one which can hardly be resisted by the music lover, the critic or the average popular auditor. Friday afternoon, June 22nd, opera house.

How to Keep Cool on Election Day.

Take a trip on the steamer Columbian from Chemong around the lakes to Lakefield on June 28th. It is the first trip of the season and you will enjoy the beauties of nature instead of fuming, sweating and sweltering over politics. The Columbian will connect with the morning train from Peterborough at Chemong and run through that beautiful chain of lakes around the Horn, arriving at Lakefield in time for the evening train to Peterborough, where you can learn the result of the election and enjoy a night's rest. The fare is only 50 cents, children half price.

A Pleasing Entertainment.

It was truly a happy crowd of old and young that assembled at St. Andrew's last evening. From 6 to 8 p. m. tea was served to large numbers. Probably never before did so many of the congregation, both from country and town, enjoy together a social tea and conversation. A large number of the local ministers and their ladies being present dined together. Shortly after 8 p.m. the pastor, the Rev. A. MacWilliams, took the chair. The meeting was opened by singing the familiar hymn, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," after which the Rev. Mr. Young led in prayer. Mr. MacWilliams then in a very few words expressed his great pleasure at seeing so many present on such an occasion, at the true friendship that prevailed, and his delight at seeing so many of his brethren in the ministry on the platform. The following programme was then rendered:—

"Praise ye the Lord" ..... Gounod
Choir.
Address ..... Rev Mr Grant
"God is Love" ..... Shelly
Choir, solo by Mr Mulligan
Address ..... Rev Mr Thom
"O Lord, how Manifold" ..... Barnby
Choir
Address ..... Rev Mr Trotter
Solo—"The Holy City" ..... Adams
Mr Mulligan
Address ..... Rev Mr Young
"Bless the Lord, Oh my Soul" ..... Smart
Choir
Address ..... Rev Mr Torrance
Quartette—"Christian, the Morn Breaks Sweet-O'er Thee" ..... Barnby
Mrs H Jones, Miss Maggie Fowler, Mr Mulligan and Mr R Gray
Address ..... Rev Mr Goldsmith
"The Strain Upraise" ..... Mason
Choir.

When the choir had finished their last selection Rev. Mr. Goldsmith at once arose and in choice language highly complimented them for the delightful music of such a high order so artistically rendered. He therefore moved that a hearty vote of thanks be tendered them for the delightful music furnished. The motion was eloquently seconded by a highly laudatory speech by Rev. Mr. Thom, and being put was heartily responded to by the audience. This choir contains many excellent voices, and already under the able training of Mr. Mulligan, has attained to great efficiency.

Hearty votes of thanks were also given the speakers for their excellent addresses, their encouraging words, their hearty congratulations at the great prosperity of the congregation during the past three years under the pastorate of the Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, and their kind wishes for future success. The ladies of the congregation also received a hearty vote of thanks for the excellent tea furnished. A most enjoyable and successful social evening was then brought to a close by singing the doxology and the benediction by Rev. Mr. Goldsmith.

Are you languid and weak? Stick to Beef, Iron and Wine as prepared by Jas. Lynch, chemist and druggist, 168 Hunter street.

THE NOMINATIONS.

Three Candidates Nominated for the Legislative Assembly.

The official and formal nominations of candidates for the Legislative Assembly, took place before Sheriff Hall, Returning Officer, at noon to-day. The proceedings were entirely formal and there were no addresses. The following nominations were made:

J. R. STRATTON, nominated by Mr. Peter Hamilton, seconded by Mr. Wm. Yelland.

H. C. WINCH, nominated by Mr. Jos. Forster, North Monaghan, seconded by Mr. Robert Fair.

J. A. DAVIDSON, Smith, nominated by Mr. J. J. Brealey, seconded by Mr. M. T. Lane.

At Norwood to-day Mr. T. Blezard, Liberal, and Mr. J. Lancaster, Conservative, were the only candidates nominated.

A FINE SCHEME.

The nominations for members of the Provincial Legislature, for the West Riding of Peterborough, as will be seen in another place, comprise three names. The names of Mr. Stratton and Mr. Winch were expected to be put in nomination, but the name of the P. P. A. candidate, Mr. J. A. Davidson, of Smith, is a surprise to those who do not know so well the tactics of the Conservative party in this contest. It may as well be said at once that the nomination of Mr. Davidson is what is popularly called a "fake." It is well understood that Mr. D. O. Sparrow, a prominent official of the "P.P.A." organization was in town last week and arranged that the P.P.A. vote should go to Mr. Winch, and, while Mr. Winch is anxious to have the support of this organization, he is also anxious to not have the fact known. As is well-known, the P.P.A. is organized chiefly to oust the Mowat Government, and, of course, its support is pledged to the Opposition candidate—in this case Mr. Winch. While many members have joined the P.P.A. with an honest motive of promoting principles which they believe should have ascendancy, there are others who are using the organization as a political scheme. The nomination of Mr. Davidson is merely a "blind" to deceive the electors who may not be in possession of the real facts. It is made to try to show that Mr. Winch is not in harmony with this organization, but the probability is that Mr. Davidson when he comes to hear of his nomination will promptly decline it. The probability is that his name will never reach the ballot paper. But his nomination will serve the purpose of the parties interested and will be used by them to try to show for the enlightenment of a large body of the electors who cannot regard with favour any alliance with the P.P.A. that a P.P.A. candidate is opposing Mr. Winch, who, in truth, has been nominated in his interest. How is the great Conservative party in West Peterborough fallen, when it is compelled to resort to such subterfuges. Let us have a straight fight and no fakes.

ASHAMED OF THEIR WAR CRY.

Considering that Mr. A. F. Campbell, of Algoma, who spoke on behalf of Mr. Winch at the Opera House on Friday night is not a candidate in this campaign, the Review devotes an undue amount of space to his defence. It founds its defence of Mr. Campbell and its criticism of Mr. Stratton on Mr. Campbell's denial that he ever expressed a desire "to bind the Roman Catholic hierarchy hand and foot." As was pointed out in the EXAMINER a day or two ago, this language was alleged to have been used in 1890 and was repeatedly published, and the fact that Mr. Campbell waited for four years to give it denial, suggests the not unnatural inference that such a statement has been causing inconvenience to the party which Mr. Campbell supports, and though that party is anxious to reap the benefit, in certain quarters, of such sentiments, yet they are afraid to openly make use of them and hence Mr. Campbell is anxious to deny a statement that served a good purpose in the Equal Rights campaign of four years ago. It is creditable to him in one sense that he professes to be ashamed of such sentiments, but a man and a party are known by the company they keep, and in this riding at any rate the same parties are working for Mr. Winch's interests that supported Mr. Carnegie last election. And doubtless some of the supporters of Mr. Winch, would, perhaps like to deny many things they said in 1890. For instance, Mr. Poussette, who appears on Mr. Winch's platform and who represented him at Thursday night's meeting in the Opera House, would like to deny what he said at the McCarthy meeting here in the campaign of 1890. As is seen by the Review Mr. Poussette is thus reported:

"Mr. Poussette said he did not purpose to detain them with any lengthy speech, but there was one thought which he wished to leave with them. For the last 20 years the Roman hierarchy has boasted that they held the balance of power in this country and the Equal Rights Association now asked them to consider whether it was better for that state of things to exist or whether it was better to elect independent men to go to parliament and hold the balance of powor. (Cheers) He asked them, as sensible men, whether it was better for them to leave the balance of power in the hands of these independent men of the Equal Rights Association or in the hands of the Roman hierarchy. (Applause.) He then called upon Mr. A. R. Kidd, the Equal Rights candidate in the East Riding."

It is no wonder, in view of the desire of Mr. Winch and his party to ride two horses, that in his interest Mr. Campbell denies the use of the sentiments attributed to him. The fact is the same parties who who carried on the so called "Equal Rights" crusade in 1890 are now working hand and foot with Mr. Winch and as their platform of that date is embarassing the cue is to repudiate their utterances and sentiments of the former campaign.

The committee on arrangements regarding the celebration on Dominion Day have succeeded in engaging the I. O. O. F. silver band of Belleville to come to Peterborough for the First. The band is an A. 1. organization and out of the many applications which were received in answer to an advertisement in the Toronto papers, the Belleville boys were chosen.

Final arrangements have been made with Hand & Co., of Toronto, and a most magnificent selection of fire-works will be sent here for the evening display, which will be the finest of its kind seen in this section for years.

REFORM COMMITTEE ROOMS TO-NIGHT.

A Big Rally of Workers Requested.

Mr. Stratton would like to meet all his supporters and workers at the Liberal Committee rooms to-night. He is very grateful for the active interest they have taken in his behalf and on behalf of the Mowat Government. It is, however, desirable that he should meet them all to-night to compare notes and to consult over important steps to be taken to make sure the return of the Liberal candidate. There are encouraging reports from every part of the riding, still the greatest danger is in over confidence. There should be no relaxation of effort till the day when triumph crowns the works of the present campaign. Mere success is not enough, there should be a decisive triumph that will serve to give the most emphatic endorsation of the cause of honest government in West Peterborough. It is to be hoped, therefore, that there will be a full attendance, including every worker and supporter of Mr. Stratton, who can make it possible to be present.

THE CAUSE OF THE LABOURING MAN.

The following is a copy of the letter handed to the chairman of Mr. Stratton's meeting in the Opera House, on Thursday night, June 14th :—

MR. CHAIRMAN,—I see all the newspapers are full of politics, advocating the farmers' cause, the merchants' cause and the manufacturers' cause and all other people but the labouring man, whose name is never mentioned. I see the City Fathers have all their labouring men hired for $1.00 per day, who have been idle since last fall. The wages used to be $1.25 per day, and now they have reduced them to $1.00. Have they reduced the town officials, or school teachers? How is a man going to keep a family on this, working three months out of twelve at $1.00 per day? We understand there is a union among the merchants to close his or her store at a certain hour which is passed by the Mowat Government and if anyone refuses to comply with this he is made pay a fine. If a labouring man quits at union hours he is discharged and another man put in his place. They tell us the working man has great reforms in Canada. Up at the Sault St. Marie, the Canadian Government is building at one side and the American at the other. At Canadian side masons work 10 hours a day and get $2.50 per day. At the American side they work 8 hours a day and get $4.00 per day. This is the difference between long and short hours. At the gas works and water works the men also work till pitch dark. We suppose the Canadian Government think the best way to do with the working classes is to starve them out. So what we want is 8 hours a day and nothing less will suit us men, working outside work in towns and cities. Which ever candidate gives us the best promise is our man.

As Mr. Stratton stated at the Opera House on the above occasion, the EXAMINER now states on his behalf that all legislation tending to meet the demands of the labouring classes will receive his hearty support. He has always supported the cause of the labouring man and when the time comes for voting upon legislation, which in the interests of the working man demands a shortening of the hours of labour, consistently with the security of his employment, it shall have his hearty support and his vote.—ED. EXAMINER.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Rev Mr. Edwards, Retiring Pastor, Remembered by the Epworth League.

At the close of the Epworth services last night, in the Charlotte street church, the following address was presented accompanied by the gift of a watch :

REV. SIR AND BRO.,—On the eve of your departure from this conference and from the pastorate of Charlotte street Methodist church, we, the members thereof, wish to convey to you our most sincere regret for the unavoidable separation.

In the faithful discharge of the duties incumbent on you as pastor, you have held up to our view "The great Fatherhood of God" in all its aspects. You have not forgotten that in it was the brotherhood of man.

Many of us have been consoled by you in the hour of affliction, sympathizing with us during times of anxiety and troubles, and have felt, we trust, to our spiritual advantage. your wise counsels, which had all the greater effect, knowing that they sprang from, not a mere formal discharge of pastoral duties, but from unfeigned brotherly love.

We pray the Almighty, disposer of all events, to be as near to you in your new appointment in Kingston, as we believe he has been in the past, and though it is only natural that we should feel sad at this rending of pastoral and social ties, yet we know there is a "rift in every cloud" and we trust that in your new field of labour you are about to enter on, both yourself and family may feel and realize that the true brotherhood of man, like its eternal source, "The Fatherhood of God," is not confined to any special locality.

We present you as a slight token of the esteem we hold you in, and of the regret we feel in parting from you, this watch. It's record is of fleeting moments, an emblem of ever changing time, but we trust you will believe us sincere when we say that our regard and affection for you are permanent, and that your stay among us will be an ever present and pleasant memory.

Signed on behalf of the congregation,
A. L. DAVIS,
Recording Steward.

The address was read by Mr. L. Sherlock and the presentation made by Mrs. Jory. Rev. Mr. Edwards suitably and feelingly acknowledged this token of the kindly feeling entertained towards him. There was a large attendance present to take leave of Mr. Edwards, who with his family, left on the 11.45 C.P.R. express to-day for his new field of labour, the Brock street Methodist church, Kingston, one of the best of the second class stations in the Montreal conference. Rev. Mr. Edwards during his pastorate here has faithfully fulfilled his duties and won a warm place in the hearts of his congregation.

MR. STRATTON'S TWENTIETH MEETING.

A BIG RALLY AT LAKEHURST.

Addresses by Dr. Goldsmith, Mr. Roger and Mr. Stratton—Mr. R. Renwick in the Chair.

A largely attended meeting of the electors of Harvey was held at Lakehurst last night. Mr. R. Renwick occupied the chair.

Dr. Goldsmith opened the meeting and dealt at length with the questions of prohibition and the license question.

Mr. G. M. Roger followed, showing the weakness of the Opposition on the subjects of biennial sessions, the ballot and the abolition of government house.

Mr. Stratton was most cordially received and dealt clearly and forcibly with the satisfactory financial record of the Mowat Government, their efficient Administration of the Department of Agriculture, Education, and in fact all the departments of the government. He showed conclusively how greatly it would be to the interests of the people to return to power a government which had so long and ably managed the affairs of the Province of Ontario.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers, and the indications are that this portion of West Peterborough will roll up a big majority for Mr. Stratton.

The Port Hope district relay riders, composed of Messrs. C. W. Chislett and R. W. Johnston, Port Hope; G. J. Hopkins and G. L. Hay, Peterbrough; and J. H. Webster and T. Lawless, Grafton, made the third best average along the line, Sarnia making the first and Belleville the second. The average of this district was 18.30 miles an hour.

LACROSSE.

The Peterborough and Shamrocks lined up for their first encounter with each other in the league series this afternoon at three o'clock in the P. A. A. A. grounds as follows :

Temple, it will be observed, who was one of the best men on the Shamrocks, has followed Jack McDonough over to the Peterboroughs.

GENERAL.

The local baseball nine will play in Port Hope with the league team of that place on Saturday next. Port Hope will doubtless import about nine players for the occasion.

By an error of the official scorer in the cricket match on Saturday Mr. W. J. Drope was not credited with the clever catch by which he retired Renison.

BASEBALL.

Port Hope and Bowmanville played ball on Saturday, the former team winning by 10 runs to 0. The Port Hope papers state that it was anybody's game up to the sixth innings, and yet at that time the Port Hopes had scored their ten runs and their opponents had not sent a man across the plate. Judging by this statement the Port Hope's must have a team which is liable to go to pieces at any minute if it was anybody's game when the score stood 10—0. Such a statement in the home paper of a team is a dead give-away on the nine. Fancy the Peterboroughs thinking it was "anybody's game" when the score stood 10—0 in their favour.

Thousands of Men Returning to Work—Outlook Very Hopeful.

PITTSBURG, June 19.—The settlement of the coal miners' strike, and the return to work yesterday of 15,000 of the 20,000 miners in this district, has given an impetus to all kinds of business, and the situation is more hopeful than at any time for months.

BELLAIRE, Ohio, June 19.—The attitude of the United Mine Workers in the sixth district of Ohio is encouraging. Nearly 2,500 men found work in the mines in this part of the Ohio valley yesterday. About half of the miners in the district will await the result of the conference at Columbus to-day. The soldiers have all gone home.

MARTINS FERRY, Ohio, June 19.—The miners at Laughlin Nail Works, Gaylord, Long Run and other mines returned to work yesterday. A general break is expected. The Wheeling Creek miners are still out. Several factories are getting ready to resume work.

ALTOONA, June 19.—A portion of the miners in the Fair and Cambria district went to work yesterday morning. All others, it is thought, will go in to morrow. Long trains of coal, which had been side tracked during the strike, are now passing through this city.

CLEVELAND, June 19.—Reports received from points along the Cleveland, Lorraine and Wheeling railroad show that work was resumed at only two mines on the entire length of the road yesterday. These were at Rock Hill. The militia continues to guard all bridges and trestles. The miners in the New Lisbon district returned to work yesterday on the basis adopted by the Columbus conference.

OTTAWA, Ill., June 19.—The miners at Marseilles resumed work yesterday morning, but the La Salle miners refuse to go to work at the scale adopted by the Columbus convention. It is probable the Streator miners will resume work next Monday, as many of them are suffering for the necessaries of life. None of the bank mines in this vicinity (twenty in number) are being worked.

No Cholera in Hamburg.

HAMBURG, June 19.—It is officially declared there has not been a single case of cholera in this city this year.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 19, 1894.

The amount of wheat on passage to Europe is 39,336,000 bushels, a decrease of 2,128,000 for the week. A year ago the amount afloat was 44,808,000 bushels, and two years ago 31,376,000 bushels.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts all to-day. White is quoted at 62c and red at 61c. Oats nominal at 40 to 41c. Barley is quoted at 41 to 42c and peas at 66c.

Buffalo.—Cattle—300 cars on sale; very dull; 25 to 40c per 100 lower for good to choice, and poorer qualities 50 to 75c lower, with common stock hard to sell at any price. Sheep and lambs—35 cars on sale; still demoralized; wethers, good to best, $3.15 to $4; mixed, $2.50 to $3.15; common to fair, $1 to $2.25; good to fancy lambs, $3.25 to $4.

At the opening of the New York stock market the industrials were strong with an advancing tendency, while railway shares were inclined to weakness. St. Paul and Union Pacific were especially weak, the former selling down 3/4 and the latter 1 per cent. The other prominent railroad stocks declined 1-8 to 5/8 per cent. in sympathy.

In New York the grain market movement was a factor of much significance. Yesterday's 2c advance in wheat was a surprise, chiefly no doubt because it was unaccompanied by the usual reports of damaged crops. But to those who have been watching the wheat market from a broader standpoint the recovery was by no means startling. A decline in prices so rapid as that of the five months past must in the nature of the case have some time reached an end and it was equally certain that the very momentum of its downward movement would carry quotations at the last far past the limit of commercial reasons. It does not follow that this month's recovery is to be continuous, but there can be no doubt that a readjustment of values on a better basis must follow the stopping of the unprecedentedly rapid marketing of wheat stocks for Russia and South America.

Fatal Result of Delay.

Sickness generally follows in the path of neglect. Don't be reckless! but prudently take a few doses of Scott's Emulsion immediately following exposure to cold. It will save you many painful days and sleepless nights.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Safe Beyond a Doubt.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—All doubts, if any still exist, of the revenue cutter Bear, have been set at rest by the reception, by Captain Shepard, of information that the Bear on May 26 arrived at Port Etches, Alaska, a point 300 miles north of Sitka. The Corwin was at Sitka on June 30 last. The reported wreck of the Bear at Sitka was placed as having occurred on May 26, and, as no mention of the fact is made as late as June 3, Captain Shepard considers the report as absolutely groundless.

Hamiltonians Drowned.

HAMILTON, June 19.—The body of Willie Henderson, who was drowned in the bay on Saturday, has not yet been recovered, although grapplers have been almost continuously at work since the accident happened. In the case of Bert Moriarity, who was drowned near the grain wharf on Sunday morning, Coroner Woolverton will hold an inquest as there is a slight suspicion that deceased may have been shoved from the wharf.

The Floods at an End.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 19.—Reports from up river points show that the water is still falling fast and the general opinion is that very little (if any) damage will be done. The work of reconstruction on the Canadian Pacific is proceeding with vigor, and by to-night it is expected that trains will come through from Montreal to Vancouver with but one transfer between Katz Landing and Agassiz.

Lynched by a Mob.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 19.—Dr. Wright, residing near Forsyth, Ga., on Saturday was called to go on a professional visit to a patient several miles away. During his absence a negro named Ogletree went to his house and outraged Mrs. Wright. A posse was organized and the negro was captured this morning. He was recognized by his victim and immediately hanged by a mob.

A Possible Attack.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 19.—The steamer Silvia, which is expected from New York, may be the object of an attack on the part of the Whitewayites. According to the plans which have already been formulated they propose to get hold of all the cargo possible. A man-of-war now lying in the harbor will also land men at the slightest sign of trouble.

Canadian Firemen Win.

TONAWANDA, N.Y., June 19.—Volunteer firemen from all parts of the state and from contiguous Canadian towns took part in the competitions here yesterday. In the hook and ladder race the Niagara Falls, Ont., company took the first prize. Time, 1.03¼. The Grimsby, Ont., company took second in 1.05.

Workmen Buried Alive.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., June 19.—Twenty tons of cinder at the Lehigh Zinc Works yesterday caved in where workmen were undermining it and two laborers were buried alive. James Terry, when dug out, was dead, and James McCandless was found fatally injured.

Broke His Neck by a Fall.

MAXWELL, Ont., June 19.—George Lush, a farmer living near this village, fell down stairs yesterday morning and broke his neck, causing instant death. As he had been in poor health it is supposed he had an attack of faintness.

A Distressing Situation.

What a dreadful thing it is to wake up in the middle of the night suffering from cholera,—the nearest doctor a mile away and no one to send for him. Imagine a more distressing domestic situation, if you can; and yet cases of this kind are very common. The trouble, however, would never have become serious if the man of the house had a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer at hand, for it is a remedy that never fails to cure cholera, cramps, diarrhœa, or dysentery. All druggists keep it, 25c. for large New size.

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. ## THE WELFARE OF SAMOA

DEMANDS THAT IT BE PROTECTED BY NEW ZEALAND.

The Question of German Control—Pago-Pago the U. S. Coaling Station on the Samoan Island of Tutuila—Its Great Value and Beauty.

The Pall Mall Gazette the other day published an interview with Sir George Grey, formerly Prime Minister of New Zealand, on the Samoan question. After giving his views on the desirability of the annexation of the island to New Zealand, Sir George expresses his opinion that the United States would not for a moment tolerate the interference of Germany in the tripartite government of Samoa.

Although the United States have not a single naval arsenal on their west coast, they are absolutely secure, but they would not be if the Germans controlled Samoa. The mere frown of the United States was sufficient to prevent the German nominee from superseding King Malietoa.

Sir George earnestly favors the protection of Samoa by New Zealand, not from any motives of ambition, but simply for the welfare of Samoa.

The historical resume of events in connection with Samoa up to the present time is interesting. Formerly France, Germany and England seized any island in the Western Pacific Ocean that seemed to be ownerless or whose ownership might be in dispute between European powers. Finally England and Germany entered into a convention to regulate the annexation of islands in the Western Pacific. A line of demarcation defining the British and German spheres of action was agreed upon by Sir E. Malet, the British Ambassador, and Count Herbert von Bismark, German Under Secretary of State. Two treaties were signed. The one was "Relating to the demarcation of German and British spheres of influence in the Western Pacific." The other was entitled "Relating to the reciprocal freedom of trade and commerce in the German and British possessions and protectorates in the Western Pacific," which was defined as that part of the Pacific ocean lying between the 15th parallel north and the 30th parallel south latitude, and between 165 meridian of longitude west and 130 meridian of longitude east of Greenwich. A conventional line of demarcation was agreed upon, defining the spheres of influence of both powers.

This line starts from a point near Mitre Rock, northeast cost of New Guinea, on Solomon Islands, so that the three large northerly islands, Bougainville, Choiseul and Isabel, remained in possession of Germany, and afterward passes in a northeasterly direction toward the Marshall Islands. England and Germany mutually undertook to relinquish all previous protectorates or extensions of territory in that part of the Pacific situated on either side of the said line of demarcation and agreed that neither power should make fresh acquisitions of territory or oppose the extension of the other's influence. This convention did not apply to the Samoa, Tonga or savage groups, which remained neutral territory as before, nor to any islands already under the sovereignity or protection of other powers.

It is to the Samoan group, which lies within Germany's assumed sphere of influence and operation, that attention is now directed. The islands are in the South Pacific Ocean, and lie in the direct highway between San Francisco and New Zealand, distant about 630 miles from Suva, the chief port of Fiji. These islands

CHART OF PACIFIC OCEAN, SHOWING THE POSITION OF SAMOA.

[From San Francisco to Samoa, via Honolulu, is a distance of 5,332 miles; from Auckland, New Zealand, to Samoa, a distance of 1,363 miles. The former voyage takes about sixteen days, the latter about five.]

stretch east and west about two hundred miles, and contain an area of 1,650 square miles. Savaii, Upolu and Tutuila are the most important islands of the group, both politically and commercially. The remaining nine, two of which are uninhabited, contain but 150 square miles between them, and are comparatively uninteresting. Savaii, although nearly three times the size of Tutuila, and possessing, in proportion, more land fit for cultivation, is less valuable from a political point of view. Its shore is low and rocky, and the only harbor, Matautua, is unsafe between the months of February and March owing to the northeasterly gales which prevail during that period of the year.

The isle of Upolu, on the other hand, is an extremely important possession. Not only has it a large population and a great acreage under cultivation, but it possesses at least three harbors, one of which, Apia, is a good sized bay, and forms a safe anchorage for ships, which enter through a break in the coral reef.

Tutuila, the most eastern and smallest of the three islands, is more mountainous than either Savaii or Upolu and possesses several fine harbors on both sides. Pango-Pango or Pago-Pago Harbor, the United States naval station, is perhaps the most perfectly land locked harbor in the South Pacific Ocean. Its entrance is three-quarters of a mile wide, with surroundings of thirty-six fathoms. "About a mile from the entrance," says Captain Wakeman, who at the instance of a private firm examined its fitness for a coaling station, "we open out the inner harbor, which extends one mile west, at a breadth of 3,000 feet abreast of Goat Island, to 11,000 feet at the head of the bay, carrying soundings from 18 fathoms to 6 fathoms; while the reefs which skirt the shore are from 200 feet to 300 feet wide almost awash at low water." The craters of instinct volcanoes abound everywhere, and many signs and traces exist showing the volcanic origin of these islands.

Pago-Pago is one of the finest harbors in the Pacific. It was ceded to the United States by a treaty made in 1872 with Maungo, the chief man of the Samoan tribes at the time. From the reports of officers who were attached to the United States steamer Adams, when that vessel carried a Samoan commission, and Mr. Geward, an attache of the State Department, to the island from Panama, it is learned, "by that agreement the harbor of Pago-Pago was ceded to the United States, the condition being that the government at Washington should become the Samoan protector," the general opinion of the natives being that it was better to have the favor of this government than get into the grasp of Germany or England.

"The port of Pago-Pago," says an officer of the United States steamer Adams, which took possession of the place, "is a magnificent land locked harbor, secluded from dangerous winds coming from any quarter.

PAGO-PAGO, U. S. COALING STATION.

It is an admirable station for call for a line or steamers from America to Australia, and a valuable coaling place for men of war cruising in the Pacific Ocean. It can be readily fortified and might be made a stronghold in case of war.

THE U. S. VIEW.

How Our Neighbors to the South Attempt to Solidify Their Claim.

Another officer of the Adams wrote "The harbor of Pago-Pago, is the key position of the Samoan group and also of Central Polynesia, and is valuable as the chief stronghold for the protection of commerce in South Pacific waters. The islands are in the path of vessels from San Francisco to Auckland, from Panama to Sydney and from Valparaiso to China and Japan. They lie outside the track of hurricanes, and this helps to make them the most valuable islands in the South Pacific. Half way between Honolulu and Auckland, Pago-Pago is an accessible coaling and supply station for steamers, and with the Pacific mail steamers making it a port for coaling it would necessarily become the chief commercial place in that part of Polynesia. That is the view held by the Germans, the English and the Americans, all of whom are interested in controlling the affairs of the islands."

The present international agreement made by the three Powers in respect of Samoa was drawn up at Berlin just five years ago.

A conference was held at which Great Britain, Germany and the United States were represented and an act was signed guaranteeing the neutrality of the islands, in which the citizens of the three signatory Powers have equal rights of residence, trade and personal protection. The independence of the Samoan government is recognized as well as the full right of the natives to elect their King and choose their own form of government. A supreme court was established consisting of one judge styled the Chief Justice, and to him are referred all suits concerning real property and all civil or criminal causes in which foreigners and natives are simultaneously involved.

The triple control established by the Berlin Act was brought about by Mr. Bayard, now Ambassador of the United States to England, when he was Secretary of State in Mr. Cleveland's first administration. All the diplomatic efforts of that administration were directed to assuring the autonomy and independence of the islands. It would be easy to multiply quotations on the subject. The following declaration, made by Mr. Bayard on June 19, 1885, shortly after Mr. Cleveland had assumed office, has become a locus classicus and clearly shows the views which then prevailed in Washington with regard to Samoa: "The moral interests of the United States with respect to the islands of the Pacific, necessarily dependent in greater or less degree on our American system of Commonwealths, would counsel us to look with concern on any movement by which the independence of the Pacific nationalities might be extinguished by their passage under the domination of a foreign sovereign, and this would be equally true of possible English as well as possible German protection."

The same doctrine was frequently urged during the next four years, both by the President and by the Secretary of State, and it was stated with much clearness and emphasis by Mr. Cleveland a few weeks before leaving office, in a special message to Congress, dated January 15, 1889, on the subject of Samoa:

"Acting within the restraints which our constitution and laws have placed upon executive power, I have insisted that the autonomy and independence of Samoa should be scrupulously preserved according to the treaties made with Samoa by the Powers named and their undertakings and agreements with each other. I have protested against every act apparently tending in an opposite direction."

MR. BLEZARD'S ASHBURNHAM MEETING.

HIS EXCELLENT ADDRESS TO THE ELECTORS

Cordially Received by the People—His Own Record and that of the Government — Address of Mr. McWilliams.

A representative meeting of the electors of Ashburnham took place last evening, in the town hall of that village, in the interests of Mr. Thomas Blezard, the Reform candidate of the East riding.

Councillor John Smith was asked to take the chair and opened the meeting with a few remarks explanatory of the object of the assemblage.

Mr. Blezard was the first speaker and in the course of the delivery of his address, took occasion to remark that as Ashburnham was one of the corners of his constituency which he was unable to visit as often as he liked, it was with a peculiar pleasure that he now addressed an audience composed almost exclusively of residents of the prosperous little village.

In all the five election campaigns in which he had participated, Mr. Blezard asserted, he had never taken part in one in which such arguments had been used as in the present. Only the poorest and smallest of items had been picked up to use against the government in this campaign. Such items as how many dozen of eggs an asylum superintendent was entitled to use and other infinitesmial matters of a like ilk supplied the stock-in-trade for argument with Mr. Meredith's supporters.

In all the Opposition ranks, asserted the speaker, there is but one man who is capable of taking a place in a cabinet and that one is Mr. Meredith, but he, unfortunately, is a veritable weathercock, having at different times voted on both sides of almost every important question that had come before the legislature. No dependence could be placed upon him. He was a man, too, who had never yet gone to the country on any straight Conservative issue, but always contrived to work in some side issue, as the "Facts for Irish Electors" some years ago, and the other side of the question now, viz., the P.P.A. If Mowat had been a poor administration Mr. Meredith and his party soon have gained the power to ...seat the Government, but his administration has been such for the past twenty two years that his downfall had never yet been seriously threatened. There were times, Mr. Blezard admitted, when the Government would appear to be voting on the wrong side of a question and in consequence his constituents would ask him the reason for so doing. The answer was a simple one the Opposition trying to get a catch verdict in the House and have a resolution passed entailing a vote of want of confidence in the existing government. These questions against which the administration had to stand to a man did not affect the general good policy of the Government by any means.

In the 22 years of Sir Oliver's reign, said he, over $70,000,000 have been expended and the items of expenditure which have been objected to by the Opposition only amounts to one third of one per cent. of the total expenditure, or exact figures only one dollar out of $300, had been carped at. A business man who could look back at such a record in his own private concerns would be counted one of the as that was indeed a small percentage to have been laid out in a manner which such sharp critics could not find fault with.

Mr. Blezard then explained from what source the Government derived its revenue. A large percentage, he stated, was derived from the woods and forests. No one should object to the sale of the limits, as the children's education had to be looked after, and if these sales were not held, the electors would have to be personally subjected to a heavy tax to keep up the schools.

Mr. Blezard's further explanations of the timber limit question was listened to with close attention, and he was frequently interrupted with prolonged applause as the good points which he made in his argument struck home. He stated that when he was out making his first campaign fifteen years ago the speakers for the Opposition had, even at that remote date, warned the electors that direct taxation was about to fall on the people almost immediately, owing to Sir Oliver's timber policy. All these years had passed and yet the electors were no nearer it than then, but if Mr. Meredith had had his way this direct taxation would have been on the necks of the people now pressing them to the earth, for when the Dominion Government laid claim to the northwestern portion of our province comprising 100,000 square miles of timber limits, the leader of the Opposition argued in favour of the province giving way in the matter, but Sir Oliver had set his teeth and knowing himself to be right in his contention that the territory was Ontario's had taken the matter to the

to the Privy Council of the Imperial Parliament. The result justified him in the action he had taken, for this vast territory was proven to belong to the province and not to the Dominion.

In taking up the question of the surplus Mr. Blezard stated that the Opposition declared that the surplus was a myth, that there was in fact a provincial indebtedness, but gentlemen, said he, we can take you to the banks and show you $1,500,000 in cash there belonging to the province, and again we draw $379,000 a year interest on our investments. What do you call the principal gentlemen? What can you call it but a surplus? (Cheers.)

Touching on the erection of the new Parliament Buildings, the speaker claimed that there had not been a bill for a cent of "extras." The cost had not exceeded the final estimates which were submitted before the building was started. When these estimates were brought down Mr. Meredith had laughed and said that the cost would far exceed the sum stated, but when Hon. C. F. Fraser, then Minister of Public Works, indignantly took him to task for making such a statement and challenged him to lay his finger on a single estimate prepared by him which had been found to be less than the cost, the leader of the Opposition had to eat his words.

Concerning the question of having the provincial head of the educational institutions of Ontario as a cabinet minister, Mr. Blezard defended the action of Sir Oliver in conferring a portfolio on Mr. Ross. Why, said he, would you have a man who is handling one-sixth of the total expenditure of the province in a position where we could not get at him—in a position where he could not be attacked did his actions demand such a course to be pursued. Before Dr. Ryerson retired from the head of this department he earnestly pressed Sir Oliver to take his successor into the cabinet. The Senate of the Dominion was of the people, and it could prohibit good or bad measures as it saw fit and they could not be reached by punishment. It would never do, he thought, to put the head of the Educational Department in a position similar to that occupied by the Senate in this respect.

The grand success, which had attended the efforts of Hon. John Dryden, Minister of Agriculture to benefit the condition of the farmers, was handled by the speaker in a most able manner. He directed the attention of his audience to the success which the cheesemakers of the province had gained at Chicago where they swept the board and took diplomas away from the competing nations of the world. This he urged was the result of having a practical farmer for a Minister of Agriculture.

The travelling dairy, too, had accomplished wonders in the way of improving the class of butter made in the localities thoough which it passed. He was sure his audience would agree with in saying the services of Mr. Dryden could not be dispensed with.

Mr. Blezard claimed that he had done more for the riding than any man who had previously represented it. He himself had been personally responsible for the spending of $58,000 on the colonization roads and similar improvements throughout East Peterborough. He had actually spent $47 more in the riding last year than his predecessor had had been successful in getting for the constituency during all the eight he had been in the Legislature. He had been accused of "bribery and corruption" for bringing this money into the riding to be spent. He didn't care a jot what it was called. If it was bribery and corruption, then his constituents might look out for more of it, for as long as he represented East Peterborough he intended to do his level best to bring all the money he could into the riding. This opening up of the back townships had done wonders for the farmers in those sections, as they were now able to get from one section to another with comparative ease. He himself had gone through the woods with the survey, blazing roads across the riding. (Cheers.) These colonization roads had made those back township farmers prosperous and if the farmer was prosperous everyone else was naturally so. He did not go through the country like some people, talking about what he WAS GOING TO DO.

"No gentlemen," continued he, "it's not for anything I'm going to do that I'm coming before you, though I hope to do plenty more, but for what I have already done. I've got this money for you and I've seen that it was spent in your interests. It is the last time that I shall ask you to use your franchise for my benefit, as I will not again come before you asking for your support, as this will be my last term." (Cries of no, no.)

The temperance and biennial sessions questions were taken up and explained by the speaker in a manner which was eminently satisfactory to the large audience, as was evidenced by the applause which was generously meeted out to the speaker.

Regarding a statement which was made by Mr. C. W. Sawers to the effect that he had interrupted Mr. John Lancaster at his meetings and had not given him fair play, he wished to explain what these interruptions consisted of, if they could be called such. Mr. Lancaster had declared on the platform that Mr. Mowat had taken away all the municipal appointments from the county Council. He had pinned him down to this reckless statement and made him acknowledge that such was not the case. The chagrin which Mr. Lancaster and his friends felt at having to take back water at a public meeting led them to circulate the report that they were not getting fair play.

When Mr. Blezard closed his address the chairman called for Mr. Lancaster, or anyone who wished to speak for him, to take the platform when an hour would be given them in which to address the audience. As no person appeared Mr. J. B. McWilliams followed Mr. Blezard with a few complimentary remarks concerning that gentleman and also completely disabused the minds of those present of the idea that the Roman Catholic citizens were getting more than their due in the way of government appointments, as when the last return was brought down it showed conclusively that the Roman Catholics were just that is, according to the Roman Catholic population of the province, that representatives of that denomination were entitled to hold 73 more Government offices than they did at present.

The timber limits policies of the Ontario Government and that of the Dominion were then compared by the speaker, who showed most plainly that the policy of Sir Oliver Mowat was the correct one. He did not have to go far afield for an illustration. The Scott limits furnished just the example he wanted. The Dominion Government had sold this limit in the first instance for fifty cents a mile. The Gilmours, the Rathbuns and the Dickson Company had all lumbered off it, and yet the other day when placed in the market it brought the price of $450,000. If the Dominion Government had held this limit until now, the money would have gone into the public strong-box instead of into the pocket of a private individual.

Mr. McWilliams then drew attention to a pamphlet gotten out by Mr. Meredith and his supporters, in which an endeavour was made to show that the policy of the Mowat Administration in regard to the timber question had been the false one. An instance was cited in this little book of where the government had sold a strip of timber at a very low price in 1872, and where it was sold a few weeks ago by the speculator who purchased it, for an enormously increased sum. Mr. McWilliams pointed out that unfortunately for themselves the Opposition had gone a trifle too far back in hunting up the illustration—they had in fact gone back further than the time of Sir Oliver Mowat and had overlooked the fact that in so doing they were condemning themselves, as this limit was sold in the time of the John Sandfield Macdonald Government.

The meeting was brought to a close by cheers for the Queen, the Premier and for the popular Mr. Blezard.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

FIGHTING EXTRADITION.

Lawyer McIntyre Refuses to be Given Up to Canadian Authorities.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 20.—There promises to be the hottest kind of an extradition fight over the case of Ernest E. McIntyre, the young man who was arrested by the police on the charge of grand larceny, alleged to have been committed in Toronto about two years ago.

It seems that McIntyre was a lawyer in Canada. He has only worked at the newspaper business a little since coming to Buffalo. Most of the Canadians who are arrested here for offences committed over the border give up willingly and go back and face the music. McIntyre and his friends are going to make a struggle, and it promises to be a hard one.

The case came up before United States Commissioner Fairchild yesterday in the nature of an extradition proceeding. Detective Devine handed McIntyre over from the custody of the police to that of the United States Government represented by Marshal Watts. Detective Wm. S. Davis of the Toronto force was on hand to take him into the custody of the Canadian Government if he can get him.

Judge Fairchild read the warrant charging grand larceny and embezzlement, specifying that the accused has wrongfully taken $5,000 from Bickett on or about July, 1892. McIntyre pleaded not guilty and his lawyer demurred to the complaint. It was overruled. The hearing was then adjourned until Wednesday, June 27, and McIntyre was held in default of $7,500 bail.

Mr. McIntyre says that he was attorney in five actions for Bickett. Some property was transferred to him and held in trust. He says he made a tender of the balance, less his fees, before leaving Toronto. His client was not willing to allow the fee and there the matter rests.

He says he will subpoena witnesses and prove his innocence before Commissioner Fairchild. McIntyre says the case is one trumped up simply to get him across the border.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF.

The Sugar Schedule to be Further Revised in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—It is stated it has been practically decided by those in control of the tariff bill in the Senate, that there is to be further revision of the sugar schedule. It is understood the sugar schedule, as it will finally be adopted, will place a duty of 40 per cent. ad valorem on raw sugars and end there.

The discriminating duty of 1-10 of a cent against all countries paying an export bounty on refined sugars will be eliminated from the bill as it is claimed that the 40 per cent. gives ample protection to the refiners to say nothing of the differential that is allowed them. The sugar schedule will also be further amended so as to make it go into effect when the other parts of the bill go into effect—immediately upon its passage.

Another change will also be made in the wool schedule. As agreed to, the rate on the finished product in men's clothing is fixed at 45 per cent., while the duty on cloth entering into the manufacture of the same grade of goods is fixed at 50 per cent. This is a discrimination against the manufacture in this country that will be remedied by increasing the duty on the unfinished product to 50 per cent. The committee has also formally decided to permit the administrative act of June 10, 1890, to stand and this will cut from the bill forty-nine pages and remove a matter that would have caused much contention.

The tariff leaders of the House are preparing to handle the tariff bill expeditiously when it comes back. No exact programme has as yet been arranged, but the plans have matured sufficiently to satisfy those in charge of the bill that there will not be another long drawn out debate. If need be a series of special rules will be presented to close debate on the various schedules and then a final rule to wind up the whole question. Such a course will be adopted, however, only in case the debate gives promise of becoming interminable. It will not be used to limit a reasonable discussion of the Senate changes.

Betrayed His Father to Justice.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Because his father would only allow him five cents out of his weekly salary of three dollars, 16-year-old Otto Modery accused his paternal parent of stealing silverware from a firm for which he formerly worked. At first Modery denied the charge, but when shown the stolen goods acknowledged his guilt. The case was put in the hands of Detective Moran, of the Grand avenue station, who arrested Modery. Examination in his case was adjourned to June 26 and Modery was sent to jail.

Archbishop Ireland a Cardinal.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 20.—There is an interesting rumor in circulation in Catholic circles to the effect that Archbishop Ireland has been made a cardinal. Archbishop Ireland left for New York yesterday and it is said his mission is in this connection. It is known that a secret consistory was held in Rome to announce the names of the coming cardinals, and well-informed clergy believe that Archbishop Ireland has received notice of his elevation. This report, however, cannot be confirmed.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS.

Sir George Gray Speaks Warmly of the Principle of Home Rule.

HARCOURT TO BE A PEER

A Rumor That He Will Resign Leadership of the Commons at the Close of the Session—The Nobility and Welsh Church Disestablishment.

LONDON, June 20.—Sir George Grey, formerly Premier of New Zealand and Governor of Cape Colony, was feted by the National Liberal Club yesterday. The Marquis of Ripon, Secretary of State for the Colonies, presided. Sir George, in replying to a speech of welcome, made a warm defence of the principle of home rule. A recognition of the magic force of self government, he said, might re-unite in indissoluble bonds of brotherhood all sections of the English speaking people. Already that principle had been applied in the United States and why not give it the wider range for which arbitration had prepared the way. Probably, he said, there would never again be a war among the English speaking people. The speech was received with enthusiastic cheering.

Did the Ambassador Resign?

LONDON, June 20.—The report telegraphed from Berlin of the resignation of Sir Edward Malet, British ambassador to Germany, cannot be confirmed at the Foreign Office, since the officials who are accessible there profess to know nothing about it. It is surmised that some trouble has arisen out of the Anglo-Belgian agreement in regard to the Congo frontiers which has caused friction between the German Foreign Office and the British ambassador, but the report of the latter's resignation is not generally credited.

The Cattle Embargo.

LONDON, June 20.—In the House of Commons Mr. John Seymour Keay asked the Government what were the results of the enquiry into the condition of the health of Canadian cattle imported into England. Mr. Herbert Gardner, Under Foreign Secretary, said the enquiry was still proceeding. He declined to say in advance of the report of the experts whether or not there was any ground for hope that the restrictions might be relaxed.

Against Welsh Disestablishment.

LONDON, June 20.—At a meeting of members of the nobility, at which the Duke of Westminster presided, a committee was formed to conduct the campaign against the Government's proposal to disestablish the Church in Wales. It was agreed to contest every constituency in Wales at the general election. The Duke of Westminster subscribed £300 towards the expenses of the campaign, while other lords subscribed £100 each.

Sir William to be Elevated.

LONDON, June 20.—It is announced that Sir William Vernon Harcourt will retire from the Lower House at the close of the present session and then be elevated to the House of Lords. The question of a successor to him as Liberal leader is being actively canvassed. The choice seems to be between the Right Hon. Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Right Hon. Henry Asquith and the Right Hon. John Morley.

English Labor Associations.

LONDON, June 20.—A congress of labor electoral associations was held at Bradford, at which eighty delegates were present. The chairman announced the expectation of the labor association to add thirty representatives of labor to the membership of the House of Commons at the coming elections.

Protection of Pacific Islands.

LONDON, June 20.—At the colonial institute last evening, Sir R. G. Herbert presiding, Bishop Selwyn read a paper advocating the extension of British protection of Western Pacific islands, proposing that they be actively policed and under direct home control.

Congo Difficulty Settled.

LONDON, June 20.—The Berlin correspondent of all the morning papers agree in saying that the negotiations between Germany and Great Britain regarding the Congo state are progressing toward a satisfactory settlement.

Mr. Gladstone's Eyesight.

LONDON, June 20.—John Morley had a long conference with Mr. Gladstone yesterday. Mr. Morley reports that Mr. Gladstone's eyesight promises to become as good as ever.

Pleasure Launch Burned.

STOCKTON, Cal., June 20.—A naptha launch, with a party of sixteen persons on board, caught fire and was burned in the Stockton channel. The passengers, all prominent persons, had a narrow escape, being obliged to jump overboard and swim to shore. A young woman dived from a window in the launch and swam to another craft. Two of the men, one the owner of the launch, were severely burned.

Fire at Cheapside.

JARVIS, Ont., June 20.—A serious fire occurred at Cheapside yesterday morning, destroying George Sinclair's hotel and barns and Noble & Bodell's general store and telegraph office. Fire started in hotel barns. Very little was saved from either premises. Loss and insurance unknown. The stallion Burlington Chief, owned by Charles Stone, Nanticoke, perished in the barn.

The Troubles in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., June 20.—Messrs. Wood, coal merchants, of this city, one of whom was formerly Surveyor-General, started discharging coal from a vessel yesterday without a permit. The Board of Revenue seized the vessel and cargo, sealed the hatches and put a body of police and revenue officers on board. The Woods then paid the duties and got the permit.

EVERYTHING DISCUSSED BUT THE BY-LAW.

Memorials to the Governor General and to Sir John Thompson—Mr. James Stevenson, M. P., Endorsed For the Vacancy in the Senate—The Sewerage By-law Read a First Time but not yet Discussed.

It is extremely doubtful if the sewerage by-law will reach its third reading in Council this summer as already two special meetings have been held for the sole purpose of discussing this question and each time, owing to the lack of firmness on the part of the Mayor, other subjects have been permitted to take precedence of the sewerage question and the consequence has been that the by-law has only reached its first reading and has not yet been discussed.

As on the occasion of the last special meeting the members of the Council were permitted to take the fullest liberty in the matter of speaking as each of the different motions came up and it was no uncommon thing to see the more argumentative councillors on their feet half a dozen times concerning the one resolution.

On motion of Mr. Cahill an account of Mr. James Stevenson's for $22.75 was passed.

Mr. Roger introduced a memorial to the Governor-General calling his attention to the fact that Peterborough was a town of 13,000 inhabitants situated in a populous district, and would like the vacancy in the Senate to be filled by a representative

FROM THIS SECTION.

A committee composed of the Mayor, Mr. Hall, Mr. Cahill and Mr. Roger were appointed to revise the memorial as they saw fit.

Mr. Roger then introduced a resolution asking Sir John Thompson to consider Mr. James Stevenson's claims to a senatorship and endorsing him for the vacancy in that body.—Carried.

On motion of Mr. Dawson and Mr. White, driver Murphy, of the Fire Brigade, was granted $45 in lieu of the wages which he forfeited on account of being absent from duty being incapacitated by the injuries which he received in the Ashburnham fire.

The discussion on this question lasted for almost an hour. It was introduced by Mr. Brady who moved that the driver receive his full wages for the time he was absent. He spoke of the plucky manner in which Murphy had stuck to his team and finally stopped them, whereas, if he had jumped to save himself and let the team go a number of people certainly would have been killed by the runaways.

Mr. Hughes bitterly opposed such a grant being made, holding that the driver did nothing more than his duty. The council, he stated, had decided to economise and such a step would indeed be far from economy.

Mr. Brady thought it would have come in better taste if the councillor had talked economy at the time the was up for discussion. If it was a question of taking a trip up the lakes to-morrow he would guarantee that there wasn't a member who would introduce any economy talk into the discussion.

Mr. Dawson moved that he be granted one half the salary which he would have drawn had he been on duty.

Mr. Cahill moved in amendment to this amendment, that Murphy be granted $50 for the time he was off.

All three motions were put and each clique was so wedded to its own resolution that they voted all three down sooner than effect a compromise.

Naturally as all three motions were voted down there was nothing before the chair and business was at a deadlock.

Mr. Hughes wanted to re-introduce the motion giving Murphy half his salary, and was with difficulty made to understand that the resolution, being lost, was now out of order. Mr. Dawson then introduced his motion granting Driver Murphy $45 which was carried as stated.

When the question of the construction of the big outfall sewer finally came up for discussion Mr. Best advocated the laying of an 18 inch tile.

Mr. Dawson claimed that this would too small a sewer. He wished to see a three foot brick sewer laid. It would cost but very little more and would furnish far more work to the labouring classes. He would vote for this class of a sewer and no other.

Mr. Best pointed out that such a sewer would be FAR MORE EXPENSIVE.

Two such sewers as those mentioned had been constructed at Toronto Junction and it was found that the brick sewer cost $1.02 per foot more than that constructed of tile. He read the following letter from Alan McDougall, sanitary engineer, on the matter:

Councillor Best:

DEAR SIR,—I am very pleased to learn from the papers that you are still maintaining an interest in sewerage matters and are agitating for the construction of a sewer from George street to the river by way of Locke street. An 18-inch pipe will serve your town in all likelihood for all time. It will certainly be a good thing for the town to have an outfall sewer built. Prices are so low just now, the town would be a considerable gainer by constructing the sewer this year.

Yours truly,
ALAN McDOUGALL.

The laying of all kinds of sewers was then taken up and discussed until Mr. Hall brought the council to time by asking what in the world they ever spent so much money in getting a expert engineer, in Mr. Macdougall, to come to Peterborough two years ago and give his advice on the sewerage question if they didn't intend to follow it.

The report of the Sewerage Committee was finally adopted, as follows:—

GENTLEMEN,—Your Sewerage Committee beg leave to report that the matter of building sewers this year was considered, in committee of the whole, and it was decided to ask the town solicitor to draft a by-law for the construction of an outfall sewer from Townsend street to the river, and also a by-law to appoint an arbitrator to hold an arbitration with North Monaghan regarding extending the sewer through the township.

We also recommend that the solicitor institute proceedings with a view of extending the sewer from Townsend street to Brock street as a local improvement.

The by-law concerning the building of the sewer was then read a first time, and its various clauses will come up for discussion at the next regular meeting of the council.

One of the difficulties which will confront the council in having the by-law carried by the people will be that the laying of too small a sewer is advocated the people may in all probability vote the by-law down being under the impression that the reason it is put on a small scale is that it is only laid to serve the adjacent portions of the town.

The two money by laws for the issuing of debentures for school purposes and permanent improvements, as recently voted upon, were read a third time and passed.

REASONS WHY

THE MOWAT GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE SUSTAINED.

After 22 years of faithful service to the people, the Mowat Government is appealing for a renewal of the lease of power they have so wisely exercised. As a faithful servant is judged by his record, so the government of Sir Oliver Mowat appeals confidently on its splendid record in every department of the public services it controls. It will therefore be fitting at this time to submit the record on which the Mowat Government appeals to the people and judged by that record there can be no doubt of the result.

The most important branch may well be taken first, that of the Department of Agriculture, which Mr. Meredith and his friends consider of so slight importance that it should have no minister of its own, out should be tacked on as a side show to some other department. Below is the record of the Mowat Government as to the farmers: It has created a Department of Agriculture with a successful farmer as Minister; it has spent $2,731,310 in connection with agriculture in 22 years; it has collected and published farm statistics for the past twelve years; it has established the Agricultural College and Experimental Farm; it has organized and assisted 85 Farmers' Institutes; it gives grants to 90 electoral district and 357 township and Horticultural Societies; from 1872 to 1893 it gave $1,336,703 for Agricultural Societies; it gave $20,550 in 1893 to 12 other associations organized for the benefit of farmers; it has established a fund for loaning money to farmers on easy terms for tile-draining their lands; it has sent out travelling dairies which have visited 660 places in 3 years; it has started a special dairy school at Guelph at which 103 attended in the spring of 1894 and a special summer course for rural public school teachers at Agricultural College; it provided for the display of agricultural products at the World's Fair; it distributed 165,000 reports in 1893 and 1,200,000 bulletins in past three years; it will shortly establish experimental fruit farms; it manufactures at the Central Prison a high quality of binder twine which is sold direct to the farmers at low prices; 1,434 awards in agriculture were taken at the World's Fair out of a total of 1,685 for Canada, or 85 per cent.

The record of the Mowat Government in the management of our crown lands is as below: It has surveyed 275 townships, of which there are now open as free grants 156; it has located 22,000 persons, equal to a population of 92,000, in free grant townships; it has sold 1,801,520 acres of crown lands for $1,880,845: it has sold 4,234 miles of timber limits for $5,101,627. Bonus, say $1,205 per mile, or $1.88 per acre, just for the right to cut, still retaining the land; and dues $1 per 1,000 feet; it has collected for bonuses, dues, sales, etc., since 1872, $21,634,502; it has created two provincial parks—the Algonquin and the Rondeau; it has built 3,802 miles and repaired 8,417 miles of colonization roads and built 69,945 feet of bridges; it has spent on roads and bridges in the new districts nearly $2,500,000; it has established a bureau of mines and passed an advanced mining law, made provision for exploration with diamond drills and for summer mining schools; it has encouraged iron mining; it has examined and granted licenses to 540 cullers of timber.

The intelligence of a state is the basis of its freedom. Money wisely spent for education is money well spent. This is what the Mowat Government has done in the interests of education: It has expended $12,000,000 during 22 years on education; it put the Department of Education under the direct and responsible control of a Minister of the Crown, (a course approved by the late Dr. Ryerson, the Superintendent of Council of Public Instruction.); it effected a useful and important consolidation of the Provincial school laws; it has imvroved the school system on fifty distinct lines, making it the most complete and effective of any similar system in the world; it has done much to further higher education in the Colleges and University; it has expended a large sum for the establishment and equipment of a School of Practical Science; it has established County Model Schools, Training Institutes, a School of Pedagogy, Art Schools, Teachers' Associations and Mechanics' Institutes, etc.; it has dealt satisfactorily with the French and German Schools; out of every $8 spent by the Government, $1 goes for educational purposes; it has reduced the text books from a number in different branches of study, to one in each branch of study, and materially reduced the cost of text books; the Education Department took the only prize at the World's Fair for a complete system of education; for text books and the method of preparing them.

The labouring classes are the real wealth producers of the country, and are deserving of all the legislation the Mowat Government has enacted in their interests. This is the record of the Mowat Government as to the labouring classes:—It passed the Mechanics' Lien Act, the Employers' Liability Act, the Factory Act, the Railway Accidents' Act, the Act for the Relief of Co-operative Associations, the Creditors' Relief Act (which applies to wage earners), and the Franchise and Representation Act of 1885; it collects valuable statistics on labour, wages and cost of living; it passed the Masters' and Servants' Act, and the Act to secure compensation to workmen for injuries; it passed an Act to secure to wives and children the benefits of life insurance, an Act creating Free Grants and Homesteads, an Act providing for the establishment of Free Libraries, and an Act providing exemption from execution under the Free Grants and Homesteads Act; it passed an Act providing for the establishment of technical schools, an Act regulating the closing of shops and the hours of labour therein for children and young persons, an Act for the protection and reformation of neglected children, and an Act to enforce orders under the Act respecting Masters and Seavants; it passed an Act as to truancy and compulsory school attendance, an Act for the protction of persons employed in places of business other than factories, and the Manhood Suffrage Act; it passed an Act under which labour organizations may incorporate and register, the Woodman's Lien for Wages Act, the Registration of Manhood Suffrage Voters' Act, and the Conciliation and Arbitration Act of 1894 to settle disputes between employers and employees of labour; it has exempted from taxation living incomes up to $700 a year; its labour legislation is regarded as the most advanced and progressive of any self-governed country.

We honour our forefathers who fought and bled for the rights we enjoy, and we should honour Sir Oliver Mowat who has fought for provincial rights with a success that has never been varied by failure. He has established the legislative rights of the Province, after a series of appeals from the Dominion Government to the Privy Council, in the following cases:

The Insurance Case, the Escheats Case, the Rivers and Streams Case, the Act as to Assignments and Preferences by Insolvents, the Liquor License Case, the Boundary Award, the Indian Titles Case, re the Pardoning Power.

The winning of the boundary award in which he was opposed by Mr. Meredith, who sided with the Dominion, which tried to rob us of 100,000 square miles of valuable timber territory is a direct gain. If Mr. Meredith who now wants power, had been in power the Province would have lost millions of dollars worth of timber and minerals.

In a free country like Canada the voice of the people is the prime factor in its Government. The Mowat Government's record in giving the widest possible freedom of franchise shows that it has established Manhood Suffrage for the Legislative Assembly; it has provided the system of voting by ballot; it has passed effective and advanced voters' lists acts; it has perfected the law relating to election trials; it has consolidated and amended the election laws; it has readjusted and equalized the representation throughout the Province; it has provided for the registration of manhood suffrage voters in cities.

The record of the Mowat Government in relation to the municipalities is as follows:—It has produced a Municipal Law which, in the opinion of the late Chief Justice Harrison, "forms the most complete and perfect code of the kind that he knew of in any country of the world." This law includes:—Assessment and Exemption reforms; control of city police by commissioners; improvement of the law regarding watercourses, line fences, bridges and highways; consolidation, improvement and extension of the drainage laws; the local improvement plan for street improvements; extension and lowering of the municipal franchise; the establishment of industrial farms and houses of refuge; facilitating the purchase and abolition of toll roads by municipalities; abolishing the rights of municipalities to grant bonuses to manufacturers; it has distributed $3,388,777 to municipalities under the Municipal Loan Fund; it has invested $1,180,175 in drainage debentures and works.

The record of the Mowat Government as to the Administration of Justice shows that it has instituted radical law reforms and materially simplified the law practice; it has given us the Judicature Act and the Land Titles' Act; it has given increased jurisdiction to Division Courts, and has cut down the fees in that court; it has given us the Drainage Trials Act; it has decentralized the administration of justice by conferring jurisdiction on local judges and providing for weekly sittings of High Court for the east and west at Ottawa and London; it has cut down the fees of registrars, sheriffs and other officers from 10 to 50 per cent.

The record of the Mowat Government in the important matter of temperance is of a practical and progressive character. In the promotion of temperance interests the Mowat Government has efficiently regulated the liquor traffic; it has given us an Act which has reduced the number of licenses from 6,185 in 1874-5 for population of 1,700,000, or one license for 274 to 3,369 in 1892-3 for population of 2,135,000, or one license for every 633 of population; it has furnished a special Text Book on Temperance to the Public Schools; it has by means of education and legislation assisted in the diminution of drunkenness so that convictions for this offence have fallen from 4,032 in 1877 to 2,652 in 1893, although total population was increased as shown above; it has given the Province a Local Option Law which enables the entire prohibition of the liquor traffic for beverage purposes in municipalities; it has conferred the powers of prohibition as to new licenses upon a majority of electors in polling sub-divisions; it has given legislation which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquor on vessels navigating the lakes and rivers of the province; it has increased the age of "minors" from "sixteen" to "eighteen," thus subjecting to a penalty those who sell liquor to persons under eighteen years of age; it has provided a penalty when liquor is supplied to any person under twenty-one years or habitual drinker in respect to whom notice in writing has been given, prohibiting such licensed victualler to sell or supply liquor to the party in question; and gives greater authority to search unlicensed premises and "dives," to seize liquor and arrest persons found on said premises.

The Premier has said:

"If the decision of the Privy Council should be that the Province has jurisdiction to pass a prohibitory liquor law as to sale, I will introduce such a bill in the following session if I am then at the head of the Government. If the decision of the Privy Council is that the Province has jurisdiction to pass only a partial prohibitory liquor law, I will introduce such a prohibitory liquor law as the decision shall warrant."

Our financial interests are the most important and these have received such careful attention that all unprejudiced opinion pronounces the highest encomiums upon the efficiency of their management. With debts, defaultings and corrupt expenditure in other provinces, we can point with pride to the record of liberal, and at the same time, prudent expenditure in the public interests. Out of a total of $71,500,000, expended since 1872, the Mowat Government has returned to the people the following sums, amounting to about $40,000,000, or 84 per cent. (with other smaller sums):

|---|---|
| Agriculture | $ 2,731,310 |
| Education | 12,035,310 |
| Maintenance of public institutions | 12,271,170 |
| Hospitals and charities | 2,008,775 |
| Public buildings and works | [illegible] |
| Administration of justice | 6,671,085 |
| Colonization roads | 2,433,412 |
| Aid to colonization and other railways | 5,959,084 |
| Municipal loan fund distribution | 3,388,777 |
| Of miscellaneous expenditure of $1,908,000, $ was returned to the people | 1,272,000 |
| | $56,989,680 |

In addition to this liberal expenditure it has a surplus of $6,135,480.

Out of the total expenditure under Supply Bill in 11 years, 1872-82, the Opposition opposed only $204,000 out of $32,750,000 or about one-half of one per cent.

Or, out of a total expenditure under Supply Bill in 22 years, 1872-1893, of $71,750,000, they made exception to only $346,000, an average of but 48 cents, to every one hundred dollars, or less than one-half of one per cent.

In the matter of aiding colonization railways the record of the Mowat Government stands thus:—The "Railway Fund" was increased in 1872 from $1,500,000 to $1,000,000, and a "Railway Subsidy Fund" was created by setting apart the sum of $100,000 a year for 20 years; aid has been granted to hundreds of colonization and other railways in the new districts and elsewhere, 1872-93, amounting to $5,950,084. Their liberality in this respect has secured the building or projected building of over 3,000 miles of railway in Ontario.

From a humanitarian point of view the record of the Ontario Government in respect to the care of the afflicted and unfortunate is a proud one. It has expended over $14,000,000 since 1872 upon hospitals, charities and asylums; it has five large asylumns for the insane, and an asylum for the ioditic, accommodating in all 4,893 patients, maintained at a lower per capita cost than any asylum in the states or other province: it has institutes for the deaf, dumb and blind, and grants aid to 97 charitable institutions; it leads the world in its care of the afflicted classes.

The record of the Mowat Government as to public works and public buildings is a bright spot in the corruption and extravagance that have marked the methods of other Canadian governments. It has expended over $8,000,000 on public works and buildings (including $1,300,000 for construction of new parliament buildings) since 1872; it has expended nearly $3,000,000 on the erection and improvement of asylums for the insane and idiotic; it has expended nearly $400,000 on the erection and improvement of institutes for the blind and deaf; it has has expended nearly $800,000 for the erection and improvement of educational buildings.

A government with such a record must commend itself strongly to the hearty support of the electorate.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

Like a Miracle

Consumption—Low Condition

Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Miss Hannah Wyatt
Toronto, Ont.

"Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians

RELEASED BUT TO DIE

Morrison, the Megantic Outlaw, Succumbs to His Disease.

HE WAS FREE ONLY FOR A DAY

The Delay of the Ottawa Authorities in Granting Pardon to a Man on the Brink of the Grave Causes Some Indignation in Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 20.—Donald Morrison, the notorious Megantic outlaw, whose sensational capture, trial and conviction for manslaughter created so much excitement some five years ago, died at the Victoria hospital yesterday afternoon.

Morrison was sentenced to fourteen years imprisonment, but from the moment he entered St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary his health began to fail and efforts were constantly made to bring about his release. As his health continued to grow worse his friends and a large number of sympathizers renewed their efforts to obtain his pardon from the Federal Government which were at last successful, and Morrison was declared a free man on Monday. He was immediately brought to Montreal and placed in the Victoria hospital. He was in a very weak state, but his condition did not appear alarming.

A short time after his removal he was visited by several who had been instrumental in bringing about his release. The Rev. Mr. Patterson visited him about two o'clock in the afternoon, with whom he was able to converse and it did not then appear that the end was so near. Shortly after this hour, however, his condition gradually grew worse and he passed away quietly surrounded by a few friends.

Considerable indignation is expressed that Morrison's release was delayed by the Government authorities.

THE HARTLEY TRIAL.

Mrs. Hartley and Ling Up for a Preliminary Hearing.

BRANTFORD, June 20.—At the police court here yesterday morning Matia Hartley and Henry Ling were examined in the preliminary trial on a charge of having murdered Caleb Hartley, husband of the female prisoner, by having administered poison to him at New Durham on May 13.

Both prisoners pleaded not guilty. Ling has confessed that Mrs. Hartley confessed to him the fact of her having administered poison to the deceased.

The female prisoner seemed to feel her position very keenly. She was dressed in black and wore a heavy black veil.

Dr. Haight, of New Durham, who attended deceased in his last illness, was in the box mostly all day. He described deceased's condition when he first saw him and detailed the symptoms as they manifested themselves. It was only the day before he died that he became satisfied Mr. Hartley was suffering from poisoning. He called in Dr. Wright, who concurred with him. The analysis of the stomach of the deceased had revealed a considerable quantity of arsenic.

The remainder of the hearing was taken up with corroborative medical testimony, after which the preliminary trial was adjourned until to day.

New Brunswick's Religious Excitement.

FREDERICTON, N.B., June 20.—Religious excitement appears to be the order of the day about here now. Last week there was a sensation in the shape of a scandal. Now two men high up in the Episcopal Church have severed their connection with that church and embraced the Roman Catholic faith. One is Rev. Finland Alexander, for years the trusted sub-dean of Episcopal cathedral. As soon as Bishop Kingdom got information of the fact he suspended Alexander and cancelled his authority. This action was taken in consequence of Alexander's intention to publicly explain the reason for his change of views which the bishop cut off by suspending him. Professor Stockley, professor of political economy in the University of New Brunswick, who came out from England over a year ago, has also announced that he agrees with Alexander and will also join the Roman Catholic Church. It is said that Stockley was originally a Roman Catholic and only embraced Episcopalism out here for effect.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

Sunday Cars for Hamilton.

HAMILTON, June 20.—A large number of citizens, among whom were many who live a long distance from the church and wished to attend, have been agitating for a limited Sunday service on the Hamilton street railway. At a meeting of the directors of the street railways it was decided to give a limited service as an experiment and the cars will be running on Sunday next. The Sunday hours will be from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., 2 to 5 p.m., and 6 to 10 p.m. Conductors and motormen will work only half the day and only volunteer men will be employed. If the cars are well patronized the service will be continued indefinitely.

The Shooting of Conductor Turner.

ST. CATHARINES, June 20.—The four tramps who made such a brutal attack upon G.T.R. Conductor Turner at Jordan a week ago, were brought up on remand before Police Magistrate Comfort yesterday. Fresh information was sworn against them by G. T. R. Detective Day, charging them with shooting with intent to kill, and they were remanded until Wednesday the 27th on account of the still precarious condition of Conductor Turner, who is apparently making hardly any progress towards recovery.

Death of Archbishop Tache.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 20.—His Grace Archbishop Tache died here this morning. A very critical surgical operation was performed on Monday, his doctors agreeing that the operation was the only thing that could possibly save his life. In his very weak state the surgeons were unable to administer anæsthetics. He stood the operation remarkably well and yesterday morning was much easier. In the afternoon he took a relapse and sank rapidly, passing away peacefully, as in a deep sleep.

Drowned at Toronto,

TORONTO, June 20.—Willie Summers, aged nine, was fishing with some other lads from the Don embankment, near Queen street, yesterday, when he fell into the river. He was got out in a few minutes. Efforts to resuscitate him failed.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Kells' Sale.

As the time draws near for commencing the enlargement of the store occupied by R. H. Kells & Co., extra efforts are being made to clear out the stock to save removal and damage. Enormous sacrifice is the order of the day, every day, and prices are crumbling down. Values are reorganized daily, which means that the firm are compelled to do so by the force of circumstances. Ladies will do well not to miss the bargains. Time is short. 1dw

How to Keep Cool on Election Day.

Take a trip on the steamer Columbian from Chemong around the lakes to Lakefield on June 26th. It is the first trip of the season and you will enjoy the beauties of nature instead of fuming, sweating and sweltering over politics. The Columbian will connect with the morning train from Peterborough at Chemong and run through that beautiful chain of lakes around the Horn, arriving at Lakefield in time for the evening train to Peterborough, where you can learn the result of the election and enjoy a night's rest. The fare is only 50 cents, children half price. 6d143-1w

Of Sousa's grand concert, which will be given in Peterborough, at the Opera House. Those who fail to listen to probably the most graceful and capable of Bandmasters, to fifty of the most accomplished living musicians, and to two great vocalists of international renown, will be the losers. And when they learn after the concert how much they have missed, they will only have themselves to blame. Peterborough has never been favoured with a more magnificent concert than the one in prospect. Concert begins at 2 p.m. sharp. Prices of admission,—Box seats, $1.00; reserved 75c., general admission, 50 and 35c.

H. Thompson & Co. Stock.

The sale of the bankrupt stock of Stationery, Wall Papers, Fancy Goods, etc., of the late firm of H. Thompson & Co., 406 George street, offers exceptional opportunities for procuring very reliable goods at lower prices than has been offered for many a day. A visit to the store will reveal such reductions in every department as cannot fail to impress the most cautious and active buyers. As this is a peremptory matter and the goods must be turned into cash within a limited time, no reasonable offer will be refused for goods. Chances are open for business, and professional men, clergymen, bankers, accountants, societies, Sunday schools, churches and householders generally to sort up and stock up with A. No. 1 goods, at prices fully 25 per cent. cheaper than the best offers that can be made. Read the advertisement in another column.

PERSONAL.

Mr. G. J. Early, P.G.M., left yesterday morning for Paris, as a delegate to the Grand Lodge, Good Templars.

Mrs. Casey, of Napanee, is spending a few days in town, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. M. T. Ostrom, 16 Weller street.

The Rev. Mrs. Ball, sister of the late Hon. Geo. Brown, arrived on the C.P.R. noon train to-day, and is a guest of Mrs. VanEvery, Rubidge street.

Mrs. R. J. Nethercott and children, with the mother of Mr. Nethercott, who have been visiting in Peterborough, returned to Wawanesa, Manitoba, last night.

The following is taken from the Rochester Democrat: "The many friends of Eugene J., youngest son of Mr. Michael Dywer, of Rochester, N.Y., are happy over his appointment as assistant city attorney. Mr. Dywer, who is only twenty two years of age, was a faithful student and passed a brilliant examination and his course will be upwards; he is a prominent member of St. Bridget's church." Mr. Dywer is a nephew of Mrs. Arthur McGarrity, Edinburgh street, Peterborough.

RIVER AND LAKE RIPLETS.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

There is a marked difference between the out-of-date two block walk on George street and a glide on the promenade deck of the new palace steamer City of Peterborough. The Horticultural Gardens have the centre of the town, but the "City" holds the centre of attraction for all of that. At least that was the verdict pronounced by the knightly wielders of the lacrosse stick after the delightful moonlight excursion down the river per the new steamer City of Peterborough Monday evening, which was largely attended. The band played not "Annie Rooney" or "Annie Laurie," but the very latest up-to-date selections, while the orchestra, was busily engaged in manipulating the fiddle and the bow—some were fast and some were slow, just to suit the heel and toe—watch was kept up till the earlier hours of the morning, when all returned home apparently well pleased with their evening's outing. These moonlight excursions promise to be the hit of the season, as quite a few are booked. The above excursion hitched upon their palace barge below the locks, thereby loosing no time in its lockage.

Quite a number of the fair sex, thinking that there would be no scow, decided to stay at home, but were sadly mistaken.

On account of the inconvenience of a double lockage it is deemed necessary to have the scow placed at the P. and A. street railway terminus.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

On Monday night St. Paul's Society had a very successful and instructive temperance meeting conducted by the Temperance Committee. The topic was:—"Temperance in all things," and was thoroughly taken by answering twelve questions as given in the Golden Rule. The following members answered the questions in their order: Messrs. Webster, Bennett, Connal, Martin, Miss F. Dixon, Miss Code, Messrs. McCallum, Johnston, Nelson, Wood, Rev. E. F. Torrance and Miss Quinn. Misses L. Dixon and E. Montgomery and Messrs. Nelson and McEwan sang a quartette in good style, and Misses Rose and Patterson added to the success of the meeting in a pleasing duet. Mr. R. A. Ward, county secretary, also assisted in the meeting.

CLEVELAND, '94.

All information regarding routes and rates to Cleveland convention from Peterborough may be had by writing to Mr. R. A. Ward, county secretary, box 202, Peterborough. He will be glad to hear from all who intend to go to the thirteenth international C.E. convention. Visitors to the convention get the same rates as delegates. All who desire to take advantage of a cheap trip from Peterborough to Cleveland should write to Mr. Ward, who will be able to make better arrangements for the Peterborough party if he knows the number who intend going.

Mr. C. J. Atkinson, Minnico, Ont., is looking after the billeting of Ontario visitors. This is what he says:—"Applications for entertainment should be made now, and, in applying state whether room only, room and breakfast, or room and three meals is preferred." You should write to Mr. Atkinson at once.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Crease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

LACROSSE.

The third game in the District series of the C. L. A. took place on the P.A.A.A. grounds yesterday afternoon, resulting in a victory for the Peterborough's over the Shamrocks of four games to none in less than an hour.

The game was at no time wildly exciting and the ball seldom travelled down into the Peterborough's territory and when it did, although a couple of chances were given the Shamrocks to score, they could not avail themselves of the opportunity. On two occasions the Peterborough defence allowed themselves to be drawn away from the goal and it was only by sheer luck that they escaped having a game scored on them.

McDonough, Galley and LeBar put up a good game for the Shamrocks and worked hard to win.

All the members of the Peterborough's played their usual star game and the excellence of the team play is becoming more noticeable than ever.

In the last game of the four the Shamrocks picked up a bit and their defence did some good work. It was the longest game of the afternoon, consuming 25 minutes.

SUMMARY.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1st game, | Peterboroughs, | Phalen, | 11 minutes. |
| 2nd game, | " | Beeley, | 7 " |
| 3rd game, | " | Glover, | 11 " |
| 4th game, | " | Paulen, | 25 " |

The goal judges were Messrs. P. J. Doris and J. Rose, while Mr. C. LeBrun refereed the game.

THE CLOSING CAMPAIGN MEETINGS.

Mr. Stratton went north to-day to address the electors of the northern part of the riding as follows: At Ventress' school House, Harvey, on Wednesday at 8 p.m.—probably a joint meeting, as Mr. Winch has a meeting billed at the same place and hour; at Silver Lake, Galway, on Thursday at 2 p. m.; at Union Creek, Galway, at 8 p.m.; at Swamp Lake, Galway, Friday at 8 p.m.; at Cavendish on Friday at 1 p. m. Mr. Winch will also hold meetings in the same places, generally following those held by Mr. Stratton.

ENNISMORE.

(From Our Own Correspondent.

The Ennismore picnic which was held in Mrs. Hammond's grove. Gannon's Narrows, on Wednesday, was a grand success. The canoe race between James Nichols and his son and George Taylor, caused a great deal of excitement. George Taylor won by a canoe length, and carried off the $10 gold piece. The other games and sports were keenly contested and resulted as follows:—

Standing Jump,—1st, Con. Connor; 2nd B. McCauliff.

Running Jump,—1st, M. Crowley; 2nd, W. Crowley.

Hop, Step,—1st, W. Hawkey; 2nd, B. McCauliff.

Running High Jump,—1st, F. Crowley, 2nd, W. Crowley.

The many pleasure seekers from Peterborough, Lindsay and Donnyville patronized the refreshment booth, dancing platform and dinner and tea tables well. The crowd dispersed about 7 o'clock well pleased with the day's sport.

Chester Loomis was Crippled With Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town, as he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

DOMINION DAY PICNIC.

The Beautiful Grove of St. Joseph's Hospital to be Used on the First.

The Cathedral picnic to be held in the beautiful grove surrounding St. Joseph's Hospital on Dominion Day will, without doubt, attract thousands of visitors across the river to Ashburnham on the first. The Cathedral clergy are so justly famed for the manner in which they carry out any entertainment in which they take a hand, that it is a guarantee that this picnic, which is being conducted under their auspices, will be a great and glorious success.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

The big store has risen "Phœnix Like," to success. What was considered by many an experiment when we started in March, 1893, has proven itself to be an unparalled success to ourselves as well as to the thousands of customers who attend our store weekly. The great secret is our determined efforts to give the public the largest assortment of high-class goods at prices much lower than inferior goods are sold elsewhere. Buying direct from the manufacturers and selling for spot cash enables us to to undersell all competitors.

THE DODGE OF DESPERATION.

It is the practice on the turf, when it is desirable to get the full speed out of a trotter, to yoke him in with a running mate—which is to do the drawing, in order to leave the trotter a chance to make his fastest pace. On this principle Mr. Winch has secured Mr. J. A. Davidson, of Smith, as "running mate" in the West Peterborough handicap; or, in other words, Mr. Winch has procured the nomination of Mr. J. A. Davidson to delude the public into the belief that he, Mr. Winch, is opposed by a P.P.A. candidate. It is well known that the P.P.A. was organized to bring about the defeat of the Mowat Government, and that the Conservatives of West Peterborough co-operating with it ever since. It is a patent fact that every Conservative who were co-operating with a similiar party in the election of 1890, has been working with the P. P. A. in this contest and are Mr. Winch's warmest supporters, and neither they, nor this organization, whose object it is to defeat the Mowat Government, can be expected to have the slightest sympathy with the Mowat Government or its candidate in this riding. It is well understood that even if Mr. Davidson goes to the polls, Mr. Winch is to receive the vote of the P. P. A., except a few Liberal members and sympathizers who are expected to vote for Mr. Davidson and thus deprive Mr. Stratton of their support. But the Liberals are warned to beware of the trap. The object of the P.P.A. is to defeat the Mowat Government, and every vote given for its candidate, though it will not serve to elect him, will serve to affect the Liberal candidate, just as much as if it were given for Mr. Winch, the recognized Opposition candidate, and, de facto, of the organization the third candidate is supposed to represent. How have the mighty fallen! when the great Conservative party in West Peterborough, instead of fighting and falling—if need be—honourably under their grand old party banner, resort to trickery worthy only of a circus fakir.

Since the foregoing was in type Mr. Davidson, the P.P.A. candidate, has resigned. It seems the desired effect has been produced. The fact of Mr. Davidson's nomination has gone abroad sufficiently to create the impression that while Mr. Winch is in alliance with the P.P.A., he is opposed by a candidate of that party, and some who may not see through the trick may have their vote influenced by the circumstances. If anything were wanting to connect Mr. Winch with this secret organization, it is the fact that the headquartes of the P.P.A. on Simcoe street are made to serve the purpose of Conservative Committee rooms.

MR. BURNHAM'S DENIAL FOR MR. WINCH'S BENEFIT.

In last evening's Review appears a letter from Mr. Hampden Burnham, accompanied by a note stating that he had sent a copy of the letter to the EXAMINER. Mr. Burnham did send a copy of the letter to the EXAMINER, and if his letter had been as correct as his statement in regard to sending it it would have appeared in last evening's issue. The EXAMINER declined to publish the letter because its statements were not in accordance with the facts. There is no reason to doubt that on the occasion of the visit of Mr. Winch and his friends to Ennismore, Mr. Burnham did visit the parish priest to solicit the latters influence in favour of Mr. Winch. Mr. Burnham's denial seems to be directed to a specific negation of the statement that he had actually "gone down on his knees"—which is, as everybody knows, a figurative manner of expressing the statement that he solicited priestly influence in behalf of Mr. Winch—of whose correctness there can be no doubt. A mere quibble upon the form of words to evade responsibility, for the essence of the act will not avail, and does not remove the fact that, while Mr. Winch is securing the benefit of an alliance with the P.P.A. in town and vicinity, he is sedulously courting the influence of what Mr. Meredith gallantly calls the "common enemy" in another quarter. The electors are not blind, and they can set a proper estimate upon such a double-faced scheme. Mr. Winch stands a good chance of realizing unpleasantly the sensation of coming to the ground between two stools.

MR. WINCH AND THE P. P. A.

Mr. Burnham as the representative of Mr. Winch, may squirm and wriggle as he likes, but the bare, plain, bald, unmistakeable fact remains that on Monday evening, June 17th, 1894, Mr. Hampden Burnham, as a representative of Mr. Winch, paid a visit to the parish priest of Ennismore and solicited his influence in favour of the candidature of Mr. Winch and the additional fact may be stated that Mr. D. O. Sparrow, manager for Mrs. Margaret L. Shepherd and representative of the P.P.A., was in town arranging for the P.P.A. vote to go to Mr. Winch. It is quite within Mr. Winch's right to seek the assistance and support of either of the parties with which he is coquetting, but it is an insult to both to pretend that he is in sympathy at the same time with two elements which are as opposite in character and aims as possible.

Last night at the Council meeting the members did a graceful thing in unanimously endorsing Mr. James Stevenson M. P., as a candidate for the vacancy in the Senate, caused by the death of Hon. Billa Flint, Belleville. So far as long and faithful services for the Conservative party constitute a claim upon a Conservative government, Mr. Stevenson is deserving of special consideration. And the town and county of Peterborough whose claims for the honour of furnishing a member for the Senate have been too long and often overlooked should not again be forgotten. Mr. Stevenson has been a staunch friend to this town and county, has spared neither effort nor means to advance its interests and he is certainly deserving of consideration when the Senate vacancy for this district is being filled.

Thousands of new patrons have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla this season and realized its benefit in blood purified and strength restored.

The Boys in Red Turn Out for Parade 215 Strong—A March Out Next Wednesday.

The Rangers paraded in Central Park last night and were drilled under Sergt.-Major Peters for a couple of hours. The improvement which has been made in the last six weeks is most noticeable.

THE ORDERS.

HEADQUARTERS
Peterborough, June 19, 1894

Orders by Lt.-Col. J. Z. Rogers, commanding the 57th Battalion Peterborough Rangers:—

1. The battalion will parade for drill on Thursday evening, June 21st.
2. The drill on Tuesday evening, June 26th inst., is hereby cancelled.
3. The battalion with both bands and pioneer and ambulance corps will parade and march out on Wednesday evening, June 27th inst.
4. The following men have been successful in their examinations and will take seniority as follows, according to the number of marks obtained:—

| Name. | Marks. |
|---|---|
| Wm Lannin (E Co) | 85½ |
| S G Heathercote (A Co) | 80½ |
| R Davidson (A Co) | 79½ |
| R Hiller (F Co) | 74½ |
| E B Clegg (B Co) | 74 |
| A Gaskins (D Co) | 71½ |
| J S Bell (F Co) | 71 |
| J Smith (D Co) | 70½ |
| John Irwin (E Co) | 70 |
| A Bridgwater (B Co) | 68½ |
| C H Cheverill (A Co) | 64½ |
| W J Bates (E Co) | 63 |
| W Oliver (E Co) | 61 |
| A C Thompson (F Co) | 59½ |
| M J Murphy (F Co) | 58 |

5. The inspection of the 57th battalion has been fixed for the 4th, 5th and 6th of July and will be inspected as follows: On Wednesday evening, 4th ult., "A," "B," and "C" companies. On Thursday evening, the 5th ult., "D," "E," and "F" companies.

The battalion will parade at 3 p.m. on Friday, 6th ult., when every officer, non-commissioned officer and man must be present.

By Order
E. F. MASON, Capt.,
Adjt. 57th Batt.

NOTES.

As will be observed in the orders fifteen and of the twenty-three candidate for the non-commissioned officers examinations, held under the supervision of Adjutant Mason, were successful in winning their promotion. Fifty per cent. was required to receive a Corporal's certificate, and those taking over seventy received a Sargeant's stripes.

The boys leave for Orillia a week from Saturday evening and by their appearance last evening will evidently do themselves and Peterborough credit while there.

There will be no parade next Tuesday evening on account of the interest which the men will probably take in learning of the election returns. Such consideration for the feelings of the ranks under the circumstances speaks well for the officers.

It is expected that there will be a full turnout to-morrow evening to make up for the last time.

Use K. D. C. for indiscretions of diet.

READS LIKE A BOOK

The Daughter of Judge Armour the Heroine of a Real Romance.

WEDS A GOVERNMENT CLERK

Society Circles at the Capital Treated to a Denouement in Real Life as Interesting as the Creation of a Novelist's Flighty Imagination.

OTTAWA, June 20.—If a person who contends that the age of romance is over and gone in this fin de siecle period and latter day materialism, and that the affairs of life are regulated on an entirely practical and utilitarian basis, let him observe carefully a year's incidents, and this even within the charmed circle of the four hundred, and he will modify, if he does not entirely alter, his opinion. The marriage in Ottawa of Mr. Harte Reade, one of the officials of the Dominion Government, and Mrs. Grosvenor P. Lowrey, of New York, had all the elements of romance any novelist could desire as material for a work of fiction.

Seventeen years ago in the town of Cobourg, Ont., Mr. Reade, then a young business man, and Miss Kate Armour, eldest daughter of Judge Armour, met, loved and became engaged. The course of their love ran smoothly and the match was favored by the families of both the young man and the young woman. The date was set for the wedding, the cards were out, when the young couple quarrelled and parted. The cards were recalled and the wedding was abandoned.

A few years passed and Mr. Reade married a Canadian lady, while Miss Armour became the wife of the late Grosvenor P. Lowry, the well-known and able lawyer of New York. Going to New York to reside with her husband, her handsome presence, vivacity of manner and charming hospitality, as well as her husband's assured position, soon won for her a host of friends.

The third act in the melodrama was the death of Mrs. Reade about two years ago. The fourth was the death of Mrs. Lowrey in May, 1893. Mrs. Lowrey returned to her girlhood's home at Cobourg to pass her period of mourning. Last winter while on a visit to Ottawa she met her old lover, he a widower, she a widow. A second courtship followed. Mrs. Lowrey went to the wedding of her stepdaughter, Miss Virginia Lowrey, to Mr. Frank Pennington Ball in New York last week, and returning to Ottawa was married to her first love on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Reade will reside permanently in Ottawa, and so ends this latter day American-Canadian romance.

Firmly Fixed on the Throne.

PARIS, June 20.—The Marquis of Dufferin, British ambassador, called upon M. Hanotaux, Minister of Foreign Affairs at the Foreign Office. After a brief conference an identical note was formulated, a copy of which will be sent to each of the powers that have agreed to recognize Abdul Aziz as Sultan of Morocco.

Bold Attempt at Robbery.

BROOKLYN, June 20.—Alfred Jones, 28 years of age, formerly of Melbourne, Australia, made a bold attempt to rob the jewelry store of P. W. Taylor. He escaped from the store with a tray containing $6,000 worth of diamonds, but was captured before he had gone quarter of a mile.

Robbed the Synagogue.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 20.—Some persons entered the Beandivid Synagogue and removed the Ten Commandments from the tabernacle. They were brought here from Jerusalem and cannot be duplicated. A search warrant has been issued for some of the members' houses.

Austrian Floods Subsiding.

He has also notified the Interstate Commerce Commission that the advance rates are cancelled, while all traffic will be taken on the sum of the local rates. The grain traffic from the Northwest will consequently go from Chicago by lake to Buffalo and Ogdensburg, thence by rail to its destination.

A Baby's Awful Fall.

NEW YORK, June 20.—A four-storey tumble from a tenement window into a baby carriage gave Tillie Mazzo, aged 2 years, internal injuries, while Prune Scarzello, 2½ years old, who was in the carriage, received a concussion of the brain. Both babies are likely to die. The parents of the Mazzo child had gone out, leaving Tillie alone, and the front windows open. She clambered up on the sill and fell out to her death.

An Express Wrecks a Trolley.

PATERSON, N.J., June 20.—An express train on the New York, Susquehanna and Western Railroad, running at the rate of forty miles an hour, struck a trolley car at the River street crossing in Paterson and smashed it into kindling wood. Seven passengers and the conductor of the trolley car were seriously injured.

Died From a Locust's Sting.

NEWBURG, June 20.—The first death from the sting of seventeen-year-old locusts occurred on Sunday night in the mountains back of West Point. The victim is Geo. Pavek.

Train Hand Fearfully Mangled.

PEMBROKE, June 20.—A fatal accident occurred on Winnipeg train which passes here. Thomas Pottinger, pantry hand, had been sitting on the steps of the dining car and had been warned by Conductor Assern not to do so. Nothing more was thought of it, but on reaching Carleton Place, Pottinger was missing. The local train coming up found the body at Graham's Bridge fearfully mangled. The body was brought to Pembroke and Coroner Dickson held an inquest. The verdict was accidental death. Pottinger had been a resident of Montreal since coming to Canada from England about one year ago.

The Hawaiian Delegate.

MONTREAL, June 20.—Mr. Thomas H. Davie, of Honolulu, is in the city. He is on his way to Ottawa where he will represent the Hawaiian Government at the Intercolonial conference. He is in favor of a fast cable and steamship service, and will press this matter on the conference.

A Degree for Captain Mahan.

LONDON, June 19.—The senate and house of Cambridge University to-day performed the ceremony of conferring the degree of LL.D. upon Capt. Alfred T. Mahan, commander of the United States cruiser Chicago.

Outbreak of Typhoid Fever.

BERLIN, June 19.—In consequence of the outbreak of typhoid fever at Liegnitz, Prussian Silesia, the summer military manœuvres of the reserves at that place have been abandoned.

My Daughter's Cure.

Mrs. George L. Hicks, 76 McGill street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure that I testify to the wonderful merits of K. D. C. My daughter has suffered severely at intervals for the past two years and was steadily getting worse. She tried three of the best doctors in the city, but obtained no relief, also every remedy that friends would recommend with the same results and continued to grow worse all the time. She was recommended by a friend to try K. D. C. and send for a sample package. Before taking all of the sample the symptoms of dyspepsia were gone, and though she has since taken only one $1 package the symptoms have not returned. She has also gained considerably in weight, and her friends are surprised at the change in her appearance. If any person in Toronto suffering from the same disease would like to call on me, I could tell them more fully what K. D. C. has done for my daughter."

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. MR. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

HOOPER STILL HAS HOPE.

He Still Protests His Innocence—A New Trial to be Asked For.

Three Rivers, June 20.—Hooper has passed his first night as a condemned man, and a restless night it has been. All hope is not yet gone. He says himself: "Hope never dies in an innocent man." He was visited yesterday in his cell by the correspondent. His cell, which is about twenty-five feet square, has one closely-barred window looking out on the mighty St. Lawrence, with a glimpse of the little village of Ste. Angele across the water. A bed, a box stove, a table, one chair and a wooden bench piled at one end with books and magazines constitute the furniture of the apartment. He looked wretched and the fierce moustache had not received its wonted attention. "I have had no sleep," he remarked "I passed the night in tears for the disgrace that has fallen on my family. I was too confident of my own innocence, and the conviction has been an awful blow to me. Look there," and he pointed to a large box in the corner corridor, with the address printed on the cover, Captain John R. Hooper, Ottawa, Ont.; "I packed that box three days ago. I put in everything that I have except just what I swore, and I never thought I should have to open it again in a prison. On account of being so sure of an acquittal I did not have nearly all the witnesses here that I could have had."

"Do you think that the petition for a new trial will have any effect?"

"It must. There is new evidence and they cannot refuse. Then there is another point. I say that the judge had no right to tell the jury that if I left my wife at Louisville I was just as guilty as if I had taken my two hands and thrown her into the water. One of these jurors said that only for that they would never have found me guilty. We are going to have an affidavit made to that effect."

"Were you surprised at the sentence?"

"I wish it had been life. The judge said that I asked him for clemency. I never did. I told him that I would just as soon have a life sentence as a day. It was not the prospect of the term in the penitentiary that broke me down, but it was the thought that I am in the eyes of the world a criminal. The judge decided my case on the evidence given at the Joliette trial."

The length of the sentence caused considerable surprise to many here, and even some of those who thought him guilty have been shaken in their belief by the fervor of his protestations of innocence. One gentleman said: "He has persisted so much that he was guiltless that my idea is that he now believes it himself."

So many people have called at the jail that Mr. Guiness, the jailer, has been obliged to appeal to the sheriff to give an order against visitors except such as Hooper may wish to see.

It has not yet been decided when he will be taken to St. Vincent de Paul. Personally he does not care when, for he has not yet come to look upon the long term of imprisonment as inevitable.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Amendment to the Fisheries Act—Big Labor Deputation.

Ottawa, Ont., June 20.—In the House of Commons yesterday Sir Hibbert Tupper introduced an act to amend the Fisheries Act.

This bill, which does not come into operation until next year, places a license on the lobster curing and packing industries. This the Minister of Marine and Fisheries said was the only way of preserving the industry owing to the amount of illicit curing and canning that was now going on.

Another feature of the bill was to provide for the drifting of salmon in certain places. The bill also provides for an increase in the penalties for second and third class offences for illicit fishing.

A bill also by Sir Charles Tupper, providing that deck loads on ships for the West Indies be increased from three feet to six feet, was read a second time.

A number of other Government bills were advanced a stage, after which the House went into supply, devoting the balance of the evening to the estimates.

Capital Notes.

Miss Maggie Bryson, daughter of Charles Bryson, of the Bryson & Graham Company, died suddenly yesterday at the summer residence of the family at Britannia. The young lady was 22 years of age. The opinion is that death was due to a nervous convulsion, superinduced by the great heat of the last few days.

Mr. James Huddart, the gentleman whose name is connected with the proposed Atlantic fast line of steamers with the Australian line, arrived in Ottawa today to lay certain alterations in his Atlantic scheme before the Government. It is said that the chief change proposed is to be in the way of providing the best possible accommodation for passengers. As a consequence of Mr. Huddart's visit the Government's interview of the New Brunswick member who opposes the scheme, has been postponed for a few days.

The deputation of several hundred citizens of Ottawa, Hull, Pontiac and Ottawa counties, and the Gatineau Valley, Ottawa Labor Unions and Ottawa Board of Trade, which waited upon the Government to ask for a subsidy for the inter-provincial bridge at Ottawa, was well received but given little to encourage the expectation of Dominion assistance. Sir John Thompson said the delegation must admit time was required for the consideration of such a matter as this, and asked them to let him have an opportunity to look into the cost of the proposed bridge, its utility, the reliability of the parties in charge, the offers of assistance by interested municipalities, and just what means the Government should devise, to help the enterprise. As he never made a promise of aid until he was sure the scheme was worthy of support the deputation must excuse him from pledging himself. Mr. Haggard expressed his belief in the scheme

A gentleman, under forty years of age, whose hair was rapidly becoming thin and gray, began the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in six months his hair was restored to its natural color, and even more than its former growth and richness.

I can highly praise Burdock Blood Bitters. My symptoms were dropsy, backache, and sleeplessness, and all these disappeared after using two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters, Georgina Holmes, Wood Point, Sackville, N. B.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

Tile in Orchards.

Very few trees succeed on wet land. The water willow, water elm, and a few kinds of timber grow in or near the water, and are adapted to such conditions. But fruit trees seldom grow well on wet land. A soil too wet to grow farm crops every season is too wet for an orchard. Land which is not readily relieved of its excess of water after the frost is out of the ground needs draining. All clay soils will be better for orchards if thoroughly underdrained. Observation has taught that orchards growing on ground which has been underdrained, are affected very little by long-continued wet weather or drouth says Farm and Home. Drouths have done great damage to the fruit of this country. The drouth of 1893 was particularly damaging to apple trees. It was so severe as to cause most of the leaves both of fruit and forest trees to fall before the Autumn rains came. Orchards set upon clay soils, whether rolling or level, must be tile drained to be entirely successful. Suit the system of drains to the lay of the land. Lay the tile three and a half to four feet deep between the rows of trees. Use large tile to avoid trouble from roots. Lay the tile to a regular grade.

COLLIDED WITH AN ICEBERG.

An Exciting Scene on Deck in Which Men and Women Weep.

Glasgow, June 19.—Mr. J. B. Ramsey, of Madison, Wis., who was a passenger on the Ethipia when she came into collision with an iceberg on June 6, says that the shock frightened the passengers greatly, everybody rushing to the decks. Glasses and dishes were thrown to the floor and articles of furniture were overturned. We all thought the vessel was sinking, said Mr. Ramsey, as when she backed away from the berg her bow dropped and her stern rose. The passengers made a rush for the boats and the order was issued to clear them away ready for use. Nobody, however, entered the boats. Half an hour afterwards the captain called the passengers into the cabin and assured them that there was not any immediate danger. Other passengers say steamship's engines were reversed just before she struck the berg. Had she still been going full speed ahead, they think, she could not have withstood the blow, but would have gone under almost immediately. When the passengers had recovered from the shock and had scrambled to their feet they made scenes of panic and confusion.

Mothers and children were clasped in one another's arms. All the women and some of the men wept and many ran about on deck as it mad. A giant Englishman, of exceptionally distinguished appearance, earned the reputation of being the worst frightened man on board. His abject terror was so evident that he did more to aggravate the panic than did all the rest of the passengers.

The first feelings of alarm was quieted by the captain's announcement, after the examination of the ship, that there was no danger of foundering. In the evening a thanksgiving service was held in the cabin. Many passengers were still nervous during the night, but the next day confidence was fully restored and all aboard amused themselves as usual with cards and jokes.

The majority of the Ethipia's passengers have already gone to London.

Had No Fortune to Lose.

Berlin, June 19.—In reply to recent attacks upon Chancellor von Caprivi, in which it was asserted that he had lost his fortune in speculation on the bourse, a semi-official statement is made in the Berlin newspapers. The statement declares that in the first place the Chancellor never had a fortune to lose, and the second place he has never had even the remotest relations with anybody on the bourse.

THE RULING MARKETS.

Toronto, June 20, 1894.

Grand Trunk Railway return of traffic for the week ending June 16 show a decrease for 1894 of $60,759.

The Chicago wheat market was weak under the pressure of long wheat. Corn followed wheat, closing a fraction below. Oats were strong..

The earnings of the Canadian Pacific for the second week of June are $323,000, a decrease of $97,000 as compared with the same week of last year.

The Farmers' Market.—Grain receipts nil. White is quoted at 62c, and red at 61c. Oats nominal at 40c to 41c. Barley is quoted at 41 to 42c and peas at 66c.

East Buffalo—Cattle, 76 cars on sale. All the fair to choice cattle were sold at low quotations and about any offering would buy the common grassy stock. Sheep and lambs, 8 cars on sale. A few cheap lots were sold to feeders, but shippers' and butchers' were out of the market. Hogs, only six cars on sale. Yorkers, 10 to 15c higher; heavy grades, 10c higher; pigs, $4.90 to $5.05.

There was a further slight falling off in business at the New York Stock Exchange and the trading throughout was sluggish. The only feature of the day's work was the heaviness of securities of bankrupt roads. These were freely pressed for sale and a number of stocks now in the hands of receivers made new low records. The general market held firm during the early trading, the Grangers being notably strong. Just near the close there was a rally of 1 3 to 1-2 per cent. and the list left off firmer.

How To Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Safe, sure, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

Derby is acknowledged to be the best Plug Smoking Tobacco in the market, 5 10 and 20 cent plugs.

THE PATRON CANDIDATE RESIGNS.

Mr. William Quinn's Formal Letter of Resignation—Mr. Blezard the Man for Patron Support

To the Patrons and Electors of East Peterborough:

GENTLEMEN—

As you are aware, I received the nomination of the Patrons of East Peterborough at the convention held in the village of Norwood, on the 3rd day of February last.

Although there were a number of aspirants for the position, yet I received a large majority of the ballots, 40 out of 69, over all the other candidates combined, and afterwardsmy nomination was made unanimous. The convention was a very large one, nearly every section of the riding being represented.

Judging from the attendance and the pledges given at that large convention, there should have been no doubt of my election, but before many days I learned that a great many of the Patrons could not be depended upon. The Patrons of Belmont were the first to go back on their candidate, for at a meeting a short time after the convention, they passed a resolution of Victoria Lodge to Mr. Blezard.

Although I cannot agree with the course pursued by that lodge, yet I must admit they acted manly, and gave me notice by publishing the resolution in the newspapers and were not like some others who professed great friendship and claimed to be working for me, while at the same time they were canvassing against me.

The Patrons of the riding should know the action taken by some of the candidates for Patron nomination taken at the Norwood convention, viz., Mr. Lancaster, Mr. A.R.Kidd, and Mr. Dawson Kennedy.

Mr. Lancaster joined the Patrons the Thursday night before the meeting held in Peterborough, on Saturday, 2nd day of December.

Mr. Lancaster attended the Norwood convention, where he was a candidate, receiving 2 ballots out of 69. Not obtaining the nomination at the meeting he congratulated me, and and it is not necessary to tell the electors how he has kept that pledge. I understand that before the Norwood convention Mr. Lancaster had been offered the Conservative nomination on 17th Nov. last, which he refused, expecting to obtain the Patron nomination.

PLEDGED HIMSELF TO SUPPORT ME

Not being successful in that another Conservative convention was called in the village of Ashburnham, where Mr. Lancaster received and accepted the Conservative nomination.

This shows plainly that Mr. Lancaster was false to his pledges given at Norwood, and had only joined the Patrons to advance his own interests. Mr. A. R. Kidd who was also a candidate at the Norwood convention, where he received one vote, likely his own, after the meeting, took my hand and pledged his support, wished me success and offered to do all he could for me.

In a few days I found that Mr. Kidd had gone back on his promises and was working against me and even speaking against me at a Patron meeting.

Very likely he

after all the trouble he had taken to get his friends to attend the convention and not a single one had voted for him. He must have felt highly pleased when Mr. Blezard told him at the convention that he could now appreciate the Legislation of the Liberal party in giving one man, one vote.

Mr. Dawson Kennedy, another aspirant for the Patron nomination, also professed to support me and even spoke in my favour at a Patron lodge meeting after the convention, at which I was present. But he, too, acted the traitor. While professing to support me I heard he was quietly canvassing against me. Mr. Kennedy aspired to be the Patron candidate, as he has to many other positions.

He, like Mr. Kidd, went to considerable trouble and expense to take delegates to to the convention, but was than Mr. Kidd, as he received 4 votes out of the total number of his professed friends yet he is not in as good a position as Mr. Kidd to decide who his friends were.

Had Mr. Kennedy ever taken a moment to consider the matter he might have known that the Patrons would not nominate a man who had been aspiring to and running for positions only to be defeated.

Why, in the township where Mr. Kennedy has spent his lifetime, he could not poll a score of votes.

He is not even a member of a Patron's lodge in East Peterborough. I heard the Patron's lodge in his own neighbourhood became dormant because the Patrons in that section became disgusted with him, and he had to go to another riding to become a member, and when the Patrons at his own home got rid of him another lodge was started.

Besides the above mentioned double dealing, I have proof that Conservatives in this county, and pronounced Conservatives outside of this country conspired to get a Liberal Patron in the field in opposition to Mr. Blezard and then nominate a Conservative, believing the Liberal vote would be divided between Mr. Blezard and the Patron and in that way elect the Conservative candidate.

At a Patron convention held in the village of Norwood on the 2nd June, my position as Patron candidate was fully discussed and a resolution passed, sustaining the withdrawal of both the Patron candidates for the Local and Dominion Parliaments.

I did not then resign, thinking it better to and consult some of my Patron friends who were not at the meeting.

After doing so and considering all the circumstances, I feel I would not be doing right to remain in the field and perhaps aid in the election of Mr. Lancaster, who only became a Patron at the eleventh hour to accomplish his own selfish purposes.

As between Mr. Blezard and Mr. Lancaster there can be no doubt as to which the Patrons should support.

Mr. Blezard joined the Patrons when first organized in this section and has remained an active member ever since, and although the Liberal candidate, he has publicly adopted the Patron platform.

Those who are personally acquainted with Mr. Blezard know that his word can be relied upon when he says that he will support the Patron platform.

Yours, etc.,
WM. QUINN,
Douro.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

FATALITY IN A MINE.

Fifty Miners Entrapped by Fire—Four Die of Suffocation.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 21.—Fire was discovered in the coal mines of the Mary Lee Coal and Railroad Company at Lewisburg, ten miles from Birmingham, yesterday afternoon. The fire broke out 400 feet from the opening of the mine. One hundred men were at work in the mines at the time, 150 of them being beyond the fire, their only way of escape being through the flames and smoke. Four dead bodies have been recovered and many of those taken out alive are prostrated from suffocation.

When it became known that the mine was on fire, the fifty men who were imprisoned began making efforts to escape. The greater part of them were loaded into tram cars which were drawn through the flames and smoke by means of wire cables as rapidly as possible. Others took their chances in making a dash through the smoke. Some got out alive while others were less fortunate and fell victims to the smoke and fire. Among the latter was Superintendent Whalen who was prostrated and died just as he was brought out. The work of rescue went on for several hours, and by dark every man who was alive had been taken out of the mines. Many of those brought out in the tramcars were suffocated.

As rapidly as the suffocated miners were brought out they were taken in hand by physicians and efforts made to revive them. Four died from suffocation. The others who were prostrated will probably recover. It is believed that all the men have been accounted for, though later investigation may show further fatalities.

The owners of the mine are positive that it was set on fire. The fire began in a lot of refuse coal where no work was being done.

AMERICAN IRON TRADE.

Effect of the Great Coal Strike on the General Business.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Iron Age today says: The partial resumption of work has given a number of mills an opportunity to resume work, and the supply is therefore more liberal. Still the quantity of raw material is very light and will remain so until the coke strike is finally settled. The leading Connellsville interest has advised some customers that they could count upon a regular supply from now on, but the fact remains that on Saturday last less than 4,000 ovens out of about 16,500 ovens were running. Nor is it quite certain whether scenes of violence will not precede the final collapse. In any event it will take some time before the western steel trade will again be swinging along in its accustomed style. It looks, too, as though at least one large Pittsburg union mill will break away from the Amalgamated Association. Yet, with all these doubts as to the early resumption of full work, buyers are not taking hold.

There is still some demand for spot stock, but so far as soft steel is concerned buyers will simply not pay the prices asked. It is argued that the advance in costs promises to be only small. Furnace men insist that they do not expect to pay more than $1 to $1.50 for coke on new coke receipts. Whilst at least one round block of Bessomer pig has been sold in the valley at $10.90, the majority of buyers regard that figure as much too high. It is true, however, that little pig is offered at even $11 for future delivery from the valley.

In soft steel the market has weakened so far as the moderate transaction close reveal the situation. There are indications that $17 Pittsburg or its equivalent has been shaded.

The Flood in Austria.

VIENNA, June 21.—The Waag valley is still submerged and the water is spreading over the Tey, hitherto not affected by the flood. Railway traffic is seriously impeded and in many places passengers are conveyed to the trains in boats. The Oder is twenty feet above its mean height. The extent of the loss of life and damage to property cannot be ascertained for many days.

The island in the Wagg on which Count Erdody's famous sulphur baths of Pistyan and Teplitz are situated was entirely submerged on Monday. The gardens are now covered a foot deep with sand and the springs are choked. The flood came so suddenly that many patients were surprised in their rooms. All had to be taken out in boats. More than a hundred lodging houses for patients collapsed.

A New British Party.

LONDON, June 21.—A book urging the formation of a new party was published here to-day. It is entitled "The New Party." The editor, Andrew Reid, says in a chapter under the caption of "Our Policy" that the coming party must be devoted to the cause of Social reform, and will, therefore, be opposed to the existing parties. Nevertheless, he is of the opinion that the Tories, which he regards as more friendly to social reform than the Liberals, might be good allies for the present, and a temporary alliance with them is recommended.

Riot Between Police and Soldiers.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 21.—In a riot between men belonging to the West India regiment and police several were wounded on both sides. The police inspector, it is thought, will die as a result of his injuries. The soldiers attempted to get out of the barracks to renew the fight with guns and were only prevented from doing so by the personal appeals of the general commanding.

Pimples, boils and other humours of the blood are liable to break out in the warm weather. Prevent it by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

PEOPLE VERSUS PEERS

The National Liberal Association in Convention at Leeds.

THE RESOLUTIONS SUBMITTED

Henry Labouchere Urges the Adoption of a Resolution Declaring for the Entire Abolition of the House of Lords —Veto Power Should Cease to Exist.

LONDON June 21.—The anti-Lords conference, which was organized by the National Liberal Federation, was formally opened in Albert Hall, Leeds, yesterday, in the presence of 2,000 delegates and auditors.

The conference was called to order by Mr. Spence Watson, who, in his opening speech, declared that the attitude of the House of Lords was unbearable. He counselled the conference therefore to take up the question and fight it to the end. The conference, he said, in view of the great importance of its work, ought to be clear, practical and united in its resolutions. He warned the delegates against dangerous schemes which would be likely to impair their unity. Mr. Watson insisted that the ultimate sovereignty of the empire must rest with the people thereof. He then moved the first resolution, which is as follows:

"That the power now exercised by the House of Lords to mutilate and reject measures passed by the representatives of the people in the House of Commons, has been systematically used to defeat reforms is inconsistent with the right of free, popular self government and should cease to exist."

Several prominent Liberals supported Mr. Watson's remarks. The resolution was adopted.

The second resolution was then moved by Mr. Robson as follows:

"That the meeting call upon the Government to introduce a measure for the abolition of the Lords veto power by providing that whenever a bill passed by the Commons shall be altered or rejected by the Lords, the same bill may be reaffirmed by the Commons with or without such alteration, be subject only to Royal assent, and thereupon become law."

Mr. Labouchere moved a substitute, declaring that the Lords ought to be abolished, being useless and dangerous, and demanding that the Government introduce a bill for the abolition of the House of Lords. In his speech supporting his substitute, Mr. Labouchere declared that so long as hereditary legislators exist self-government was a farce. The original resolution was carried, as was also the third resolution, which declares:

"That the meeting assures the Government of the resolute support of the party in any steps that may be deemed necessary to enforce the passage of this great constitutional reform."

POPE LEO'S ENCYCLICAL.

A Forecast of What is Intended as His Political Testament.

ROME, June 21.—A forecast of the Pope's encyclical letter, which is intended to be his political testament, has been obtained. Whether or not it is authoritative cannot be ascertained.

The Pope expresses his desire to close his life with an appeal to all men of every land and race to favor unity of faith. As regards the unbelieving nations, he declares that the church will continue with unabated ardor to propagate the faith among them. He expresses his sorrow for the schisms and animosities which have torn great civilized nations from the Roman Church and tells of his hope that Divine mercy and omnipotency will bend the wills of men and bring them back to the one true faith.

In addressing the Protestants he declares that there remains to them no certain rule of faith or authority; hence some go so far as to deny the divinity of Christ and the inspiration of the scriptures, ending by falling into naturalism and materialism.

The last part of the letter is addressed especially to Catholics. In it he exhorts them to put off sloth, inasmuch as they are confronted by people who threaten the faith and submit themselves wholly to the guardianship of the church, which is the only perfect society with a mission to teach and make laws in matters falling within its jurisdiction without being subservient to anybody or exciting envy.

The Pope denounces Freemasons as enemies of religious unity, condemning especially their so-called audacity in Rome, and he calls on Italy and France to throw off the despotism of those sectarians in order that religious concord among the nations may exercise the evils of war. He strongly appeals to rulers to foster religious union and strive to ensure that the end of the nineteenth century shall not resemble the stormy close of the eighteenth.

State of Feeling in Ireland.

LONDON, June 21.—In the House of Commons Mr. Arnold Foster moved a reduction of the salary of the Chief Secretary of Ireland by £2,000, with a view of calling the attention of the House to the government of Ireland. He declared that the present apparent state of peace in Ireland was not actual, but was due to the fact that the Government did not institute prosecutions when it ought to do so. Mr. John Morley contended that the state of feeling in Ireland is healthier now than it has been for a generation past. Favorable monthly reports, he said, had just been received from all parts of the Irish provinces. Closure on Mr. Foster's motion was ordered and carried by a vote of 210 to 160, and Mr. Morley's salary was voted.

The Kaiser in the Dumps.

BERLIN, June 21.—It is learned from a reliable source that the difficulties of the Congo question are arousing the kaiser to hesitate about his projected visit to England. His feelings toward England have been so cooled by recent events that in his entourage doubts are expressed as to whether he will accept his grandmother's invitation. It will depend on England's reply to two notes from the Wilhelmstrasse. The opinion prevails here that England will give in.

Piano Tuning.

Mr G Gumpricht is in town. Orders may be left at Messrs Taylor & Macdonald's or at the Peterborough Bookstore.

SPRIGHTLY SUMMER SPORTS.

On the Lacrosse Field, the Grease and the Diamond—Triple A. Topics—The Bicycle and Football.

QUOITS.

An interesting and close contest in a game of quoits came off in the school grounds last evening. Mr. Harry Strickland and Mr. George Giroux were the contestants, and the latter was successful in winning four consecutive games, though he had no cinch. The scores were as follows: 21-17, 21-16, 21-17 and 21-14.

The quoit enthusiasts turned out fairly well during the week for practice but as the club is largely comprised of school teachers it is improbable that any more practising will be indulged in until after the examinations.

CRICKET.

The cricketers announce a scratch match for Saturday and hope that every member of the club and any others interested in its welfare will turn up in order that a good practice may be held.

The club will hold its regular tri weekly evening practices hereafter, consequently the lacrossists will have to limit their practices also to three evenings a week. It would be well, however, if the cricketers, in courtesy, forebore putting this regulation into force until after the match of the Peterborough lacrosse club with the Port Hopes on the 27th, so that the boys may have all the practice they wish.

All arrangements have been made for the securing of Houldsworth, the Trinity School professional cricket coach, by a week from Saturday, providing the necessary guarantee of funds to cover the expense can be raised.

The concert of the cricket club amateur minstrels, in some way, appears to have turned out a failure, as Mr. R. B. Rogers, the secretary, state only about $30 net profit will be realized. The expenses, therefore, must have footed up to an enormous sum.

LACROSSE.

The Granites and Parks, two junior lacrosse teams, will cross sticks at the Central Park this evening.

HUSTLING HAVELOCK.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The village council has a gang of men and teams at work grading and gravelling the streets.

Mrs. W. A. Hill has opened an ice cream parlour in the building formerly occupied by the C. P. R. store.

Mr. S. S. Joyce has rented one of the stores in Duffield's new block and will move in this week.

A monster picnic will be held in Matheson's grove, on Monday, July 2nd, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. and I. O. O. F. The committee is sparing no pains to make it a success and a good time may be expected.

An employee at the icehouse, John Jackson, nearly cut two of his toes off while loosening ice on Wednesday last. Dr. Fowler dressed the wound.

Mrs. R. V. Fowler has returned from visiting friends at Perth.

Dr. Jeffs' new building is being rushed ahead. Carpenters are now putting the putting the roof on.

Mr. I. N. Ackerman has completed the brickwork of his new house on Ontario street.

Mr. B. Smith has built an addition to his house on George street.

Collector Patterson is now after the young men for their statute labour tax.

Mr. F. H. Harper has removed his furniture store to Drain's block, Quebec street.

Mr. Hockley was taken suddenly ill after conducting the services in the Anglican church on Sunday evening, but is now on a fair way to recovery.

Rev. Mr. McClelland, pastor of the Presbyterian church, has moved his family to Havelock.

DIED OF PNEUMONIA.

Sad Death of Mrs. Michael Galvin, Daughter of Mr. Joseph Redmond, Formerly of Otonabee.

The funeral of Annie, wife of Mr. Michael Galvin, of Rochester, and only daughter of Mr. Joseph Redmond, formerly of Otonabee, but now living in Peterborough, took place last evening.

Mrs. Galvin had been sick with pneumonia for several weeks, but her death on Sunday last at her home in Rochester was totally unexpected and was a stunning blow to her husband and relatives.

The body was expected to arrive on the morning train from Port Hope, and a large number of the friends of the deceased were at the G.T.R. station, but as the boat was missed at Charlotte, the remains did not arrive until the evening. High mass was celebrated at the cathedral by Rev. Father Scollard this morning.

The deceased was educated at the convent and had hosts of friends in the town and country, who will sympathise with her relatives in this the time of their bereavement.

Mrs. Galvin was married about seven years ago in Rochester and leaves two children, Vincent, aged six, and Annie Laura, aged two years. Her four brothers Samuel, William, Richard and Joseph, are all well known in town where they reside.

THOSE FREE CONCERTS.

(Contributed.)

The villagers across the border were somewhat afraid that the regular weekly concert would not come off at "Gilmour's Gardens" on account of the band being down the river. A little inconvenience in procuring another prevailed. However, while waiting for the music, the evening was pleasantly spent by way of a strawberry festival, "ice-cream" galore and Indian club swinging by the manager. This exhibition caused great laughter, fairly carrying the house by storm. In conclusion a general knock out ensued between male and female pugulists, wearing four ounce black gloves. It was finally decided a draw by the referee to the disgust of those present. The police had quite a time in preserving order till the curtain fell and the numerous guests departed, highly delighted as to what they had seen and heard. It is the managers intention holding another at some future date.

HE'S WORKING NOW.

Chester Loomis was Crippled With Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town, as he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

MR. WIMAN SENTENCED

He is Given Five Years and Six Months in Sing Sing Prison.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL DENIED

General Tracy Makes an Eloquent Appeal for Clemency—Mr. Wiman Receives His Severe Sentence Without a Sign—He is Returned to the Tombs.

NEW YORK, June 21.—Erastus Wiman appeared before Justice Ingraham in the courtroom of Oyer and Terminer yesterday morning, to receive his sentence for forgery. The ex-millionaire looked rather wan, and he was so poorly dressed as to excite comment among his old friends. He was accompanied by his two faithful sons, who sought to comfort him by cheering words; but it was patent to everyone that Wiman dreaded the issue. Several of his Staten Island friends shook hands with him. He said he had passed a pleasant night. Soon Gen. Tracy and Mr. Wellman entered and later Justice Ingraham. Deputy Sheriff Brown had Mr. Wiman in charge.

When the judge took his seat, Gen. Tracy addressed the court in behalf of the prisoner, but in so low a voice that it is doubtful if even Mr. Wiman, who bent forward to listen, heard what was being said. Gen. Tracy said his client had done everything he could to repair the wrong he had wrought, and he pleaded eloquently for mercy for the financier.

The justice said he must impose a sentence conformable with the evidence. Certain laws were made to protect society, and if they were violated the offender must be punished. "For a long period you used the money of your associate, Mr. Dun, and then resorted to forgery, not in one but in several cases. You violated a trust in addition to appropriating another's money. I cannot think that you thought at any time you had a right to take this money. Your letter showed you had not. But, on the other hand, the jury recommends mercy in the imposing of sentence. Your previous good character and good works entitle you to consideration; but I shall not feel justified in making the sentence less than five years and six months in state prison."

Wiman had been listening attentively and respectfully, but his face did not change either color or expression at the announcement. He sank into his seat. Gen. Tracy had previously made a formal motion for a new trial, which had been denied. He now stepped forward and asked for permission to apply for a certificate of reasonable doubt. This was granted and will be applied for to-day. Deputy Sheriff Brown was ordered not to take Wiman to Sing Sing.

During the scenes in court Mr. Wellman, jaunty and well groomed, sat on a table at Gen. Tracy's right, and smiled sarcastically, as he could well afford to. It was Wellman's terrific arraignment of Wiman which practically convicted the ex-king of Staten Island. The sentence, with the commutation off, will amount to three years eleven months and fifteen days.

Hungary's Civil Marriage Bill.

BUDAPESTH, June 21.—Special prayers will be offered in all Roman Catholic churches in Hungary for the defeat of the civil marriage bill. Both sides are actively preparing for the division in the upper house. The clerical party has exacted written pledges from many of its adherents. The doubtful ones are threatened with excommunication and even social injury. Nearly all the bishops and magnates have arrived, some coming back even from England and Switzerland. The government hopes for a majority of six, but this is very doubtful.

The Famous Tichborne Case.

LONDON, June 21.—The Tichborne claimant, Arthur Orton, has issued a protest to the British public against the judgment rendered in his case, and asking the appointment of a Parliamentary committee to enquire into the merits of his claim. He makes a virulent attack upon the late Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, whom he characterizes as a relentless and unscrupulous advocate.

Strikers Ordered to Work.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 21.—The Ohio miners' convention voted down a resolution to continue the strike and adopted one accepting the strike settlement and ordering resumption of work at once.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Bill Introduced to Ratify the French Treaty.

OTTAWA, June 21.—In the House of Commons Sir John Thompson introduced an Act to ratify the French treaty. The bill contains only one short section for the purpose of the ratification of the treaty.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper's bill to permit ships from Canada bound to the West Indies to carry deck loads of six feet instead of three feet was read a third time.

The greater part of the balance of the sitting of the House was taken up with a bill to consolidate the Northwest mounted police.

Capital Notes.

His Excellency, the Governor-General, has rented the Mansion house, Kingsmere, owned by H. V. Noel, at Dennis lake, on the Gatineau range, about ten miles from here, for the remainder of the summer.

Owing to the illness of Lawyer Turcotte, who was to have conducted the case for the defence of A. J. Turcotte, M.P., before the Privileges and Elections Committee, the court adjourned without hearing any evidence.

Oliver Durocher's name will not appear on the ballot papers on June 26. He has not resigned but will do so. He says: "I have not yet withdrawn from the contest, but I am certainly going to. I am waiting to see how long a time I have to withdraw. My inclination has always been against running, and now I find that I have not got the support of a good many of the party." In further conversation, Mr. Durocher admitted that he aspired to the Dominion House, and a defeat in the local without fair support would seriously hurt him.

The Journal has received the following from J. R. Hooper: "Three Rivers, June 19, 1894.—Dear Sir,—Despite the harsh sentence and the fearful prejudice against me, I am still hopeful. Thank my many friends for their kind sympathy. I was too confident in my own innocence. I did not know the feeling was so strong. Any of my friends can find out the awful facts by writing to Rev. Mr. Stewart, Anglican rector, Three Rivers, Que., who knows everything and has been my faithful companion in this great trial. God will not desert an innocent man, and I hope my friends will stand firm. Yours in grief,—J. R. HOOPER."

The railway conductors of the Dominion are very much annoyed over the proposed amendment to the criminal code by Sir John Thompson, which provides that a conductor is guilty of an indictable offence who permits a passenger to travel on a train without a ticket or other evidence of being entitled to travel by the same train. A delegation of conductors and engineers waited on Sir John Thompson and asked him not to amend the law, which has worked so satisfactorily for the past number of years. While Sir John told the conductors that there was a similar clause in the code regarding clerks, bankers, etc., he promised to take their case into consideration.

THE AMERICAN TARIFF.

Progress Made on the Wilson Bill—The Income Tax.

WASHINGTON, June 21.—The progress made by the Senate in the way of getting through the tariff bill might almost be called phenomenal. Beginning at 10.30 on the 113th page of the bill, it had reached in five hours the 185th page. Then at one jump and with hardly an impediment or objection 45 more pages were wiped out and all the administrative sections of the bill were eliminated.

The heat of the Chamber being intense, the consideration of the income tax features of the bill were postponed until to-day, when Mr. Hill is to open the fight in opposition to the tax.

In the House another day was devoted by the House to the consideration of the anti-option bill after agreeing to close the debate with adjournment to morrow. The vote on the bill and pending amendments to be taken after the morning hour to-morrow. A senate joint resolution was agreed to, directing a survey to be made of the harbors of Duluth and Superior, with a view to making the uniform depth of twenty-six feet.

Fatal Result of Delay.

Sickness generally follows in the path of neglect. Don't be reckless! but prudently take a few doses of Scott's Emulsion immediately following exposure to cold. It will save you many painful days and sleepless nights.

My Feet

Were so badly swollen that I could not wear my shoes. I got Yellow Oil, and to my astonishment it gave instant relief, and two bottles completely cured me. Mrs. W. G. McKay, Berwick, Ont.

NORWOOD NOMIANTIONS.

Address of Candidates and their Supporters—News Notes.

The meeting for the nomination of a candidate for the local Parliament for this riding on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended. B. Morrow, returning officer, presided. It was moved by P. Preston, Belmont, seconded by R. Girven, Dummer, that Thos. Blezard be a candidate. Moved by Henry Moore, seconded by A. Nelson, that John Lancaster be a candidate. The following other gentlemen were also proposed as candidates: Dr. Goldsmith, Peterborough; C.W. Sawers, Peterborough; J. B. McWilliams, Peterborough; John Burnham, M.P., Peterborough; J. Brown, Belmont, and F. Fraser, Norwood. When the time for the receiving of nominations had expired F. Fraser demanded a poll for Mr. Blezard, and E. A. Peck, Peterborough, for Mr. Lancaster. The candidates' colours are: Mr. Blezard, red; Mr. Lancaster, blue. J. B. Pearce, reeve, was elected to the chair, and the speaking began.

Mr. Blezard, the Liberal candidate, took the platform and made a very able speech on behalf of the Mowat Government. He had been the member for this riding for 15 years and felt proud of the honour of supporting a government which had been in power for 22 years and yet there that can be pointed out by the Opposition. While the Dominion and the other provinces are all heavily in debt, Ontario has no indebtedness. While Sir Oliver Mowat has pursued a straight liberal policy, where was the leader of the Opposition? Mr. Meredith is like a weathercock, turning with every wind. Sir Oliver has gained 100,000 square miles mostly of dense timber land which Mr. Meredith would have lost. He has also won a number of other advantages for Ontario before the Privy Council. Mr. Blezard then referred to the wish of the Opposition to do away with the Minister of Agriculture. The Hon Mr. Dryden was a live minister and was earnestly striving to aid the farmers. The reason he is not liked by the Conservative party is because he is making himself too popular by his zeal to help the farming community. It is he who devised the scheme for the breaking up of the binder twine combine by the manufacturing of binder twine in the Central Prison. He also arranged for the education of cheese makers and butter makers at the Agricultural College. He closed by expressing the hope that his friends as in the past and give him a larger majority than ever.

HAS BEEN NO SCANDAL

WOULD STAND BY HIM

Mr. Lancaster, the Conservative candidate, charged the Government with a number of sins of commission and omission. The timber should be cut in Canada instead of being rafted across to be cut in the mills of Michigan. Biennial sessions would effect a great saving and are used in almost all of the States across the border; the ballot used was not secret; Government House should be abolished; the fee system allowed some officers to draw very large salaries, and the Mowat Administration was creating offices for its supporters.

Addresses in behalf of Mr. Blezard were also made by Dr. Goldsmith, J. B. McWilliams, Thos. Frazer and John Brown, and on behalf Mr. Lancaster by C. W. Sawers, John Burnham and J. G. Weir.

The meeting closed with the usual cheers.

NEWS IN GENERAL.

Miss J. Rutherford has gone to Peterborough, where she will attend the business college.

Mr. A. J. Eaton, of Ottawa, is spending a few days in town.

Misses J. Calder and M. Rork are home from Toronto, where they have been attending the Normal School.

The Rev. J. Anderson, M.A., of Toronto, preached in the Presbyterian church last Sunday. Next Sunday the pulpit will be occupied by the Rev. W. H. Anderson, M.A., of Toronto.

Rev. W. Buchanan preaches his farewell sermon next Sunday. He leaves with his family for Markham a few days later.

Last Friday afternoon while shoeing a horse Mr. W. Nicol received a kick and and was seriously injured. He is recovering slowly.

The Hon. G. W. Ross and wife visited Norwood last Friday. The arrived on the noon train. They were met by a number of the residential citizens and a procession was formed headed by the brass band. Mr. and Mrs. Ross were driven to the residence of Mr. J. Davidson, M. A., whose guests they were at dinner. In the afternoon the Hon. gentlemen visited the schools and delivered very interesting addresses to the students. He expressed himself as greatly pleased with the High School buildings and with the progress of the school. A football match was played in the park by the boys for his entertainment. In the evening a large meeting was held in the drill shed, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. The electors were addressed by Mr. Blezard and the Hon. Minister. We regret we have no space for their powerful speeches.

Miss Coyle, of Harwood, is the guest of Mrs. D. Foster.

FRASERVILLE.

A pleasant event occurred at the Methodist parsonage, Fraserville, on Friday evening, 15th inst., when a number of friends representing the Sunday School, called and presented their Pastor's wife, Mrs. Kilgour, with a beautiful easy chair in recognition of her services as teacher of the Bible class for the last three years. An address expressive of the most appreciative and kindly sentiments was read by Miss Rose Hutchings on behalf of the school. This was briefly responded to by the recipient, thanking the friends for the esteem expressed in their parting gift. Refreshments were then served, and a pleasant hour followed spent in social converse and music, which was brought to a close by all singing together "The Sweet Bye and Bye."

HARVEY.

Council Meeting.

The Harvey Council met at the Clerk's office, June 18th, pursuant to adjournment, members all present. Communications read from C. E. Bonnell, M. D., and Medical Health officer re scarlet fever at Charles Long's, section number three; E. Pearce, County Treasurer, re certificates to remove certain taxes from his books; Peter H. Bryce, re bacteriological examination of membrane of suspected diphtheria patients, and sputum in cases of suspected tuberculosis. Mr. Shearer reported and recommended that a new road be opened across the centre of lot E. ½. 18, Con. 9, and that John Chesney be paid the sum of nine dollars, as by agreement entered into for the right of way for said new road; also that a new road be opened on the north side of lot 17, con. 9, and that the sum of four dollars be paid to Jas. Trayner for right of way of said new road, as by agreement entered into. On motion the reeve was instructed to draw orders on the treasurer in favour of the following named parties, and for the sum set opposite their names respectively: Matthew Windover, and to pay others for work done on roads, $10; John Mosney, for work on roads, $2.50; Alex. Windover, for work on roads and pay others, $10; Nathan McIlmoyl, for work on roads, $8; Thos. Flynn, supplies for Abbott, $1.27; A. G. Shearer, expenses as delegate to Ottawa, $6; George Ray, for putting up gates on Ward's land, $6; On motion the clerk was instructed to notify the county treasurer that certain lots are described wrongly on the assessment roll, the half lot entered as the east half of lot 12, con. 9 should be the south half of said lot; village lot entered as on John street as part 5, should be the west half and entered as on Main street. Village lots 11 and 12 are both school property and not liable for taxes. Village lots 31 and 32 are entered as on John street and should be described as on William street. On motion passed the council adjourned to meet at the town hall, August 6th, 1894.

Y. P. S. C. E. NOTES.

LAKEFIELD PRESBYTERIAN SOCIETY held a lawn social at the residence of Mr. S. Cullen, sixth line of Smith, on Tuesday night and, notwithstanding the gloomy outlook of the weather, it was a grand success. There were about 150 present and, from the display of merriment, it was apparent that everyone enjoyed themselves. The programme rendered was as follows:

|---|---|
| Opening address | Rev. H. Cullen |
| Solo | Miss Smith |
| Recitation | Miss Sanderson |
| Solo | Miss Scrimgeour |
| Quartette | Harmony Club, Peterborough |
| Solo | Miss Fitzgerald |
| Recitation | Miss Anderson |
| Solo | Mr. Benson |

The Harmony Club, of Peterborough, made the social lively with their many selections. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Cullen for the use of his lawn and his kindness in making all so comfortable. A number of tables were on the lawn laden with good things, and for a very small amount one could satisfy the most ravenous appetite. A number were up from town to participate in the entertainment.

Happy days and restful nights result from using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It so regulates all the bodily functions and strengthens the nervous system that worry and fatigue are comparatively unknown and life is truly enjoyed. It is certainly a most wonderful medicine.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated, whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

The Cogs Nip Off a Finger.

Mr. Marc. Mowry, an employee of the Edison Works, met with an accident yesterday through which he lost one of his fingers. He was cleaning the cogs in a large wheel when in revolving it caught his fingers. A comrade standing near and observing what had happened, exerted all his strength and snatched Mowry away in time to prevent his hand and arm being drawn in by the cogs. Had not help been so close at hand it is impossible to surmise what might have happened. As it was, one finger was so badly crushed as to necessitate its amputation by Dr. Bell.

How to Keep Cool on Election Day.

Take a trip on the steamer Columbian from Chemong around the lakes to Lakefield on June 26th. It is the first trip of the season and you will enjoy the beauties of nature instead of fuming, sweating and sweltering over politics. The Columbian will connect with the morning train from Peterborough at Chemong and run through that beautiful chain of lakes around the Horn, arriving at Lakefield in time for the evening train to Peterborough, where you can learn the result of the election and enjoy a night's rest. The fare is only 50 cents, children half price. 6d143-1w

To-morrow's Grand Music.

There will be a tremendous crowd out to hear Sousa's Peerless Band to-morrow afternoon, because it is generally understood to be the finest band in existence and such an opportunity may never be had again. Two hours could be no better spent than at such a concert, where the noblest sentiments and ambitions are inspired by such grand music. Two of the grandest vocalists will also be heard, Mme. Guthrie—Moyer, who is one of the most brilliant dramatic sopranos, and Herr Anton Schott, the great Wagner tenor who is a model in that line. Many people will attend from out of town. Seats on sale at Street Railway office.

Gallery of Players.

When the first number of the "Gallery of Players," issued by THE ILLUSTRATED AMERICAN, Nos. 5 and 7 East Sixteenth street, New York city, appeared, we were surprised that such a magnificent album of stage favourites could be put on the market for twenty-five cents. But the second number is even better than the first. It contains twenty-two full-page pictures and over one hundred portraits in character of such well-known actors and actresses as Herbert Kelsey, Julia Arthur, N. C. Goodwin, Eleonora Duse, Marie Wainwright and Julia Marlowe. The critical text is the work of Mr. Charles Frederic Nirdlinger.

Idyl Wyld.

Yesterday, St. Paul's Choir and a few friends had a very enjoyable trip to Idyl Wyld per steamer "City of Peterborough." The rain in the morning was not encouraging, but did not interfere with the lovely sail down the river. The boat stopped at Campbelltown, Jubilee Point and Harwood, on the way going and coming. The steamer gave every satisfaction in comfort and speed, and the officers could not do more to make the trip a success. About three hours were spent at Idyl Wyld. While there much enjoyment was found in witnessing games, etc', of the St. George's Church of England excursion from Hastings. The return trip was delightful and was all the more enjoyed by all, owing to the singing of the choir and the general feeling of friendship and sociability. The excursionists arrived home about 7:30 p.m.

H. Thompson & Co. Stock.

The sale of the bankrupt stock of Stationery, Wall Papers, Fancy Goods, etc., of the late firm of H. Thompson & Co., 408 George street, offers exceptional opportunities for procuring very reliable goods at lower prices than has been offered for many a day. A visit to the store will reveal such reductions in every department as cannot fail to impress the most cautious and active buyers. As this is a peremptory matter and the goods must be turned into cash within a limited time, no reasonable offer will be refused for goods. Chances are open for business, and professional men, clergymen, bankers, accountants, societies, Sunday schools, churches and householders generally to sort up and stock up with A. No. 1 goods, at prices fully 25 per cent. cheaper than the best offers that can be made. Read the advertisement in another column.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—No police court.

—A clean slate at police headquarters this morning.

—There will be quite a few marriages before June is over.

—We are ready to eat and notice big strawberries during the season.

—To-day is the longest of the year, and the fifty-seventh anniversary of the reign of our Queen.

Positively no bad effects from using Phenyo-Caffain for headache, neuralgia or pain. 25c., all druggists.

—A new sidewalk is being laid on the west side of Aylmer street, between Hunter and Brock streets.

—The Hunter street gutters between George street and the Oriental Hotel would be greatly benefitted by a scraping.

—Two boys took an involuntary ride over Rogers dam last evening on a log. Though a trifle bruised they were not badly hurt.

—The corporation labourers are distributing broken stone on the streets. George, below Charlotte, and Aylmer, between Hunter and Brock streets, are being covered.

—Women's Prayer Meeting this week will be held at the residence of Mrs. Murray, 134 Rubidge street, this evening at 8 o'clock. Invitation extended to women to attend these services.

—One of the large plate glass windows in the store of Mr. Robert Fair was broken to-day by a swinging awning iron. The glass will be replaced by the Dominion Plate Glass Company, with whom it is insured.

—This is Millbrook's Civic Holiday and the court of Independent Foresters of that place with a large number of their friends passed through Peterborough this morning en route to Chemong, where they take the steamer for a lake tour.

—An invitation moonlight excursion is being arranged to take place down the river on Friday evening. A number of young gentlemen have the matter in hand and judging from reports it will be altogether one of the nicest affairs of the season.

—Things would be quiet along the water's edge if it wasn't for the occasional excitement created by the Edison students. Two of them upset in a canoe near the Wolfe street wharf last night and were hauled from the water in a rather bedraggled condition.

—A Dominion prohibition convention will be held in Montreal, on Tuesday and Wednesday, July 3rd and 4th. All friends of prohibition may attend. Railway rates reduced to single fare, upon procuring a certificate from the ticket agent at the starting point.

—The garden party in the grounds of Mrs. Orde, Ashburnham, last night which was held under the auspices of St. Luke's church, was a great success. Several hundred being present during the course of the evening. The band was present and added to the general enjoyment by the selections which were rendered.

—The excursion of the Catholic Order of Foresters was well patronized this morning, several hundred taking advantage of the beautiful day to enjoy a sail down the Otonabee. Quite a number walked down to the locks and embarked at that point on the palace scow. Every ticket was sold.

—The fifteenth annual convention of the High Court of Foresters opened in Woodstock on Monday. The following delegates are in attendance from Peterboroug: F. J. Jamieson, of the Executive Committee; H. Nesbitt, D.D.H.C.R.; J. Alexander and Jos. Metheral, P.C.R., Court 29; R. Thornton, P.C.R., Court Little John; R. Layfield, P.C.R., Court Langton; Mr. Kindred, P.C.R., Court Zion. It is expected that the next convention will be held in Peterborough.

PERSONAL.

Mr. F. R. S. Barlee, of Lakefield, is registered at the Oriental.

Mr. Jacob Wilson, of Belleville, is up on a business trip for a few days.

Mr. George Thompson, of Belleville, was in town for a few hours to-day.

The many friends of Mr. S. J. Campbell, who has been two months in the hospital, prostrated with a serious illness, are pleased to see him about on the streets again.

Miss Amabel Crawford, of New Orleans, is in town the guest of Mrs. Fred Winch. Miss Crawford, who intends summering in this vicinity, will spend a month with the family of her uncle Mr. T. O. Rush, in their cottage at Chemong.

Mr. Harry Robinson, a son of genial Harry Robinson, formerly of the Forepaugh circus, is billing the town and district in the interests of the Cook & Whitby show. Young Harry bids fair to rival his father in his dexterious use of the paste brush and general popularity.

Mr. McRae, of Kinston, rode up to Peterborough, a distance of 125 miles, on his bicycle Saturday to pay a short visit to his wife, who is spending a month or so with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Hayden, of the G.T.R. Mr. McRae is a member of the famous Queen's University Rugby football team, champions of Canada.

Mr. Jas. J. Grafton, of Dundas, of the firm of Grafton & Co., clothing manufacturers, was in town for a few days this week. Mr. Grafton was on his way to England and made a business call to their flourishing branch store here, previous to sailing. This was the first visit of any member of the firm since the removal of their branch store to their present commodious premises; and great pleasure was expressed at the general appearance and arrangement of the store.

METHERALL—THORNDYKE.

Another June Wedding Takes Place—Many Handsome Presents Received.

A very pretty and interesting event took place last evening at nine o'clock in the marriage of Mr. Wilton Metherall, of Metherall Brothers' carriage works, and Miss Millie Thorndyke, only daughter of Mr. John Thorndyke, 307 King street.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's father, by whom she was given away, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Torrance pastor of St. Paul's church.

The bride looked enchanting in a gown of grey silk and carried an exquisite bouquet of Gloire de Dijon roses. Her bridesmaids were Miss Cassie Stewart, of Otonabee, and Miss Millie Thorne, of town, both charmingly gowned, the former in pearl grey and the latter in cream.

Mr. Ernest Hutchinson assisted the groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, which was performed in the presence of only the most intimate friends, all partook of the bounteous repast which had been prepared.

Both of the participants in the ceremony which took place last night, are great favorites among their large circle of friends and Miss Millie, with her bright face and engaging manner, will be greatly missed from behind the post office wicket.

The presents which were received were most handsome, as well as numerous, and bore testimony to the extreme popularity of the young couple. Among those received was a handsome set of China from the members of the Fire Brigade, of which body Mr. Metherall is a valued member, and an exceedingly pretty easy chair presented with the best wishes of the Post Office staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Metherall have taken up their residence at No. 478, Aylmer street, where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

Athlete Cigarettes have no rivals.

PROHIBITION AS AN ELECTION ISSUE.

Elsewhere in this issue appears a calmly reasoned and a moderate letter from a "Conservative Prohibitionist," upon the relation of the prohibition question to the political parties in Ontario. "Conservative Prohibitionist" endorses Sir Oliver Mowat for his past record on the question, and as this is a proper ground of judgment, it may be well to advert more in detail to what the letter refers. The temperance record of the Mowat Government consists of a steady, persistent and successful restriction of the liquor traffic in connection with the license law. By its legislation the licenses been reduced one half—from 6,105 in 1874-5 to 3,369 in 1892-3. This reduction in licenses is due directly to the Crooks Act and the amendments made by the Mowat Government. One noticeable and excellent feature of the reduction, in addition to the reduction per se, is that the disreputable licensees have been rooted out, leaving the field to the reputable liquor dealers, with a decided improvement as the result. In 1875 there was one license issued to each 278 of the population, but owing to the restrictive legislation of the Mowat Government in 1893, there were only one license to every 633 of the popularion, a decrease in this proportion of over one hundred per cent. During the last six or seven sessions there has been continuous legislation for improving the license law in the direction of restriction and improvement with the following results; There is a better class of houses; better accommodation; a smaller number of licenses; fewer saloons; a total separation of the grocery from the liquor shops; no vessel licenses; less drinking at the bar; prohibition of sales to minors; a general weeding out of underirable persons and premises; a prohibition of sales by druggists on Saturday nights and Sundays without a doctor's or a Justice of the Peace's order.

No one with the least desire to be fair will deny that the legislation of the Mowat Government on the License question has been in the interests of greater sobriety, and no one will deny what "Conservative Prohibitionist" points out, that the restrictive legislation of the Mowat Government has created a temperance sentiment that made the plebicite vote possible, and the plebiscite is the warrant signed by the popular hand, giving authority not only for the enacting of a prohibitory act, but also giving an earnest that popular opinion will back up its enforcement. Sir Oliver has had his attitude endorsed by the leading temperance men of the country, irrespective of political affiliations, and has given an explicit promise in favour of prohibitory legislation, and he doubtless has the confidence of all true temperance advocates who do not prefer party fealty to temperance interests. On the other hand, little can be expected of Mr. Meredith judged by his past record. He has persistently opposed all the legislation of the Mowat Government looking to the restriction of the liquor traffic and has only but lately shown a zeal, not at all disinterested, in temperance. His record, his party associations and the character of his supporters all go to show his attitude on the prohibition question. It seems strange, but quite in keeping with the position of his leader, that Mr. Winch should pose as a prohibitionist. He and his chief supporters voted in the council against a license reduction by-law; he is interested in three or four hotel properties and is the very last man personally, or from his record and associations, who would be expected to advance temperance interests. But he would be a very consistent supporter of a leader who proposes to submit the question of prohibition, that has been overwhelmingly decided upon, to another plebiscite giving as Rev. Dr. Hare, president of the Ontario Ladies' College, says, "The liquor interests another opportunity of fighting restrictive legislation." As our correspondent of to-day remarks, the details of license administration are unimportant in view of the fact that prohibition will make the license system a dead issue and its details are as nothing in view of the fact that Sir Oliver Mowat has, in sympathy with temperance sentiment given his promise that he will introduce and pass a prohibitory act—if he is premier—and the only way to retain him as premier is for true temperance men to unite in his support.

Of course Mr. Larke, the Federal Government's commissioner to the World's Fair, is working enthusiastically for Meredith to show his disapproval of the high fees paid to sheriffs, registrars and other provincial officials. How about the fees drawn from the federal treasury by Mr. Larke, who has been a pensioner on the public for years, while doing campaign work for the Tory party? The report of the auditor-general for 1893 shows a portion of the payments to Mr. Larke as follows:—J.S. Larke, salary, 134 week days to Nov. 30, 1892, at $5; living allowance, 243 days to Feb. 28, at $3; transport expenses, $461.88; advances on account of salary and expenses, $2,654.45. In all amounting to $4,515.33. The amount drawn by Mr. Larke in the full year probably reached $8,000, a sum three times as large as that received by any sheriff or registrar in Ontario.

We Lead Let Others Follow.

The big store has risen "Phœnix Like," to success. What was considered by many an experiment when we started in March, 1893, has proven itself to be an unparalled success to ourselves as well as to the thousands of customers who attend our store weekly. The great secret is our determined efforts to give the public the largest assortment of high-class goods at prices much lower than inferior goods are sold elsewhere. Buying direct from the manufacturers and selling for spot cash enables us to to undersell all competitors.

A CONSERVATIVE PROHIBITIONIST SPEAKS.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Will you allow me through the columns of the EXAMINER to express my views on a public question that is a prominent one in the present election contest. I am not a politician though I am a life long Conservative; but Conservatism takes such strange shapes and disguises these days that I scarcely feel comfortable in the ranks, though so far as principles are concerned I am a staunch upholder of Conservative principles and shall be, I hope, till I die. I hold that public questions should be dealt with on the basis of principle and I have little sympathy with the petty side issues that are too often exalted to the exclusion of broad general principles. I am also an earnest if not ardent temperance man, even to the extent of prohibition and believe that a great deal of preference should be given its consideration; that many minor matters of policy should be sacrificed to the promotion of this great principle. I am glad to see that it has reached the position of prominence it deserves and now ranks as a question of practical politics. A retrospect of the history of the temperance movement reveals about the only warm spot in my heart towards the Reform party—for their steady and successful practical efforts for the promotion of temperance; while the same retrospect shows to me that the Conservative party have been too conservative in this respect and have steadily, if unobstrusively and perhaps negatively, retarded its progress and shown themselves generally hostile to legislative action restraining the terrible liquor traffic, through which myself and so many others have suffered so much, I am a somewhat careful students of political events, especially in their relation to the prohibition and temperance question and I have noticed with pleasure, that with all its faults, and to my mind they are not a few, the Mowat Government has been a consistent and practical friend to temperance progress. This government has made the best of that hitherto necessary evil the License system. They have gradually—and so gradually that an educative effect in the temperance line has been exercised—they have gradually drawn the rein of restriction so that public opinion has been brought face to face with the grand era of prohibition. The gradual evolution of temperance sentiment has prepared those interested in the liquor traffic for a contemplation of the fact that the time is fast approaching when the decisive battle royal between the traffic and prohibition must take place and thousands interested in the traffic have prepared themselves for the triumph of prohibition. Public sentiment must be behind any successful prohibitory act and thanks to the plebiscite, we are now assured that public sentiment is ripe for prohibition and all honest men are prepared to stand by the government that gives us the best chance of securing that boon. And I wish to state here and now my belief that the Mowat Government is the best, if not the only, source to which we may look. Under the Mowat Government's administration the evils of the license system have been reduced one-half since it began its rule, in the mere matter of license alone, while year after year the bonds have been drawn tighter and tighter, narrowing with every turn the circle of the operation of the liquor traffic. I firmly [illegible] not the restrictive legislation of the Mowat Government for the past 20 years educated the public and prepared the public mind for prohibition, as it doubtless has done, that the splendid popular majority shown by the plebiscite would not have been secured. I must express myself pleased and satisfied with the attitude of Sir Oliver Mowat in accepting the consequences of the plebiscite—the introduction of prohibitory legislation. I regard his promise as the best and most hopeful we have ever had. True, Mr. Meredith makes a specific promise also and my party preference would incline me to favour him, but he has not in the past shown sufficient interest in the promotion of temperance to justify my placing implicit confidence in his promise. On the other hand Sir Oliver Mowat on account of what he has done, and on account of the straight promise he has made, has won and has and shall have my confidence in this regard, as a condition of his promise of prohibition is his being Premier, I shall do my best and cast my vote so that he shall remain Premier. There are many points upon which I can and do disapprove of the Mowat Government but these are only matters of detail, and involve only comparatively trifling matters of pecuniary loss, which are entirely dwarfed in comparison with its attitude upon the temperance question. Much fault has been found with the administration of the liquor license law, and, while I hold that the Government may not always be blameless, yet there have been, there are and there will continue to, circumstances which no government can control. There are so many personal, proprietory, social, municipal, and political interests involved that perfect administration is almost an impossibility. The license system is an evil; evil is inherent in its constitution and no human agency can make intrinsic evil good. The only way is abolition. No matter wi governing body has control of the license system it can't make a machine run smoothly whose driving wheel is warped and twisted with essential evil. But I had rather trust Mr. Mowat, who has done his best to make the license machine work smoothly, than Mr. Meredith, who has never rendered any assistance in that direction, but on the other hand has rather hindered; and now, when the hour of triumph is in sight, he wishes to reap the harvest another has sown and promises to submit a prohibition measure to another plebiscite. Many honest intending temperance men are influenced by irregularities in the administration of the license laws, but holding as I do that no party nor government can make the license law right, I want the license law administered out of existence. I want prohibition and I look with the greatest hope to the one man of this age who throws out the strongest hope, and that is Sir Oliver Mowat. While temperance men are splitting hairs and trifling with petty matters of political detail, infinitely, unimportant and small, compared to the great question of prohibition, they are losing sight of that one great question, and what is best in the interests of temperance and prohibition. With all his faults in political policy, I see in Sir Oliver Mowat the staunchest champion of prohibition this country has produced, and I shall waive party predilections and many minor issues and give effect to my opinion by my ballot on June 26th.

With thanks for space,

I remain, yours etc.,

CONSERVATIVE PROHIBITIONIST.

Tragedy in a Westminster Hotel.

LONDON, June 21.—A well-dressed couple took a room at a second-class hotel in Westminster. They had breakfast in their bedroom yesterday. About noon a chambermaid was unable to enter the room or get any response to repeated knocks. A porter entered the room by a window and found the man dead on the bed. An empty bottle which had contained poison stood on the bureau. The dead man was identified as Dr. Edwin Tyler, son of Sir John Wm. Tyler, superintendent of Central Prisons, N.W.P., India. The police have not yet found the woman.

Accident at a Barn Raising.

SPRINGFIELD, Ont., June 21.—A serious accident occurred yesterday at a barn raising at Charles Clarke's, near Springfield. The accident was caused by a bent falling. Wm. Hore and B. Finch were slightly injured, and Henry Clumas and William Young very seriously. Their recovery is doubtful.

Smallest Man in the World Dead.

HALIFAX, June 21.—Dudley Foster, who had the reputation of being the smallest man in the world, died at Bridgetown of heart disease. Dudley Foster's greatest height was 30 inches and his weight never exceeded 20 pounds. He travelled extensively during his short life of 17 years.

Steamer Neath Abbey Wrecked.

LONDON, June 21.—The steamer Neath Abbey, of Swansea, has been wrecked off Nash Point. The captain and three sailors were drowned.

In the Italian Chamber.

ROME, June 21.—A lengthy and excited debate took place in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday, ending in the rejection of the agrarian grain duty demands in spite of the fact that in committee the duty proposed had been reduced from 9 to 8 lire. The Government abstained from voting, allowing the supporters of the measure full liberty to carry the proposal if they could. The proposal of the Ministry to impose a duty of seven lire was then carried.

Silver Coinage for Roumania.

BERLIN, June 21.—The Deutsche Bank has obtained a contract to supply the Government of Roumania with silver coins to the amount of 60,000,000 marks ($15,000,000.)

The Czarewitch in England.

LONDON, June 21.—The Czarewitch, on board the Imperial yacht Polar Star, arrived at Gravesend last evening. He was received by the Queen's equerry.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 21, 1894.

The imports of wheat into Great Britain during May were nearly 2,000,000 bushels greater than in May, 1893; yet its imports from the United States decreased a million and a quarter.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts continue small. White wheat is quoted at 62, and red at 61c. Two loads of oats sold at 40c. Barley is quoted at 41 to 42c and peas at 66c.

The firmness in the foreign wheat markets at Chicago helped up prices. The close was ½c higher. Corn followed wheat and closed with a net gain of ½c for the day. Oats were very firm on reports of slim stocks.

Buffalo.—Cattle receipts light; only two cars, which was fully enough to satisfy demand and more too; fully ten loads unsold from Monday and outlook unfavorable. Sheep and lambs—Receipts light, six cars; dull and slow; only light local demand prevailing and no shipping inquiry at all except for lambs. Hogs—Fresh receipts light; market ruled very dull and weaker at fully 10c decline.

Trading at the New York Stock Exchange at times approached stagnation, and the general run of the usually active issues did not vary as much as a point. At the opening the feeling if anything was a little more bearish, the engagement of $3,250,000 gold for export to Europe today, and the likelihood of the shipments reaching $6,000,000 for the week, exerting an unfavorable influence. American sugar was most prominent in the early decline, falling from 98¼ to 96½c. Railway stocks were weaker especially for the bankrupt stocks.

Like Magic.

Corns cause intolerable pain. Holloway's Corn Cure removes the trouble. Try it, and see what amount of pain is saved

Ear Marks of a Musician.

"Musical down to his finger tips," is a common enough expression, but few people realize its true significance, said a musical sharp—who is also somewhat of a flat—the other day. "As a matter of fact," he continued, "a real musician, one to whose soul true harmony appeals with all its beautiful and poetic force, is so susceptible to its effects that it sends the blood to his heart; and his extremities, when such an artist is engaged in a performance of any length, become as cold as frogs. I do not know of a single exception. Did you ever shake hands with Paderewski just after he came from the piano? If you did you must have noticed that his hand was like a lump of ice. The same thing is true of amateurs who have the real artistic temperament, and if such a one hasn't cold hands under such circumstances you can know that he or she has no real musical sentiment. It is an infallible test."—New York Mail and Express.

This Season's Gloves.

The Reynier is the glove of the season. Its popularity is due to the slender appearance which it gives the hand, owing to the arrangement of gussets between the fingers, but not between the thumb and finger. These gloves come in all the dainty shades which combine so well with the coloring of the new dress materials. There are any variety of tans, pearl grays and the new greens.

Perhaps the most chic glove is of pearl kid, stitched with spring tan and fastened with smoked pearl buttons. Pearl gloves stitched in violet or green are also novelties. For everyday wear nothing is more genteel than a tan Reynier glove, stitched in black and fastened with large black buttons.

A Terror to the Crew.

HALIFAX, June 21.—Captain Wallers and crew, of the schooner Founa, on a recent voyage from Lunenburg to Porto Rico, had an exciting time with one of the crew named Wm. Wilmot who was shipped at Halifax. When the vessel was a short time out, Wilmot commenced to show that he was a dangerous man by chasing the mate out on the jibboom with a knife and threatening to take his life. After this he repeatedly chased other members of the crew with a knife, and several times threatened the captain's life. Wilmot took actual charge of the schooner during the remainder of the trip, and it took relays of rest of their entire time to watch him. When the schooner reached Magaguez he was given in charge and placed in jail. The captain and crew made a sworn affidavit before the British Consul to the effect that they were in fear of their lives from him and would not have him back on board. A new man was shipped in his place and Wilmot will be brought back to Nova Scotia in irons for trial on the charge of attempting murder. He is 39 years of age and a native of England.

Impeachment of Giolitti.

ROME, June 21.—During the Tanlonge trial ex-Quaestor Felzani was called to the stand and testified that he had sent copies of documents to the ministry of the interior by order of Premier and Minister of the Interior Giolitti and Signor Rosano, who was at that time under secretary of the interior department. This testimony, which contradicts the statements of Signor Giolitti, created great sensation.

An American's Death in Glasgow.

GLASGOW, June 21.—George Giles, a builder, whose address is Duluth, Minn., died suddenly in his room in the Waverley hotel in this city yesterday. He was suffering from an attack of winter cholera, but no doctor saw him until after he was dead.

Lynched by Whitecaps.

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio, June 21.—An organized band of white caps, composed of the leading farmers of Mason county, West Virginia, captured Archie Bert and Wilbur Haines, colored desperadoes who have been terrorizing that vicinity, and strung them up to a tree.

Loss of a Sealer and Crew.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—The loss of the sealing schooner Unga has been confirmed. The Unga was overturned in a heavy storm off the coast of Japan. Her crew of ten men were drowned.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

BRIGAND QUASTANA.

Misadventures? Well, if I were an author by profession I could make a pretty big book of the administrative mishaps which befell me during the three years I spent in Corsica as legal adviser to the French Prefecture. Here is one which will probably amuse you:

I had just entered upon my duties at Ajaccio. One morning I was at the club, reading the papers when the Prefect's manservant brought me a note, hastily written in pencil: "Come at once; I want you. We have got the brigand Quastana." I must tell you that, under the Empire, the arrest of a Corsican banditto was looked upon as a brilliant exploit, and meant promotion, especially if you threw a certain dash of romance about it in your official report.

Unfortunately brigands had become scarce. If by chance a man did kill another in a row, or did something which made it advisable for him to keep clear of the police, he generally bolted to Sardinia instead of turning brigand. This was not to our liking; for no brigand, no promotion. However, our Prefect had succeeded in finding one; he was an old rascal, Quastana by name, who, to avenge the murder of his brother, had killed goodness knows how many people.

Fifteen years had passed, and the man had lived in seclusion, but our Prefect, having heard of the affair and obtained a clew to his whereabouts, endeavored to capture him with no more success than his predecessor. We were beginning to despair of our promotion; you can, therefore, imagine how pleased I was to receive the note from my chief.

I found him in his study talking very confidently to a man of the true Corsician peasant type.

"This is Quastana's cousin," said the Prefect to me, in a low tone. "He lives in the little village of Solenzara, just above Porto-Vecchio. Now, it seems that these two had some words the other Sunday, and this fellow has determined to have revenge; so he proposes to hand his cousin over to justice, and, between you and me, I believe he means it. But as I want to make the capture myself, and in as brilliant a manner as possible, it is advisable to take precautions in order not to expose the government to ridicule. That's what I want you for. You are quite a stranger in the country, and nobody knows you; I want you to go and see for certain if it really is Quastana who goes to this man's house."

"But I have never seen this Quastana," I began.

My chief pulled out his pocketbook and drew forth a photograph much the worse for wear.

"Here you are!" he exclaimed. "The rascal had the cheek to have his photograph taken last year at Porto-Vecchio!"

While we were looking at the photo the peasant drew near, and I saw his eyes flash vengefully; but the look quickly vanished and his face assumed its usual stolid appearance.

"Are you not afraid that the presence of a stranger will frighten your cousin and make him stay away on the following Sunday?" we asked.

"No!" replied the man. "He is too fond of cards, besides, there are many new faces about here now on account of the shooting. I'll say that this gentleman has come for me to show him where the game is to be found."

Thereupon we made an appointment for the next Sunday, and the fellow walked off without any compunction for his dirty trick, dream of promotion.

The next morning I set out in full shooting costume, and took the coach which does the journey from Ajaccio to Bastia. For those who love nature there is no better ride in the world, but I was too busy with my castles in the air to notice any of the beauties of the landscape.

At Bonifacio we stopped for dinner. When I got in the coach again, just a little elevated by the contents of a good-sized bottle, I found that I had a fresh traveling companion, who had taken a seat next to me. He was an official at Bastia, and I had already met him; a man about my own age, and a native of Paris like myself. A decent sort of fellow.

You are probably aware that the Administration as represented by the Prefect, etc., and the magistrature never got on well together; in Corsica it is worse than elsewhere. The seat of the Administration is at Ajaccio, that of the magistrature at Bastia; we two therefore belonged to hostile parties. But when you are a long way from home and meet someone from your native place, you forget all else, and talk of the old country.

We were fast friends in less than no time, and were consoling each other for being in exile, as he termed it. The bottle of wine had loosened my tongue, and I soon told him, in strict confidence, that I was looking forward to going back to France to take up some good post as a reward for my share in the capture of Quastana, whom we hoped to arrest at his cousin's house one Sunday evening. When my companion got off the coach at Porto-Vecchio, we felt as though we had known each other for years.

II.

I arrived at Solenzara between 4 and 5 o'clock. The place is populated in winter by workmen, fishermen and customs officials, but in summer every one who can shifts his quarters up in the mountains on account of fever. The village was, therefore, nearly deserted when I reached it that Sunday afternoon.

I entered a small inn and had something to eat while waiting for Matteo. Time went on and the fellow did not put in an appearance; the innkeeper began to look at me suspiciously and I felt rather uncomfortable. At last there came a knock, and Matteo entered.

"He has come to my house," he said, raising his hand to his hat. "Will you follow me there?"

"We went outside. It was very dark and windy; we stumbled along a stony path for about three miles—a narrow path, full of small stones and overgrown and luxurant vegetation, which prevented us from going quickly.

"That's my house," said Matteo, pointing among the bushes to a light which was flickering at a short distance from us.

A minute later we were confronted by a big dog, who barked furiously at us. One would have imagined that he meant to stop us going farther along the road.

"Here, Bruccio, Bruccio!" cried my guide—then, leaning toward me, he said: "That's Quastana's dog. A ferocious animal. He has no equal for keeping watch." Turning to the dog again, he called out: "That's all right, old fellow—do you take us for policemen?"

The enormous animal quieted down and came and sniffed around our legs. It was a splendid Newfoundland dog, with a thick, white, woolly coat, which had obtained for him the name of Bruccio (white cheese). He ran on in front of us to the house—a kind of stone hut, with a large hole in the roof, which did duty for both chimney and window.

In the centre of the room stood a rough table, around which were several seats made of portions of trunks of trees, hacked into shape with a chopper.

At the table sat a man who looked like an Italian or Provencal fisherman, with a shrewd, sunburnt, clean-shaven face. He was leaning over a pack of cards and was enveloped in a cloud of tobacco smoke.

"Cousin Quastana," said Matteo as we went in, "this is a gentleman who is going shooting with me in the morning. He will sleep here to-night, so as to be close to the spot in good time to-morrow."

When you have been an outlaw and had to fly for your life you look with suspicion upon a stranger. Quastana looked me straight in the eyes for a second; then, apparently satisfied, he saluted me and took no further notice of me. Two minutes later the cousins were absorbed in a game of scopa.

It is astonishing what a mania for card-playing existed in Corsica at that time, and it is probably the same now. The clubs and cafes were watched by the police, for the young men ruined themselves at a game called bonillote. In the villages it was the same; the peasants were mad for a game at cards, and when they had no money they played for their pipes, knives, sheep—anything.

I watched the two men with great interest as they sat opposite each other, silently playing the game. They watched each other's movements, the cards either face downward upon the table or carefully held so that the opponent might not catch a glimpse of them and gave an occasional quick glance at their hand without losing sight of the other player's face. I was especially interested in watching Quastana. The photograph was a very good one, but it could not reproduce the sunburnt face, the vivacity and agility of movement, surprising in a man of his age, and the hoarse, hollow voice peculiar to those who spend most of their time in solitude.

Between two and three hours passed in this way, and I had some difficulty in keeping awake in the stuffy air of the hut and the long stretches of silence broken only by an occasional exclamation: "Seventeen!" "Eighteen!" From time to time I was aroused by a heavy gust of wind, or a dispute between the players.

Suddenly there was a savage bark from Bruccio, like a cry of alarm. We all sprang up, and Quastana rushed out of the door, returning an instant later and seizing his gun. With an exclamation of rage he darted out of the door again and was gone.

Matteo and I were looking at one another in surprise, when a dozen armed men entered and called upon us to surrender. And in less time than it takes to tell you we were on the ground, bound and prisoners. In vain I tried to make the gendarmes understand who I was; they would not listen to me. "That's all right; you will have an opportunity of making an explanation when we get to Bastia."

They dragged us to our feet and drove us out with the butt ends of their carbines. Handcuffed, and pushed about by one and another, we reached the bottom of the slope, where a prison van was waiting for us—a vile box, without ventilation and full of vermin—into which we were thrown and driven to Bastia, escorted by gendarmes with drawn swords.

A nice position for a Government official!

III.

It was broad daylight when we reached Bastia. The Public Prosecutor, the colonel of the gendarmes and the governor of the prison were impatiently awaiting us. I never saw a man look more astonished than the corporal in charge of the escort, as, with a triumphant smile, he led me to these gentlemen, and saw them hurry toward me with all sorts of apologies and take off the handcuffs.

"What! Is it you?" exclaimed the Public Prosecutor. "Have these idiots really arrested you! But how did it come about—what is the meaning of it?"

Explanations followed. On the previous day the Public Prosecutor had received a telegram from Porto-Vecchio, informing him of the presence of Quastana in the locality, and giving precise details as to where and when he could be found. The name of Porto-Vecchio opened my eyes; it was that travelling companion of mine who had played me this shabby trick! He was the Prosecutor's deputy.

"But, my dear sir," said the Public Prosecutor, "who ever would have expected to see you in shooting costume in the house of a brigand's cousin? We have given you rather a bad time of it, but I know you will not bear malice, and you will prove it by coming to breakfast with me." Then turning to the corporal, and pointing to matteo, he said: "Take this fellow away; we will deal with him in the morning."

[TO BE CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Debeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Coloured Skirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 3000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

A LETTER FROM MR. EARLE.

The following letter was handed THE EXAMINER yesterday by Mr. Earle at, as he was then told, too late an hour for insertion:—

SIR,—I have sought in vain to find in Mr. G. M. Roger's letter in your columns for some justification of the course which he has pursued in the present campaign.

The charge against Mr. Roger is that it is inconsistent for one who took the leading part in the movement which resulted in the passing of the Reduction By-law to appear on the public platform as the champion of the man who, for political purposes, prevented the carrying of the by-law into effect.

If Mr. Roger really believes that the policy of Sir Oliver Mowat on the liquor question is preferable to that of the Opposition, as laid down by Mr. Meredith, it is his duty to try, in all proper ways, to secure the election of a Government candidate, even though that candidate may not be all that he could wish; but it is little short of a public scandal, and cannot fail to injure the cause of temperance in the community for Mr. Roger to come prominently forward and appear to condone the disgraceful use which has been made of the license laws in the interests of the Government candidate.

Mr. Roger charges me with inconsistency because I am a supporter of Mr. Winch, whom he accuses of treating during the campaign, of opposing the Reduction By-law, and opposing and ridiculing prohibition before the Royal Commission.

I have no knowledge of the treating to which Mr. Roger refers, and think it quite as probable that the government candidate indulges in this very reprehensible and illegal practice as that the charge is true with regard to Mr. Winch: Mr. Stratton does not, I believe, pose as a total abstainer, or, if he does, I have good reason to believe that his conversion to total abstinence principles must have been very recent.

I would have preferred a pronounced temperance man as a candidate, but, like Mr. Roger, I am willing to make use of the best material within my reach. If only total abstainers favoured prohibition it would be a long time before a prohibitory law could be placed on the statute books. Is Mr. Winch did oppose the Reduction By-law on the ground that while a reduction in the number of licenses would not diminish the quantity of liquor drunk, it would materially affect the town's finances, and I am not sure that he was not right in his contention. Even Mr. Roger appears to have entertained the same view when he argued before the council that those receiving licenses could afford to pay a higher price for the privilege of selling, on account of the increased sales which would result from the proposed reduction.

Another charge against Mr. Winch is that he "opposed and ridiculed prohibition" before the Royal Commission.

It is a pity Mr. Roger trusted his memory in this matter instead of ascertaining the real facts of the case. If he will refer to the Review and EXAMINER of the 6th of October last, he will find that Mr. Winch stated before the Royal Commission that he was in favour of a general measure of prohibition. What he did speak disparagingly of was the operation of the Scott Act, and in this I entirely agree with him.

Mr. Winch has publicly stated in the course of his campaign, that if elected he will support prohibition. He assures me that he will support it independently of party, and that he is prepared to repeat this statement on any platform.

Having now dealt with the charges against Mr. Winch, permit me to state concisely why I am one of his supporters.

1. I believe that the position of Mr. Meredith on the question of prohibition and on the management of the traffic in case prohibition cannot be obtained, is preferable to that of Sir Oliver Mowat.

This opinion, I may say, is also that of the Templar, the organ of the Advanced Prohibitionists.

2. I believe that Mr. Meredith would be in a much better position to enforce a prohibitory law than Sir Oliver, as he would be under no obligation to the liquor party. This is also the opinion of the "Templar."

3. I believe that Mr. Winch is an honest man, and that he will redeem his pledges.

4. I am in favour of the general policy of Mr. Meredith as laid down in his London peech.

Mr. Roger asserts in his letter that Dr. Potts is a supporter of the Mowat Government. As Mr. Roger is not infallible, he must excuse me if I ask something more than his bare assertion before I accept this statement as a fact, especially as only the other day he made a similar statement about another gentleman which turned out to be entirely without foundation.

I am quite willing to accept Mr. Roger's statement with reference to the other rev. gentleman metioned in his letter. The learned principal of Queen's has, as the Mail has shown, a very substantial reason for supporting the Mowat Administration, and I am not quite sure that either Mr. Roger or myself should be proof against arguments of such convincing character.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your valuable space,

I am, etc.,

CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE.

PROCEEDINGS AT THE SHAREHOLDERS ANNUAL MEETING.

THE BUSINESS OF 1893,

President Cox and General Manager Walker Review the Financial, Agricultural and Commercial Situation.

The annual meeting of the Shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was held in the Banking House on Tuesday, 19th inst., a large number of shareholders being present.

The President, Mr. George A. Cox, was requested to take the chair, and Mr. J. H. Plummer, the Assistant General Manager, read the report of the Directors, as follows:—

Report.

The Directors beg to present to the Shareholders the twenty-seventh Annual report, covering the year ending 31st May, 1894, together with the usual Statement of Assets and Liabilities:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| The Balance at credit of Profit and Loss Account, brought forward from last year, is | | $23,561 12 |
| The Net Profits for the year ending 31st May, after providing for all bad and doubtful debts, amounted to | | 528,095 90 |
| | | $551,657 02 |
| Which has been appropriated as follows: | | |
| Dividends Nos. 53 and 54, at Seven per cent. per annum | | $420,000 00 |
| Transferred to Rest Account | | 100,000 00 |
| Written off Bank Premises and Furniture | | 12,500 00 |
| Balance carried forward | | 19,157 02 |
| | | $551,657 02 |

The usual careful revaluation of the entire assets of the Bank has been made, and all bad and doubtful debts have been amply provided for.

The various branches, agencies and departments of the Bank have been inspected during the year.

A branch of the bank was recently opened at Waterford with a view of retaining valuable deposit and discount business in that neighborhood, which would otherwise have found its way to other institutions.

The very difficult and laborious work connected with the establishment of a Superannuation Fund has been concluded, but not in time to enable the accounts of the fund to be actually opened during the year which has just closed. It is, however, confidently expected that the fund will be in operation in a few weeks.

During the year we have lost by death the oldest Director of the Bank, Mr. George Taylor. In 1871 he succeeded his brother, Mr. John Taylor, who had been a Director of the Bank from its commencement. For over a year past, owing to the state of his health, he had been unable to attend the meetings of the Board, and in this connection a resolution will be offered to the Shareholders reducing the number of Directors to seven.

The Directors have again pleasure in recording their appreciation of the efficiency and zeal with which their respective duties have been performed by the officers of the Bank.

GEO. A. COX,
President.

B. E. WALKER,
General Manager.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

The President, in moving the adoption of the report, pointed out the changes in the position of the bank during the year. The general shrinkage of business has led to a decrease in the amount of circulation outstanding, of about $330,000. Deposits have been kept up to within $400,000 of last year's figures, but since the books were closed they have more than made up this loss, and are at the moment at the highest figure they have ever reached in the history of the Bank.

He briefly commented on the creditable manner in which the banks of Canada had carried the country through the troubles of the year past, and pointed out the conservative policy pursued with respect to the tempting opportunities of profitably and safely lending money in the United States which the year offered. In speaking of losses made by Canadians through speculations in New York and Chicago, he said: "We hear every now and then of large sums of money having been transmitted through brokers' offices to cover margins on adverse speculations. I would be afraid to repeat some of these statements, because, no matter how true, many people would refuse to believe them, but it is certain that in the aggregate the stock and grain speculating public of Canada have had to bear loses amounting to many millions of dollars,—a very serious and direct burden upon the industry of this country. We are not likely to fail in sympathy for those who make losses in attempting to build up an industry or to carry on any real trading venture; they have, perhaps, helped the country, although they have failed to make money for themselves, but this species of gambling which year after year only results in taking money out of Canada to help support the brokers in Chicago and New York is very much to be regretted."

The Vice-President briefly seconded the resolution, and the General Manager was then called upon to address the meeting:

GENERAL MANAGER'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Walker, in his opening remarks, referred to the satisfactory measure of prosperity which the bank had had during the past year, and he then proceeded to comment on the business of the country generally, stating that we might take considerable satisfaction out of the moderation of our course in public and private business for some years past, whether this course was enforced upon us by conditions we could not alter or was the result of our own prudence, and that we might congratulate ourselves upon the soundness of our business institutions because they had so admirably stood the severe strain put upon them during a time of great trial. He pointed out the disastrous effects of the collapse of last year to the world generally and especially to the United States, and traced the causes which had led to such unfortunate results. A complete reform of the banking system of the United States was, in his opinion, necessary, but there appeared to be no settled public opinion yet as to the form remedial legislation should take. Referring to the condition of our own country, he continued as follows:—

In Canada complaints of bad collections and diminished trading are general, and there are certainly many more i le men than usual, but none of these unfavourable conditions approach in degree to the conditions in other countries. Farmers' notes for implements, apart from the North-West, while not paid perhaps quite as well as usual, were nevertheless well paid, and mortgage interest and instalments were well met. Economy is general, and this, although such a good thing in itself, has much to do with the prevailing feeling that times are hard. The clearing house returns shows a decrease from $1,034,000,000 to $925,000,000 for the year just closed, a falling off of only eleven per cent., as against twenty-six per cent. in the United States. Our prosperity of course depends very much on the power of other countries to buy, and we cannot expect that our foreign export trade will continue to grow as rapidly as it has during recent years. The main question for us is one of prices. On the import side we are benefitted by the lower price of the manufactured articles and raw material we import. We are also likely to import most carefully, because the spirit of economy for the time being is very strong. When we turn to the export side the question is, do we export products of the kind at the moment not being over produced by the world, and are we turning our attention to the products in which there is apparently the most certainty of a favourable market.

LUMBER.

For the year ending June 30th, 1893, the value of our exports of woods in all conditions, manufactured and unmanufactured, was about $29,000,000, against $25,000,000 five years ago.

What the year which is just closing will show we cannot say, but one of the features which showed conclusively in what strong hands the business is generally held was the promptitude with which the United States firms, who had contracted to take our lumber, carried out their obligations, notwithstanding the financial storm. Had it not been for this, our lumbermen would hardly have known what course to pursue during the past winter. As it was, they doubtless intended, as a whole, to take out about the usual quantity, but the early mild weather broke up the winter roads and, as a consequence, some hundreds of millions of feet are left in the woods. In the Ottawa district most of the logs were got out, and, despite some trouble with low water, will in the main reach the mills promptly. The logs held back are mainly in the Georgian Bay and North Shore districts.

In the Ottawa district the cut of logs and the logs carried over will make the supply about the same as last year, a little over six million pieces, but the quantity of timber made is trifling.

The nature of the market will depend much on the United States tariff. The entire cut of deals has been contracted for and is being actively shipped to Great Britain, aided by low freights. The business with Great Britain in thin lumber is steadily growing and that part of the trade is very satisfactory. On the other hand, part of the lumber paid for by United States buyers is not yet shipped and although many good contracts for this season's sawing have been made, the actual shipments are smaller than at any time recently. While this is due partly to the very bad condition of business in the United States, the settlement of the tariff will doubtless make a market for our lumber, although perhaps with a slight concession in the price from last year. Stocks in the United States are said not to be large and our supply will no doubt be required.

AGRICULTURAL INTERESTS.

Turning from the forest to the dairy, we have once more exceeded any previous record in cheese making, and by our victories at Chicago have advertised Canada as, beyond doubt, one of the greatest dairy countries in the world. For the year ending 31st March, the value of cheese exported was $14,647,000, a gain of about one million dollars on the previous year, and while we increase, the export of the United States continue to decrease, falling last year for the same period to $6,492,618, a decline of about one and a half million dollars. The season in Canada has been profitable to both the cheese maker and the shipper, and the price in a year of general decline was nearly a quarter of a cent per pound higher in the average than for the previous year. New factories are not only being built in the district noted for cheese making, but many parts of the country which have not heretofore produced cheese are now preparing to do so. The question of absolutely prime importance is that we shall keep up the high quality. The awards at Chicago may seem to make such a dread unnecessary, but it is at the moment when we have achieved the position of being the largest cheese exporters in the world and our reputation is at the highest that we are apt to become careless. Putting the results of the June and October competitions together, Canada, out of 687 entries, obtained 608 awards, while the United States, out of 640 entries, obtained 54 awards.

The farmers generally, and especially the cheese factories, are at last taking up seriously the very important business of fattening hogs. Although, as compared with cheese making and cattle feeding, it is only in its infancy, what may be done is indicated by the fact that while our exports of pork products down to 1889 were less than half a million dollars, for the year ending 30th June, 1893, they exceeded three millions. That we have something to learn as to quality and the kind of animal from which the best return can be obtained there is no doubt. As in every other farm product, if we are to secure the British market, we must raise not the second-best but the best.

The business of shipping live cattle, which amounted five years ago in value to about $9,000,000, had increased to nearly $11,000,000 for the year ending 30th June, 1893, but during the past year the business has be unprofitable to almost all concerned, both graziers and shippers. A fall of about one cent and a half per pound is a very serious shrinkage, but what relation the present somewhat improved price has to the actual cost of production is a matter not easy to learn. Even if the British restrictions were removed, it would doubtless take some time for the business to entirely recover. Meantime the country is full of fat cattle, and in many parts the farmers' slowness in paying the storekeeper is doubtless due to the greater quantity of stock on their farms and not to inability. Many of the animals fed on grass this season have been bought by the graziers at very low prices, and the removal of the restrictions, accompanied as it would be by a slight improvement in price, would bring about large shipments. The prospect of fair treatment by Great Britain to our cattle is not very good, however.

The export of fruits in all conditions has exceeded in value $3,000,000, while hay has reached half that figure. Both businesses are subject to large risks because of the great variability in the crop gathered, but the growing importance of fruit especially demands the attention of the better class of farmers. If as much intelligence as is applied to cheese making could be applied to the orchard the results would astonish the people of Ontario. Of course my remarks do not apply to the Niagara and adjacent districts, where fruit growing is so well developed and so profitable.

It seems reasonably clear, then, that so far as the products of the forest and the dairy are concerned, we are prospering and need not fear over-production. In pork products we have room for indefinite expansion, and every farmer should bear this in mind. In our cattle trade the course is less clear and we can only hope for better prices and just treatment from Great Britain. We will also hope that the tariff legislation in the United States, when settled, will again give a reasonable measure of freedom to the trade in the products of lesser importance, but which in the aggregate have much to do with our farmers' prosperity.

During the last five years we have increased our exports about twenty-eight millions, the increase in the imports being only about fifteen millions, and the difference for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1893, between imports and exports, was reduced to about ten millions against us. If we can even maintain this situation for a few years we will do well. We are likely to improve the comparison as far as imports are concerned, owing to the prevailing economy. Can we not also, by further improved methods, make the world still give the preference to our products because of superior quality and cheapness and, despite the smaller purchasing power of the world, continue to increase our exports?

There is, in the United States and Canada, a certain amount of discussion going on as to beet-root culture. It is claimed that we can easily excel Germany in growing beet roots, and yet, from some reason, we have not made a success where it has been tried, and perhaps it may be said that we have not given it a practical trial at all. Without presuming to have any opinion on the subject, we would like every farmer to consider that we import ed in 1893, $7,500,000 worth of raw sugars, syrups, etc., and that, if even the proportion of that which was represented by German beet-root sugar, which for the United States and Canada is about one-fifth, could be supplied by Canadian farmers, the gain to Canada would be very great indeed. We pay to foreign countries for iron and steel and for raw sugar $20,000,000, nearly one-sixth of our whole imports. If these are materials for the production of which we are by nature well situated, it is at least discreditable to such an enterprising people that more is not done to develop these industries.

The year has been, as we all know, particularly hard upon our people in the North-west, in common with the districts in the United States where wheat growing is the leading feature in agriculture. A very low yield per acre and prices lower than ever before to a country depending mainly on grain means something uncomfortably near disaster, and there is no use in disguising the fact that in actual power to pay debts out of the current season's products, the farmers of the North-west were worse off during the past year than ever before. But it would be a mistake to conclude therefrom that the people of that part of Canada are doubtful as to their future.

In the course of their progress to material wealth our Northwest provinces must expect the recurrence at intervals of such vicissitudes, and the question is, what are they to learn from the present experience? That they must raise everything for which there is a market other than wheat is clear, and in this they will only repeat the experience of what were once great wheat growing states in the United States, but which have many years since passed the maximum of wheat acreage. That they must farm more within their own means, both as to capital and the employment of labor, seems clear, but they have in the past only displayed the same expansive tendencies as their fellow merchants, and as all people in new countries who have not yet got their financial bearings. Hereafter, both from lessened ability and greater dread of debt, there will be improvement. But while the experiments in mixed farming are being made and the dreary lessons of enforced economy are being learned, the fact remains that for years to come wheat must be the main item in what they have to sell, and, if they have to face the opening up of an indefinite area of new wheat lands in the Argentine and elsewhere, they may have a hard time of it for a while. But the Argentine has again collapsed financially, and its farmers are about to learn that fancy prices for wheat in worthless paper money with gold at a premium of 325, may be quite delusive as to the profits of wheat growing. We are not yet prepared to believe that the rude agriculturist of the Argentine can in the long run raise wheat cheaper, having regard to quality, than the farmers of the North-west.

Thrift and the highest intelligence in wheat culture, combined with an energy unknown to the mixed races of South America, must give the victory to us, unless the question be entirely one of transportation. But doubtless, as with most of the world's products, the question is one of transportation. The Canadian Pacific Railway claim to carry as cheap as is possible, and in the present condition of railroad earnings this is probably true. But it is also true that railroads will year after year be forced to lower rates, and must somehow carry wheat to Europe at prices which will leave a living profit to the farmer over a series of years. The great transportation question, however, which is agitating many people in Canada and the United States, is the possibility of a better water transit. Can we not improve upon the Erie Canal as a means of getting to seaboard? Are we to see the foreign bound traffic of the upper lakes deported at Buffalo, or are we to try and secure that traffic, and, what is much more important, provide the necessary cheaper transportation to our Northwest provinces? We who are inexperienced in the practical aspect of such matters talk vaguely about widening and deepening the present canals, or about a new canal across Ontario, or of connecting French River and Lake Nipissing, and thus making a route by the Ottawa River.

For lack of information we do not know what should be done; we only know that something practical might be done. In such an emergency it seems clearly the duty of the Dominion Government to have surveys made and report on all the proposed routes, so that the people of Quebec, Ontario and the Northwest provinces may at least be in a position to express an intelligent opinion on such a vital question. I am sure we are sufficiently free from local bias to hold up our hands for whatever route will accomplish the great end of being the cheapest from the west to the seaboard. If there are those who say we cannot afford the expenditure, the answer is that we do not know whether we can or not until an intelligent report is before us. If success in wheat growing is all important to the Northwest, and if, having overcome the terrors of frost, the barrier is transportation, we must in some way remove it.

In the meantime let us remember that about 12,000,000 bushels of wheat and about 25,000 head of cattle were exported, and altogether the Northwest realized about $6,000,000 out of their products, which is not a very bad return for such a small population.

Reports from forty five districts show that the acreage under crop in the Northwest is as large as last year, in some districts larger, and, while rain is much required in many places, prospects are quite good, and the general feeling is not at all one of discouragement.

In our own province there has been damage by rain on low lands and some replanting is necessary, but there is no reason to doubt that we will have about as good crops on the average as usual.

The motion for the adoption of the report was then put and carried.

The usual resolutions expressing the thanks of the shareholders to the President, Vice-President, and Directors, and also to the General Manager, Assistant General Manager, and other officers of the Bank, were unanimously adopted.

The retiring Board of Directors were re-elected, as follows:—Messrs. George A. Cox (President), John I. Davidson (Vice-President), James Crathern, Wm. B. Hamilton, John Hoskin, Q. C., L. L. D., Robert Kilgour, and Matthew Leggat.

A VERY SUDDEN DEATH.

A Most Estimable Young Lady From Norwood Dies at the Snowden House.

Miss May Pettigrew, a daughter of Dr. Pettigrew, of Norwood, aged about 18, who has been a chronic invalid for some years, was passing through Peterborough Tuesday morning on her way to Clifton Springs, N.Y., when she was suddenly stricken down with an acute attack of peritonitis.

Miss Pettigrew was accompanied by two friends, Mrs. John Finlay and Mrs J. N. Ackerman, and together with them she repaired to the Snowden House, where it was thought she would soon recover from the attack as it was estimated simply one of the many to which she was subjected. The invalid, however, growing rapidly worse, Dr. Halliday was summoned. He could do nothing however other than relieve the pain, and Miss Pettigrew passed away at about 1.30 o'clock this afternoon.

The father, grandfather, sister and brother of the deceased have all arrived from Norwood and the remains will be taken to that village for interment on the eight o'clock train this evening.

Miss Pettigrew was a prime favourite amongst her large circle of friends, both in Peterborough and Norwood. They will be both shocked and grieved to hear of the sudden demise of one whom they all held so dear.

WELL-MERITED PRAISE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I desire through your columns to convey my sincere thanks to the lady superintendent and nurses of the Nicholls Hospital for their very great kindness and skilful attendance to me during my late illness.

I would also consider myself very ungrateful to the management of the hospital were I to neglect to publish to the world my mead of praise for the excellent manner in which everything in connection with that institution is conducted.

The people of Peterborough and surrounding country have a boon in their midst in this institution for which they can never be too thankful, and I can assure you that anyone who speaks disparagingly of the Nicholls Hospital cannot do so honestly.

Yours, etc.,
S. J. CAMPBELL.

MRS. HALLIDAY GUILTY

The Jury Brings in a Verdict of Murder in the First Degree.

THE QUESTION OF INSANITY

Expert Testimony Goes to Show That Her Insanity Was Merely Clever Acting —The Murderess Hears the Verdict Without Emotion —Sentence Reserved.

MONTICELLO, N. Y., June 22.—The jury has found Mrs. Halliday guilty of murder in the first degree.

The trial was reopened yesterday for the purpose of allowing the prosecution to refer evidence in rebuttal. Dr. E. G. Mann, of New York, gave a hard blow to the defence. Dr. Mann has had experience with mental disease for twenty-five years, and has had his own private hospital since 1875, and is a member of a number of medical societies. He examined Mrs. Halliday yesterday. He testified that while in the courtroom she had exhibited to him appearance of a person suffering from dimentia. When she entered the cell, however, her whole demeanor changed. From a person seeming to have no mind she suddenly evinced an extraordinary degree of intelligence and objected to being examined. She answered all his questions as fast as he could ask them, and always in an irrevalent manner, something a real lunatic would not do. Her pulse was at 110, and her skin was most natural. The skin of a lunatic would be dry and hard. Her expression did not indicate insanity. When he examined her yesterday she resisted vigorously, and her skin became moist with perspiration. An insane person would not perspire, however great the exertion. Dr. Mann said he thought there was no insanity about her and that her actions during the last year could easily be performed by a sane person who was a pretty good actress.

Mr. Carpenter, summing up for the defence, said that it was the first case ever tried in Sullivan county where the counsel was unable to elicit a single relevant word from his client. He drew a picture of Mrs. Halliday's visit to Newburg and endeavored to show that it was made without any object or desire for revenge. He claimed that as she chose her victim haphazardly and without any knowledge she was clearly insane. He spoke of Mr. Mann as a paid expert called by the people, who had declared her to be sane, because if he declared her to be insane his fee would not have been so large. If Mr. Mann's testimony was to be believed the prisoner was one of the most consummate actresses.

The judge announced that he would pronounce sentence to-day.

The prisoner did not seem to be affected by the verdict. When she was brought into court her cheeks were flushed. When she was told to stand up and face the jury she did so upon being raised by the constables in charge. She did not seem to comprehend that she was being consigned to death.

HUNGARY'S CIVIL MARRIAGE BILL.

Carried in the House of Magnates by a Majority of Four.

BUDAPESTH, June 22.—The civil marriage bill was passed by a majority of four. Dr. Wekerle's victory was due directly to the interference of the Emperor, who prevented four magnates of his court from voting with the opposition.

The announcement of the vote elicited storms of cheers from the thousands outside of the building. The crowd broke the police lines and hurrahed wildly for Dr. Wekerle. The discussion of the amendments will begin to-day. The newspapers say that nobody changed his vote from what it was on May 10, when the bill was rejected.

BRITISH CABLE NEWS

Mr. Gladstone Will Not Stand for Re-election in Midlothian.

DISCUSSING THE DEATH DUTIES

Sir George Baden Powell Withdraws His Amendment — The London Times Discusses the Possible Reception of Reciprocity by the Colonies.

LONDON, June 21.—The House of Commons debated again last evening Sir George Baden-Powell's motion, made on June 14, that in case of property held abroad, the amount of death duties paid in the country where the property was situated, should be deducted from the duties payable in Great Britain; this arrangement to be effective only with countries making similar exemptions in the converse case. Sir William Harcourt said the Government approved of the principle of the motion. The arrangement ought certainly to be reciprocal. The Government would soon introduce a clause in the budget embodying the provision in question as far as the colonies were concerned; not, however, in reference to foreign states. Sir George Baden-Powell responded to this declaration by withdrawing his motion.

In commenting upon the debate the Times to-day says: "The colonies will look askance at the reciprocity idea. Sir William Harcourt has made them suspicious and recalcitrant in the matter by the unqualified assertion of the Imperial Government's right to tax the property of their citizens."

A. J. Balfour on Socialism.

LONDON, June 22.—A. J. Balfour addressed a meeting of dissident Unionists He said it was an historical fact that Radicalism and Conservatism had each played a useful part in the development of society. Socialism, however, was no remedy for the existing evils. The theories of the Socialists were doomed because they were not based upon a realization of how much industry depended upon individual enterprise. He could not believe that Britain would abandon herself to Socialism. If she relied upon individual efforts for a decade the country would see the external empire flourishing, the phantom of home rule laid, and each party, instead of striving to outbid in empty promises, striving to benefit every class without injury to others.

Mr. Gladstone Will Not Ran.

EDINBURGH, June 22.—Sir Thomas David Gibson-Carmichael has been selected by the Midlothian Liberals to contest at the next election the seat in Parliament now occupied by Mr. Gladstone, the ex Premier, having declined to stand for re-election.

IN THE FRENCH CHAMBER.

The Deputies Grew Riotous During a Non-Confidence Debate.

PARIS, June 22.—Paul Thierry-Delanoue, Republican deputy of the Aube, interpellated the government in the Chamber as to their policy towards professors in state institutions. He had positive information, he said, that the state college professorships were withheld from men of socialistic views. In general the Government had made efforts to exclude from professorial chairs those who were not subservient to the Government programme. An earnest debate followed this speech. Deputy Jean Janres, of the Republican Union, contended that the professors must have absolute political liberty in their teaching. The Government's course had been a direct negation of the principle of free and universal suffrage.

Deputy Jaures was interrupted incessantly, and often was obliged to shout to make himself heard above the disorder. At the close of his speech a proposal to adjourn until Saturday was made but it was rejected. After the vote M. Jaures and several other deputies of the group covered again the ground of the whole previous debate bringing in six resolutions of varying degrees of hostility to the Government. There was a great hubbub. Speakers in the tribune could not be heard in the middle of the House at any time, and often their voices were lost completely.

Casimir Perier, who was in the chair, restored something like order at 11 o'clock by threatening to suspend the sitting. After half an hour more of aimless squabbling the deputies expressed confidence in the Government.

A Descendant of the Stuarts.

NEW YORK, June 22.—One of the most interesting social announcements made in Washington in a long time is that of the engagement of Mrs. Madeline Tasker Polk and C. H. Cramp, of Philadelphia, head of the great shipbuilding firm of that name. Mr Cramp is about 60 years of age, while his fair fiancee is but half that age, and is a very beautiful and charming woman. Mrs. Madeline Tasker Polk is not only a member of one of the oldest and most distinguished of the colonial families, but is also directly descended from a long line of Scottish kings of the family name of Stuart.

England Reported to Have Given In.

PARIS, June 22.—The Temps publishes a despatch from Berlin declaring that to avoid an international conference, which, perforce, would occupy itself with the Egyptian question, Great Britain has conceded Germany's demands and consented to renounce her claims to the strip of territory between the Congo State and the German sphere of influence in Africa. In exchange Germany, it is said, will permit the construction of a land telegraph line from Cape Colony to the Nile, for which purpose Great Britain wanted the strip of territory.

HE WORKED THE WIRES

How Erastus Wiman Saved the Dun-Wiman Agency.

DUN'S VIEW OF THE SENTENCE

Wiman's Late Partner Arrives in Montreal —He Does Not Consider the Sentence Inadequate and Will Not Assist in Procuring Commutation.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Despite the severity of the sentence Erastus Wiman received yesterday morning he had passed a very comfortable night. He is still cheerful, but refers all enquiries to his counsel, Mr. Tracy. His wife and son were at the Tombs before 10 o'clock and spent several hours with him. His mail, he says, brings many expressions of sympathy and confidence and offers of financial assistance.

Talking of his relations with the Dun agency Mr. Wiman told of how by clever lobbying he saved the firm. He said: "Think of the work I did to prevent hostile legislation that threatened the Dun-Wiman business. Seven States at one time were trying to legislate us out of existence.

"Once I spent a month at Harrisburg and worked night and day with the legislators. At a critical moment I needed to influence the Senators. I sent telegrams differently worded to all my agents in the State. I ordered them to get those telegrams signed by the biggest men in their localities and repeat them back to the Senators. When the crowd of telegrams protesting against the contemplated legislation began to pour in the Senators felt that they were threatening the State's business interests, and I was all right.

"I wanted to write an editorial and get it in the Harrisburg Patriot. The editor couldn't do it because the printers were on a strike. I set up the editorial matter myself, composing it as I went along. The striking printers threw stones through the window at me, taking me for a rat, but I explained things to them and threw them $10 for their fund.

"That editorial was a great success. It was by such ideas and schemes as that that I built up the business that now pays $500,000 a year to the men who are trying to drive me to prison.

"I do not pretend to be a methodical business man, and I know I have done many careless things. A man who has genius enough to make $80,000 a year is not apt to be much at keeping books. The two do not go together. I'm a very careless fellow.

"People have talked a great deal about my vanity. Perhaps there has been some vanity in my life, but there was more than that. I had to make the business of a mercantile agency respectable, and to do that I had to make myself respected and well known as the head of the agency. Whatever I may have done to add to my personal reputation, making speeches, etc., has put money into the pockets of those whom I have built up."

R. G. Dun in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Que., June 22.—Mr. R. G. Dun arrived in Montreal on his way to his fishing grounds at Cascaspedia, and in an interview on the Wiman case he said. "I think that if it had not been for the recommendation to mercy made by the jury the sentence would have been more serious. I am not vindicative against Wiman, but I am sure that Judge Ingraham, who is known as one of the most capable judges on the United States bench, would have imposed a heavier sentence had it not been for that recommendation. In my opinion the sentence was not at all inadequate."

Asked if he was prepared to co-operate in any attempt to procure a commutation of the sentence, Mr. Dun said that he did not think any effort would be made in that direction, and there was no reason why he should interfere. Mr. Dun was shown an interview in a New York paper in which Mr. Wiman is reported as saying that he (Wiman) built up the business by securing agents who did the work for nothing. "That is Wiman all over," said Mr. Dun emphatically. "The man is eaten up with vanity, and that is one of his exaggerated statements. As a matter of fact we pay our agents; men do not work for nothing. Of course, our travelers throughout the country make friends and we get some correspondence in that way. But that statement about 100,000 agents working for nothing is just like Wiman."

A Tramp's Pitiable Plight.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 22.—A very pitiable sight of humanity struck town yesterday morning. He gave his name as Thomas Sheehan. He had once worked on the construction of the Hamilton and Port Dover road, but since that he could only a very vague account of his wanderings, being a complete imbecile. During the day he went into several houses and demanded food and had to be ejected from several places by force. His face, head and body were covered with white looking running sores and scabs. A rumor got about that he was a leper, which caused a great amount of excitement. The town medical staff was called and the man washed and fumigated, and they examined him, and although they pronounced it not leprosy they could not tell what it was until further examination. He was placed in the best house and his case had been taken up by the town authorities with the Government. It is said he was in the Hamilton and St. Catharines hospitals and was put out of those institutions. He has been about 60 years of age and says he once had brothers in Holyoke, Mass., and fought through the late American war. The railroads refuse to carry him out of town.

More About MacWherrell.

TORONTO, June 22.—It is rumored that the Crown has secured evidence which may prove that MacWherrell was a son of the old man he murdered. His counsel, Mr. Robinette, does not place any credit in the report. MacWherrell's real name is Wherrell, and as he was born and lived most of his life in England the story about the relationship is highly improbable. The Crown makes no secret, however, of the fact that new evidence has been received, but declines to divulge its nature. It is understood it mainly concerns Walker and may result in his conviction.

THE TORONTO LABOUR CANDIDATE.

The supporters of Mr. Meredith, are not content with bitterly opposing the only straight labour candidate in the present contest, but the friends of this Dr. Ryerson in East Toronto have sought with the most cunning unfairness to entrap Mr. Armstrong, the labour candidate, into making a declaration on the school question that might be used to drive the wedge of sectarian strife into the ranks of labour. Not content with the introduction of religious strife strife into the political arena, the factionists seek to sever into hostile camps the men who have hitherto known each other only as brother trades unionists; and so questions leading up to the abolition of Separate Schools and Mr. Armstrong's attitude thereto were put.

The labour candidate was frank. He told his questioneers that Mr. Meredith himself did not favour the abolition of Separate Schools; that the question was one outside of the jurisdiction of the Ontario Legislature, and that, as the properly nominated candidate of Protestants and Roman Catholics alike, assembled in a labour convention, he had no desire to deal with a question that could not be settled in the Legislature.

The answer was a wise one, and if it had been asked in the ordinary course nothing more would have been heard of it. Labour men, however, are assured that it was asked, not by an elector anxious for information, but in the hope that Mr. Armstrong would be trapped into saying something that might be used against him either among his Protestant fellow-workmen or among Roman Catholics. When asked in this spirit the question becomes one that workmen desirous of keeping their unions free from creed hatred will remember on polliug day.

A POWERFUL PROTEST.

The Canada Presbyterian says:—"Don't quarrel with your neighbours over the election, Above all things, don't quarrel with them at the bidding of some miscreant who may be earning a dirty dollar by stirring up strife among neighbours. Morally, there is no difference between the Anarchist who makes war against capital with dynamite and the man who uses the Bible to make Protestants and Catholics take each other by the throat. In fact, the Ontario Anarchist is the worst of the two, for he adds a veneer of hypocrisy to his crime. The infamous work of kindling religious strife is always easily done in a mixed community like ours. An idiot with a torch can burn down Toronto quite as easily as a sensible man. In fact, an idiot is much more likely to burn the city than any sensible man would be. The most abandoned political profigate that ever wagged his lying tongue or drew a venal pen can stir up the most deadly sectarian strife as quickly as the ablest man in the country. Therefore we say to every reader, beware of the tramp who tries to kindle strife among neighbours. The tramp will go back to his lair on the 26th, but the neighbour remains and must be met every day. Many of them are good neighbours, who have helped many a time in the past 30 or 40 years. More's the shame to quarrel with them at the bidding of scamps who may be earning a few dollars a day by stirring up the worst passions of human nature."

A STRONG POINT FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

The Opposition journals and stumpers condemn the Succession Act of the Mowat Government by which estates of deceased persons are taxed, and the resulting funds devoted to the fund for the maintenance of asylums, hospitals and charities. The Toronto News, which is the bitterest opponent of the Mowat Government, endorses it manfully on this point. The News of June 21st says: "Mr. Fullerton last night condemned the Death Duties Act passed by the Mowat Government. He could not have selected a point on which the Government is stronger. The law which the Opposition speaker denounced is one of the best ever placed on the statute book of Ontario. The Death Duties Act is not oppressive in its character. It leaves wholly exempt estates up to $100,000 where the property goes to direct heirs. Surely it cannot be considered a hardship when those inheriting over the sum named are called upon to contribute a small portion of their inheritance to the Provincial treasury? The Act is good in that it is a recognition of the fact that those best able to do so should bear the principal burden of maintaining the Government and because it is a direct discouragement to the accumulation here of large fortunes such as are the greatest menace to civilization over the border."

IS MR. MEREDITH GOOD AUTHORITY?

At Napanee during the campaign Mr. Meredith said: "I have said that Separate Schools should never have been established in this country." Speaking at London in December, 1886, Mr. Meredith said: "Who secured the passage of the Separate School law? It was the Conservative party in Canada?" According to Mr. Meredith the Conservative party did what it should not have done. The authority should satisfy most Conservatives. Mr. Meredith's floppery is so characteristic of his "statesmanship" that it has ceased to create surprise. He claims credit through his party for establishing Separate Schools, and also denounces their existence. He denounces the amendments that have been made in the Separate School laws to make the Separate Schools better and to give Roman Catholic children a better education and to make them better citizens. Yet he sat in the House and concurred in these amendments, for he did not lift his voice against them. Mr. Meredith is a brilliant political acrobat, and a man who has no steadiness of purpose, no fixed principles and no policy but policy, who aspires to take the helm of the ship of state and professes to be able to steer a straight course. A hare, doubling before the hounds makes a "bee line" compared to Mr. Meredith.

THE PROVINCE'S STRONG BOX.

"When convicts (Connolly and McGreevy) get such treatment, ordinary men will not be much disinclined to be classed among convicts. As we think of the saturnalia that must have existed for a long time before such a state of public morals could become possible, we are forced to ask what might have happened to the richest province in the Dominion if any easy-going politician had charge of its strong box. What plunder there was for the gang! We have timber limits worth tens of millions; we could stand a debt of twenty or thirty millions as easily as Quebec. A politician of easy virtue would have lavished these millions on heelers and hangers on, who, in return, would be enthusiastically voting him a god. Does not this thought throw some light on what we have escaped, and on what we owe to the man who has been in charge of our strong box for 22 years? Assuredly, the revelations have had that effect upon me. Our money is still ours, and our honour is safe. Thank God for it, and also let us keep our powder dry—that is, keep a good servant at his post. A man who will not read this lesson will not read anything. In one word, Ontario cannot afford to dismiss Sir Oliver Mowat."—Principal Grant.

A NOVEL CONTEST.

Looking over the political field one finds only some twenty-five constituencies in which the old-fashioned contest between Liberal and Conservative is taking place, while the nominations of Patrons, nominees of the P. P. A., and unclassified independents make up a bewildering variety of combinations.

In the Liberal list there are few blanks. In nearly every constituency there is nominated an out-and-out Liberal; in a few cases the contest has been left to a Patron, who is known to be thoroughly Liberal in his sympathies. The Liberal phalanx is by far the most numerous and compact in the field.

On the other hand, the Conservative ranks are full of gaps. In nearly a third of the constituencies there is no regular candidate of the party. In many cases they have left the Protestant Protective association to fight the Government. In at least a dozen ridings none of the anti-Mowat factions are represented, and the member-elect, whoever he may be, will give a general support to the Government. The factions have allowed a dozen elections to go by default, and they enter the race just that much behind.

MR. WINCH and his friends wish to abolish Government House, Toronto. Well let 'er go if the people say so. Sir Oliver Mowat is willing, if the people use the chance which this election affords to pronounce against Government House, to shut up the buildings at once, even if the province loses $300,000 of property which will revert to the Dominion Government in case Government House, which is the house that Sandfield built, is abolished. By the way how is Mr. Meredith on this matter now? He opposed the abolition of Government House not long ago, and last session he favoured it. Isn't it about time he made another flop?

THERE are twenty-five to thirty constituencies where Mr. Meredith has no candidate. But it is a matter of note that the only straight labour candidate in the province—in East Toronto—is opposed by a Conservative—one of Mr. Meredith's right hand men, Dr. Ryerson. Conservatives all over the province stand aside for P. P. A. candidates, but not for a labour candidate, Oh, no.

THE Review devotes a column and over of its precious space to an explanation of why it refused to publish the letter of Mr. Wm. Quinn, giving his reasons for resigning the Patrons' nomination. A line would have served the purpose. The article is a rather bitter attack upon Mr. Quinn, but that gentleman is able to take care of himself.

Look out for Roorbachs. No charge that can be sustained is held until the last days of the campaign.

Mothers.

"One good mother is worth a hundred schoolmasters," said George Herbert. Men are what their mothers make them. But if the mothers are peevish and irritable, through irregularities, "female weakness" and kindred ailments, they find no pleasure, no beauty in the care of their babes. All effort is torture. Let all such, who feel weighed to the earth with "weaknesses" peculiar to their sex, try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. They will find the little ones a delight instead of a torment.

To those about to become mothers it is a priceless boon. It lessens the pains and perils of childbirth, shortens labour and promotes the secretion of an abundance of nourishment for the child.

PAYING FOR MILK AT THE CHEESE FACTORY

On the Basis of its Fat Contents.

The Examiner has been requested to publish the following letter:

To the Editor of the News Argus:

DEAR SIR,—The fact that the stockholders and patrons of the Stirling cheese factory were paid last season on the basis of the butter fat contained in the milk furnished by them has very naturally given rise to many enquiries as to this new method of paying, when compared with that which has hitherto been practised, viz:—paying according to the weight of the milk, regardless of its quality.

As these enquiries are being made not only by our own stockholders, but also by leading men in some other factories, I beg leave, through your columns, to offer a few general statements touching our experience in this matter, which I feel assured will be of interest to many of your readers at the present time. And, as the Babcock machine has not yet come into general use in cheese factories for the purpose indicated above, it may also be of interest to briefly sketch a few of the preliminaries incident to its use before stating the results which have followed.

SAMPLING THE MILK.

A sample of the milk furnished by each person was taken daily, by means of a tin tube open at both ends which was inserted and allowed to touch the bottom of the can. The finger then closed the upper end and the tube was withdrawn. The contained milk was then allowed to flow into a composite sample bottle by releasing the finger.

The composite sample bottles used were pint fruit jars, upon each of which was placed a number corresponding with the name of the person furnishing milk to the factory, and which also contained a quantity which was used in order to keep the milk in a fluid state until the test was made. The quantity used to preserve a weekly composite sample was from a weekly composite sample was from three to ten grains, apportioned according to the volume of milk to be preserved. The Bichrome was first weighed to ascertain the bulk quantity, and afterwards measured by means of a spoon of peculiar shape made for the purpose. A number of corresponding with the number of waggons delivering milk at the factory was also provided. Each case or drawer was of sufficient capacity to hold the samples from the respective waggons. These cases were kept securely locked in a place made to receive them and which was within convenient reach of the persons engaged in weighing the milk, whose duty it was to take the samples.

Once every week a sample was drawn from the composite bottle, for the test bottle, by means of the pipette, and the test duly made. The result was immediately noted in the milk, from which the samples were taken. The number of pounds of milk furnished during the week multiplied by the per cent. of fat indicated by the test, and divided by 100, gave the number of pounds of butter fat contained in the week's milk. These figures were afterwards used instead of the number of pounds of milk as heretofore, in determining the amount of money which should fall to the share of each person furnishing milk to the factory.

DIVIDENDS AND RESULTS.

There were made three dividends of the season's business. The first comprising the months April, May and June. The second July and August, and the third, the balance of the season.

The average showing of butter fat in milk furnished to the factory was:

| | 1st Div. | 2nd Div. | 3rd Div. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Highest | 3 68 | 3.83 | 4.41 |
| Lowest | 3.30 | 3.17 | 3.68 |
| Average of whole | 3.51 | 3.59 | 3.94 |

Value of milk in dividends per 100 lbs. clear of ordinary expenses, including milk drawing:

| | 1st. Div. | 2nd Div. | 3rd Div. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Highest | .78c. | .83c. | $1.02 4 |
| Lowest | .70c. | .72 8 | .81 4 |
| Factory average (or old method) | .73 23 | .77 66 | .91 3 |
| No. varying from average and above | .19 | .22 | .19 |
| No. and below | .19 | .16 | .18 |

Value of milk by the season per 100 pounds: Highest, .84 9-10c. Lowest, .75 8 10c. Factory average, .79 3-10c. nearly.

With reference to the foregoing statement I would say, that of the 38 stockholders who furnished the milk, two were exactly on a par with the factory average. And of those varying from the average to the extent of .025c. per 100 lbs., there were 14 above and 14 below, and of the remaining 8 there were 5 who received a further advance in amounts ranging from .025c. to .56c. (which was the highest) above the average, and three who received a further decline from .025c. to .035c. (which was the lowest) below the average. Factory opened April 21st, closed November 3rd.

Hoping, that in presenting the above statements I have not treaspassed too much on your valuable space, I am,

Yours truly,
JAMES SCOTT, President.

Rawdon, Jan. 25, 1894.

Home and Abroad.

It is the duty of everyone, whether at home or travelling for pleasure or business, to equip himself with the remedy which will keep up strength and prevent illness, and cure such ills as are liable to come upon all in every day life. Hood's Sarsaparilla keeps the blood pure and less liable to absorb the germs of disease.

Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

Biliousness and Liver Complaint, Headache, etc., are cured by Burdock Pills.

Two Years Ago

I had a bad attack of biliousness and took one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and can truly recommend it to anyone suffering from this complaint. MRS. CHAS. BROWN, Toronto.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer SAVED MY LIFE. I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 25c. Sold by Geo. A. Schofield.

From British Columbia.

MONTREAL, June 22.—Henry Gore Booth, a prominent Irish traveler, has reached Montreal after an exciting experience on the C. P. R. from Vancouver. He rather liked it all, but the cloud burst and the broken bridges, which they came perilously near falling through, were a little trying on the nerves. Sir Henry is the bearer to Sir William Van Horne of a vote of thanks, passed unanimously by the passengers of the train, appreciative of the courtesy and resource of the C. P. R. officials from the highest to the lowest along the route.

Another Blaze in Panama.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The steamer City of Para brings news of a fire at Panama which destroyed the lower portion of the town. The supply of water was extremely scant and owing to the low state of the tide it was impossible to use the sea water during the earlier stages of the conflagration. The citizens turned out en masse and under the direction of the officials they systematically went to work and finally succeeded in subduing the flames. There was no loss of life reported.

A Buffalo Man Suicides.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 22.—Otis B. Truman hanged himself some time between Monday night and yesterday evening at his home. He was at one time quite wealthy, but several years ago began to gamble heavily and his losses were considerable. His mother, aged 82, was removed last Friday to the state hospital for the insane, and it is supposed Truman's act was due to despondency, the result of the recent troubles.

The Mountains Moved.

OMAHA, Neb., June 22.—Rumors at the Union Pacific headquarters are to the effect that glacial action has in places moved the mountains down on the narrow right of way along the Columbia river, where the cliff rises often 400 feet above the track, leaving now hardly a footing for track. When the water subsides it is feared this will reveal damage which will require $1,500,000 to repair.

Poisoned the Thieves.

LIMINGTON, June 22.—Mrs. Elliakin Robinson had been missing her flour recently, and to catch the thieves scattered Paris green in the flour barrel. Her next door neighbors, a family of four of the name of Day, are now ill with symptoms of arsenical poisoning, and it is doubtful if any recovers.

Archbishop Tache's Illness.

WINNIPEG, June 22.—Archbishop Tache is a little better and there is now some possibility of his ultimate recovery. The report of his death circulated on Wednesday was false, although he was so near death's door that recovery was doubtful.

Happy days and restful nights result from using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It so regulates all the bodily functions and strengthens the nervous system that worry and fatigue are comparatively unknown and life is truly enjoyed. It is certainly a most wonderful medicine.

Get White Hands.

These desirable adjuncts to the beauty of the ladies can be attained by using Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses. Try it. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SHILOH'S CURE is sold on a guarantee It cures Incipient Consumption. It is the best Cough Cure. Only one cent a dose; 25 cts., 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Geo. A. Schofield

Some people laugh to show their pretty teeth. The use of Ivory White Tooth Powder makes people laugh more than ever. It's so nice. Price 25c. Sold by druggists.

No Derby Plug Smoking Tobacco is genuine unless it bears the Derby Cap Shaped Tag.

Mochican; Lateen, Batwing, Leg-o'-Mutton and Yacht Sails of any desired area drafted and made to order on short notice. ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, tent, sail and awning maker, Water street, opposite the market.

How to Keep Cool on Election Day.

Take a trip on the steamer Columbian from Chemong around the lakes to Lakefield on June 28th. It is the first trip of the season and you will enjoy the beauties of nature instead of fuming, sweating and sweltering over politics. The Columbian will connect with the morning train from Peterborough at Chemong and run through that beautiful chain of lakes around the Horn, arriving at Lakefield in time for the evening train to Peterborough, where you can learn the result of the election and enjoy a night's rest. The fare is only 50 cents, children half price. 6d143-1w

Poisoned By Paris Green.

One day recently Almon Reed and wife, of Foxboro, and Mr. Vandervoot, who boards with them, had a narrow escape from death by paris green poisoning. Mr. Reed had recently painted his row boat inside with paris green paint and he and Mr. Vandervoort went out fishing with it before it was thoroughly dry. The fish they caught they threw in the bottom of the boat and in this way it is supposed the poison got into the fish. They took them home and ate them. All three were very soon taken with violent vomiting. A physician was called and prescribed for them and they are now all out of danger, but Mrs. Reed is still very weak.

Have you seen Grafton & Co's summer clothing?

Memorial Services.

The morning service in Zion church of Cavan South circuit on Sunday, June 10th, was peculiarly interesting and solemn, it being the occasion of a memorial service of the late Rev. George Hanna, who died at Edmonton, Alberta, on the 3rd inst. The pastor, Rev. W. G. Clarke, assisted by the Rev. H. Thomas, conducted the service. Deceased was a member of Zion church before he entered the ministry of the Methodist church. The many friends of our departed brother were deeply moved by the early removal from his lifework of one so dearly beloved by all and so successful in the great work to which God hailed him. The service was one of serious and prayerful attention to the great truths and responsibility of life's work.

H. Thompson & Co. Stock.

The sale of the bankrupt stock of Stationery, Wall Papers, Fancy Goods, etc., of the late firm of H. Thompson & Co., 406 George street, offers exceptional opportunities for procuring very reliable goods at lower prices than has been offered for many a day. A visit to the store will reveal such reductions in every department as cannot fail to impress the most cautious and active buyers. As this is a peremptory matter and the goods must be turned into cash within a limited time, no reasonable offer will be refused for goods. Chances are open for business, and professional men, clergymen, bankers, accountants, societies, Sunday schools, churches and householders generally to sort up and stock up with A. No. 1 goods, at prices fully 25 per cent. cheaper than the best offers that can be made. Read the advertisement in another column.

Grafton & Co., clothing manufacturers, sell direct to their customers at mauufacturers' prices.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—The band will play in the park to night.

—Port Hope will be illustrated in the Toronto Globe next Saturday.

Local Oddfellows will hold the usual Decoration Day functions on July 20th.

—Hiawatha Encampment, I. O. O. F., meets to-night for the election of officers.

—The street railway extension will be pushed through to the locks immediately.

—Maskinonge fishers are swarming down the river and quite a few of the fish are being taken.

—THE EXAMINER has received a letter from Mr. Hampden Burnham, which we are unable to use in to-day's issue.

—The approaches to many of the crossings in town having become worn away, are being filled in with broken stone.

Hundreds of people write Phenyo-Caffain cures headache, or neuralgia when everything else fails. 25 cents. All druggists.

—The contract for the statue of Sir John Macdonald, to be erected in Kingston, has been let to Mr. Wade, the English sculptor.

—The citizen who was arrested last night on a charge of lunacy was remanded this morning by Police Magistrate Dumble.

—The employees in the store of Mr. R. J. Kelly picnicked down the river near the locks yesterday afternoon. A few other friends joined the party.

—Destroys bed bugs, cockroaches and other similiar pests, sure as death. What! Post's Corrosive Sublimote, for sale at Lynch's Drug Store.

—A citizen walked up from the locks last night with a nice string of bass. There would have been a contretemps had he met Fishery Inspector Breeze.

—The City of Peterborough made the first of her weekly excursions to Hastings to-day. Commodore Calcutt, President of the Company, and his family took in the outing.

—Three of the steam launches have had canopy tops put on them. Peterborough can probably boast of possessing about the prettiest fleet of these craft of any town in Canada.

—Mr. Ostrom, the Conservative nominee in West Hastings, has retired from the field, leaving the contest to Mr. W. H. Biggar, Independent Liberal, and Mr. R. J. Graham, prohibitionist.

—The Oddfellows of Campbellford will observe Decoration Day marching out to cemetery of that town this evening at six o'clock and adorning the graves of the departed brethren with floral tributes.

—The Roads and Bridges Committee, of the County Council, took a trip down the river, yesterday with County Engineer Belcher, to view the proposed site of the new bridge at Rosa's. A pleasant trip was enjoyed.

—A drunk was assessed a couple of dollars, by the Police Magistrate, this morning. In reply to a query, by His Worship, the prisoner stated he felt just as though a taste of "the hair of the dog that bit him" would do him a lot of good, after his night in the cells.

—The following additional excursions have been added to the already large list being run by the P. S. & N. Co.: On July 4th, the Lock Works; July 5th, Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham; July 15th, St. Paul's Sunday School. The above are destined for Jubilee Point summer resort, Rice Lake, per steamer City of Peterborough.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. C. Strickland, Lakefield, is in town.

Mrs. Robert Pope is visiting friends at Young's Point.

Mr. John Hull, Lakefield, was in town for a few hours to-day.

Mr. W. A. Sanderson and family, of Peterborough, are now domiciled at their cottage in Stony Lake for the summer.—Lakefield News.

Miss Preston, a former teacher in the Institute, now of British Columbia, is here on a visit and is the guest of Miss Nicholls, McDonnell street.

Mr. Wm. Hendricks, of Medina, N.Y., is in town attending the last obsequies of his father, Mr. I. D. Hendricks, whose funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

Mr. W. H. Manson, resident manager of the Peterborough branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, will, with his family, spend the summer months at Grimsby Park. During his absence Mr. T.R. Billett will occupy the position of acting manager, for which his experience and knowledge of its duties well fit him.

The thanks of the EXAMINER sanctum staff are due Mr. G. W. Fitzgerald for a beautiful bouquet of beautiful roses, the most regal flower of the royal month of June. Mr. Fitzgerald is a most successful culturist of roses and what is better is not selfishly content with his success, but is practically anxious that others should the results of that success. Many thanks.

Mr. Wm. Madill, druggist, says: I have particularly noticed the effects of Phenyo-Caffain in cases of nervous headache and find results from the use of the pills highly satisfactory.

Telfordian Temperature Topics.

A Tea Ad.

"Have you ever tried Osh-Kosh Tea?" asked one lady of another. "It is the best 40c. tea sold, and I notice that Stroud is selling it for the balance of this month at twenth eight cents a pound; and what is more, they give you four pounds for one dollar." Only 25 cents for a pound of 40c. tea. Their Peterborough store is 370 George street. f

C. O. F. Officers.

Yesterday's session of the High Court, at Woodstock, was fully occupied with the election of officers for the ensuing year. The following were elected: High Chief Ranger, Bro. C. E. Britton, Gananoque; Past High Ranger, Edward Tewe, London; High Vice-Chief Ranger, H. Gummer, Guelph; High Secretary, Thos. White, Brantford; High Treasurer, John Neelands, Wingham; Chairman of Medical Board, Dr. W. M. Stanley, Brantford; Associate Medical Board—Dr. R. C. Young, Ridgetown; Referee Medical Board, Dr. R. E. Mundey, Kingston; High Registrar, E. R. Kennedy, Montreal; High Chaplain, Rev. W. S. McTavish, D. D., St. George; High Senior Woodward, G. B. Hendershot, Brantford; High Junior Woodward, W.G. Nealley, Toronto; High Senior Beadle, Rev. C. R. Little, Selkirk.; High Junior Beadle, Alex. McPherson, Woodstock; ex-Com. High Chief Ranger, Britton; H. V.C.R., Gummer; Robert Elliott, Wingham; A. Henderson, Whitechurch; F. J. Jameson, Peterborough; W. J. Cameron, Toronto, and R. Dowling, Hamilton. The court adjourned at midnight.

THE GREAT DAY APPROACHING.

The First of July Demonstration Will Draw Thousands to Peterborough.

There is no doubt existing now regarding the great success which is bound to attend the great Dominion Day demonstration which Peterborough intends holding. The fact that the Board of Trade and Fire Brigade are behind the celebration scheme is a sufficient guarantee of its being everything that is desirable. Then the citizens who are on the committee are just the right sort of men in the right place, so success is assured.

THE BALOON ASCENSION.

will be a most interesting feature. Prof. Walcott, one of the world's most famous aeronauts, will ascend to the height of over 4000 feet or over three-quarters of a mile, and perform marvellous tricks on the flying trapeze while ascending. He will then descend to terra firma by means of a parachute.

The calithumpian procession, the finest of its kind which ever took place in the in the Midland Counties, will also be a free exhibition and will be a great attraction.

During the afternoon there will be all kinds of sports, including horse races for good purses. A lacrosse match between two of the best teams in the district, and a band contest ought to prove drawing features.

In the evening Prof. Hand, of Hamilton, has been engaged to give a most magnificent display of fireworks, and, altogether, the day will undoubtedly be one of huge enjoyment, both to the citizens and to the thousands of visitors who will come in on the excursion trains and boats.

A Family Circle Suddenly Broken.

Mr. Michael Galvin, son of the late Mr. Garrett Galvin, of Otonabee, who arrived from Rochester Wednesday evening with the remains of his wife, which were interred here, is still in town, together with his little boy Vincent. Mrs. Galvin's death is the fourth which has occurred in the family within the last seven weeks. A brother, Thomas J., was buried last Saturday, having succumbed to Bright's disease, and a sister, Mrs. Euler, and her child were both buried some seven weeks ago. The entire family are well known both in Otonabee and Peterborough, and the singular fatalities, which have so suddenly broken up the family circle, will deeply affect the many friends in this locality.

I. O. G. T. Officers.

The I.O.G.T. Convention, at Paris, Ont., resumed yesterday morning and the whole day was taken up in the election of the officers, who were as follows:—C.C.T., J.D. Andrews, Hamilton; grand secretary, F. S. Spence, Toronto; vice-templar, Julia Roberts, Paris; councillor, M. Brockenshire, Wingham; superintendent juveniles, J. E. Wilson, Toronto; treasurer, W. R. Keyes, Paisley; auditors, W. J. Turnbull, Brantford, D. A. Beeton, Toronto; Grand representatives—F. Dawson, Kincardine; George Spence, Toronto; Rev. W. H. Madill, Watford; W. J. Turnbull, Brantford; D. Rose, Toronto; J. C. Murdock, Lucknow. The next session will be held in Toronto.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 75c. bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

THE CANADIAN BANK OF COMMERCE.

In yesterday's EXAMINER was published the report of the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The report has a local interest from the fact that a former citizen of Peterborough, Mr. Geo. A. Cox, is president of this stable and flourishing financial institution. A glance at the report reveals the fact that in an exceptionally bad year, disastrous in fact to many financial institutions, the Canadian Bank of Commerce has enjoyed a gratifying degree of prosperity. The net earnings of the Bank of Commerce for the year ending May 31st, were $528,095, as compared with $536,511 the previous year, and $529,642 in 1891-92. Dividends of 7 per cent. were paid to stockholders, and the sum of $100,000 carried to rest account, which fund now aggregates $1,200,000. There had been some falling off in deposits but that has been overcome and they are now at the highest figure ever reached in the history of the bank, an excellent evidence of popular confidence resulting from the judicious management and careful, conservative methods that have characterized the operations of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. While the general prosperity of the bank is gratifying it is a pleasure as well as a fact to say that the success that has marked the operations of the bank have been contributed to largely by the local branch under the careful management of Mr. Wm. Manson, who is not only a valued officer of the bank but popular with its many customers in Peterborough. The importance of the local branch is recognized, as shown by the fact that, the improved accommodation the increasing business of the local branch demands is to be met by the erection of special and spacious new premises on the corner of Water and Hunter streets, opposite the post office, and it is expected that building operations will be so pushed that within a few months the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce will occupy its new business home, one that will be worthy of the staunch old "Commerce" as well as of Peterborough.

COURT ST. PETER'S EXCURSION

Was a Great Success—About 300 Citizens go to Jubilee with the Local Branch of the Catholic Order of Foresters.

The hundreds of citizens who went with St. Peter's Court, C.O.F., to Jubilee yesterday returned well pleased with the day's outing. It was the third annual excursion of the order and was a great success. The committee in charge was composed of Messrs. B. Laroque, R. Gough, M.L. Henry, J. P. Shevlin and J. P. Bryson, and are deserving of much credit for the manner in which the arrangements were carried out.

Appended is the result of the sports which were held:—

Double canoe race, won by Messrs. D. LePlante and Tom Breault. In this race the Laroque Bros., who had a good lead, upset near the finish.

Single canoe race, won by M. Howard.

Fat man's race—1st, J. Clancy; 2nd, W. Buntin.

100 yards race—1st, Geo. Gouthier; 2nd, J. McNamara.

Girls' race—1st, Miss Breault; 2nd, Miss Jennie Rielly.

Hop, step and jump—Ed. Guerin.

The tug of war between the married and single men was a great struggle, but after a long pull the single men won.

The prize for the man having the largest family was won by Mr. T. LePlante, he having ten.

The prize for the Forester selling the largest number of tickets was won by Mr. B. Laroque. The prize was a fine rubber coat valued at $10, presented by Mr. Geo. Lee, of Montreal.

A stranger who boarded the steamer at Hale's bridge became disorderly on the return trip and was secured with ropes by Police Constable McGinty, but the unknown burst his bonds, jumped through a window into the river and swam ashore.

YOUNG'S POINT.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Mr. P. A. Kearney, who for the past two weeks has been confined to the house with a severe cold, we are glad to see is able to be around again.

Mrs. Keating, of Campbellford, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Dunn.

Mrs. Robert Pope, of Peterborough, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. T. McMahon, Rochester, N.Y., intends spending a few weeks with her cousins here.

Master Charles Cavanagh, Peterborough, is spending a few days visit with friends.

The Dixon Company's drive is now in Clear Lake.

Miss Nellie Young is visiting friend in Peterborough.

The steamers have commenced to connect with the trains which, passing through here daily, will make times a little livelier. The Mary Ellen made her first passenger trip on Monday last.

Our butcher, Mr. Dan Rosborough, of Bridgenorth, who is bringing us fresh meat twice a week, intends leaving Bridgenorth. Now is a good opening for a butcher shop in our village in connection with the back lakes trade. One would be kept very busy.

On Monday evening last Mr. H. C. Winch held a meeting in the school house, at which quite a number of our citizens were present. Mr. Blewitt occupied the chair, but as there were no opposition speakers present, the meeting was a very quiet one.

The Smith Family Concert Co., assisted by the humourous vocalist, Mr. T. Donohue, is giving our village a call this week, being billed for three nights under their waterproof canvas. In connection with the concert the renowned photographers, Brock & Co., will be pleased to photograph all wishing to have their "shadows caught."

The water in the lake and river which has been as high as any time in the spring is gradually lowering.

Miss Minnie Young has returned home after making a short visit with friends in Lindsay.

HE'S WORKING NOW.

Chester Loomis was Crippled With Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town, as he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

Grafton & Co. are noted for their celebrated fast dye blue serge suits, $3.75, $4.75, $6.50, $8.50.

Clearing sale of Books, Stationery, Fancy Goods, Bibles, Prayer Books, Purses, Fans, (a nice assortment). Everything must be sold and very cheap.—H. THOMPSON & Co., 406 George street.

ASHBURNHAM BREVITIES.

Workman are engaged in overhauling and refitting the flour mill lately occupied by Mr. H. A. Mulhern, and it is said that it will resume operations at an early date.

The local lodge of Royal Templars will hold an ice cream social in the village hall at an early date, at which a musical programme will be presented.

Mr. Bertram Orde, an old Ashburnham boy, but now of Chicago, is home on a visit to relatives.

Mr. Geo. Emmerson, the live Ashburnham grocer, has supplied a long felt want in the village—especially among the young people—by adding an ice cream parlour to his business. George has a long head, and reports that he is getting along swimmingly in his venture. He expects a call from all lovers—of this popular dish.

It is the intention of a number of young men in the village, when it is formally taken in by the town, to take the necessary steps towards the formation of a volunteer fire brigade.

During the progress of Mr. Blezard's political meeting a few evenings ago, while he was directing some of his sledge hammer blows against the Opposition, a number of enthusiastic friends of the speaker applauded so forcibly—with their feet—that there was a fall of plaster from the ceiling of one of the stores in the same block. All these accidents must be overlooked, especially when the salvation of the country is at stake.

The St. Joseph Hospital grounds at this season of the year are indeed one of nature's beauty spots. The trees have all put their glory on and a pleasant hour is often spent by many of the villagers in this favourite spot.

The following dialogue is said to have taken place between a precocious Ashburnham youth and his father, a well-known resident of the village, Monday evening: Youth—"Say, pa, is Mr. John Lancaster, of Otonabee, a big, strong man?" Father—"No, my child; what makes you ask that?" Youth—"'Cause I heard Mr. ——say Saturday that he could carry Ashburnham with ease, and pa, Ashburnham is pretty big." Father (picking up newspaper)—"My boy, you are too young to understand and pay attention to all you hear."

H. Thompson & Co's Bookstore,

406 GEORGE STREET.
PETERBOROUGH.

PUT UP —in glass vials, hermetically sealed, and always fresh — is the way Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets come. When you take pills it's an important point to have them small—provided they have equal strength and efficacy. You'll find what you want in these little liver pills of Dr. Pierce. They're put up in a better way, and they act in a better way, than the huge old-fashioned pills. What you want when you're "all out of sorts"—grumpy, thick-headed and take a gloomy view of life, is these Pellets to clear up your system and start your liver into healthful action. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, are prevented, relieved, and cured. They're the cheapest pill you can buy, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

The Georgetown Postmastership — The House in Supply.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 22.—In the House of Commons Dr. Landerkin moved a resolution of non-confidence on going into supply against the Government for their having dismissed L. W. Goodenow, postmaster of Georgetown, Ontario, and appointed H. B. Henderson, a son of Mr. Henderson, member of Parliament for Halton, in his place.

Sir Adolphe Caron, Postmaster-General, said that the reason of Goodenow being dismissed was that he was unable to attend personally to the office. The resolution was defeated by fifty-two of a majority.

The House then went into supply for the bulance of the evening.

Capital Notes.

At the University of Ottawa the degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on his Excellency the Earl of Aberdeen, Governor-General of Canada. The degree of Doctor of Letters was conferred on Joseph K. Foran, Montreal, P.Q. The degree of Master of Arts was conferred on A. Duhaut, O.M.I., Ottawa; the Rev. Bro. Noah (Francis Joseph Curran), of New York city; Peter J. Gibbons, M.D., Syracuse, N.Y.

P. H. Cassidy, the Independent candidate for Russell county, has resigned.

Before the Committee of Privileges and Elections yesterday evidence was taken in the charge that Arthur Turcotte, M.P., had violated the Independence of Parliament Act by furnishing groceries and provisions to the Department of Militia under contract in the years of 1892 and 1893. J. B. Provost, of Quebec, the retired partner of Turcotte's firm, gave evidence which made it clear that Turcotte was the real contractor, and is sufficient to deprive him of his seat in the House.

AMERICAN INCOME TAX.

Discussion of the Feature in the Senate —The Date of Termination.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Mr. Hill (Dem., N.Y.) occupied the attention of the Senate for nearly three hours in the presentation of an argument against the income tax, and after the speech the Senate proceeded to act on amendments to the section. The first amendment was to have the tax terminate on January 1, 1892, instead of 1900, and that amendment was defeated. The two Populist Senators and two Republicans (Dubois and Teller) voted with the Democrats against the amendment, and the terminal point was fixed at 1900.

There was a renewal of the previous day's dispute between Senators Allen and Chandler and there was some harmless interchanges of personalities between Senators Pfeffer and Hoar, but there was no progress made on the income tax sections except as to voting on a few amendments.

May Be an Election This Year.

MONTREAL, June 22.—The most prominent residents of the Bedford district met at Granby and held a demonstration in honor of Mayor Miner, who has been connected with Granby's affairs for the past twenty-five years. It is well understood that the demonstration and the banquet last night have a political significance. It is learned from a member of G. B. Baker's family that the federal member for Missisiquoi will be appointed to the Senate shortly and that Mr. Miner will be the Conservative candidate for the riding. Hence the demonstration. An election will take place, it is said, before the autumn.

Found Dead in an Orchard.

TORONTO, June 22.—Yesterday morning the occupants of 59 Duchess street discovered the dead body of Michael Carroll in the orchard in rear of their premises. Carroll was the driver of a coal cart, and until Monday last worked steadily. On that day he stated to the people at 59 Duchess street, where he boarded, that he did not intend to work any more. He had been drinking steadily ever since, and, it is supposed, lay down in the orchard to sleep. An inquest will be held on the remains. Carroll has a married sister named O'Rourke living on Simcoe street, and also a brother, who lives out of the city.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

THRASHED HIM TO DEATH.

Boy Beaten by a Colored Overseer Because He Failed to Work.

GAMDEN, June 22.—Harry Richardson, a colored boy about eleven years old, came here several months ago to work on the farm of William Hayes, near Crow Fort. The latter is employed in Philadelphia through the week, and found it necessary to employ some one else to look after the farm, so he engaged Sidney Plummer, a colored man living on Spruce street, Camden, to come up and act as manager of the place.

Plummer, however, did not get along well with the boy, and Mrs. Hays told him he had a right to punish him whenever he found it necessary. He did so, but it did not have the desired effect. Finally the boy was refused permission to sleep in the house, and after that was domiciled in a henhouse on the premises. On Monday he was ordered to do some chores, but failed to obey and was seen hiding in the woods. Plummer became angry and cut several oak switches, which he bound together.

The boy was ordered to remove his clothing, whereupon Plummer proceeded to whip him until he fell down and writhed on the floor. A minute or two later the boy arose and made for the timber, through which runs a small stream, and on reaching it he fell on his face. Plummer followed, and on reaching the spot found that the boy was dead.

Supposing he had been drowned, he says, he threw a cloth over the body and then came to Marlton to give himself up, after having telegraphed the facts to his employer in Philadelphia. The body of the boy was taken to Mount Holly to-day. It is one mass of welts and bruises, showing that he had been terribly abused.

CRUELTY TO MINERS.

A Shocking Story Comes From Indiana Territory, N.S.

FORT SMITH, Ark., June 22.—Details of a horrible state of affairs existing in the mining region in the Indian territory have been brought here by excited miners. When it became apparent that the men could not earn a living at the reduced rate of wages, power was given the deputy marshal to eject them from the company's houses. Many men were thrown bodily from their homes, their wives and children beaten, and their furniture and personal effects destroyed, after which they were loaded into box cars and shipped out of the territory. Revolting stories of brutality are told by men from the Hartshorne district. August Smith says troops came to his house and arrested him. They would not allow him to put on his shoes and coat and refused to let the family at breakfast.

The soldiers threw his furniture on a wagon and then his wife and five children were put out. The soldiers jumped at the woman and took the baby from the breast, one of them pulling a knife. Others dragged her and threw her head first into the wagon. They were then carried to the station and put in a box car.

Dozens of similar stories are told. Most of the miners and their families were thrown out before breakfast in a rain, and no time was given them to dress. A family of four persons was evicted near Anderson. The wife of the evicted miner was struck over the head with a Winchester by the soldiers. The woman while being taken to the railway station gave premature birth to a child. She may die.

A Fraudulent Bankrupt Sentenced.

BERLIN, June 23.—Wilhelm Maas, a banker doing business in Frankfort, has been convicted at Mannheim of fraudulently going into bankruptcy and sentenced to two years and four months imprisonment. Maas was condemned to fourteen months and Eugene to eight months in prison. Wilhelm Maas was a member of the firm of Solomon Maas & Company, who failed with liabilities of $5,000,000 last January. In consequence of the failure and subsequent developments Ludwig Maas committed suicide shortly after the downfall of the firm.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills. Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of

BRIGAND QUASTANA.

The unfortunate Matteo remained dumb with fright; he looked appealingly at me, and I, of course, could not do otherwise than explain matters. Taking the Prosecutor on one side I told him that Matteo was really assisting the Prefect to capture the brigand; but as I told him all about the matter his face assumed a hard, judicial expression.

"I am sorry for the Prefecture," he said; "but I have Quastana's cousin and I won't let him go! He will be tried with some peasants, who are accused of having supplied the brigand with provisions."

"But I repeat that this man is really in the service of the Prefecture," I protested.

"So much the worse for the Prefecture," said he, with a laugh. "I am going to give the Administration a lesson it won't forget, and teach it not to meddle with what doesn't concern it. There is only one brigand in Corsica, and you want to take him! He's my game, I tell you. The Prefect knows that, yet he tries to forestall me! Now I will pay him out. Matteo shall be tried; he will, of course, appeal to your side; there will be a great to-do, and the brigand will be put on his guard against his cousin and gentlemen of the Prefecture who go shooting."

Well, he kept his word. We had to appear on behalf of Matteo, and we had a nice time of it in the court. I was the laughing-stock of the place. Matteo was acquitted, but he could no longer be of use to us, because Quastana was forewarned. He had to quit the country.

As to Quastana, he was never caught. He knew the country, and every peasant was secretly ready to assist him; and although the soldiers and gendarmes tried their best to take him, they could not manage it. When I left the island he was still at liberty, and I never heard anything about his capture since.

TO ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

Dufour Sentenced to Five Years for Stealing From the Intercolonial.

RIVER DU LOUP, Que., June 21.—The trial of Germain Dufour, who was arrested on the 2nd instant on two indictments for robbery from the Intercolonial and Temiscouata railway cars and shed, came up before Justice Chauveau. Prisoner pleaded guilty to both charges.

A petition was at the same time laid before the judge recommending the prisoner to the clemency of the court. The judge explained that the case was not an accidental robbery, but a series of premeditated robberies, and an example should be made. Although a petition had been sent him on account of the respectability of the family and age of the prisoner, he could not in justice sentence him to less than five years in St. Vincent de Paul penitentiary on one indictment and suspend judgment on the second.

The prisoner was much affected by the sentence and wept while returning to prison.

Rev. Finlow Alexander's Views.

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 21.—Rev. Finlow Alexander, late sub-dean of the Episcopal cathedral, Fredericton, arrived in the city last night. Interviewed by the correspondent, he said he has had views leaning to the Catholic Church and these doubts have become strong. He communicated with Bishop Kingdom and his suspension was made entirely in accordance with his wishes. He said his views as to the Catholic Church were strong, but he proposed to consult here with Rev. J. M. Davenport, of the Episcopal Church, whom he declared an eminent divine, and see if Mr. Davenport could relieve his mind. As to Prof. Stockley, the statement that he was once a Catholic is untrue. He and Prof. Stockley hold religious views similar and they had been in consultation for months together on the points. As to his future, Mr. Alexander could say nothing at present.

Arrested on a Charge of Murder.

KINCARDINE, June 21.—Angus Matheson, a young farmer, disappeared November last, and nothing has since been heard of him. S. H. Laird, one of the best known residents of the town, was, on Tuesday, arrested charged with his murder. The warrant was issued at the instance of Dan Matheson, brother of the missing man. The idea of Laird being connected with the mystery is ridiculed by his fellow townsmen. He was released on $1,000 bail. A suit for damages is expected.

A Kingston Man's Sudden Death.

TORONTO, June 21.—Thomas Martin came to the Imperial hotel, on Jarvis street, two weeks ago and registered from Kingston. He was engaged while here in introducing a patent article which he had invented. He sat down on Tuesday night to smoke before going to bed, and, finding him doubled up in his chair an hour later, the proprietor attempted to wake him. The man was dead, still holding his pipe between his fingers.

Montreal Unemployed Remonstrate.

MONTREAL, June 21.—A large number of unemployed workmen held a mass meeting on one of the public squares last evening and a number of incendiary speeches were made. Smallpox Case in Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 21.—A case of smallpox was discovered by the health authorities in a house on Tisdale street, occupied by Alexander Turner, sewer contractor. The patient is Joseph Turner, a 9 year-old son of Alexander Turner. The case is of a very mild type and every precaution is being taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Debeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

15c. 4 Good Lawn Handkerchiefs. 4 Nice Fancy Frills. Fancy Veiling. Nice Ceylon Flannel. White Japanese Silk Hemstitched Handkerchiefs.

20c. 500 yards Lovely French Figured Crepons, to be sold at 20 cents a yard—sold everywhere else at 25 cents.

25c. 2 pairs Ladies' Lisle Gloves. 2 yards of Fancy Coloured Skirting with Border. 3 yards Fine Checked Muslin. 3 pairs Gents' Wool Socks. 3 yards of Satin Striped Muslin.

30c. 750 yards of Beautiful Dress Goods to be cleared out at 30c. These Goods would be good value at 50c.

35c. Good Kid Gloves. Good Lace Curtains. Good Corsets. Ladies' White Chemisettes.

40c. 3000 yards of Good All-Wool Silk-Finished Henriettas at 40c. These Goods are actually worth 60c.

OTTAWA'S CONFERENCE

The First of the Antipodean Delegates Arrives at the Capital.

AUSTRALIA AS A MARKET

Hon. Thomas Playford Quotes Interesting Statistics of the Commerce of His Colony—The Value of Reciprocity Between Canada and Australia.

OTTAWA, June 21.—Hon. Thomas Playford, Agent-General for South Australia, is the first of the Australian delegates to arrive in the city to attend the Intercolonial Conference, which opens here on Thursday of next week. Being interviewed Mr. Playford said: "We can give you better mutton than you have here. Any quantity of frozen mutton could be shipped to Canada yearly. At present over one million pounds is being exported to London. Australia is one of the greatest sheep raising countries in the world. Australia has, he added, as many as 120,000,000, which is more than the number raised in the United States and Canada put together. The wool of these sheep would be a valuable export.

"There might also," he said, "be a good trade in frozen beef. A considerable sugar trade might also be formed. Ninety thousand tons of sugar were exported yearly from Australia, and this export might be indefinitely increased. Wine could also be exported by Australia in large quantities, and the increase could be unlimited.

"Australia has also valuable mineral resources. Millions of gold might be shipped every year. In South Australia is one of the richest silver and lead mines in the world. The regular output of silver each week is 250,000. These are what we can give Canada. We hope to find out what Canada can give us at this conference."

Asked as to his opinions upon the probable result of the conference, he said that he believed the only conclusion that would be arrived at was to ask the British Government to permit a differential tariff between Canada and Australia. "If Canada," he said, "will make a differential tariff on some products we might do the same with some of our products and thus build up a trade between the colonies. It is a question of reciprocity."

"Hon. Mr. Playford came to Ottawa via London and left London not knowing that the conference would be adjourned for a week. Sir Charles Tupper had no information of the adjournment at the time he left London. He stated that Lord Jersey would arrive to-day from New York. Hon. Mr. Playford will spend the few days awaiting the opening of the conference by visiting Montreal and Quebec.

Rules for Track-Laying.

The question is often asked, "What are the rules for laying out mile and half-mile tracks?" The following simple directions will be found useful: For a mile track draw a line through an oblong centre 440 yards in length, setting a stake at each end. Then draw a line on either side of the first line, exactly parallel with and 417 feet two inches from it, setting stakes at either end of them. You will then have an oblong square 440 yards long and 835 feet 4 inches wide. At each end of these three lines you will now set stakes. Now fasten a cord or wire 417 feet 2 inches long to the centre stake of your parallelogram, and then describe a half circle, driving stakes as often as you wish to set a fence-post. When the circle is made at both ends of your parallelogram you will have two straight sides and two circles which, measured three feet from the fence, will be exactly a mile. The turns should be thrown up an inch to the foot.

A half-mile track: Draw the parallel lines 600 feet long and 452 feet 5 inches apart. Half-way between the extreme ends of the two parallel lines drive a stake, then loop a wire around the stake long enough to reach to either side. Then make a true curve with the wire, putting down a stake as often as a fence-post is needed. When this operation is finished at both ends of the 600-foot parallel lines the track is laid out. The inside fence will rest exactly on the line drawn, but the track must measure a half-mile, three feet from the fence. The turns should be thrown up an inch to the foot. The stretches may be anywhere from forty-five to sixty feet.

Defamers of Men.

The work of masculine whisperers is chiefly seen in the embarrassment of business. I will undertake to say that in nine cases out of ten of business trouble it was the result of some whisperer's work. The whisperer uttered some suspicion in regard to your credit. You sold your horse and carriage because you had no use for them, and the whisperer said: "Sold his horse and carriage because he had to sell them. The fact that he sold his horse and carriage shows that he is going down in business." One of your friends gets embarrassed, and you are a little involved with him. The whisperer says: "I wonder if he can stand under all this pressure? I think he is going down. I think he will have to give up." You borrow money out of a bank and a director whispers outside about it, and after a while the suspicion gets fairly started, and it leaps from one whisperer's lip to another whisperer's lip until all the people you owe want their money and want it right away, and the business circles come around you like a pack of wolves, and though you had assets four times more than were necessary to meet your liabilities, crash went everything! How much business men have suffered. Sometime in the circle of clergymen we discuss why is it that a great many merchants do not go to church. I will tell you why they do not go to church. By the time Saturday night comes they are worn out with the annoyances of business life. They have had enough meanness practiced upon them to set their whole nervous system atwitch. My chief wonder is that our business men control their tempers and retain their good health as well as they do.

How To Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. ### A MIDNIGHT SCAMPER.

Two Citizens Ran an Obstacle Race, Which Included a Swim Across the Otonabee.

One of the most ludicrous of footraces took place between the hours of two and three o'clock this morning in the vicinity of the market square. A score or so of "sports" congregated on the corner of Water and Charlotte streets at this unholy hour and, from talking of the political race, their conversation drifted to racing matters in general and finally the topic of footracing occupied the attention of all.

The scheme of having a race on the spot was mooted—a race such as would vary the monotony of a common footrace—in fact an obstacle race, with that portion of the river lying between the west bank and the railroad embankment at this point for an obstacle.

The idea took like wild-fire and two of the most athletic of the crowd doffed coat, vest and shoes and with an audience composed of all the neighbours in the vicinity, hanging half out of their windows, the two prepared to put the novel idea into execution after putting up a stake of three dollars each.

The start was made from Cavanaugh's corner—neck and neck raced the two across the road, down the embankment—but only one entered the water and he got out about twenty feet before he discovered that he was unaccompanied. He turned and swam back, thinking some accident had befallen his opponent, but ascertained that he had simply shied at the water jump and was hugging himself with laughter, as were the balance of the crowd at seeing the sprinter swimming around in "de drink."

A new start was made, however, but this time a claim of foul was entered, one sprinter declaring that the other tripped him in order to get an unfair advantage. After some wrangling the stakes were drawn and the race declared off for the present.

Perhaps is would be well if the race was run during the day if the stakes are ever posted again, as if the names of the participants were mentioned half the town would be there to see the fun.

ANOTHER JUNE WEDDING.

(Millbrook Reporter.)

It is an old saying that "Laughing is catching, and marriage is contagious" and the truth of the adage has been verified this week, for scarcely had ceased the rattle of the rice and the noise of the fog signals, denoting the departure of John Eakins' wedding car, when Dr. McKinnon concluded (we believe he had his scheme hatched weeks ago, but his bashful reserve kept things mum) to get out his grip and linen duster and hurry away to Mount Pleasant to do the next best thing. The Dr. left on Tuesday morning, the 19th, and the rumor is that his return will be accompanied with one pledged to join in the joys and sorrows of life. We hope to be able next week to give our readers the facts as to the name and procedure and therefore content ourselves this week with prescribing for the absent Dr., a printer's formula S. C.

LACROSSE.

The Port Hope Guide speaks as follows of the Peterborough-Ontario match on the 27th:—

"Since the organization of the Ontario lacrosse club in 1890 the management has pitted the team against the strongest clubs of Ontario. About the first match of the season of 1890 was that against the Peterboroughs, and ever since then not a year has passed by without a meeting of these teams. The games played have resulted in the defeat of the Ontarios once, Peterborough two or three times and two draws, the last one of the draws being played some two weeks ago in Peterborough.

"The return league game takes place in Port Hope next Wednesday afternoon, and there is not the slightest doubt or there is no exaggeration when we state that the greatest exhibition of Canada's national game ever given in Port Hope is in store for those who visit the Athletic grounds on the 27th. That the game is looked forward to as a grand struggle and one worth witnessing may be evinced from the fact that an excursion of four hundred people, at the lowest estimate, and the Peterborough band will accompany the northern twelve to Port Hope.

"It must be borne in mind that the team playing here from Peterborough next Wednesday is not the one over which the Ontarios had such a hollow victory, but a separate and distinct organization from the Shamrocks."

The Granites and Parks played a game of lacrosse, last night, in which the former team was victorious, by a score of four goals to one.

The Parks won the first game by their excellent passing of the ball. The second game was the best of the series, but the Parks were clearly outplayed the remaining three games.

The two teams lined up as follows:—

| GRANITES. | | PARKS |
|---|---|---|
| H Stenson | goal | Thompson |
| B Bellegheam | point | J Mein |
| P Kelly | cover point | M Green |
| C Poussette | 1st defence | W Monty |
| W O'Brien | 2nd defense | B Foy |
| W Laing | 3rd defence | G Bell |
| H Snowden | centre | Cunningham |
| F McPherson | 3rd home | Graham |
| N Roddy | 2nd home | N Saunders |
| D Costello | 1st home | McWilliams |
| L Savigny | outside home | G Galley |
| T Lannin | inside home | Melville |
| W Crossley | field captain | Clancy |

SUMMARY.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1st. | Parks, scored by Melleville, | 16 | minutes. |
| 2nd, | Granites " | Lannon, 10 | " |
| 3rd, | " " | Costello, 9 | " |
| 4th. | " " | Roddy, 7 | " |
| 5th. | " " | Costello, 4 | " |

On the home of the winning team, Lannin, Savigny and Costello played well and on the defense Stenson, Kelly, Bellegheam and Poussette put up a good game.

For the Parks Saunders was the star player. He was well backed up by Galley, Mein, Green and Melville.

BASEBALL.

The baseball club will go to Port Hope on Saturday to play with the club of that town. The Port Hope team have this year been strengthened by the addition of Chambers and McGarry of the famous Toronto Dukes, and Malone, the catcher of the Cobourg champion team. The local club will take down the following strong team: Moore, Pomfret, McCabe, O'Brien, Drain, Burnon, King, Dolan, Connors, Horkins and Cathcart. Quite a number of our citizens will accompany the boys.

THE WHEEL.

The Lindsay Watchman says: "A movement is on foot for a relay race from Lindsay to Peterborough in the near future between the bicyclists of the two towns. The relays are to make about six miles each. We trust the scheme will be carried through." This is all right as far as it goes, but what is the matter with introducing a little spirit of rivalry into the relay ride? Let Lindsay bicyclists ride in relays from that town to Peterborough and return and allow the local riders to ride also by relay from this point to Lindsay and return. It would undoubtedly prove to be a contest of great interest, and the riders would do their level best to uphold the name of their respective clubs.

A BEAUTIFUL TRIP.

DEAR SIR,—Peterborough is most favourably situated for a days outing, more so I think than any place in Ontario for we have the choice of four routes almost at our doors, any one of them being first-class. We can go via Chemong to Sturgeon Point, or the round trip via Chemong and Lakefield; then we have via Lakefield to Stoney Lake. These are all very fine but I think the most picturesque trip of all is down the river to Jubilee and Idyl Wyld. It is a continual panorama of beautiful scenery.

The new boat, "City of Peterborough," is perfect in every way and very fast. I have been down twice this season and was well satisfied with the speed of the boat. The other day she took St. Paul's Choir from the locks to Idyl Wyld in less than two hours and a half actual sailing time.

This route should be well patronized this summer for another reason. Her officers and crew are such an obliging set of men, the passengers can always be satisfied they will receive courteous and gentlemanly treatment.

Yours,
SAXON.

WILL BE ELECTROCUTED

Mrs. Lizzie Halliday Sentenced to Die in the Electric Chair.

TAKES HER FATE STOICALLY

Lawyer Carpenter, the Condemned Woman's Counsel, Affected to Tears at the Sentence—Electrocution to Take Place the First Week in August.

MONTICELLO, N.Y., June 23.—Mrs. Lizzie Halliday, who was found guilty of murder, was sentenced yesterday to be electrocuted during the week beginning August 6, 1894.

Mrs. Halliday came in the court room with Sheriff Beecher, with the same measured step, the same downcast eyes, and the same exhibition of stupidity. She was pushed down into the chair, where she began the same actions carried on during the trial. She covered her face to her eyes with her handkerchief, and rubbed her nose and stroked her chin.

While Judge Edwards was looking over the code Lizzie attempted to rise, but was forced down into her chair. District Attorney Hill moved that sentence be passed upon Elizabeth Halliday. Four officers then held her up. The usual questions were put to her, but she answered none. Her body swayed in the grasp of the officers, but there was no expression in her face, no tear in her eyes. She jerked her head up and down, stamped with her heel once or twice, but at no time raised her head. She was closely watched by Dr. Edward C. Mann, the professional witness whose testimony did so much to convict her and even he seemed nonplussed by her behavior.

Lawyer Carpenter watched her, his eyes dim, and sincere pity showing in his face. Judge Edwards spoke in low, measured tones in imposing sentence, and the room was intensely quiet, so eager were the listeners to catch every word. Mr. Carpenter responded to the judge's invitation to speak by saying: "I have nothing to say." Tears streamed down his cheeks as the judge condemned her to death by electricity in the place designated by the State, in the week beginning Monday, August 6, 1894. Lizzie was led out without a sign of recognition of the terrible sentence.

Public opinion has changed since the verdict was given. No one expected conviction in the first degree, and now that it has been given and the clamor of those who thought she was shamming has been satisfied, there is a general expression that confinement for the remainder of her life should have been the penalty. There is talk of appealing to Governor Flower for a commission to look into the case.

Railroaders' Wages Reinstated.

MASSILLON, June 23.—The wages of every employe of the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad Company, from car wipe to president, were raised 33 1-3 per cent. yesterday by order of General Manager Blair. The company had a cut of 33 1-3 per cent. on April 27 owing to the miners strike and a falling off of revenue of $70,000 per month. The promise was made that wages should be restored when the strike was declared off and Mr. Blair was as good as his word.

Cleaning Out the Police System.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—The thirty-three police lieutenants in Philadelphia were yesterday ordered by the Director of Public Safety to appear before a police court of inquiry to-day and stand trial upon a charge of taking money for police protection from the keepers of a house of assignation. Thirty-two of the lieutenants are innocent, but they all will be arraigned in order to ferret out the guilty official. The hearing will be public.

A Distressing Situation.

What a dreadful thing it is to wake up in the middle of the night suffering from cholera,—the nearest doctor a mile away and no one to send for him. Imagine a more distressing domestic situation, if you can; and yet cases of this kind are very common. The trouble, however, would never have become serious if the man of the house had a bottle of Perry Davis' Pain-Killer at hand, for it is a remedy that never fails to cure cholera, cramps, diarrhœa, or dysentery. All druggists keep it, 25c. for large New size.

DEATH OF MGR. TACHE

The Distinguished Prelate of St. Boniface Passes Away.

SKETCH OF A BRILLIANT CAREER

Created a Bishop at the Age of Twenty-seven, He Was the Youngest Prelate So Honored in a Century—His Work in the Northwest.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 23.—Archbishop Tache died yesterday morning. Funeral on Wednesday next.

Alexandre Tache was born July 23, 1823, at Riviere du Loup, of an illustrious family of French origin. He was a son of Charles Tache and Henrietta Boucher. Finishing his classical studies at the college at St. Hyacinthe he went to the Seminary of St. Sulpice at Montreal to pursue his theological course. He concluded with the Oblate Fathers at Longeuil and was received into the priesthood.

Then he went west. Six years, under many trials and tribulations he spent evangelizing the savages of the Northwest. With the missionaries of his congregation he pushed his spiritual conquest into regions hitherto unknown to white men. Pius IX., in the consistory of June 13, 1850, preconised Father Tache, coadjutor bishop of Arath in partibus with the right of succession to Mgr. Provencher, bishop of the Northwest, now called St. Boniface.

He was consecrated bishop November 23, 1851, at the cathedral of Viviers. Bishop Provencher dying on June 7, 1853, left Bishop Tache in possession of the diocese of St. Boniface. In 1855 the Hudson Bay Company nominated him counsel to the Government of Assiniboia, and on June 17, 1867, he was appointed prelate assistant to the pontifical throne.

He was nominated Archbishop of St. Boniface on September 22, 1871, and appointed shortly after. He had so much control over the Indians of the Northwest that when the first uprising took place in that locality, Sir John Macdonald sent to Rome for him, where he was attending the Vatican council, asking him to return and help quell the rebellion.

Youngest Bishop Consecrated.

MONTREAL, June 23.—The news of the death of his Grace Archbishop Tache, of St. Boniface, was received with general regret in this city, with which he was connected by so many ties throughout his long career. Mr. Louis H. Tache, advocate of this city, was very much grieved to hear of the death of his uncle, although the relatived and friends of the deceased distinguished prelate had expected the sad event for some time.

It is worth mentioning that Mgr. Tache was the youngest man ever consecrated as bishop in America, if not in the world, during the last century, he being only 27 when he was appointed to the episcopacy. The late archbishop occupied the first rank among the Canadian clergy, both as a sacred writer and eloquent speaker and an accomplished literateur. The most striking trait of his character was that his amiability made friends for him among all classes of the community, and among the Protestants of Manitoba and the Northwest he counted many warm, personal friends. The deceased prelate was a brother of the late Dr. Tache.

THE HARTLEY TRIAL.

Ling's Mother in the Box—The Trial Further Adjourned.

BRANTFORD, Ont., June 23.—The trial of Mrs. Hartley and Henry Ling for the death of Caleb Hartley was resumed at the police court yesterday. There was a large crowd of spectators on hand. Constable William R. Allan, G. Bishop, Frank Allan and Catherine Wogdware occupied the attention of the court until about 2 p.m., when there was an adjournment for lunch. In the afternoon Mrs. Ling, mother of prisoner Ling, and James Doherty occupied the witness box. Evidence given by witnesses was much the same as that given at the inquest. The case will come up again on Thursday.

Mother Mandelbaum's Property.

HAMILTON, June 23.—Just before her death Mrs. Mandelbaum, of New York, who died in exile here last winter, divided her wealth, which was said to be about $75,000, between her two sons, Louis and Gus, and her daughter, Mrs. Weill or Koller. She left numerous creditors, however, and the latter have now asked for administration of the estate, about $3,000 worth of furniture, supposed to belong to Mandelbaum, was stored here and this would just about let the creditors out even, but Mrs. Koller claims the furniture belonged to her, and there will be a legal fight to decide the ownership of the goods.

Trampled to Death.

OWEN SOUND, June 23.—Wm. Doherty, a farmer, of Keppel, left his house with a team of horses, intending to clear stones off a field. He was found lying in the road in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was at once sent for, but the unfortunate man died almost immediately after being found. It is thought that the horses had in some way become unmanageable and trampled upon him, as there were two bruises upon his chest, one of them just above the heart.

Drowned in Toronto Bay.

TORONTO, June 23.—The body of a man named James Tinning, a coachman, who resided on Portland street, was found floating in the bay yesterday. Fred Clover, of Stewart street, and Geo. Tuft, of No. 2 Company, R.C.I., took the body from the water and telephoned for the patrol wagon which conveyed it to the morgue. The deceased was known as a sober and reliable man. An inquest will be held by Coroner Aikins.

OUR NEW INDUSTRY.

The Manufacture of Electric Cars—A Contract Now on Hand.

The Canadian General Electric Company has embarked in a new industry in Peterborough—that of the manufacture of cars for electric railways. At present the company is working on a contract for the Brantford Electric Railway, and has already completed two neat summer cars for that city. The panellings on the outside of the cars are finished off in two shades of green edged with gold and present a handsome appearance. The seats and upper portions are constructed of ash and mahogany, while the heavier lower framework is of Georgia pine. The trimmings, being all of brass, further enhance the attractive appearance of the cars.

It is of the closed cars, however, that the company will make a specialty, and judging from the portions of such as are under construction, the work turned out will compare with the ordinary run of street cars as a Pullman coach to a second class carriage. The stock of pressed mouldings, which has been laid in is of the finest quality and the panellings and plentitude of plate glass which will be used in the construction of the cars prove that a new departure in this specific line of work is being inaugurated.

This morning a large number of the citizens availed themselves of an invitation from the genial superintendent, Mr. Stevens, and inspected the new buildings which have been erected in connection with the industry. A ride over the line of the local street railway in one of the new cars was enjoyed by the visitors.

THE GREAT DAY APPROACHING

The First of July Demonstration Will Draw Thousands to Peterborough.

There is no doubt existing now regarding the great success which is bound to attend the great Dominion Day demonstration which Peterborough intends holding. The fact that the Board of Trade and Fire Brigade are behind the celebration scheme is a sufficient guarantee of its being everything that is desirable. Then the citizens who are on the committee are just the right sort of men in the right place, so success is assured.

THE BALOON ASCENSION.

will be a most interesting feature. Prof. Walcott, one of the world's most famous aeronauts, will ascend to the height of over 4000 feet or over three-quarters of a mile, and perform marvellous tricks on the flying trapeze while ascending. He will then descend to terra firma by means of a parachute.

The calithumpian procession, the finest of its kind which ever took place in the in the Midland Counties, will also be a free exhibition and will be a great attraction.

During the afternoon there will be all kinds of sports, including horse races for good purses. A lacrosse match between two of the best teams in the district, and a hand contest ought to prove drawing features.

In the evening Prof. Hand, of Hamilton, has been engaged to give a most magnificent display of fireworks, and, altogether, the day will undoubtedly be one of huge enjoyment, both to the citizens and to the thousands of visitors who will come in on the excursion trains and boats.

REASONS WHY

THE MOWAT GOVERNMENT SHOULD BE SUSTAINED.

Next Tuesday at the close of twenty-two years of its administration, the Mowat Government will appeal to the verdict of the people by ballot for a further renewal of confidence. During these twenty-two years their policy has been subjected to the severest scrutiny of an active and aggressive Opposition and to the criticism of a vigorous press; the electors at five general elections have emphatically and unmistakeably shown their approval and now they are confidently appealed to the sixth time. To retain the confidence of the public for so long a period is in itself a proof that the policy of the Liberal party has been and is honest, progressive and economical and that its administration of public affairs has been efficient and capable. And there are abundant reasons to be adduced why the Mowat Government should be sustained on Tuesday next, a few of which may be given.

The Mowat Government should be sustained, because it has a well defined policy which it aims,—successfully as shown by its past record—to put into intelligent practice; because the leader of the Liberal party, Sir Oliver Mowat has shown in the most practical way an unexampled capacity for public business, unsurpassed knowledge of constitutional law and a rare appreciation of the extent to which the public interests can be promoted by timely and judicious legislation. He has successfully guarded provincial interests against the encroachments of the Federal power. He has expended public moneys solely for the public good; he has promoted legislation for the diffusion of the benefits of education, for the suppression of immorality and for the enlargement of the privileges of citizenship. No leader ever appealed to the people with a stronger claim for a renewal of public confidence.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of its careful and economical administration of the finances of the province. Since it came into power it has expended upon the public service, 72 millions of dollars; of this expenditure not a dollar has been misappropriated, while it has liberally dealt with every branch of the public service—spending on agriculture nearly three millions, on education over twelve millions, on public institutions over twelve millions, and eight millions on public works, and it still has a surplus of $6,135,480. One feature of the financial policy of the Government is that out of seventy-two millions spent, nearly fifty-seven millions have been returned directly to the municipalities to lessen municipal taxation. The expenditure has increased, but so has the population, and that the expenditure has been reasonable and justifiable is shown by the fact that out of a total vote of seventy-two millions in twenty-two years, the watchful Opposition have had reason to object to only $340,000, or less than one-half of one per cent, or about fifty cents on $100. The Government has either spent the public funds honestly or the Opposition has not done its duty and is unworthy of the claim it now makes to manage our public affairs; and the Mowat Government is deserving of a new lease of power.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because it has so governed that it is not afraid of the people, as shown by its enlargement of the franchise to the point of manhood suffrage, and the improvement of the electoral machinery to secure the fullest possible expression of public opinion.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of its liberal policy in regard to education. It has taken the advice of the late Dr. Ryerson and put the Education Department under the control of a Minister of the Crown, whose administration has resulted in the uniformity of text books, the reduction in number, and the improvement of the system of education, so that the World's Fair pronounced the Ontario school system as the only complete system in the world from the lowest to the highest grade. It has so liberally assisted the people in the support of schools, that one dollar out of every six spent by the Government goes to the schools to help in reducing the taxation of the people.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of its plucky fight for the maintenance of provincial rights. In eight distinct fights, involving the rights of the province, with the Dominion Government, Sir Oliver Mowat has triumphed. In the boundary award case the triumph was a substantial one. The Dominion Government claimed 100,000 square miles of Ontario territory, and Mr. Meredith, who now wants to be the ruler of Ontario, fought against his own province. If he had been premier then he would have sold our birthright and robbed this province of 100,000 square miles of territory rich in timber and minerals.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of its satisfactory dealing with our Crown domain. The timber sold under the Mowat Government has realized $1,000 more per square miles than that sold by Sandfield Macdonald; because it has developed new districts by spending two and a half millions on new roads; because it has pushed settlement and aided the settler, and, in a score of other ways, developed the resources of the province. Of this expenditure on roads $40,000 has been spent in this county, enabling back country settlers to come to town and spend their money with our merchants. Mr. Meredith and the Opposition object to the sale of our timber preferring that it should be subjected to the risk of being destroyed by fire and that the people should be taxed directly for money for public purposes; for our timber and crown lands are a large source of revenue. Our revenue from Crown lands was last year $32,000, and Mr. Meredith, who is now so solicitous about our timber, fought with the Dominion Government and against his own province, to perpetrate the robbery from Ontario of sixty-five million acres of timber territory which at only 5cts. an acre is worth the last years revenue from Crown lands for 100 years! That shows how much Mr. Meredith thought about Ontario's timber interests, and how sad a successor he would be to Sir Oliver Mowat.

The Mowat Government should be sustained from a temperance point of view for the effective work it has done in restricting the drink traffic by amendments of the Liquor License Act and thus educating public opinion up to the position indicated by the plebiscite which advanced prohibition to a position in practical politics. Sir Oliver Mowat's specific promise of prohibitory legislation is satisfactory to leading temperance men, who on this account have pronounced him worthy of the support of all temperance electors who desire the triumph of prohibition.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of the development of the country it has produced by the expenditure of nearly six million dollars in aid of colonization railways. The Opposition make the extraordinary charge that some of this money was spent to build competing lines. If this were true, would it be so great an evil? If one were to show how great a boon railway competition, in the matter of freight rates, is to the farmer and merchant, let him suggest the removal of one of the two great trunk lines now serving Peterborough.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of its generous and humane treatment of the poor and unfortunate of the province. During the past twenty-two years it has expended over fourteen million dollars upon the maintenance of hospitals, charities and asylums. In five large asylums for the insane and one idiot asylum it maintains in comfort 4,893 of these unfortunates, who would otherwise have to be maintained by the taxpayers of the municipalities. Is not this generous use of public funds for the relief of the taxpayers, one reason why a government which has made this practice an established policy should be sustained?

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of the honest and straightforward methods it has pursued in the erection of public buildings, in strong contrast to the corrupt stealing that has been practised by other governments in the Dominion. Since 1872 it has spent eight millions on public buildings, and the most cranky, cross-grained and hostile critic has not been found to say that one dollar of that vast sum was corruptly or extravagantly spent or that full value was not received. Such a record argues a government that one can trust—that, in the slang of the day—"you can bank on;" and in the midst of the disgraceful jobbery that has prevailed at Ottawa and in Quebec, it it not wise to sustain a government that has such honest methods as a part of its policy?

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of the great and successful work it has done for the promotion of the interests of the farmers, with the result that farming in Ontario has made, in spite of discouraging and hostile conditions, the great advancement that led to this province beating the world at the World's Fair in agricultural products. Now what benefits the country benefits the town. Everybody acknowledges that the dairy interests of Ontario have been immensely advanced by the Legislature and the Mowat Government and our merchants know that mighty little money the farmers would have to spend if it were not for their cheese and butter.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because of the broad and statesmanlike attention it has taken in advancing the interests of the working classes, a reference to which appears elsewhere in to-day's issue.

The Mowat Government should be sustained because under its adminstration every interest of the people has been wisely, carefully and effectually looked after. Legislation in the interests of all classes has been enacted: while no interest has has been injured none has been neglected: while the labouring man has had laws passed in his interest, the capitalist and the merchant have been protected by having their rights guarded. The only single instance in which, by the greatest stretch of grumbling, fault can be found is by the lawyers, who claim that the amendments passed in the interests of clients have so reduced law costs as to make the profession unprofitable. Equal justice to all classes has been the motto of the Mowat Government as to administration and legislation and for that reason they are to be trusted by all classes. This Government has not, it is not claimed, done more than its duty, but that is a good deal in an age of corruption, when public men have become so corrupt and unreliable. The Mowat Government has been and is a good government, a thrifty, careful government, a government with a grand record, with steady principles, with stable qualities capable of commanding respect and of developing that strength necessary to firm administration of laws and bold prosecution of policy; a government with steady aims and high ideals of statesmanship. Such a Government should be sustained for its positive good qualities. Sir Oliver Mowat is eminently qualified to be a statesman and a leader; he has that stability of character and steadiness of purpose that will not be swerved. He should be sustained in this contest because there is not among his opponents any person who has shown himself capable of taking his place. Mr. Meredith, the Opposition leader, is a clever man, but a man of vacillating character—a man lacking steadiness of purpose and firmness. His shiftiness of principle is shown by the fact that since he came into the Legislature he has voted and worked upon both sides of almost every important public question and has adopted all sorts of disturbing and disquieting cries in order to gain temporary popularity. He has not hesitated to stir up religious rancour, and breed hostility between peaceful classes of citizens and even in this he has been shifting—one election appealing to the prejudices of one religious class and—finding that fail—at the next and subsequent ones, fighting as strongly against them.

If the electors, unfortunately for the province, should fail to sustain Sir Oliver Mowat, Mr. Meredith cannot expect to carry on a government. In about thirty out of ninety six ridings he has no candidate in the field, and if he should form a government, he will be at the mercy of factions among which the worst elements will make demands, serious, in the interest of public peace and public profit, as the price of their support. Mr. Meredith would be unable to carry on a stable government and without a firm hand—against federal encroachments and the internal demands and clamours of his supporters, hungry for office after twenty years vain seeking, anarchy insubordination, demoralization and collapse, with injury to the name and standing of the province, as well as its substantial interests would ensue.

The people of Ontario had better leave well enough alone. They can easily go farther and fare worse. They had better not discharge a capable, trusty, true and faithful servant for one who has been simply trying to get him out of place for twenty years, for one who has by his shifting, changing, uncertain attitude shown that he has not the steadiness and firmness necessary for a leader; for one who has at times taken both sides of public questions, who has shown himself willing to be ruled from Ottawa, who has no business connections, no friends that will stand by him on principle; one who has no policy but policy; one in every way unfitted for responsible office; in short, a man who cannot rule himself, not to speak of the factions that surround him, nor the great province which needs a steady, trusty hand at the helm.

We have shown that the Mowat Government should be sustained, and the way to sustain it in this riding is to give a hearty support to the supporter in this contest, Mr. Stratton, who has shown himself to be a faithful, energetic and capable representative in every respect and in every way worthy of the hearty support of the electors.

HE WROTE TO HIS BROTHER

Told Him the Good News, and Advised Him to Use Paine's Celery Compound.

THE MEDICINE THAT CURES.

A. L. WOOD.

It has often been asserted that, if men and women would use Paine's Celery Compound when the first indications of trouble and disease are felt, there would be fewer sick people, and less money expended for remedies. There is no medicine in the world as far-reaching in its work and effects as Paine's Celery Compound. It should be in every home where there is sickness, as it is suited for every age and class of humanity.

We would now draw the attention of every man and women to the fact that, if they have failed with other medicines, Paine's Celery Compound will give them what they desire—health and strength. As a proof of this statement we direct attention to the testimony of Mr. A. L. Wood, of Great Village, N.S.; he says: "I have much pleasure in adding my letter of testimony to the already large number you have received.

In 1892 I took a severe pain in my back, to which I gave but little attention. It extended to the back of my neck, and became very bad. It then seemed to settle on a nerve under the shoulder blade. I used many remedies but got worse instead of better. I consulted my doctor; he said I had neuralgia, and treated treated me for it. The treatment proved useless, and I consulted two other doctors with no better result.

I could not turn over in bed, wash my face, or dress myself, I was so helpless. After a time, getting a little easier, I went to my father-in-law's to spend Christmas; while there my attention was called to a paper on the merits of Paine's Celery Compound and I read of a party who had been cured whose case was similar to mine.

I sent for a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound and after taking it, I found that I could rest easily and turn in bed without difficulty. The virtues of one bottle of the compound seemed to drive all trouble away. I might also state that I had a brother in California who, owing to sickness, was unable to work for three months. He had been to mineral springs without receiving any good results. I immediately wrote to him and advised him to give your medicine a trial. After using one bottle he was cured and able to resume work.

I make these statements voluntarily and for the benefit of those who suffer and would strongly recommend Paine's Celery Compound to all."

Bradstreet's Report of Trade.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Bradstreet's says: There are indications of a moderate improvement in various lines, enough instances to render the fact of some significance. A notably favorable feature is the practical ending of the coke and coal strikes, together with those in related industries, which will put to work at once, or soon, more than 25,000 men. At points tributary to Kansas City and St. Louis grain harvesting is under full headway; the condition of wheat is excellent and the demand for money to move the crop market and the supply abundant. General trade throughout Canada has been irregular.

Horrible Death on the Track.

OTTAWA, June 22.—Word has reached the city of a fatality which occurred on the main line of the Canada Atlantic railway, not far from Glen Robertson, early Thursday morning. The remains of a farmer named Macdonald, whose home is said to be in the village of Alexandria, were found on the track horribly mangled. One of the trains in the early morning had evidently run over the unfortunate man, who, it is surmised, was lying asleep on the track. The remains have been conveyed to Alexandria for interment.

A Foolish Woman Suicides.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 23.—Because her 16-year-old daughter Rosa would not marry 34-year-old Frederick Wolf, and was sustained in her objection by her father, Mrs. Frederick Dorah left her home at night and disappeared, and was found unconscious on the doorstep of a coal office on Seneca street. She had taken a big dose of "Rough on rats" and died at seven o'clock in the morning.

Boycott for the Pullman Company.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Unless the Pullman company effects a settlement with its striking employees on or before Monday evening next, a general boycott against its sleeping and dining cars will be declared at noon of the following day by the American Railway Union. This was the decision reached by the national convention of the order at the executive session yesterday.

A Grand Feature

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood and sends it coursing through the veins full of richness and health, it also imparts new life and vigor to every function of the body. Hence the expression so often heard: "Hood's Sarsaparilla made a new person of me." It overcomes that tired feeling so common now.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, always reliable and beneficial.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mr. Corby of West Hastings Resigns His Seat.

OTTAWA, June 23.—In the House yesterday, Harry Corley, M. P. for West Hastings, resigned his seat on account of its being brought to the attention of the House that he had received $4,500 from the Government for methylated spirits. Mr. Corley has a distillery at Belleville. Yesterday he said that he was not aware of having done anything wrong when the money was paid over. Now he is satisfied that he committed a mistake and that the acceptance of the money was a violation of the Independence of Parliament Act. He was cheered by both sides of the House in the action he took.

Capital Notes.

His Excellency Lord Aberdeen will attend the lacrosse match this afternoon and will face the ball. In a letter to the secretary of the Capitals his Excellency said he would only be too pleased to attend.

The following divorce bills were passed at a meeting of the Private Bills Committee: Joshua Nicholas Filman, William Samuel Piper, Joshua Thompson and Orlando George Richmond Johnson.

Mr. Foster is in very poor health, and will not be able for much work this session. He has not been in the House all week. He is now rusticating about one hundred miles up the Gatineau in search of better health.

At the opening meeting of the Ottawa Baptist Association the following resolution was adopted: "As an association we hail with gladness the growing temperance sentiment in our Dominion as recently expressed in the various plebiscites in the different provinces, and as an association we reaffirm our belief in the total prohibition of the liquor traffic, and recommend to the churches continued efforts in the suppression of this traffic, and urge upon all our people the necessity, by their personal example, powers and votes, to do all in their power to overthrow this evil and further prohibition, be above party politics, and only vote for those men who are known as avowed prohibitionists."

Happy days and restful nights result from using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It so regulates all the bodily functions and strengthens the nervous system that worry and fatigue are comparatively unknown and life is truly enjoyed. It is certainly a most wonderful medicine.

ARBITRATION OF DIFFICULTIES.

London Papers Comment Upon the Resolution Introduced at Washington.

LONDON, June 23.—The Chronicle, the Telegraph and the Pall Mall Gazette comment upon the resolution introduced in Congress by Senator Allison, that the United States arrange by treaty with Great Britain for the arbitration of all differences not adjustable by diplomatic means.

The Chronicle praises the resolution: "It gives positive shape to pious wishes on both sides of the Atlantic," says the writer," and we sincerely hope that these wishes will be realized." The Telegraph's leader has the same friendly tone.

William Waldorf Astor's Pall Mall Gazette says: "Senator Allison's resolution means that if the United States should claim part of Canada we must submit the question to some European power without redress in the case the matter should be decided against us. We must never forget that England is the most hated of all powers and has the most to lose by arbitration."

An address in favor of an arbitration treaty with the United States is circulating in the House of Commons. Already 300 members have signed it. Sir John Lubbock, Sir George Baden-Powell, Philip James Stanhope and William R. Cramer, all members of the House, have cabled their congratulations to Senators Allison Sherman.

My Daughter's Cure.

Mrs. George L. Hicks, 76 McGill street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "It is with pleasure that I testify to the wonderful merits of K. D. C. My daughter has suffered severely at intervals for the past two years and was steadily getting worse. She tried three of the best doctors in the city, but obtained no relief, also every remedy that friends would recommend with the same results and continued to grow worse all the time. She was recommended by a friend to try K. D. C. and send for a sample package. Before taking all of the sample the symptoms of dyspepsia were gone, and though she has since taken only one $1 package the symptoms have not returned. She has also gained considerably in weight, and her friends are surprised at the change in her appearance. If any person in Toronto suffering from the same disease would like to call on me, I could tell them more fully what K. D. C. has done for my daughter."

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose topay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Beautiful Lawns.

No other town in Ontario has so many handsome lawns as are to be found in Peterborough. Never before were lawn mowers so cheap and so well made. Look in the north window of the Peterborough Hardware Coy's store and see the display of lawn and garden tools. They have some magnificent cast iron urns at very low prices dtf

Do You Go Boating?

Want any sails? I am prepared to furnish the best of work and material. Being a practical sailmaker and having good experience in cutting and designing sails of all kinds, I guarantee satisfaction. Mochican, Lateen, Batwing, Leg-o'-Mutton and Yacht Sails of any desired area drafted and made to order on short notice. ALFRED KINGSCOTTE, tent, sail and awning maker, Water street, opposite the market.

Union Sabbath School Smith.

Lawn social under the above auspices will be held on Wednesday, June 27th, on the Milburn school grounds, Communication road. There will be an excellent programme of sports, singing, recitations and a football game between two local teams. The Fourth Line brass band will render selections. Mr. Wholton's orchestra, consisting of twenty pieces will be a great attraction. There will be other musical talent. Admission 15 cents, children 10 cents.

How to Keep Cool on Election Day.

Take a trip on the steamer Columbian from Chemong around the lakes to Lakefield on June 26th. It is the first trip of the season and you will enjoy the beauties of nature instead of fuming, sweating and sweltering over politics. The Columbian will connect with the morning train from Peterborough at Chemong and run through that beautiful chain of lakes around the Horn, arriving at Lakefield in time for the evening train to Peterborough, where you can learn the result of the election and enjoy a night's rest. The fare is only 50 cents, children half price.

Was Seventy-Seven Last 'Xmas.

The death of Mrs. Susan Nesbitt, widow of the late Alexander Nesbitt, of Otonabee, took place last Sunday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. West Lewis, Dowler's Corners.

The deceased fell some three weeks ago, occasioning an injury to her hip. This fact, taken in conjunction with her advanced age, 77 years, is regarded as the cause of death.

Services were conducted at the residence of Mrs. Lewis by Rev. Mr. MacWilliams, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, and afterwards by Rev. Mr. Robinson, of Warsaw, at the old homestead on the 1st concession line of Otonabee.

Eight children survive Mrs. Nesbitt, namely Mrs. George Flack, Penetang; Mrs. Robert Tedford, Harvey; Mrs. James Martin, Cameron; Mrs. West Lewis, Otonabee; Mrs. Jacob Hicks, Harvey; Miss Mary Nesbitt, Peterborough; Alexander Nesbitt, Otonabee, and Henry G. Nesbitt, of Harvey.

Rally! Rally!

Inasmuch as Mr. Winch has arranged a meeting in the Opera House this evening, without extending the courtesy of an invitation to his opponent, Mr. Stratton will address a grand rally of his supporters to-night at 8 o'clock in his committee rooms over Mr. Lech's fur store and adjoining the EXAMINER office. It is a little singular and remarkable that Mr. Winch should select the closing hours of the campaign for his first appearance before the electors at a meeting to be addressed by outsiders, and without the courage to extend the usual courtesies, the same as were extended to himself at Mr. Stratton's meetings. Harry is considered by his admirers a "dead game sport," but this looks as though he should have made his ballot colour the same shade as a white feather. Mr. Stratton cordially invites his friends to rally at his committee rooms to-night.

—The moonlight excursion last evening, in which about 60 young people participated, was a great success. The Daisy took a scow in tow and dancing was indulged in while the trip around the lake was being taken. Mr. Miller's orchestra furnished the music.

—The band has been invited by the Orillia lacrosse team to witness its game with the Torontos on Dominion Day, also to enter a team in the tug of war contest. The band will in all probability decline the invitation, as naturally the members will desire to remain with the balance of the regiment.

—To-morrow will be observed as Home Mission day in the Baptist Sunday Schools. The Murray street school will assemble at 2:45 p. m., and a Home Mission programme of interest will be taken up. Parents of scholars and friends of school are cordially invited to be present. Rev. A. Trotter, of Lindsay, will give an address.

—Mr. Jas. Cain, hog buyer for Mr. Matthews, shipped on Monday last two car loads of hogs to the Peterborough packing house, and on Tuesday, from Mariposa station, two car loads were shipped to the same place, also by Mr. Cain. The prices paid for hogs at present are as follows:—Hogs weighing from 160 to 200 pounds, $4.60 per hundred; heavy hogs weighing from 300 to 400 pounds, $4.00 per hundred.—Lindsay Post.

—There was a big crowd in the park last night at the band concert. The following programme was excellently rendered:—

—The firm of J. J. Turner & Son has just shipped another 150 foot tent to Brantford, and will start on the construction of a third almost immediately for the same parties. The works have been running 18 hours a day lately in trying to keep pace with the orders, which come in so rapidly at this season of the year. A big contract for the Canada General Electric Company is now under way. All hands are now at work on the manufacture of a set of sails for one of the fastest yachts on Lake Ontario. It speaks well for the reliability of this firm when orders of this kind are received from such distances.

—The lamentable death of the late Conductor Davis was made the subject of a memorial service in the Queen street Methodist church, Lindsay, Sunday evening last. The members of Midland Lodge No 100, I.O.O.F., and the Bretherhood of Railway Trainmen, to both of which orders deceased belonged, attended the service in a body, and the church was crowded to the doors. The pastor took for his text Amos. iv., 5: "Prepare to meet thy God," and his solemn and impresive discourse visibly affected many of his hearers, and conveyed to the minds of all a fuller realization of the mutability of all earthly things, the uncertainty of life and the necessity for so governing our acts in this life that there may be no dread of the hereafter.

ASSURANCE, DOUBLY SURE.

Yesterday THE EXAMINER received from Mr. Hampden Burnham the following letter, but at too late an hour to give it insertion. It is understood that the ostensible object of the letter is to disprove the statement made by THE EXAMINER and Mr. Stratton, and denied by Mr. Burnham, to the effect that, while Mr. Winch was treating with the P. P. A. in town, he (Mr. Burnham) approached the parish priest of Ennismore to endeavour to secure his influence in the election in favour of Mr. Winch:—

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—Mr. Burnham desires me to state what took place between him and me on evening of June 11th. Here it is in a nutshell. He desired me to go to Mr. Winch's meeting. I declined saying I had not attended Mr. Stratton's. We then began to discuss political questions, during which conversation Mr. Burnham endeavoured to persuade me Mr. Meredith's policy is not opposed to separate schools or injurious to Catholics. We disagreed totally in the interpretation of his speeches and policy. I was then REQUESTED URGENTLY to attend the meeting to hear what the parties had to say on these questions.

Yours Sincerely,
W. J. MCCALL.

Ennismore, June 22nd, '93. P. P.

What earthly object Mr. Burnham, as a friend and worker for Mr. Winch, wishes to accomplish by procuring the publication of the above letter it is difficult to conceive. It is plain on the face of it that it only confirms the position taken by the EXAMINER, that while in one section Mr. Winch was allying himself with the P.P.A., his friends in another quarter were seeking for priestly influence. What did Mr. Burnham, on a political errand as he was—going to address a meeting in Ennismore — visit the reverend pastor for? If it was not to secure his influence was it to secure his hostility? Was a mere "friendly visit" the proper occasion on which to take advantage of hospitality and enter upon an animated discussion of political topics, to the last degree distateful to the host? Was it anything like seeking the reverend gentleman's influence to try to drag him from the seclusion of his home to enter into the midst of the strife of partizan political stump oratory to hear his church and the institutions dear to its members vilified and those members denounced as the "common enemy," in order that his opinions might be changed? And why changed, certainly not for his own benefit and enlightenment but to create a more friendly spirit and the exertion of influence in favour of Mr. Winch. Was the fact of the reverened gentlemen being URGENTLY REQUESTED to attend a political meeting without some idea of enlisting his influence? To ask these questions is to answer them in the affirmative. The above letter makes "assurance doubly sure" that what the EXAMINER charged in the regard in question was true. And our statement is strengthened by the production of documentary evidence.

The circumstances giving rise to the above are only a part of the same "plan of campaign" that has been pursued in this riding. While the influence of the parish priest of Ennismore was being solicited, another emissary of Mr. Winch is oppositely engaged in another quarter. On Wednesday Mr. Wesley Miller, on Mr. Winch's behalf, was visiting the Buckhorn Road trying to secure meetings of the Orangemen in order to consolidate them for Mr. Winch, and on Thursday Mr Miller was trying to get a meeting called of the Orange lodge in Smith, to be addressed by an East Riding Orangeman, Mr. J. Graham Weir. A pretty piece of tactics in view of the action in Ennismore in Mr. Winch's behalf, to devote the closing hours of a campaign to practical roorbachs of this character. Mr. Winch's desire to ride two horses at once makes his friends very eccentric.

FACING THE MUSIC AT LAST.

According to promise, Mr. Winch is to face the electors of the town, on whom he claims his hopes of election depend, for the first time on Saturday night. His being induced to do this is doubtless, a feeling of condemnation that he has neglected to do so heretofore and he must take the only opportunity that presents itself. It is characteristic of the campaign that the dying hours should witness the only political meeting in Peterborough that Mr. Winch has condescended to attend. It is not a very high compliment to the electors of Peterborough that Mr. Winch should, after being seven months in the field, feel it his duty to postpone appearing before the electors and explaining his platform till within a few hours of the day of polling. But doubtless Mr. Winch has a good excuse—he has been so busy trying to make oil and water mingle—trying to make a two badly mismatched horses drive double quietly, that he has had little time to give to explaining his platform to the electors.

The electors know what value to put upon the statements of outsiders who are brought into a constituency on the eve of polling day and who make reckless assertions, which they know will have no chance to be met by press or platform speaking before polling day. Look out for the live roorback. Conservative stumpers have been threatening to spring a roorback on the electors before polling day. What is it?

Fatal Result of Delay.

Sickness generally follows in the path of neglect. Don't be reckless! but prudently take a few doses of Scott's Emulsion immediately following exposure to cold. It will save you many painful days and sleepless nights.

Detected in its Incipiency.

A fire occurred at the residence of Mr. J. R. Stratton, between the hours of two and three o'clock this morning. The blaze originated in the rafters of the summer kitchen and is thought to have been the result of spontaneous combustion, generated among some cloths which were used in oiling the floors. Being detected in its incipiency the fire did not gain much headway before the brigade was on the ground, and soon had the flames under control. Mr. Stratton desires to return his sincere thanks to the members of the brigade for the promptness with which they responded to the alarm, and states that a more tangible proof of his gratitude will be forthcoming. Much credit is due Master Willie Ackerman for the manner in which he kept the fire in check with the aid of the garden hose until the firemen arrived.

GOOD LABOUR LEGISLATION.

WHAT MOWAT HAS DONE FOR THE MASSES WHO TOIL.

In the midst of the present electoral campaign, when other and minor issues are apt to be unduly exalted, workingmen should carefully weigh as to how and for whom they will cast their votes in the present instance. While the general welfare of the province should not be lost sight of, yet the special interest of their class and the extent to which they have been, from time to time, cared for by the Government of Sir Oliver Mowat during the twenty-two consecutive years he has been Premier, ought to be the first consideration in determining how the working people of this province should vote. Acts speak louder than words. And this being true, then the candidates in support of the Government of Mr. Mowat are entitled to and should receive the united support of workingmen in every ward in town, as the following enumeration of some of the more important measures enacted into law in the interest of workingmen during the past twenty-two years will amply illustrate. A record of work done and not a record of unfulfilled promises is to the credit of Sir Oliver Mowat and his Government, and this of itself augurs well for the future and should not be forgotten on polling day. As the titles are sufficiently indicative there is no necessity to enter into details of the scope and value of the following legislation. We have only space to-day to indicate the general features (we have previously published the details) of the record of the Mowat Government in the interests of labour:—

It passed the Mechanics' Lien Act, the Employers' Liability Act, the Factory Act, the Railway Accidents Act, the Act for the Relief of Co-operative Associations, the Creditors' Relief Act (which applies to wage earners), and the Franchise and Representation Act of 1885.

It collects valuable statistics on labour, wages and cost of living.

It passed the Masters' and Servants' Act, and the Act to secure compensation to workmen for injuries.

It passed an Act to secure to wives and children the benefits of life insurance, an Act creating Free Grants and Homesteads, an Act providing for the establishment of Free Libraries, and an Act providing exemption from execution under the Free Grants and Homesteads' Act.

It passed an Act providing for the establishment of technical schools, an Act regulating the closing of shops and the hours of labour therein for children and young persons, an Act for the protection and reformation of neglected children, and an Act to enforce orders under the Act respecting Masters and Servants.

It passed an Act as to truancy and compulsory school attendance, an Act for the protection of persons employed in places of business other than factories, and the Manhood Suffrage Act.

It passed an Act under which labour organizations may incorporate and register, the Woodman's Lien for Wages Act, the Registration of Manhood Suffrage Voters' Act, and the Conciliation and Arbitration Act of 1894 to settle disputes between employers and employees of labour.

It has exempted from taxation living incomes up to $700 a year.

Its labour legislation is regarded as the most advanced and progressive of any self-governed country.

Here we have in brief the labour record of the Mowat Administration for twenty-two years. It shows a continuous, steady, progressive interest in the working classes. Here we have a synopsis of enactments, each and every one in the interest of the hands that toil, as against the capital that, but for such wise and thoughtful protection, would skim off, as it has has always sought to do, and for its own benefit, the cream of such toil. No other government in Canada has approached the liberality and wisdom of the Mowat Government in passing protective laws for the benefit of the working classes. While Mowat has been giving nearly three score of Parliamentary acts for the benefit of the workingmen, the Dominion Government's record is comprised in passing a few laws chiefly relating to the protection of fishermen and sailors, and appointing session a commission to find out what the working classes want. If workmen are true to their own interests, and wish to show their gratitude for, not favours received, but justice given to them, they will best accomplish, both by voting for Mr. Stratton, the supporter of Mowat, the man for the masses, and the man who works (not promises) for the interest of the workingmen.

TUESDAY'S BATTLE.

To-day closes the contest for West Peterborough from a newspaper point of view—but it concentrates an immense amount of actual work into Monday and Tuesday. The final and decisive struggle that has been carried on with so much energy the past month, culminates in the battle of the ballots at the polls. The time for talk has largely passed and the time for work has come. The orotor's occupation's gone. The marshalling of the voters at the polls is the work of the hour. See that it is done. It should be made the special duty of every supporter of the Mowat Government and Mr. Stratton to see that every vote is polled. As is well known the law forbids the hiring of horses or vehicles to convey voters to the ballots: it is therefore incumbent upon every Liberal to volunteer whatever horses and equipages he may have at his command. Remember that Tuesday is the harvest of the good seed that has been sown the past month and if the most energetic and well organized efforts to gather it are not made, the work of the campaign will be largely lost. Let every Liberal and supporter of Mr. Stratton remember, that no matter how well disposed he may be to the Liberal candidate and the cause of good, straightforward honest government, it is all in vain unless they mark their ballots for Stratton and Mowat. There is indeed a hopeful outlook whose realization can only be prevented by over-confidence and apathy of the workers on Mr. Stratton's side. The enemy are active and unscrupulous and their tactics will bear watching. Hard, unremitting and continuous work till the evening of June 28th will eliminate the former and neutralize the latter. On the part of Liberals and the supporters of Mr. Stratton, "a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether" and West Peterborough is safe for good government for another four years.

EXPORT DUTY ON LOGS.

The Monetary Times, an non-political and decidedly non-partizan trade and financial journal, refers thus to the export duty on logs, showing that the Opposition stumpers and sheets have been talking of what they know nothing about, when they try to blame the Mowat Government in connection with the prevention of the export of logs. The Times says:—

"In the Ontario elections, now going on, there are scarcely any commercial issues. But the question of the export of saw logs has been dragged in, and it is alleged, on one side, that Ontario ought not to sell timber with the privilege of shipping the logs of the United States. The assurance with this assertion is made is the best proof that those who make it have not mastered the economy of the question. The selling of timber, whether owned by a government or an individual, is a commercial transaction. In the case of the Government the object is revenue, and that will best be attained by attaching no restrictive conditions to the sale. If restrictions were desirable, which we have never been able to see, the most obvious mode of doing so is to levy an export duty. This, the Ottawa government has so far, rightly it seems to us, refused to do. Still less is it the duty of a province to impose restrictions on the sale of timber. The Dominion once did it, when it was in a temper to reciprocate restrictions. Happily no such power is vested in the provinces, and they have one excuse less than the Dominion for resorting to restriction in connection with the timber trade. Possibly Ontario might have restrictive conditions for the sale of timber; but it could not do so without obliging itself to take a less price than it would otherwise obtain."

In the absence of any just cause of complaint against the Mowat Government, the Opposition seek to make capital out of the most unlikely things. Such attempts might be made with impunity upon ignorant people, but the electors of Ontario read for themselves and they are able to resent the insult to their intelligence, implied by the use of such arguments as those used, for example, in relation to the export duty on logs.

A FORT ERIE BABY

Was Pining and Fretting Away.

Lactated Food Made it Fat, Plump and Healthy.

The Right Infant Diet for Hot Weather.

WILLIE THOMPSON.

The tender infant cannot be neglected during the hot weather. Its diet is the most important matter for the mother's attention and consideration.

Thousands of little ones die yearly in June, July and August through the carelessness of mothers and nurses in feeding the helpless and innocent babes.

Stale and watery cow's milk, and poorly prepared and indigestible foods are used in too many homes. We know the terrible results. Dysentery, diarrhœa and cholera infantum almost immediately follow when such foods are administered, and there is little hope for the weak babe.

At this season baby's security and salvation depend upon a daily diet of Lactated Food, the only prepared food that can take the place of mother's milk.

Lactated Food is the only infant nutriment that fully promotes baby's growth and healthy development; our best physicians are prescribing it daily, and sound its praises to every mother.

Mr. Geo. B. Thompson, of Fort Erie, Ont., tells how his infant son was saved by Lactated Food. He writes as follows: "When our baby Willie was two months old my wife was unable to nurse it owing to illness. Baby declined in health, and although attended to by our doctor, it grew weaker and seemed to pine away. After trying everything we could think of, we heard of Lactated Food, and gave it a trial. Before half a 25 cent tin was used baby was quite improved. Willie is now one year old, and has used a great deal of Lactated Food. He cut ten teeth during the hottest part of the summer, and we hardly knew he was cutting them; he has had no dysentery and is very fat and plump; all these good results we ascribe to Lactated Food. We wish you much prosperity in your work."

SHANGHAI, June 23.—A strong force of Japanese troops have been landed in Corea, which action is greatly straining the relations between China and Japan. The number of Japanese landed is 19,000; 15,000 are stationed at Seoul, the capital, and 4,000 at Chemulpo.

Terrific Storm in Virginia.

KAISER'S CHAMBERLAIN ARRESTED.

Accused of Sending Anonymous Letters to Exalted Personages.

BERLIN, June 23.—For some time past some of the exalted personages in Berlin have been receiving anonymous letters containing infamous accusations and conveying dire threats. The Emperor interested himself in detecting the author of these letters, and as a result has caused the arrest of his own chamberlain, Von Kotze, whom he charges with the offence. Gen. von Halinke, chief of the Emperor's military staff, made the arrest, driving to the chamberlain's residence in a state carriage for that purpose. The prisoner was put into the carriage and driven to the military prison in the Lindenstrasse. The arrest has created an enormous sensation. Von Kotze is one of the masters of ceremonies at state functions. Many of the leaders of Berlin society have for the past four years been persecuted with anonymous letters, making all sorts of shameful accusations against their characters. All attempts to trace the origin of these letters have hitherto been fruitless. The exact time of the arrest is not known, but there is reason to suspect that Von Kotze returned to Berlin from Shrubershan on Saturday to be present at the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new cathedral at Lustgarten on Sunday and was immediately taken into custody. The friends of the disgraced man maintain that he is insane.

Several princes are among the many persons whom Kotze annoyed. This feature of the case, together with the fact that Kotze had long enjoyed the full confidence of the Imperial family, has deeply incensed and pained the Emperor. Various attempts were made to induce him to settle the matter quietly, but he always replied: "No, let him be tried just as any other criminal."

Kotze's wife, who is a fashionable beauty, was absent from Berlin when the scandal broke. She returned hurriedly, and humbly but vainly interceded for her husband with the Emperor. Kotze protests his innocence. He was discovered through marks on a blotter in a fashionable club where the letters were always written similar to the traces on the blotters in the office of the master of ceremonies.

THE BRITISH ESTATE DUTIES.

Sir Charles Tupper Interviewed Regarding the Standing of the Colonies.

LONDON, June 23.—Sir Charles Tupper, High Commissioner for Canada, was interviewed regarding the position the colonies would now take in the face of the Chancellor of the Exchequer's recent statement with reference to the estate duties.

Sir Charles said that the Government leader favored Sir George Baden-Powell's notion to the effect that in the case of property held abroad the amount of the death duties paid in the country where the property was situated should be deducted from the duties payable in Great Britain, this arrangement to be effective only with countries making similar exemptions in the converse case.

This proposal, Sir Charles said, would undoubtedly be distasteful to the colonies, and he questioned very much if they would accept them. The proposal was certainly not that of the colonies, though it was an improvement upon the original one of Sir William Harcourt, which first aroused the attention and opposition of the agents general. He said it would be rather premature as far as the colonies were concerned to state anything definite until after advising together.

Sir Charles conferred with the representatives of Australia and other colonies, and it was given to be understood that no further action would be taken until the replies of their respective Governments were received.

The Times editorially infers that Sir William Harcourt has made a mistake, and that his course will tend to strengthen the wall between the colonies and the motherland, which it was hoped a conciliatory policy would level. The reciprocity feature of the proposal will not find favor with them.

NO MORE FITS.

Mrs. William Langley was Subject to Them for Five Years—Dodd's Kidney Pills, which Never Yet Failed, Cured Her.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. William Langley, of 21 Euclid Ave, London South, has for the past five years been subject to fits. She was treated by doctors in Lansing and Detroit, Mich., and by three different physicians in London. No one of them could cure her. About two months ago she began using Dodd's Kidney Pills Since then she has had no return of the fits. To-day she is perfectly cured. Her trouble was undoubtedly due to kidney disorder, a fact which the physicians who treated her never discovered and consequently, their treatment was in vain.

The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. ### ADVANCEMENT OF EDUCATION.

The University Extension Congress in Session in London.

LONDON, June 23.—The University Extension Congress is in session here. Ninety delegates attended a banquet at Mercer's hall. Among those present were Messrs. Dixon and Davidson, of New Brunswick; Howard, of Nova Scotia; and Dupine and Marshall, of Kingston, Ont.

Mr. Goschen extended a welcome to the guests and dilated upon the growth of the university extension movement, especially in America.

Many foreign delegates spoke. The congress will include three sessions, at which the chancellors of Oxford, Cambridge and London will preside respectively.

Each chancellor represents a different party, the Marquis of Salisbury the Tories, the Duke of Devonshire the Unionists, and Lord Herschell the Liberals.

The subjects for discussion will be: 1. The means of preserving and developing the educational character of university extension work, and the relation of the more popular to the more strictly educational side of the movement. 2. The essentials of efficient central and local organization, and the relation, education, and financial, of the university extension movement to the State and to the local authorities. 3. The educational possibilities of the university extension work and the methods in relation to regulation university studies and university degrees.

Attempt to Kill the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 23.—The Czar has postponed his journey to Borki. The reason announced for the change in his plans is the Czarina's return from the Caucasus. It is surmised, however, that the discovery that the railway over which he was to travel has been mined is the real reason.

Illinois Still Holds Out.

STREATOR, Ills., June 23.—A convention of miners representing the Northern Illinois district, closed a two days' session yesterday. The operators refused to meet them. The convention adopted resolutions condemning the action of the Columbus convention, and declaring that the men will stand out for last year's prices.

Canadian Oarsmen Abroad.

LONDON, June 23.—Crowds continue to witness the practices for the contests at Henley, and as most of the oarsmen are there now, the number of spectators, morning and evening, is proportionately greater. There are a dozen entries for the Diamond Sculls, and it is claimed that all will come to the scratch. It will probably be on July 3, when the heats will be rowed to decide the competitors for the great final. Speculation on the event is not of the exciting sort, but quiet wagering is indulged in, Ryan being a strong favorite. Wright is now rowing fast, and aquatic men here admire him very much. Both Canadians are well.

In the Hands of a Mob.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 22.—Governor Pattison received a despatch from Sheriff Gourley, of Jefferson county, saying: "Situation at Walston unchanged; mob still in possession of property. I cannot control the situation and request military to assist me." The governor at once answered that he had ordered the 5th and 16th regiments and Sheridan troops to move to the sheriff's support. Gen. Wylie is in charge, and the troops will gather to move on the rioters at once.

Killed by the Deadly Trolley.

CINCINNATI, June 23.—George Goodhardt, aged five, while playing with his elder brother in Ewen park picked a handful of white flows to take to his mother. On the way home he dropped a rose upon the electric railway track and hurried back to save it. He recovered the rose, but an electric car struck the little fellow and broke his neck. The boy was taken home, the rose still clasped in his chubby hand, and the poor mother took it from his dead fingers.

The Morocco Indemnity.

TANGIER, June 22.—Abdul Aziz received at Rabat the Spanish envoy, who came to Morocco with instructions to obtain the first instalment of the Government's payment to Spain on account of the Riff excesses at Melilla. After the interview he ordered the money to be paid at once. The warship Logazpi has gone to Mazagan to get it.

The Fire in Mary Lee Mine.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 22.—The fire in the Mary Lee mines is still raging. No further deaths have been reported. Strikers at Warrior placed a stick of dynamite under a house occupied by six negro non unionists, which tore the house to pieces, injuring the occupants, but not fatally.

Two Italians Drowned.

NEW YORK, June 22.—Tug Howart Carroll went to sea yesterday with scow No. 11 loaded with Brooklyn city garbage. When about half way between Rockaway Bell buoy and the light ship the scow capsized and two Italian trimmers were drowned.

Shot by Insurgents.

NEW YORK, June 22.—The Herald's Buenos Ayres special says: Senor Lorena, president of the rebel provisional government in Santa Catharina, Brazil, has been shot, it is reported, by order of Gen. Gumerciudo Saraiva, who took him prisoner recently.

Killed by a Live Wire.

ROCHESTER, N.Y., June 22.—Stephen D. Kish, aged 20 years, an employe of the Bell Telephone Company, while repairing a wire on a pole eighty feet high on State street yesterday, got hold of a live electric wire and was shocked so that he died soon after.

A gentleman, under forty years of age, whose hair was rapidly becoming thin and gray, began the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in six months his hair was restored to its natural color, and even more than its former growth and richness.

ROYAL BARGAINS!

Here are a few actual specimens of some of the RICHEST NUGGETS in the Dry Goods line thrown on the market for many a day.

To avoid sensationalism—we stick to facts—some houses nowadays seem to think the public are prepared to swallow any and every assertion. They draw on their imagination for the worth of a thing, even going back to the worths and values of twenty or twenty-five years ago, in order to make their prices seem low to-day.

When we quote an article as worth a certain price, we mean its Market Value TO-DAY.

The following prices will tell the story of what SPOT CASH can do to-day—the result of our offer being unexpectedly accepted for a lot of goods

WORTH ABOUT DOUBLE THE PRICE—

5c. 3 Papers of Good Pins. Good Glass Towelling. 1 Pair Good Towels. Good Flannelette. Good Straw Hats.

10c. Good All-Wool Debeige. Good All Wool Delaine. The Best 15c. Prints. 2 Ladies Knitted Vests. Ladies' Fast Dye Black Hose.

DISCUSSED INCOME TAX

This Feature of the Tariff Occupies the American Senate.

STRANGE ACTION OF A SENATOR

Mr. Call, of Florida, Creates a Small-Sized Sensation Among the Dignified Body by Removing His Shoes and Placing His Feet on the Desk.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Two very important amendments were reported from the Finance Committee of the Senate on the income tax provisions of the tariff bill. The one was to reduce the exemption from $4,000 to $3,000, and the other was to have deducted from the annual profits of banking, railroad and other corporations on which the tax is to be assessed the sums paid out for working expenses, the fixed charges (interest on bonded indebtedness) and losses for the year.

The day's session was spent in discussion of the income tax feature of the bill, but no vote was taken on any of the amendments.

A mild sensation was created in the Senate during Senator Kyle's speech on the income tax. Senator Call of Florida walked into the Senate chamber arrayed in a blue coat and white flannel trousers. He showed himself at the desk immediately in front of the South Dakota senator, removed his shoes and placed his stockinged feet on his desk. The senators seated near the Florida senator were visibly shocked at this unprecedented exhibition. Mr. Call, however, continued in this position for some time and then placed his feet on Mr. Kyle's desk. He sat thus until the speech was finished, when he replaced his shoes and left the chamber.

He Was a Crazy Blackmailer.

CHICAGO, June 23.—Haray Spring, the young Chicagoan who wrote letters to Helen Gould and Mrs. Emmons Blaine and attempted to obtain money from several millionaires in New York, Boston and Chicago, was arrested, adjudged insane, and sent to an asylum.

Tramps Create a Reign of Terror.

ELKHART, Ind., June 23.—A telegram received at La Porte yesterday stated that a reign of terror had been inaugurated at Stevensville, Mich., by an army of tramps 200 strong.

Muley Ismail Submissive.

TANGIER, June 23.—Muley Ismail, the late sultan's eldest brother, has announced his submission to the sovereignty of his nephew, Abdul Aziz, the new sultan of Morocco.

Two German Sailors Killed.

BERLIN, June 23.—While passing Bingen the Rhine steamer Hamlet burst a steam pipe. Two sailors were killed and several others were injured.

THE RULING MARKETS.

TORONTO, June 22, 1894.

Two million dollars in gold has been ordered for shipment to Europe from New York to-day.

The circulation of Canadian banks at the end of May was only $28,467,718, a decrease of $1,500,000 for the month. Commercial discounts amount to $207,422,000, an increase of over $2,000,000 during May. Call loans decreased $800,000, while the balances due Canadian banks by agents in the States increased $200,000.

At Chicago wheat was higher on foreign advances, the close showing a net gain for July of ½c for the day. Corn closed a shade higher. Oats lost 2⅛c and July closed 1c lower.

Buffalo—Cattle, six cars; slow; steady at Monday's low prices. Sheep and lambs, 16 cars; somewhat better for choice lambs, others dull. Hogs, 15 cars; fair demand: stronger; best Yorkers, $5; good to choice Yorkers, mediums and best heavies, $4.90 to $4.95.

Speculation at the New York Exchange was quiet again, and the attendance at the Board smaller than usual. In the early trading the general list moved up ⅛ to ¼; Union Pacific and Erie leading. A raid on Chicago gas in which this specialty was depressed from 79½ to 77½ destroyed the good feeling and a reaction set in. Talk about enjoining payment of dividend hurt Chicago gas. Sugar was lower on marketing of long stock, and the price fell from 98 to 96½ with a subsequent recovery to 97½.

TORONTO, June 23, 1894.

THE FARMERS' MARKET.—Grain receipts continue small. One load of red wheat sold at 61c standard. Oats firm, 200 bush selling at 40 to 41c. Peas were quoted at 66c and barley at 41 to 43c.

At Chicago wheat was quiet. Lower cables caused a decline here and July closed with a net loss for the day of ½c. Corn followed wheat, closing ¼ to 1½c lower. Oats were very weak, close showing a loss of 1½ to 2c for the day.

Buffalo—Cattle—Only two cars fresh on sale; dull and lower. Sheep and lambs—Thirteen cars; stronger for choice lambs, but only because they were very scarce here. Good to best wethers, $3.40 to $4; fair to good mixed sheep, $2.75 to $3.25; good to fancy lambs, $4.25 to $5.25; light to good, $3.50 to $4. Hogs—Ten cars; active and higher; best Yorkers sold at $5.05; other choice grades, medium and heavier and pigs brought $6.05.

Lower prices prevailed at the New York Stock Exchange again, the market having been adversely influenced by the engagements of $3,540,000 gold for export to Europe to-day, and continued liquidations in the low-priced stocks for London. The market opened weak, declining 1 4 to 1 1-2 per cent. The general list recovered 1-8 to 3 4 per cent. and closed firm. The net changes for the day showed losses of 1-4 to 1 per cent. Sales were: Listed, 119,000; unlisted, 50,000, including Chicago gas, 10,000; Missouri Pacific, 10,000, and St. Paul, 15,000.

How To Cure a Corn.

It is one of the easiest things in the world to cure a corn. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your boot. It is simply to apply Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor, and in three days the corn can be removed without pain. Safe, sure, painless. Take only Putnam's Corn Extractor.

WIMAN'S WORST DAY.

Dun's Uncharitable Sayings in Canada Depress His Spirits.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Erastus Wiman spent the worst day in the Tombs that he has experienced thus far. The close confinement and continual pondering over his unfortunate plight are beginning to tell even upon his rugged constitution. But what has affected him most of all is the knowledge that R. G. Dun has gone to Canada and is giving interviews to the newspapers, in which he condemns his former partner, and declares that Judge Ingraham's sentence of five years and a half in Sing Sing is not too severe. "I do not care to make any comment upon that interview," was all that Mr. Wiman wouldsay.

Mr. Wiman has always loved Canada and his associates there. He has valued his reputation in that country far more than in the United States. The people of Canada, too, have looked upon him with greater respect and esteem even than those of Staten Island, who, to this day, are ready to rally to a man in his defence. Still, Mr. Wiman refuses to attribute any malicious or harsh motive to the aged Mr. Dun's recent action against him. He still thinks that Mr. Dun will be his fast friend were it not for one or two bitter and sly and malicious enemies and former rivals in the Dun association.

Mrs. Wiman and her two sons again visited the prisoner in his Tomb's cell yesterday. A few of his Staten Island friends called too. The fallen man's mail was larger than ever and every letter was filled with sympathy and encouragement. Mr. Wiman has given up all hope of answering all of them at present and waits the press to say for him that he has received them all, appreciates the sentiments deeply and will answer them all in time.

Gen. Tracy is preparing his brief upon which he will ask a supreme court judge for a stay pending his arguments for an appeal. He expects to make his application in a day or two. He is confident of reversing the judgment.

To Reimburse the U. S. Treasury.

NEW YORK, June 23.—It is announced that the banks have finally decided positively to reimburse the treasury for the gold exported this week. These exports amount to $7,750,000. Of this amount the banks have already paid in $1,000,000 and the remainder will be in the subtreasury vaults by to-night. The banks will contribute toward the total amount, it is understood, in proportion to their holdings of specie. The definite conclusion to add the treasury in this manner was reached only at a late hour last evening. The banks, which will furnish the gold, hold $65,000,000 in specie.

Wrecked by an Earthquake.

YOKOHAMA, June 23.—The building occupied by the German legation at Tokio was wrecked by the earthquake Wednesday afternoon. The occupants escaped.

OMAHA, Neb., June 23.—Fire of unknown origin destroyed almost the entire city of Exeter, Neb., yesterday, the losses being far up in the thousands.

"Beware the pine tree's withered branch
Beware the awful avalanche!"

Was the peasant's warning to the aspiring Alpine youth. Dangers greater than these lurk in the pathway of the young man or woman of the present as they journey up the rugged sidehill of Time. But they may all be met and overcome by a judicious and timely use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Meden Medical Discovery, the celebrated cure for colds, coughs, catarrh and consumption. Better than hypophosphites of cod liver oil; unrivalled and unapproachable in all diseases arising from a scrofulous or enfeebled condition of the system.

HE'S WORKING NOW.

Chester Loomis was Crippled With Kidney Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Him—They Were Never Known to Fail.

NEWCOMB MILLS, June 18.—Chester Loomis, a well known farmer living near here, has for years been afflicted with kidney disease so badly that he could not sit in a buggy to drive to town, as he is 69 years old he despaired of a cure. He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

FACE LIKE A BURN

Bloody Water Oozed Out Constantly. No Peace Day or Night. Doctors Failed. Cured by Cuticura.

"My child's disease, which was the worst kind of eczema, started on one cheek like a ringworm. It spread and itched so the poor little fellow had no peace night or day. Then it started on the other cheek and chin, until all were raw as a piece of beefsteak, like a burn where you would rub off the skin, and bloody water oozed out constantly. His sufferings were terrible I know, although he was but six months old and could not tell how he suffered. I tied his hands that he would not scratch, then he would rub his poor little cheeks on his shoulders to relieve the intense itching. I had as good a doctor as was in Philadelphia, but he failed to relieve him. I read of the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and at once purchased them. Strange to say that very night he rested without scratching his face, and from that on he improved and soon was entirely cured. I would like anyone suffering from this terrible disease to see my boy, who is in his twelfth year now. His complexion is as clear and smooth as can be. This is an unsolicited testimonial, and every word is true. I thank God for my child's recovery, and I thank the manufacturer of CUTICURA.

"Umbrellas Re-covered While You Wait."

This is our SPECIAL theme for the week, although it constantly protrades itself rain or shine in all our advertisements, until it has become as familiar to the public as "Household Words."

But, sometimes,

WORDS FAIL

At times to make people THINK, and they forget that HALF THE PRICE of a new Umbrella or Parasol may be saved by bringing the old one to us and having it "Re-covered while you wait."

Save the Fancy Umbrella and Parasol handles and frames.

If they are good and sound, we can cover them good as new. "It's Fair's Way."

ALL NATIONS SHOCKED

Expressions of Sorrow at the Murder of President Carnot.

STRONG ANTI-ITALIAN FEELING

The French People Aroused to Violence Against the Assassin's Countrymen —Succession to the Presidency Between Casimer-Perier and Dupuy.

LYONS, June 26.—The police have obtained the following information in regard to the movements of the assassin Santo: After leaving Italy he lived in Lausanne and Geneva, Switzerland, and afterward in Lyons. From this city he went to Cette, France, where he spent the last year working as a baker. He reached Lyons from Cette at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. His real surname is Cesario and his Christian name San Hieronimo. He is 19 years old. While in Cette he earned 80 francs a month besides his board and lodging. He was sober and industrious, but taciturn. He was a great reader and outspoken only when anarchist theories were discussed.

The police official who went to Cette to trace the assassin had an interview with Mme. Viala, who keeps the baker shop in which the murderer worked. She says Cesario left her employ on Saturday, having given up his place on account of a quarrel. He received the money due him and disappeared. He left a box containing his effects in his lodgings. This the police opened, but found nothing compromising therein. Cesario purchased the poniard with which he committed the murder on Friday. This discovery gives rise to the belief that his quarrel in the baker shop was merely a pretext for leaving Cette and coming to Lyons to fulfil the murderous mission to which he was assigned by his associate anarchists.

PARIS, June 26.—Several Italians were attacked by a mob on the Qua Montabello and the most strenous efforts of the police were required to save their lives. Subsequently anti-Italian demonstrations were made in front of the Italian embassy and consulate. Both were promptly suppressed by the police. An anti-Italian riot took place at Grenoble which threatened serious results. The prefect, with the aid of a strong force of police, succeeded in quelling the disturbance. The mob subsequently paraded the streets singing the Marseillaise.

When the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies opened yesterday Casimir-Perier, president of the Chamber, arose with a paper in his hand. Immediately every person in the Chamber was on his feet with head bowed. The President, in a voice trembling with emotion, read a letter from Premier Dupuy, announcing the terrible crime at Lyons. Casimir-Perier then addressed the Chamber in eulogy of President Carnot, and in the course of his remarks associated the Chamber with the whole country in common sorrow before the tomb where disappears a life of devotion and integrity.

He then read the summons of M. Challemel-Lacour, president of the Senate, convoking a congress at Versailles to-morrow for the purpose of selecting a president of the republic.

La Patrie says the loss of President Carnot will be universally regretted.

Le Petite Parisienne says the crime is a great humiliation to a country possessing universal suffrage.

La Faix says a united cry proceeds from the populace against anarchism which is a synonym for incitement to murder.

The Figaro says President Carnot may have committed political faults, but his private character as a man always merited the respect of his adversaries. His faults were easily forgotten, but his dignity, generosity and the correctness of his attitude were not possible to forget.

President Carnot's body was removed last evening to the railway station in Lyons and there was placed in a car heavily draped with black. The special train, to which the car was attached, started for Paris with Mme. Carnot, several officers of the late President's household and a few other officials. The grand salon in the Elysee Palace has been transformed into a funeral chamber. It is hung in black drapery, fringed with silver. The chandeliers are covered with crape and the candelabra at the corners of the catafalque have been wraped in black cloth. A military guard will be on duty in the chamber until the funeral, which probably will take place on Friday.

The rulers of all the civilized countries have sent telegrams expressing to Mme. Carnot their sorrow and sympathy. Thousands have inscribed their names in the register books of the Elysee. Among them were personal friends, diplomats, academicians, society leaders, business men and many workingmen. The concert halls are closed and the races have been postponed.

In all places frequented by politicians the succession to the presidency is discussed constantly. Casimir-Perier's chances seem to improve steadily. This evening he is a more conspicuous favorite than ever.

LONDON, June 26.—Henry Rochefort, in an interview said: "I fear the murder of President Carnot will be followed by reprisals against Italians and a repetition of the bloody scenes of the Aigues Mortes. I am receiving telegrams from which I have the assurance that no Frenchman or anarchist had anything to do do with the affair. In regard to the election of Carnot's successor, I do not think M. Constans has any chance in the race with Casimir Perier and Dupuy. I think the choice will fall upon Dupuy. If Casimir-Perier is elected, France will fall under the regime of an Autoritaire. I have no fear that Gen. Saussier or any other military officer will be elected."

Queen Victoria sent a long dispatch to Mme. Carnot expressing her deep sorrow and sympathy. Lord Kimberly telegraphed the Marquis of Dufferin, British ambassador at Paris instructing him to express in the name of the Queen, Her Majesty's horror and deep regret at the murder of President Carnot.

United States ambassador Bayard addressed the following note to M. de Crais, the French ambassador to Great Britain: "My dear Colleague,—I beg you to accept the assurance of my sincere sympathies with your country and yourself as an honored and faithful representative at this court on this distressing occasion when the patriotic and beloved head of your Government is inhumanly and wickedly stricken down by the hand of an assassin. Lovers and servants of civilization the world over will know no lines of diverse nationality when such deeds are done, but will act as blended in one community of sorrow, anxious and determined to uphold the law, protect justice from such fatal assaults and bring all the self-protecting powers of society into vigorous and concordant action. For myself personally and the country I represent I renew my expression of sincere sorrow and perfect sympathy. I am, my dear colleague sincerely yours, Thomas F. Bayard."

ROME, June 26.—King Humbert sent a telegram to Mme. Carnot saying: "The blow that struck your husband struck at the same time my heart. The Queen's grief is profound. Italy is wounded not less than France. All share your mourning."

The municipal authorities publish an invitation to all citizens to unite in common mourning with France and appeal to all governments to take every precaution to safeguard society against anarchists.

LONDON, June 26.—The Standard's Rome correspondent says: "Cardinal Rampolla was aroused from bed by the first news of the assassination. He hesitated to disturb the Pope but later upon receiving confirmation of the report from the French embassy and the Archbishop of Lyons he went to His Holiness. It was six o'clock in the morning and the Pope said: "I expect bad news when you come at this hour in the morning. I also passed a bad night." After hearing the facts His Holiness was quite overcome. His features were convulsed with emotion and he exclaimed "My God, what times!"

The excitement at the Vatican was indescribable.

FOUGHT WITH WOMEN.

Non-Union Men and Pinkertons Have a Struggle With Strikers.

PUNSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 26.—An outbreak occurred at Walston, in which the deputy sheriffs and the wives of the foreigners figured to such an extent that many bruised heads resulted. The fight was precipitated by the arrival of a train load of non-unionists under guard of 25 Pinkertons. The strikers had learned that the men were en route to the mines, and accordingly made warlike preparations, so that when the train pulled into the Walston station 1,500 men, women and children were on hand to meet it. As soon as the train came to a standstill the Pinkertons, who were armed with Winchesters, jumped out and there was a general rush of strikers, with the women in front.

The mob hurled stones and fought their way towards the deputies. Only a squad of soldiers were on guard, the camp of the 16th regiment being located a mile away. A messenger was immediately despatched to the camp, and company I of the 16th regiment responded, but before it arrived the trouble was over. This is the second successful effort made by General Superintendent Robinson of the Rochester & Pittsburg Railroad Company to place men at work. During the fight several women and children were trampled on.

After leaving Walston the train ran to Anita, where another large mob was ready to receive it. When the deputies alighted, under command of Captain Clark, they lined up in position amid the howls and jeers of the strikers. Then followed 100 non-unionists. The strikers made a rush to get at them in the hope of persuading them not to enter the mines, but they were repulsed by the deputies, who charged bayonets, scattering them. The non-unionists were marched to a house near by, and after being safely quartered, a strong guard was placed about the building.

Immediately following this incident the strikers marched to a school house, located between Anita and Adrain, and held a meeting to decide upon a future policy. The meeting was attended by over 1,000 strikers. After the meeting it was learned that it had been decided to use every means in their power to prevent a resumption of work.

The Oarsmen at Henley.

LONDON, June 26.—The weather continues glorious, and interest in the coming aquatic events at Henley is as keen as ever. Both Ryan and Wright were out for their matutinal spin a little earlier than usual yesterday, but the touts and watchers were on hand just the same, and their time and speed duly noted. The entries for the Diamond Sculls, including Ryan, now number nine, three having failed to come to time. There are three entries for the Goblets. In the trial both Canadians pulled fast, Wright particularly, and many of the onlookers were surprised. In the betting Ryan has become a strong favorite and is taken against the field. Both men have entered for some of the leading events at the Bedford regatta on July 12.

EARL JERSEY ARRIVES

Great Britain's Representative to the Intercolonial Conference.

WHAT THE DELEGATES WILL DO

None of Them Having Been Vested With Plenipotentiary Powers, Their Views Will not Bind Their Governments—Cape Delegates in Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 26.—The Earl of Jersey, who will represent Great Britain at the colonial conference to be held at Ottawa, is in the city.

In an interview he said: "As to the views of the delegates and their governments I do not think any of them can be clear about them before we begin to exchange ideas and suggestions. I don't suppose any of the delegates came with plenipotentiary powers, for you see they can always refer everything by telegraph to their own governments, and indeed even if the conference does adopt certain resolutions, I fancy the adherence of a delegate to these would not bind our own government, for in these days of representative government the electors would probably want to be asked to endorse and to ratify what had been done.

"You ask if I will speak at the conference? I don't know. Everything depends. I do not think there will be set speeches or addresses. I expect the proceedings will be carried on much after the style of a parliamentary committee's proceedings more in a conversational way than in any spirit or shape of debate or argument. I don't know how long this conference will last. I hope to be able to stay till the end of it and I trust that some good may result."

Sir Charles Mills and Hon. J. Hafmeyer, who represent the Cape of Good Hope, are also in the city.

INQUEST AT DUNDAS.

The Two Hamilton Youths Committed to Stand Their Trial.

DUNDAS, Ont., June 26.—Coroner Ross yesterday began the inquest on the death of Reuben Tew, of Greensville. After the jury had viewed the body of deceased and the buggy in which he was driving at the time of his death they adjourned to the town hall.

The evidence shows that deceased and Mr. Riley were driving west on King street on Saturday, Riley sitting on the right side of the buggy and driving on the north side of the street, close to the sidewalk. When about the middle of the block a sorrel horse, hitched to a top buggy containing three young men, ran into them, one of the shafts striking Mr. Tew in the abdomen, making a terrible gash, from which he died. Two of the young men who were in the rig that caused the damage were Frank Hancock, of Hamilton, a nephew of Ald. Hancock, and Charles Carter, also of Hamilton. Who the third young man was is not yet known. Immediately the injury had been done the Hamilton rig drove away, not making any attempt to see whether anyone was injured or not and were chased and captured on the Hamilton road.

The jury brought in a verdict that deceased came to his death by the unlawful and furious driving of the prisoners. They were tried before Mayor Knowles on this charge and sent up for trial at the next assizes. There was no evidence to show that the prisoners were under the influence of liquor.

Affairs in Newfoundland.

ST. JOHNS, Nfld., June 25.—The Supreme Court has granted a mandamus upon the assistant Collector of Customs re the revenue question. The court declined to make the mandamus peremptory or final, but gave the collector four days to make a return showing cause why mandamus should not be granted. The whole general question will then be argued but probably the court will then grant permanent mandamus in which case the Government will be compelled to take new steps to get revenue.

The Pullman Strike.

MONTREAL, June 26.—Referring to the Pullman strike at Chicago, a prominent Grand Trunk official said that in the event of the American Railway Union, which is very strong in Canada, declaring a boycott, as they threaten, against Pullman cars and forbidding its members to handle them, the Grand Trunk will be compelled to shunt Pullman cars on sidings, and endeavor to accommodate passengers with their own rolling stock during the strike.

Teething at 88.

Samuel Swaney of Washington township was in Muncie to-day and exhibited his third set of natural teeth. They number thirteen and have been growing for the past three years.

He is 88 years of age, but is a hale old fellow and says that this growth did not bother him nearly so much as the first ones, many years ago. The teeth have only appeared in the front part of his gums, but they are more perfect than any he has ever had.—Muncie Correspondent Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A Dangerous Man.

Foster—I never tell a good joke to Trotter.

Barlow—Can't he appreciate it?

Foster—Appreciate it? Great Scott, he'll tell it the next day to everybody you know ten times as well as you ever can!—Truth.

SUBJECTS TO BE DISCUSSED.

The Earl of Jersey to Be Present as the Imperial Government's Representative—Biographies of the Distinguished Members of the Gathering.

Imperial Government—Earl of Jersey.

Canada—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. George E. Foster.

New South Wales—Hon. F. B. Suttor, vice-president Executive Council.

Victoria—Sir Henry Wrixon, Attorney-General; Hon. Simon Fraser and Hon. N. Fitzgerald.

Queensland—Hon. William Forrest and Hon. A. J. Thynne, Minister of Justice.

South Australia—Hon. Thomas Playford.

New Zealand—Alfred Lee-Smith.

Cape Colony—Sir Henry de Villiers, Chief Justice, and Sir Charles Mills, Agent-General in London.

Natal—Hon. J. H. Hofmeyr.

Tasmania—E. N. C. Braddon, Agent-General in London.

These are the delegates who will meet at Ottawa on the 28th of this month to map out a plan for the greatest achievement of British commercial expansion. The conference will be an almost complete representation of the British Colonies, only West Australia, Newfoundland and the West Indies, so far as the Dominion Government is already informed, being unrepresented, although they have been invited. The conference will not be open to the public, as practical work rather than the airing of theories is desired. Still it must be borne in mind that

The British Representative,

the Earl of Jersey, and his associate, Mr. Mercer, are instructed to listen to the proceedings and report, to speak after careful preparation and briefly and to avoid expounding theories.

The defence committee of the Imperial Federation League has drafted a memorial urging upon the government that, inasmuch as Canada and Australia request an imperial subsidy for the new steamship service and a guarantee of the interest on the money to be spent on the new cable, they ought to help defray the expense of the navy. The memorial suggests that the Earl of Jersey, Great Britain's delegate to the Colonial Conference in Ottawa, be instructed to submit this proposal to the conference and to ask that Canada and Australia consent to contribute to the naval fund, provided that they be allowed to share in the administration of it. Several peers and commoners are among the signers of the memorial.

Sketch of Lord Jersey.

Victor Albert George Child Villiers, seventh Earl of Jersey, was Governor General of New South Wales from 1890 to 1893, a fact to which doubtless he owes his selection as British representative to the Intercolonial Conference at Ottawa. The most important matter with which the conference will have to deal is the question of the proposed Pacific cable, intended to place the various British possessions in the Pacific in direct telegraphic connection with the mother country by way of Canada. Lord Jersey is now in his fiftieth year. He was educated at Eaton and Oxford and has held several important government positions, including that of Postmaster General.

THE COLONIAL DELEGATES.

Biographical Sketches of the Distinguished Visitors to the Dominion.

Following are biographical sketches of the visitors to Ottawa:

New South Wales Delegate.

The senior colony of New South Wales will be represented at the conference by the Hon. Francis H. Suttor, its Minister of Public Instruction, who was unanimously selected by his colleagues, and who will be the only Minister present from these colonies as a deligate. Mr. Suttor accepted the position offered him, in spite of the fact that during his absence one of the most vigorously contested general elections in the history of the colony will take place and that his absence might imperil his chances of re-election. There is, however, but little fear of his being defeated at the polls, for the Suttor family has been identical with Bathurst (his constituency) almost since the first settlement of the colony, and the electors of that city are not going to "go back" on an old and tried representative, especially when he is attending an important conference on behalf of his native country. Mr. Suttor is a New South Welshman of the purest type, and is an excellent representative of the kind of gentlemen this colony produces.

HON. F. B. SUTTOR, MINISTER OF EDUCATION N. S. W.

His grandfather, Mr. George Suttor, a celebrated Scotch botanist and scientist, came to Australia in November, 1800, long before the rest of this vast continent drifted away from the parent settlement (New South Wales) and was formed into the great commonwealths which are now familiar to the world. Mr. George Suttor was, soon after his arrival, appointed Government botanist and served his adopted country faithfully in many positions, until he was called away to receive the reward for an upright, honorable career. As proof of the claim of the Suttors to be amongst the pioneers of this colony, it may be said that for the past fifty years there has not been a Parliament in New South Wales in which there has not been a member of the Suttor family each one of whom was elected by the votes of the people; and, more than that, there has not been a Cabinet for many years past in which a Suttor has not held a portfolio. Mr. W. H. Suttor, the father of the present Minister, was in Parliament for over thirty years. Thus it can be seen that the claim of the Suttors of Bathurst to be a representative New South Wales family is well founded. The Hon. Francis Bathurst Suttor, who will attend the Ottawa conference on behalf of New South Wales—although yet a comparatively young man, having been born at Bathurst in 1839—has held office longer than any other public man in New South Wales, with the possible exception of Sir Henry Parkes, having had charge of portfolios in five Governments from 1877 to date. First elected to the Legislative Assembly in January, 1875, he has represented the constituency of Bathurst ever since, except for a period of about two years; and only two years after his entrance into public life was appointed Minister of Public Instruction in 1877. Since then his duties have been chiefly to preside over that department, although he has also acted as Minister of Justice and temporarily performed the duties of most of the other Ministers. During the absence in England, Canada and the United States of Sir George Dibbs in 1892, Mr. Suttor was acting Colonial Secretary, and gained universal encomiums for his administration of that department. A thorough gentleman, well acquainted with the needs and position of his native land, Mr. Suttor should make an excellent delegate, and it is quite safe to prophesy that he will make many warm friends.

SIR HENRY J. WRIXON, K.C.M.G.

THE BRITISH COLONIES.

The Victorian Delegates.

The Government of the colony of Victoria has selected three gentlemen to represent it at the Ottawa conference. They are Sir Henry Wrixon, M.P., Hon. Nicholas Fitzgerald, M.L.C., and Hon. Simon Fraser, M.L.C. All three go over with the determination to do their utmost to bring about reciprocal trade relations with the Dominion, and to draw closer the bonds which should unite the great colonies of the Empire.

Sir Henry J. Wrixon, one of the delegates from Victoria, is an Irishman by birth, having seen the light near Dublin in October, 1839. He came out to Australia when 11 years old, but returned to

HON. NICHOLAS FITZGERALD, M. L. C.

Dublin in 1858 to study law, being called to the Irish bar in 1863. For some years he was an old world journalist, but returning to Victoria after being admitted to the bar, was in turn called to practice his profession in that colony, and devoted himself to its pursuit with such assiduity that he soon achieved an enviable reputation. In 1868 he was elected to represent Belfast in the Legislative Assembly, and took office as Solicitor General in the McCulloch Ministry two years later. Since then he has held office in various Governments, his last Cabinet position being that of Attorney-General from 1886 to 1890, and has almost continually occupied a seat in the Assembly; in fact, he is only now resigning his seat as a member for Portland, because he intends to be absent for over twelve months, and considers that his constituents should be represented during his absence. Mr. Wrixon was knighted in 1891 in recognition of his services in representing his colony before the Imperial Privy Council in an important constitutional case arising out of the Chinese Restriction Act. He has been responsible for much progressive legislation, his principal achievement being the inception and passage of the Criminal Law Amendment Bill. Sir Henry, who is a fluent speaker, was a delegate to the Australian federation convention in Sydney in 1891.

Hon. Nicholas Fitzgerald, another of the Victorian delegates, is, like Sir Henry Wrixon, of Irish birth. He was born at Galway, in August, 1829. Trinity College, Dublin, in 1845, where he obtained honors, and in 1849 gained a first-class scholarship at Queen's College, Galway. After spending some years in Ceylon and India, he went to Australia in 1859 and established the Castlemaine brewery, the fame of the beer of which is as widespread in all these colonies as is Davies', Carling's, or Labatt's in Canada. He has been a member of the Legislative Council for thirty years, having been elected for the Northwest province in 1864, and, being largely interested in the question of religious education in the schools, is regarded as the mouthpiece of the Roman Catholic party in the Upper House. He also was a delegate to the federation convention in 1891, and thus stands in the front rank of representative men.

At the request of Sir Edward Braddon, the new Premier of Tasmania, Mr. Fitzgerald will also represent that colony at the conference.

A Canadian from Victoria.

Hon. Simon Fraser, M.L.C., the third delegate from Victoria, will occupy a peculiar and interesting position at the conference, inasmuch as he is a Canadian by birth, although Australian by adoption. The youngest son of Mr. William F. Fraser, mill owner and farmer, he was born at Pictou, N.S., on August 21, 1834, so that he stands a very good chance of celebrating his 60th birthday at his native town. Educated at the East River Seminary, he went to Australia when 18 years of age, and went at once to the gold diggings, where he spent some time with fair success. Afterwards he became a contractor, and successfully carried out many works in Victoria, New South Wales and South Australia, subsequently becoming a large squatter, and having vast pastoral interests in Queensland, Victoria and New South Wales. At the general elections of 1874 he stood for Rodney in the interest of the Francis Ministry, and was returned by a large majority. He was re-elected in 1877, but, after representing Rodney for nine years, resigned in order to visit Europe and America. In 1883 he contested West Melbourne, but was defeated, and suffered a similar fate in April, 1886, when he was a candidate for the Legislative Council. In August of that year, however, he was sent to the Council by the electors of South Yarra, and has retained that seat ever since. Mr. Fraser, who is a man of Melbourne, where his selection as one of the delegates to Ottawa has given universal satisfaction.

South Australia's Delegate.

South Australia, of which Adelaide is the capital, will be represented by the Hon. Thomas Playford, its recently appointed Agent General in London, and one of the veteran politicians of the colony. Born in London, Eng., in 1837, he went to Australia with his father, Rev. Thos. Playford, in 1848. For many years he was engaged in farming at Mitcham, whence he removed to the hills and took up gardening pursuits. He was for twenty-one years the chairman of the East Torrens District Council, for three years a member of the Central Road Board, and for four or five years the president of the Association of District Chairmen. He made his first appearance in Parliament in 1868, as member for Onkaparinga, but in 1875 was returned for East Torrens, which he continued to represent until the general election of 1887, when he was rejected by the electors, being afterwards returned for Newcastle. At the general election of 1890 he successfully contested his old district of East Torrens, which he continued to represent until a month or so since, when he resigned to proceed to England. Mr. Playford has had a long and varied experience of ministerial life. In 1876 he joined the Bocant Cabinet as Commissioner of Crown Lands, and in 1877 he resumed that office in the second Bocant Ministry. He was also Commissioner of Crown Lands in the Morgan Government from 1878 to 1881, and in the Colton Government from 1884. Later he exchanged portfolios with Mr. Coles, the Commissioner of Public Works, but in June, 1885, when Sir John Downer succeeded in carrying an adverse vote, he, with his colleagues, retired from office. He did not again occupy a seat on the Ministerial benches until June, 1887, when he successfully led the Opposition against the Downer Government. He then assumed the premiership, and held office until dislodged by Dr. Cockburn in June, 1889. While acting as Premier, Mr. Playford had the honor, with Mr. Kingston, of being the first South Australian delegate to the Federal Council, and was further chosen to act as president of the Council during its sittings. In conjunction with the then Premier (Dr. Cockburn) he represented the colony at the Federal Conference held in Melbourne in February, 1890, and was also one of the South Australian delegates to the Federation convention in Sydney in March, 1891. During the general election of 1890 he was recognized as leader of the Opposition, and in August of that year formed a Ministry upon the defeat of the Cockburn Ministry. He then held office as Premier until June, 1892, when he was defeated in the Assembly by four votes, and resigned the leadership of the Government to Hon. F. W. Holder. That gentleman in turn suffered defeat, and Hon. Mr. Kingston on June 16, 1893, formed a Cabinet, of which Mr. Playford was appointed Treasurer, a position he held until last month, when he resigned to accept the position of Agent-General in London. Mr. Playford was the first politician to introduce a protective tariff into South Australia.

HON. SIMON FRASER, M. L. C.

Suffering Children.

Nothing is more piteous than the writhings of a child who is sick and unable to locate its pain. In most cases children suffer from disordered stomachs—or at least troubles of that kind are most common—and if not treated in time often result in death. Twenty drops of Perry Davis' PAIN-KILLER will alleviate the most painful and obstinate case of chronic diarrhœa or summer complaint in the world, and no nurse can feel safe without having a bottle of this medicine at her elbow. All respectable druggists sell the PAIN-KILLER at 25c. for the Big New Size.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga Tenn., says: "Shiloh's Vitalizer SAVED MY LIFE. I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 25c. Sold by Geo. A. Schofield.

Rough Skin.

Caused by cold weather, is made perfectly smooth by one application of Dyer's Jelly of Cucumber and Roses. Try it. Druggists keep it. W. A. Dyer & Co., Montreal.

FRATERNAL ASSESSMENT LIABILITY.

"Can't I get out when I please, an have no liability?"

Most people expect "yes" for an answer to this question, when they say they are members of an assessment insurance society, and begin to think of their responsibilities as such. It is important for them to know that they cannot escape liability; because every member, no matter when he drops out, is liable for any deficiencies that may arise in future, if they were developed during his membership. Here is an instance:

The United Masonic Benefit Association of Missouri was some years ago an active and apparently prosperous assessment concern. It provided no reserve, but offered low rates, cheap insurance, and seemingly hoped that new blood would make up for increasing mortality resulting from increasing age. By and bye its forces began to fall off, not enough "new blood" came in, and the cost of membership ran up in a very uncomfortable way. Presently the healthier lives began to feel their burden pressing heavily and steadily left the ranks, until so few were left in the association that the assessments amounted to $140—one hundred and forty dollars—on each certificate. The remaining members refused to pay such a sum, and the concern failed. But there were unpaid death claims for a large amount due, and the State Superintendent of Insurance thought they ought to be paid. So he began suits at law against individual members to enforce payment of the assessments against them; the court has decided that they must pay. The feelings of those who are thus compelled to pay what they never expected have undergone a change with respect to assessment insurance.

Replying to some enquiries which had been made upon this point of liability, and citing this case illustration of what may be expected in any similiar case which might be pressed to suit, the Insurance Monitor says: "The decision referred to answers our question which has been debated whether the member's liability is limited to sums which he may choose to pay; in, other words, whether he can get out when he pleases without further harm. This he cannot do. Every member, no matter when he may drop out, is liable for any deficiencies which may crop up in future, resulting during his membership. The only safe course for parties that apprehend breakers ahead is to drop their membership before the breakers are reached; and the misfortune of this course is that the faster they drop, the faster the association drives towards the breakers."

There seems to be only one course open for the prudent man who may be determined to avoid possible liability; that is to keep out of such associations entirely and buy his insurance of the regular companies.—Monetary Times.

Almost Winded.

The Bobcaygeon Independent says that Mr. Wm. Junkin, who has become the professional diver on the Trent waters returned recently from Peterborough, where he was fixing the lock-gates. Combining his mechanical skill with his experience as a diver, Mr. Junkin is one of the most valuable members of the Trent waters staff. He has overhauled nearly all the locks, and has succeeded in making all the gates run so easy that all the winches have been abandoned. He had an unpleasant experience in the Peterborough Lock. Whilst he was below, an accident to a stick of timber that was being handled above caused the pumper to forget himself and leave his post. Instantly Mr. Junkin's suit collapsed around him, and he made a pretty lively spurt for his ladder, but before he reached it the pumper returned to his post and sent down a gust of air that lifted him about three feet. He came to his bearings in a few moments and then climbed to the surface. He was not injured, but the shutting off of a man's wind is never pleasant, and most particularly unpleasant to a diver.

St. John's Choir.

The boys of St. John's choir enjoyed a delightful treat last night, when they met together with the boys of the preparatory class to receive their prizes for the half year. They assembled on the church grounds at 8 o'clock and amused themselves for some time in running races and scrambling for candies and other edibles. Sometime after half-past eight, Rev. C. B. Kenrick called them to-gether and the prizes were presented by the Rector in the presence of several friends. In the preparatory class the first prize was carried off by Harold Byers, and others were awarded to Warren Dean and Hague Sawers. The two latter, who had but recently entered the class, were commended for their regularity and diligence. Following the presentation of these prizes, those won by boys fully admitted to the choir were distributed. Fred Sawers, who had attended every service and practice since Christmas, was very highly praised, as well for his attendance as for his conscientious discharge of his duties. He received the first prize. Ollie Earle, who was but little behind him, received the second. Fred. Sawers was awarded another prize for his efficiency, as were also Percy Earle, Chas. Seymour and Maitland Boswell. These four boys, Mr. Kenrick remarked, were the mainstay of the choir. A special prize was given to Percy Clark for faithful diligence during the short time he had been in the choir. Following the distribution of prizes, came more games and candies, ice cream kindly given by Mr. H. Long, and eager discussion of the forthcoming choir picnic, when the boys expect to camp out for a week. The lads then sang the Nunc Dimittis and after a brief prayer and blessing the gathering came to an end.

THE TRIMMEST STEAM YACHT ON THE LAKES.

Messrs. Moffat & Kinch Have Launched a Beautiful Little Craft—It Can be Chartered for Private Excursion Parties.

The "Idle Hour," a trim little steam launch, belonging to the firm of Messrs. Moffatt & Kinch, is being launched to-day at Chemong and, if satisfactory arrangements are completed, will connect the railway terminus with the park throughout the summer months, meeting the different trains and conveying the passengers across the intervening distance.

The new boat is admirably adapted for the purpose for which it is built, being something over 30 feet in length and five feet in width. It has a seating capacity for thirty persons, but is sufficiently buoyant to carry many more. The hull is of cedar and was constructed by the Canadian Canoe Company. The pretty canopy top is finished off in butternut and white pine and the inside is upholstered in crimson plush, and altogether the launch is a most tidy little craft.

The machinery was put in by the proprietors, Messrs. Moffat & Kinch, and should prove a great advertisement for them, as it is of the best possible class. A Paines' patent boiler has been put in and the engine is of the plain slide valve variety. The screw is a two-bladed, 26-inch wheel, and it is thought that ten miles an hour will be easily made by the yacht, as the engine is capable of carrying 130 pounds of steam and is of about six-horse power. It has already passed government inspection. Final inspection will be made in a day or two by the government officials, after which the yacht will be open for charter for private excursions, etc.

POLICE COURT.

The justice mill did not stop operations on account of the election, but this morning ground out a larger grist than it has done for some time. The first culprit to face the dispenser of justice was Frank Harris, charged with vagrancy. It appears that Harris is a vile fellow, who adds to vagrancy drunkenness, and to drunkenness foul language, it being his custom when begging, if he is refused alms, to indulge in the most obscene and disgusting language. He will have a chance to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow and his body, too, for he was sentenced to six months in the Central, and it is no child's play to put in a term in the Central. Hitherto he has had too much rest, now he will feel like begging for rest. The chief and his staff are determined to put down the tramp nuisance in Peterborough and a dose in the Central is a fine remedy.

Two young men were charged with drunkenness and expatiated the exaggerated exuberance of their bibulosity by having to pay a fine of $5 and $2 costs respectively, or an equivalent of time in the county gaol.

Another young man contributed $2 to the treasury for an assault, and one man was charged with having buried a defunct horse at a depth that did not comply with the demands of sanitary requirements and another one was charged with neglecting to remove the animal's remains when directed so to do. The two latter cases were enlarged till to-morrow.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Gospel and song service was brought to a close Sunday evening and will be re-opened the first [illegible] September.

Rev. W. R. [illegible], gave a brief but very forcible address from Psalms 66 and 18th verse on "Iniquity" to a large and attentive audience. A very fine solo was given by Prof. Davidson.

The young men's Bible class Tuesday evenings and Saturday evening meetings will be continued during the summer as usual.

The rooms will be closed at 9 p. m. till September 1st.

CRICKET.

A team of the colts is likely to go to Port Hope to-morrow.

A match is on the crease with Millbrook. And it will be doubtless an interesting one. In order to make the game interesting the ambitious Millbrookers stipulate that Peterborough send its very best team. It is probable that their wish will be complied with, as a team of selected colts may be sent down.

The Election Excitement.

The excitement is not apparent to-day. The streets are very quiet up to noon, but it is expected that the excitement will begin to boil after five o'clock. Teams carrying the free and independent electors to the polls are busily traversing the streets, but although the contest is waged quietly there is an undercurrent of hard work.

Wild Mustard

C. Forrester, manager of the Rathbun Company's farms, has found by experiment that the wild mustard is capital feed for pigs as soon as pulled. The virtue of it goes back to the soil. The amount of nutriment drawn from the grain amid which the mustard grows must be enormous. Too much cannot be done to get rid of it and if it can thus be fed to hogs it will pay in every respect to pull it. Mr. Forester has five hundred acres under his jurisdiction near Deseronto, which he has thoroughly freed from mustard at an expenditure of only $40. It will pay the farmers to remove this pest.

Wedded in Cleveland.

A quiet but interesting event took place in Cleveland, Ohio, on Wednesday, June 20th, at the residence of Mr. Henry Heisner, 234 Rhodes Avenue, when his daughter, Miss Annie, was united in marriage to Mr. Geo. H. Martin, formerly of Peterborough, at one time a member of the EXAMINER staff. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John Winters, of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a few intimate friends of the bride and groom. The bride was assisted by her sister, Miss Lizzie, and Mr. A. Martin, of Peterborough, brother of the groom, ably filled the position of groomsman. After the usual wedding supper the happy couple repaired to their future residence, 235 Trowbridge street, where their numerous friends will wish them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

Fatal Result of Delay.

Since the world began no heir was ever born to so great an empire as that on which the great-grandson of Queen Victoria opened his eyes on Saturday to the great satisfaction of Her Majesty's subjects everywhere. The prayer of the vast majority of all these peoples over whom he may yet hope to reign is that the new prince may be robust of frame, vigorous in mind, and full of the spirit of God, that he may have grace and wisdom when his time shall come to preside over 'this so great a people.'

Since Confederation there have been—including to-day's—eight general elections. In Sept. 1867; March 14th, 1871; June 11th 1875; June 5th, 1879; Feb. 27th, 1883; Dec 28th, 1886; June 5th, 1890; and June 26th 1894. In the last five Sir Oliver Mowat was sustained and the possibilities are that he will again be sustained to-day.

TWO CASTS OF FATE.

It would appear that Fate loves striking contrasts. The same day that brings us the news of the assassination of President Carnot, tells us also of the birth of an heir to the British throne. There are now living four persons of royal blood in direct line of succession from great grandmother to great grandson. A child like this first-born of the Duchess of York, comes as the inheritor of vast opportunity; and to vast opportunity more and more as the world progresses, is attached vast responsibility. To turn to the darker side of the shield, the death of the ill-fated Carnot cannot but complicate the already sufficiently confused state of affairs in France; and may even carry trouble across the Alps. Europe is in a bad mood to have an Italian anarchist assassinate the President of France, and the rioting that has followed may breed something more serious. The best wish of the intertwined nationalities of Canada will be peace and stability to France and prosperity to the latest born heir to the throne of Britain.

He tried Dodd's Kidney Pills and they cured him. He has not done any farm work for years, but he helped to put in this spring's crops, and anyone who goes to see him to-day will find him between the plough-handles instead of laid out on a bed or an easy chair as he used to be.

CAUSED A SENSATION AT OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, June 25.—The assassination of President Carnot created a great sensation here last night. It was the sole topic of conversation in political circles. Sir John Thompson and Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, who had the pleasure of meeting the late Chief Magistrate during the Behring Sea conference in Paris last year, feel very grieved over his tragic fate. Both speak of him in the highest terms. The hospitality of President Carnot was proverbial. Both Cabinet ministers enjoyed the distinction of breakfasting with him at Fontainebleau besides participating with him at several functions.

THE GREAT DAY APPROACHING

The First of July Demonstration Will Draw Thousands to Peterborough.

There is no doubt existing now regarding the great success which is bound to attend the great Dominion Day demonstration which Peterborough intends holding. The fact that the Board of Trade and Fire Brigade are behind the celebration scheme is a sufficient guarantee of its being everything that is desirable. Then the citizens who are on the committee are just the right sort of men in the right place, so success is assured.

THE BALOON ASCENSION.

will be a most interesting feature. Prof. Walcott, one of the world's most famous aeronauts, will ascend to the height of over 4000 feet or over three-quarters of a mile, and perform marvellous tricks on the flying trapeze while ascending. He will then descend to terra firma by means of a parachute.

The calithumpian procession, the finest of its kind which ever took place in the in the Midland Counties, will also be a free exhibition and will be a great attraction.

During the afternoon there will be all kinds of sports, including horse races for good purses. A lacrosse match between two of the best teams in the district, and a band contest ought to prove drawing features.

In the evening Prof. Hand, of Hamilton, has been engaged to give a most magnificent display of fireworks, and, altogether, the day will undoubtedly be one of huge enjoyment, both to the citizens and to the thousands of visitors who will come in on the excursion trains and boats.

CROPS OF ONTARIO.

HOW THEY LOOK AFTER THE HEAVY RAINS.

A Departmental Bulletin—Fall Wheat Stood Bad Weather Well—Spring Wheat a Little Short—Most Crops will Equal the Average, but are Late.

The Ontario Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin covering the condition of the crops up to June 16, including therefore, the period of heavy rain. June weather so far has been quite favourable to the growth of crops.

FALL WHEAT.

This crop has stood the heavy rain and changes of weather much better than the spring crops. Throughout the entire province some low lands have been flooded and the crop drowned out. On very heavy clays there has been some damage, but on light and loamy soils very little injury has resulted. The reports for this time of the year are quite up to the average. The frost of the first week of June was felt to a very light extent. The reports from all parts of the province are practically the same—that after the rain the wheat soon picked up and showed less injury than had been supposed. No more than usual has been plowed up and resown to spring grain. Heading out was in progress on the 15th. In some places the growth was quite rank. With favourable weather for the next three weeks a good crop of fall wheat may be looked for. At present the conditions promise an average yield. In the Lake Erie district the crop was fair to very good, except on low lands and very heavy clay. Damage by frost was very slight. In the Lake Huron district most reports are for a good crop. Some attention is given by correspondents to the benefits of drainage, which were very apparent during the present season. In the Georgian Bay counties a small fraction of the crop has been lost, but on the whole it is quite up to the average. In the West Midland group the best reports come from Wellington and the worst from Middlesex, where, however, the crop is reported fair. Along Lake Ontario the reports are favourable for a fair crop—fully up to the average. In the eastern counties the amount of fall wheat is too small to affect the total, but reports are favourable. To sum up: The present condition is fair, with prospects of a crop quite up to, if not a little over, the average with favourable weather.

SPRING WHEAT.

As usual, there is but little spring wheat in the western part of the province, while in the eastern half the acreage is declining. The low lying lands have suffered severely, but the higher lands have fair crops. The grain was sown in fine condition and is now recovering rapidly from the extra rain. In many places correspondents state that the rain did more good than harm. In the eastern counties about one-third of the spring wheat is either destroyed or is in poor condition; two-thirds may be said to be fair to good. Less than usual has been sown in the northern districts. On the whole present indications are for a crop about two-thirds of the average.

BARLEY.

In the Lake Erie district only a moderate quantity has been sown, and the condition is under the average. It has suffered from rain and also from frost. In the Lake Huron district barley is not is so good a form as spring wheat; it is backward and a little yellow in places, but it is now improving. In the Georgian Bay district rain and frost did some injury, but an improvement has taken place since warm weather returned. In the West Midland district the crop is reported as being uneven or patchy and backward. In the Lake Ontario district the condition is a little under the average. In the St. Lawrence and Ottawa districts the condition is reported as more favourable, and with good weather fair a fair crop will be obtained. In the East Midland district the crop is fair. In the northern districts nothing of any consequence is reported. On the whole it may be concluded that the barley has suffered quite extensively, is backward in growth, but at present is making very rapid progress, and with a continuance of favourable weather will probably come up to nearly the average of the last two years.

OATS.

The reports from every section of the Province are practically the same, and to the following effect: The rains drowned out the crop on low lying fields. On higher lands and those underdrained, little or no damage was done. At the time of reporting the crop was making very rapid growth, and becoming somewhat rank in straw. A few fields baked by the hot sun, but on the whole the prospects were most promising, the only unfavourable report being as to the low lands. The crop is on the whole somewhat more backward than usual, but present conditions point to a yield fully up to the average.

There appears to be less and less of this crop sown every year. As far as reported upon it came through the winter in good condition, was favourably affected by the continued rains, and now is in excellent condition, having made a very heavy growth.

PEAS.

The continued rains did more damage to this crop than to the other spring sown crops. Early sown peas have done well on high lands, but on low lands have suffered heavily. The rains retarded sowing so that a large acreage has been put in late. As a consequence the yield will be a little short in quantity, but at present the quality of the crop is in general all that could be desired. The report from the largest pea counties of the West are quite favourable.

CORN.

In the south-west a considerable quantity had been planted before the rain came, and much of it had to be re-planted. The crop over the Province is backward, growth being checked by cool weather. The condition at present is hardly up to the average. The late start may interfere with the maturing of the southern ensilage varieties. Many report the young crop as not looking very thrifty. From all parts of the Province came reports of replanting, of late planting and of slow growth. Prospects are for a crop a little under the average in quantity.

BUCKWHEAT.

Two-thirds of this crop is grown in the Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence and Ottawa groups. Very little had been sown before the rains came on. At the time of writing farmers were just putting in their crops. The only report possible at this time is that quite an extensive acreage will be grown this year.

BEANS.

Early planted beans, especially in gardens, were cut off by late frosts. Most of the crop has been put in late. The acreage will therefore probably be below the average. While many report that the crop is now coming on well, the general opinion is that the early frosts and the lateness of planting will cause a diminished yield for this year.

TIMOTHY.

A small timothy was winter-killed, but the principal damage has resulted from the cold dry weather of spring and early summer. The reports from all counties are in agreement that we shall have a short crop of hay this year. Old meadows are thin and backward, new meadows are only in fair condition. The rapid growth now being made will not be sufficient to bring the crop up to the average. The prospects are for a crop about two-thirds that of 1893. The crop is late—a month late in some sections. In some places it is heading out on short growth. There is no need to differentiate counties or districts, as all report the same, namely a light crop. The heavy crop of last year may be responsible in part for the light growth of this year.

CLOVER.

This crop has suffered more than timothy. Complaints of winter-killing are universal. The old fields are very patchy and uneven; the new fields are coming on in fair condition. A few report the crop excellent, but the majority report a short and uneven crop of red clover. Alsike, now in bloom, is showing up well. On the whole the clover crop promises to be below the average. Damage by insects is reported from a few counties.

ROOTS AND POTATOES.

Early planted potatoes very much injured by frosts, and large quantities rotted on low lands. Late planted potatoes are now coming on well. The "bug" is not more numerous than usual. The season is not far enough advanced to report upon roots, as sowing is later than usual.

BEES AND HONEY.

Reports regarding the condition of bees are variable. The loss during the winter appears to be about the average where hives were left on the stands, but the mortality appears to have been greater than usual where the bees were wintered indoors. The fine weather of the late March and early April days gave bees an earlier outing than usual, but the wet and cold weather which afterwards prevailed was very trying to the apiary. Several correspondents complained of spring dwindling, and losses from chilled brood and hunger were reported from various parts of the Province. There has been practically no mention made of foul brood. With continued fine weather it was expected that colonies would pick up, and that honey-making would go rapidly forward.

LABOR AND WAGES.

Out of every eight correspondents reporting seven stated that there was a sufficiency of labour, and as regards quality, one out of every three men offering for farm help was considered a poor hand. The result of the large number of men seeking rural employment in the spring and summer resulted in the lowering of the scale of wages. The average amount paid monthly, with board, was $16.48, compared with $17.17 in the previous year. With board monthly wages averaged $24.48, or 2½c. below the average rate of the preceeding year. Day labourers averaged 83 cents with board, a falling off of 5 cents compared with 1893, while working by the day, without board, received but $1.11, or 6 cents less than in the year previous. Domestic servants are still scarce on the farm; the woman question has still to be settled in that quarter.

THE WEATHER.

The average temperature of April was 6 degrees higher than that of 1893 and 4.5 degrees higher than the average of the previous twelve years. The rain fall for April was 1 inch, compared with 2.61 inch in 1893 and 1.60 as the average of the 12 years. The rain fall of May, however, was 5.72 inches, against 3.35 in 1893 and 2.77 as the average of 1882-93. Frost was severe on May 28th and 29th, ice one-quarter of an inch thick being formed in some places. June has, so far, been quite favourable to the growth of the crops.

FRUIT.

The frost has done some damage to fruit. Grape vines have suffered quite extensively in the West, Midland, Lake Huron and Georgian Bay counties. Peach trees were injured to some extent by frost and "leaf curl" is reported by many. There is promise of only a fair crop. Apples are setting well and on the whole promise a good crop, especially east of Toronto. Pears are in good form. Plums and cherries are reported fair. Small fruits give prospect of extra yield. Strawberries on the whole are reported as turning out fairly well. The Essex and Kent and Niagara districts give on the whole very favourable reports as to fruit.

BEAUTIFUL SLEEP

—is an expression used for sound sleep. Nothing is so gratifying to the nerves, heart, and head, as perfect sleep — a companion of good digestion and a healthy liver. A tired digestion fails to assimilate, or take care of, the food we eat. Something bracing or invigorating is needed for the liver, stomach, and intestines.

This is where you will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets do the most good. They are tiny, sugar-coated pills, scarcely larger than mustard seed, made of concentrated botanical extracts. These "Pellets" are easily dissolved in the stomach and absorbed into the blood, stimulating a flow of bile from the liver, and arousing to activity all the glandular secretions. Thus they act in nature's own way.

They're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded, in all Bilious Attacks, in Sick Headache, Constipation, Dizziness, and Indigestion.

It cures Catarrh in the Head — perfectly and permanently — Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S MEETING.

A Large Attendance is Expected at the Annual Convention in Toronto.

The citizens of Toronto are preparing to receive and entertain the young Baptists of the United States and Canada, who will assemble in the Canadian "city of churches" to the number of 6,000 or more to take part in the annual convention of the Baptist Young People's Union of America, July 19 to 22, inclusive. The convention will be held in Massey Music hall, whose immense auditorium—one of the most capacious in the Dominion—will be taxed to the utmost to accommodate the delegates. Every state in the Union will be represented, and the south will send larger delegations than ever before.

More than 100 names of leading Baptists of the United States and Canada are on the programme, and the laity will take a lead ing part in the proceedings. Live issue of the day and the practical problems involved in the young people's work will be the principal topics for discussion. On two days of the meetings the convention will be resolved into a series of workers' conferences, each with its specific programme, ending with open meetings for the free discussion of methods. The auxiliary bodies will meet on Saturday, and on Sunday, the closing day, four large meetings will be held.

The union embraces all young people's societies of whatever name or method in Baptist churches and all Baptist churches having no such organization. No change of names is required when a society affiliates with the union, and all matters affecting the internal organization of a young people's union are left with its own members. So there have been banded together in this way Christian Endeavor societies, Baptist Young People's unions, Loyalist leagues, young people's societies, Working Bands, Young People's guilds and many other societies.

The Baptist Young People's union was formed in the Second Baptist church of Chicago, July 7 and 8, 1891. Nearly 3,000 attended the first meetings. That 3,000 has grown to nearly 75,000 in three years, and the order supports a paper which has a weekly circulation of 24,000. The Union has thirty-three state organizations, every northern state but Montana and Maine having an organization. The last convention was held in Indianapolis last year, with 3,500 delegates. The convention of 1892 was held at Detroit with an attendance of over 4,000, and it is estimated that more than 6,000 will meet in Toronto in July. John H. Chapman of Chicago is president of the union, Frank Harvey Field of New York, is first vice president; A. A. Ayer of Montreal second vice president; Dr. George D. Eager of Alabama third vice president; Dr. Frank L. Wilkins of Chicago, editor of The Baptist Union, general secretary; J. O. Staples, Downer's Grove, Ills., treasurer, and A. M. Brinckle of Philadelphia recording secretary.

Students' Division of Time.

The newspapers are making various comments on the allotment of time recommended to Harvard students by President Eliot, but the most obvious one we have not seen made. His schedule is as follows: For sleep, eight hours; for healthy out of door exercise, two hours, for meals, three hours; for chores, one hour; for work, ten hours. The curious omission is that no time is set for prayer or spiritual meditation. Passing over the suppression of the devotional idea, we are inclined to think that after a student has slept eight hours he must be something of an epicure to spend three of the remaining sixteen in eating. A healthy young fellow ought to be able to eat all that is good for him daily in an hour-and-a-half where there are no social formalities to lengthen out the meals. Two hours is a reasonable time for exercise, but ten for work is out of all proportion for a student.—Rochester Post-Express.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, heartburn and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to be cured.

AUSTERE BUT SYMPATHETIC.

John Morley, a Powerful Speaker and a Vigorous Exponent of Radicalism.

The former chief secretary for Ireland is a man of mark because he possesses the quality and thoroughness in regard to whatever he undertakes. He is genuine, true to himself and loyal to his beliefs, even in the front of party disaster. As a politician he is the butt for many shafts, and the accusations against him have been numerous, blindness to detail, obstinate persistence in his designs, his ideas either too broad or too confined, entire unconsciousness of the duties required or the pleasures of a position of power. Some will grant, even among his greatest admirers, that as a tactician he has at times shown himself to be strangely wanting, but, on the other had, for the ability to address an educated and serious audience, and by his subtle power over speech to carry his hearers with him, convincing them that what he says, and that alone and nothing else, is the right, John Morley is without a rival. In a recent interview he said: "Two men have made me—John Stuart Mill and Mr. Gladstone." To both he has fully repaid any indebtedness. The philosophy of radicalism even as taught by its chief disciple he has vigorously kept alive; toward Mr. Gladstone the most perfect fidelity and the truest devotion have ever been conspicuous. To his party in return for the experience his position of responsibility has afforded him he has given the intellectual force which unceasing study alone can produce. He is the possessor of a physiognomy at once austere, stern and unbending, but his sedateness of demeanor covers a warm sympathy with life's deeper emotions. On common occasions too high above the vulgar mind, his words sometimes appear to fall flat, but once his passion is roused, his sympathies deeply interested and his blood up, there is no man in the English government to day who can speak with clearer argument, greater eloquence or more telling effect than the Right Hon. John Morley.

JOHN MORLEY.

A Tell-Tale Hymn Book.

A short time ago a resident had a sister visiting her from a distance who was not sufficiently well rigged out to attend church with the family on the following Sunday. The remedy was easy. A visit was paid to a leading drapery establishment in the town from which a sealskin jacket was sent home on approbation. It was returned on the Monday following with the usual message that the so-called lady would explain. But, alas! for her tell-tale forgetfulness, a hymn-book was found in the jacket pocket, showing that it had been worn at church on the previous day. The explanation promised was never made.—South Wales Echo.

The Best Medicine.

J. O. WILSON, Contractor and Builder, Sulphur Springs, Texas, thus speaks of Ayer's Pills:

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine I ever tried; and, in my judgment, no better general remedy could be devised. I have used them in my family and recommended them to my friends and employes for more than twenty years. To my certain knowledge, many cases of the following complaints have been completely and by the use of Ayer's Pills alone: Third day chills, dumb ague, bilious fever, sick headache, rheumatism, flux, dyspepsia, constipation, and hard colds. I know that a moderate use of Ayer's Pills, continued for a few days or weeks, as the nature of the complaint required, would be found an absolute cure for the disorders I have named above."

"I have been selling medicine for eight years, and I can safely say that Ayer's Pills give better satisfaction than any other Pill I ever sold."—J. J. Perry, Spottsylvania C. H., Va.
